A ROMANCE.

A year ago a miner in Colorado stopped over night in a half-way house, where he shared the hospitalities of the landlord. He had a tolerably fair "claim" and was doing pretty well. He fell in love with the landlord's daughter. She fell in love with him. Sitting late in the light of the moon they held sweet converse together. She confessed to a reciprocity of feeling and promised to be his. The landlord, hid behind a woodpile, heard the whole thing. Quickly emerging from his concealment he boxed his daughter's ears, sent her to bed, and bade the honest and astonished miner to step down and out. He did so. An hour later he returned. All hands were asleep except the weeping maid. A pebble on her window suggested her lover's presence. A look told the story. In a trice she donned her store clothes and by means of a shed easily joined him on the ground. Then they lit out. Subsequently they sought a parson on their eastward way, and, after a series of ups and downs, found themselves in a New York garret, with no money, no work, no friends, no nothing except three little blue-eyed babies—a boy and two girls—half a yard of flannel, a single bed cot, a stove, a table and two chairs. Let me tell you that these three children are a "topic of interest" to one woman at least. In that heated garret—and I don't believe you know how infernally hot a garret can get in these fearful dog days—on a narrow cot lies the hapless mother with her three babies. They are bouncers. The boy is a sturdy little brute, with fists and a bullet head, and the girls are bright, sweet-faced little chaps, perfectly formed and ready for milk all the time. The man's condition would be comical if he had money, but as he hasn't a dollar in the world it's rather dismal. I dare say they will be helped somehow, but as a romance thus far the Colorado girl's life is quite a success, isn't it—or is it?

AN ORDINANCE

Licensing and Regulating the Sale of Spirituous and Fermented Liquors.

SECTION 1.—Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, That no person, firm or corporation shall, within the corporate limits of said city, directly, or indirectly, in person or by another, sell, barter, or otherwise dispose of, or permit to be bartered or delivered, for or on his account, any vinous, spirituous or fermented liquors without a license first obtained according to the provisions of this Ordinance.

SEC. 2.—Applications for license under this Ordinance shall be made in writing to the Mayor, and shall state where the business is to be carried on, the kind of business, the full name of the applicant, and if a firm, the full name of each member thereof.

SEC. 3.—On the granting of such license and payment to the City Treasurer, for the use and benefit of said City, of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, the Mayor shall issue a license to the applicant to carry on business in the place named in the application, for a period of three months, as a liquor dealer, to sell vinous, spirituous and fermented liquors, at wholesale and retail, and by the dram, to be drunk on the premises, if so stated in the application.

SEC. 4.—No license granted under this Ordinance shall be assignable or transferable, or authorize any person or persons other than those named in the license, to carry on the business therein specified; and no person or persons shall carry on the business provided for in this Ordinance at any other place than the one designated in such license: Provided, That the City Council may, on application by the parties interested, authorize the assignment of the license, or a change in the place of business.

SEC. 5.—The Mayor, whenever in his judgment the peace, good order or safety of the city or its inhabitants shall require it, and on Municipal, County or Territorial election days, Fourth of July, Decoration, Thanksgiving and all Territorial and National holidays, may, by proclamation, forbid the sale, giving away, or in any way disposing of vinous, spirituous or fermented liquors for any given period, not to exceed twenty-four hours at any one time, and any person who shall sell, barter or give away any vinous, spirituous or fermented liquors in contravention of such proclamation shall, on conviction, be fined not to exceed ninety-nine dollars for each offense, any license to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 6.—Any person obtaining license under this ordinance shall be subject to the following regulations: He shall faithfully observe and keep all ordinances in force in relation to liquor during the period of such license; he shall not keep open his bar, house or place for the sale of liquors, nor sell, give away, nor in any manner deal in by himself, servant or other person, any vinous, spirituous or fermented liquors after the hour of 10 o'clock p.m., or before the hour of 6 o'clock a.m., on any day of the week; he shall prohibit all gaming, with or without betting, by means of dominoes, cards, dice or other articles, every game of chance, and every other description of gaming or gambling; and on the proclamation of the Mayor for all liquor establishments to be closed, he shall discontinue business during the period of such proclamation. He shall not in anywise dispose of liquors to any person under sixteen years of age, nor to any person intoxicated, nor to any Indian; he shall prohibit music, dancing, drunkenness and all riotous or disorderly conduct on his premises. He shall not barter, sell or give away any spirituous, vinous or fermented liquors, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, except he be the keeper of a drug store, and then only for medicinal purposes on the prescription of a regularly licensed physician, and any person violating any of the provisions of this section, shall, on conviction thereof be fined in any sum not exceeding ninety-nine dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding one hundred days, or both fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 7.—If any person shall sell or otherwise dispose of, or keep any house or place within the corporate limits of this city, for the purpose of selling, or otherwise disposing of vinous, spirituous or fermented liquors, without first having obtained a license therefor, as herein provided, he shall, on conviction thereof, pay a fine of not to exceed ninety-nine dollars for the first offense, and if convicted of a second offense, a fine of ninety-nine dollars, and be imprisoned not to exceed thirty days; and for each subsequent conviction a fine of ninety-nine dollars and imprisonment not to exceed one hundred days.

SEC. 8.—Any person violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance, for which no penalty is herein provided, shall on conviction pay a fine not to exceed ninety-nine dollars for each offense.

SEC. 9.—All ordinances and parts of ordinances relating to the sale of vinous, spirituous or fermented liquors, in conflict herewith are hereby repealed: Provided, the repeal of such ordinances shall not affect any rights accrued or liabilities for fines and penalties incurred; but all such rights and liabilities may be maintained and enforced the same as if said ordinances and parts of ordinances had remained in full force.

THE CASE AGITATOR THRESHER AHEAD!

THE BEST THRESHER AND GRAIN SAVER IN THE WORLD.

KAYSVILLE, Davis Co., August 6th, 1881.

John W. Lowell:
Dear Sir.—This will certify that I witnessed for one whole day, on the 4th inst., the operation of the Agitator Thresher of the Case manufacture, sold by John W. Lowell to Bishop Barton and others at Kaysville. As I have built Separators and run them in this country, I ought to be competent to judge of their merits. The Case Agitator threshes fast and is very easy on the horses. It cleans grain well and absolutely WASTES NO GRAIN. I saw it work for hours in wet Barley and wet and weedy Oats, and it did its work well, and threshed nearly 100 bushels an hour. The only trouble I saw with it was, that one man with a patent tailer, could not measure the grain as fast as the Agitator threshed it, as all who were present will testify. I recommend the Case Agitator as the best thresher I have ever seen.
GEORGE CLAWSON.

KAYSVILLE, Davis Co., August 9th, 1881.

John W. Lowell:
Dear Sir.—In reply to your inquiry we will state that we are running the Agitator Thresher, sold by you to Bishop Barton and others. It is doing most excellent work, very easy to feed, capacity very large, have tried it in very weedy and damp grain, both wheat and oats, and never saw a machine with easier draft on the horses, or run so smoothly and do as good work. Many have been to see it run and have expressed the same opinion. No chance for any grain to be carried off with the straw; the Elevator works like a charm—never saw any to equal it. We are satisfied it excels any machine we ever saw, and we feel exceedingly well pleased with it.
