WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1880.

THE DAILY HERALD is published every morning, Monday excepted, at Salt Lake City, by the HERALD PRINTING AND PUBLISHING COMPANY...

THE SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD is published every Wednesday and Saturday morning, at $2.00 a year...

THE WEEKLY HERALD is published every Thursday morning, at $2 a year...

ATHENS, Ga., has had its experience with a third young man from England. All American towns must come in contact with a young lord...

It is said the republicans, realizing the necessity of presenting the democratic success in New York next November, are contemplating a change in the method of choosing presidential electors...

One of the passengers on the ill-fated Narragansett, that went down in the collision on Long Island Sound a few nights ago, said to the men who were trying to save the unhappy paper: "Never mind me, I'm an old woman; save the young."

It looks as if there were to be an epidemic of steamboat disasters. Ten days ago the Narragansett's frightful catastrophe occurred, and within the succeeding twelve hours two other boats came in collision...

THE INTERNATIONAL SHOOT

The Americans Win. "Never Such Scoring Before." Daily Mount, 29.—Eight hundred yard range: American, 456; Irish, 456.

The weather, early this morning, was very threatening, but towards 11 the wind shifted to the west. It then became clear, but not muzzling the wind blowing straight on the target, unfavorable for high scoring.

The air was tolerably clear and soft. There was a considerable display of American and Irish shooting on the way hither from Dublin. Flowers are decorated with evergreen, welcoming notices, etc.

The Irish team fire on targets one and two in squads: John Rigby, Wm. Rigby and James on target No. 1; Fenton, Joynt and Young on target No. 2.

The Americans fire on targets Nos. 5 and 6 thus: Rathbone, Farrow and Brown on target No. 5, and Clark, Cotton and Fisher on No. 6.

A Tilt With Time.

Ladies in their attempts to baffle Time are bound to receive some wounds in the encounter. These, however, they can conceal, as far as the complexion is concerned, by a timely and regular resort to the use of "Gloss's Sulphur Soap."

Without obtruding the pores, or in any way injuring the health of the skin, it removes from the surface pimples, redness and the various disfigurements caused by increasing age or exposure to the sun. Beware of counterfeits. See that "G. N. CHITTON, Proprietor," is printed on each package, without which some impostor may be deceived.

Sold by all druggists at 25 cents; three cakes, 60 cents. Time touches the hair as well as the complexion. But the unsalient old fellow can be defied here, too, with "HILL'S INSTANTANEOUS HAIR DYE," which restores the tint of youth on the grizzled brow of age. It is the cheapest and safest dye in use.

PLEASANT, WHOLESOME, SPARKY. Three adjectives that apply to HALL'S HONEY OF HONEY TOOTH AND TAIL. PIKE'S TOOTHACHE CURE in one Minute.
