Factory Distributes Half Million Dollars

Employees Of The Mill Receive $400,000.—Beet Growers Paid $400,000.

Checks from the Lehi sugar factory on the tenth and fifteenth of the month totaled $400,000 or nearly half million dollars.

Employees of the mill, who were paid on the 10th, received a total of $400,000. A little over half of this amount came to Lehi men and girls more than fifty percent of the employees are Lehi people.

Beet pay day was made on the tenth when $400,000 was distributed among beet growers. This was a beet pay day since few farmers were able to get more than a part of their crop into the factory during October, because of extreme weather. The December pay will be several times as large as the October pay. This amount includes checks for all beets received at the factory and not to local farmers.

It is said that the Utah-Idaho company paid a total of $5,000,000 to growers delivering beets to them, amount equaling $10,000,000 was paid by all of the sugar companies of Utah and Idaho.

NEW CATTLE AND STOCK FEED

Dairymen and cattle feeders locally are rejoicing over the recent installation of a sugar Beet Pulp Drier at the West Jordan factory of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Co. This installation means that feeders in this district can now obtain Beet Pulp in such form as to enable them to store it for an indefinite period and SO HAVE IT FOR FEED ALL THE YEAR ROUND.
This is the only Pulp Drier in Utah and Idaho, and already over 8000 bags have been dried.

The value of wet pulp for feed is well known, but farmers locally are comparatively unacquainted with the advantages of the use of Dried Beet Pulp. When it is understood that Dried Beet Pulp is simply the natural beet shredded, clean and pure, with only the greater part of the sugar and water extracted, one can readily understand its possibilities.

The process of drying the Pulp is hygienic in every particular and the drying is accomplished so quickly that there is no opportunity for fermentation and the pulp has no chance to sour.

Dried Beet Pulp under Government tests has been found to be a most palatable, succulent and nutritious vegetable feed. Dairymen find that cattle eat Dried Beet Pulp with great relish, and when deprived of green food, do not suffer in health or fall off in milk production if a suitable proportion of Dried Pulp is included in their ration.

Government tests in Michigan show that Dried Beet Pulp in a mixed diet produces as large and as economical gains as corn.

The government tests in Wisconsin show that Dried Beet Pulp was found better than corn for producing growth in ewe lambs when oats were fed with both.

For steers, numerous tests all over the country reveal that Dried Beet Pulp tends to a more rapid growth and is the best feed obtainable, for the early part of the feeding period.

Cows eat Dried Beet Pulp with great relish and splendid results. In tests where 2 lbs. of Dried Beet Pulp and 5 lbs. of mixed hay replaced 45 lbs. of corn silage, milk cows gave 11% more milk and butter. Dried Beet Pulp is popular with the dairymen who use it, on account of its slightly laxative and cooling effect.
From all information at hand you will be able to feed Dried Beet Pulp from 15 to 20c cheaper than bran.

Get some Dried Beet Pulp and feed it preferably to one cow whose milk record you know. Keep a record of the change in her production after you feed Dried Beet Pulp. It will require only a few days to convince you the advantages to be derived from this feed.

Order your pulp at once, as the quantity is limited. The price is $2.00 per cwt. to all beet growers, delivered f. o. b. their railroad station; and $2.00 per cwt. f. o. b. West Jordan factory to all non beet growers.

Answer to Legion Charges

Editor of the Lehi Sun: Dear Sir:—Knowing your interest in matters pertaining to the welfare of our fair city and its citizens, I ask you to publish the following answer to an article published in your last issue purporting to have been published by the Lehi Post No. 19 of the American Legion, we are pleased to note however, that such was not the case as several Legion members did not endorse such action and personally offered their regrets at the contemptible method suggested therein.
The statements made by the writer are not true as to facts.

It is a well known fact that all business enterprises must have a manager, a head, the Smuin Dancing Academy is no exception to the rule, the manager being Lester B. Smuin an American Legionaire, an ex-service man from over seas, not one of the drafted variety, but a volunteer, he is the man to sign up contracts with those who wish dates reserved.
These are the facts, two weeks prior to Armistice day a representative of Post No. 19 came to me and asked could the hall be secured for that night, November 11th, I answered that I could not give a definite answer that he must see or telephone the manager, but he did not do so although Lester was down three times, spending the entire day here on election day and could easily have been seen had they wanted to see him or made any effort to do so. Furthermore I took it upon myself to personally see Mr. Leo Goates and advise him that if they wanted the hall they had better make their reservation, they failed to do so and not another word was spoken about the matter, consequently when the time arrived to announce our dance we went ahead believing that the Legion boys had abandoned their idea of giving a dance on that date. The person who wrote the article admits that they never made a reservation, such fact is plainly visible to any one who will carefully read the article referred to which is as follows: "We the members of the Post No. 19 American Legion, wish to inform the public that this date was taken away from us after we had spoken for it and had not yet completed arrangements with the management." Would any sane man say that you can take away from a person that which he hath not? or expect some one to enter into a contract for him without authority to do so, I think not.

The circumstance is the result of inefficiency, negligence and a total disregard for business rules and ethics which is pitiful to behold in those entrusted with the management of our local Post. The writer reminds me of a spoiled child, who is in his impotent rage works himself into a fury because some one is not a mind reader capable of anticipating his wishes and granting them without his asking for what he wants. The article is obviously false as to facts and in-substance is maliciously misleading and curdled. I feel justly proud of the record of my two boys in the service of our country, proud of our hall and what little we have done to build up our city and of our actions in what we have done in giving all the support possible during the war to every good cause, and at all times to any and every charitable and worthy purpose commensurate with our ability so to do, but we insist in running our business to suit our selves and not leaving it to every meddlesome upstart or rattle brained jackknape to tell us what we shall do.
Let him come in whatsoever guise he may. We appreciate our friends and the patronage of the public. Courteous treatment, good clean service to the public under as liberal terms as good sound business principles will permit is ever our motto.

Yours very respectfully, J. B. SMUIN.

ant Grove visitor Tuesday.

Services For Fredrick Harrison

Appropriate funeral services were held Sunday afternoon over the remains of Fredrick S. Harrison, who was killed in France in 1918 while serving his country. The body was brought back home under the supervision of the United States government and arrived in Lehi Wednesday of last week. The Lehi American Legion Post No. 19 conducted the services with Secretary B. W. Gray taking charge.

Services opened with a trio singing, "One Sweet Solemn Thought," followed by invocation pronounced by Senator Edward Southwick. Next in order was a solo by Prof. Abraham Anderson. Speakers included Lt. Col.
Jorgenson, of Salt Lake, Elder A. B.
Anderson and Leo W. Goates. The latter also read resolutions of respect from the Lehi Service Star Legion.
Each one of the speakers paid tributes to the young man for the great part he took in protecting America and the world from the ambitious Central powers. Other musical numbers included solos by Miss Lillian Kundsen and Mrs. Amy Blackhurst and a trio by Miss Kunds-en, Mrs. Blackhurst and Prof. Anderson. Benediction was pronounced by Councilman M. S. Lott.

A very large number of Lehi citizens and friends attended the services, paying their last respects to one of Lehi's soldiers. The American Legion members and the Service Star Legion attended in a body.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT BY SERVICE STAR LEGION

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father, in His all-wise providence, to remove from our midst, Corporal Fredrick Harrison, (the beloved son of our dear sister Elizabeth Creighton) who departed from this life April 26, 1919.

Resolved, that we, the members of the Service Star Legion of Lehi do extend to Mrs. Creighton and family, our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this their hour of sorrow, trusting that in this their earthly loss, they may be able to see the Divine Power "beyond whose love and care we cannot drift." Be it further resolved;

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. Creighton, a copy be placed upon the records of the Service Star Legion, and a copy be sent to the Lehi Sun for publication.

IONE GILCHRIST,
ALICE TUCKFIELD,
LOUIE GOATES,
Committee.

Mrs. John R. Bone of Lindon, was the guest of Lehi relatives Tuesday.
