Fast Mail. Washington, 29.—The new fast mail train between Boston and New York placed New York morning newspapers on the streets at 10 a. m. The train was not to reach Richmond on schedule time. "Fast mails and slow politics" was one of the toasts at dinner.

This council of judges is empowered to meet under the provisions of the act, and to make recommendations regarding the constitution of law courts and the status of judges. It is thought it will recommend that the office of chief justice of the exchequer and chief justice of common pleas be allowed to lapse.

The Jersey Lily. New York, 28.—World's London: It is formerly announced that Mr. Langtry, the husband of the late Mrs. Langtry, will shortly sail for America on business, and it is extremely probable that he will take with him his beautiful wife who has done so much for his success. Mr. Langtry's business in your country is of an uncertain kind, but I understand that he has a large estate in England, and that he is to be kept in the United States. As all things are in London, the season now come from New York on the modern principle of reciprocity, it is only fair that England should send you one in exchange.

New York, 28.—Gen. Grant and ex-Minister Romero, of Mexico, attended a meeting today in Beecher's Church, Brooklyn. The conversation became aware of the presence of alleged slanders against Grant and remained in their seats. Mr. Beecher informed the congregation that the services were ended and asked that they all stand and sing. There was no manifestation of opposition on the people to leave before Grant and Romero. Mr. Beecher then said, "This house is for the worship of God, not for the dispersal of the seats being retained, Grant and Romero left the church followed by the whole congregation."

Fires. Norfolk, Va., 28.—Two hundred bales of cotton belonging to the British steamer Sandingham, and stored on Baker's wharf, were nearly destroyed by fire today. Insurance. Of course the box was burned, but small loss was inflicted. The engine, San Francisco, 29.—Koreka, Nevada, dispatcher: The blasting works and blacksmith shop of the Wales Consolidated Mine burned today. Loss, $100,000. The miners escape by another outlet. The works will be reconstructed at an early day.

Garfielders. Chicago, 28.—Inter-Ocean's Washington: Garfield leaves for home on Monday morning. His public business has really ended. He is expected to return to his home at the Christian Church service this morning and look to his relations with Sherman. It is safe to say that no person whatever knows anything about the relations of Garfield and Sherman. The latter, however, will not be disappointed in his position unless beaten in his senatorial race.

Washington, 29.—Garfield left for home this morning, so as to be home on Wednesday night, on which day he has been notified that the electoral college of Ohio desire to call upon him, after having cast their votes for Garfield. He was at a friend's, that he had not yet decided upon a single member of his cabinet, and that he would not before Wednesday. It has not been decided whether Sherman to remain, as reported.

Two Southern Views. Chicago, 28.—The Tribune has a Washington special giving a hopeful view of the political situation from Judge L. Cross, of Georgia, who thinks the south chiefly friendly towards Garfield, and is disposed to be reasonable in all matters heretofore under discussion. The south, he says, makes no claim to recognition in the cabinet, and is steadily growing local in sentiment, and getting more to love the Constitution and government. The southern people are fond of their members of their history and of the name of their section, but they are more in the logic of events, that loyalty means property, that sectionalism means ruin, and that they are not to be content when the loyal south will be disloyal and the loyal south be as warm as that of New England. To accomplish this Garfield will not make the mistake of his predecessor, in accepting lip-service for honest patriotism. It is distinction to this man's picture. Roger G. Mills, of Texas, says the democracy failed on account of failing to act and combat the protective tariff issue and all protection monopolies. They pursued the penny wise economy, and crippled government, routine down party politics, and so on. The tariff question is only just begun, and the south will remain solid. States rights will continue to combat centralization, and the future of the democratic party is assured.

How to Vote. Chicago, 29.—Journal's Washington: Jewell had a consultation with Chairman Hobbell and McPherson, of the committee to-day, and it was decided to telegraph at once to the electors of the nineteen states carried by the republicans, requesting them, at the meeting of their respective electoral colleges, to cast their votes for James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur, but not for James Abram Garfield or J. A. Garfield, or C. A. Arthur. This course is advised so as to insure regularity in the returns from every state, and to prevent the vote being so as to deprive democrats of any pretext for raising the question about returns when the votes are counted in February.

Sherman and Silver. New York, 29.—The Tribune says a Washington dispatch announces that Sherman will propose a common sense way out of the silver dollar dilemma. He will ask that the coinage of the present standard silver be suspended until the huge accumulation in the treasury vaults be received into dollars containing sufficient silver to make the metal in the vault go to use, and keep the two coins in circulation together. The secretary will show that it can be done practically without expense to government. The President will support the sensible suggestion in his message.

Foreign Flashes. London, 28.—Chiliana occupied Fiji, 120 miles south of Lima, on the 29th inst., without opposition. Calcutta, 28.—News from the outbreak in Cashmere is reassuring. The Maharaja, however, pushing forward reinforcements. Events toward the speedy evacuation of Khyber, the sole remaining province of the British campaign in northern Afghanistan. Paris, 29.—It is understood the withdrawal is arranged of 12,500,000 francs for America.

The conference adjourned until Monday. London, 28.—The French minister was expected to arrive in Mexico, General Francisco Mena, ex-governor of Guajaray, has been appointed minister to Germany. General Freyre has been offered the portfolio of war, and is en route for the capital.

The Northern Pacific. New York, 29.—Drexel, Morgan & Co., Winslow, Larnier & Co., and August Belmont & Co., have made a contract with the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for $10,000,000 of 4 percent bonds, forty years to run, the bonds to be issued only as the road is finished and accepted by government. The three firms named above as contractors for the loan have associated with them Messrs. Drexel & Co., of Philadelphia, J. S. Morgan & Co., of London, and Drexel, Harjes & Co., of Paris. In this city the associates are the Bank of Commerce, Third National Bank, Messrs. Von Hoffman & Co., J. W. Seligman & Co., J. S. Kennedy & Co., Speyer & Co., Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Washburn & Co., and Co. to Boston, Messrs. Lee, Higginson & Co., and Basset & Co. in Baltimore. John B. Ayer, John Hoop, of Adams, and the Commercial Union Bank, have put down $5,000,000. This fund will be managed by the contributors, who in investment and disbursements will vote in proportion to their contributions.

Military Matters. Chicago, 28.—Inter-Ocean's Washington: General Miles arrived to-day, and the squabble over the signal service appointment has been settled. It is understood that both Hayes and Garfield favor Hayes, and it is now believed he will be appointed by government. The executive has made-up of his own mind, and will return to his post in Italy next August. He says the church has in Italy fifteen pastors, fifteen lay preachers, 1,500 communicants, 4,200 children in schools under twenty-one teachers, 800 Sunday school scholars, and seven hundred in the theological seminary, which is located within 400 yards of the Vatican, at Rome, and two professors. There were now five different Protestant evangelizing agencies in Italy—the Baptist, American, Episcopal, Wesleyan, English, Waldensian and Free Church of Italy—the last two being mainly supported by Presbyterians and Congregationalists.

The Killed Lieutenant-Governor. Denver, 29.—There seems to be some uncertainty about the hanging of Lieutenant-Governor Robinson at Robinson's Camp last night. The particulars, so far as heard, are these: There is a dispute about the possession of the gallows, and a guard had been placed to watch it. Last night Governor Robinson and the manager of the mine were in the gallows. The guard not recognizing them, and not hearing an answer to the inquiry who they were, fired, he says, into the rock in four places. He is still lying, but his wounds are believed fatal. The fact that there has been trouble between the miners and manager during the last week, the guard's story and the peculiarity of the wounds make the theory that it was socialists a most likely one.

Denver, 29.—Lieutenant-Governor Robinson died this morning at 10 o'clock. It was an accident or murder is not fully settled, but a post mortem examination, to-day, will probably throw some light on the subject.

BISHOP SHARP.

He Entertains a New York Reporter. New York, 28.—Jas. Sharp, one of the twenty-one Mormon bishops, is here. He is president and superintendent of the Utah Central and Utah Southern Railroads, and vice-president and superintendent of the Utah Southern Extension. Being interviewed, he said the death of Brigham Young, had not altered the Mormon policy. We do not expect railroad extension or mine developments to interfere with us, as Mormons, or with Mormon institutions in the west. Along the line of the Utah Southern Extension, all classes of settlers and capitalists. They give us no trouble and we do not interfere with them. We aid each other. There are, of course, some who are restless, some do-gooders, and a smattering of big-bodies, always trying to create sensation, always attributing their failure to get up in the world to Mormonism, but they don't amount to much. Single-tons of the people are Mormons and very few of the younger people leave the faith, while additions are constantly being made by immigration. Two thousand immigrants arrived at Salt Lake this season from Europe. The question of trials which became head of the church, and the death of Brigham Young, still retain their power. Their functions as apostles have been in no way affected. The church is still the same. John Taylor, its prophet, or its successor, chosen to act with him. He further said Utah was anxious to be admitted as a state, and that only a polygamy part of the Mormon faith, but it is obligatory. Those who say otherwise are not Mormons, or do not know what they are talking of. Some make their conversions easy with only a wife, on one pretext or other, and double in some individual cases polygamy is imprudent or perhaps impossible. It is not compulsory, as there are no laws against it, and it is not a part of our religious faith, and it cannot be rooted out. Since the decision of the Reynolds case there has perhaps been a comparative lull in the subject, but it is not out of the decision any more than it is to the fact that Mormon girls are the devotees of style and fashion, as much as New York girls. Young men find it somewhat harder to support more than one family than their fathers and grandfathers did. Before the decision was made we did not believe that the anti-polygamy law of 1862 was constitutional, and paid no attention to it, but of course now it is law, and it has a certain effect."
