The Kinney Case.

The trial of L. B. Kinney, indicted for assault with deadly weapon, took place yesterday, occupying the entire day. This is the case about which some particulars were published shortly after the occurrence. It was then stated that about the 15th of February, the defendant, Kinney, of Brigham, the defendant, took a sleigh ride, and it being reported to the owners of the horse that he was driving them furiously, sent Thomas Mercer to bring the team back. The result was some blows, in which young Kinney was knocked down, and the judge was knocked down also, it being claimed that he drew a pistol and attempted to use it. The various charges were given to the court. The trial was still in progress when the court adjourned.

Prospectus of the Utah and Northern Guide.

The undersigned will soon commence the publication of a Guide to the country through which the Utah and Northern Railroad passes, with directories of all the towns located along the line from Ogden to Heber, and will contain an elaborate and well-executed Map of the country traversed, and be what its name suggests—a complete Guide or Lock of ready-reference. The reading matter and advertisements will be alternated and arranged so that each business announcement will occupy a conspicuous place, where it must be seen and read. The book will contain over 300 pages, will be well printed and bound, and will be sold to subscribers for $2 single numbers; special rates to advertisers and large orders. Our agents are now in the field. Address, JUNCTION PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION, Ogden, Utah.

ON TOP OF THE HEAP.

Isaac Sears, the grain dealer, has come right out to the front, and sought out the FINEST GRAINS IN TOWN, half-bred Norman horses, which he drives to his delivery wagon. He keeps the finest stock of SEEDS, GRAIN, FLOUR, FEED, etc., for sale. Farmers and stock raisers should give him a call at 1245 First South street. a29

Arrested for Stealing.

On Monday evening a person named Charles Fisher was arrested on a charge of having stolen from a person named Colby, an employe at Walker's, a pair of Extra Large Calfs, the cost of $40. Fisher was taken before Judge Pyper, but asked for a continuance until he could secure counsel for his defense; the case was therefore postponed until 10 o'clock this morning. Fisher's bonds being placed at $200, but failing to furnish that amount he remains in jail.
