TELEGRAPHIC FOREST FIRES.

How they are Devastating the Country.

Drouth and Storms are Helping with the Ruin.

Ottawa, 1.—Bush fires are reported on all sides of here, with great destruction of property. A Toronto dispatch says the fires are rapidly extending along the borders of the timbered country, a high wind fanning the flame. Telegraph communication is either totally or seriously interrupted. A special report says the fires are most disastrous. Already there are thirty cases of farmers having their orchards and buildings burned. In Gravelhurst section several farmhouses and barns, with their contents, burned to-day. North of Bracebridge the fires are more intense than in the township. Stephenson, an old sick man, was carried out of a burning house a considerable distance, and placed in charge of two little girls. Shortly afterwards those lighting the fire found the old man dead, and the children missing. It is believed they perished. Fires rage all about Belleville and the smoke is so dense opposite the shores that the bay cannot be seen. The villages of Roslin and Sterling have only been saved from destruction by the active exertions of the inhabitants. In the township of Madoc a large amount of property was destroyed, including dwellings, barns, crops, implements, fences, etc. Never have the woods been in a dryer condition. Bracebridge tells of immense destruction of property and the loss of two children in the flames. Galt and Chesapeake, Ont., report a very severe rainstorm to-day. Thunder, lightning and hailstones were accompaniments. At Galt the streets were flooded and several houses were struck by lightning. Thomas Swinton, aged 19, was killed instantly by lightning, while working on a farm. A span of horses he was driving was also killed. A brother working with him was struck. The wife of John McPhalar, a farmer near Clyde was instantly killed by lightning while sitting in the house at Chesapeake. Several barns were destroyed by lightning. The storm lasted two hours, accompanied by hail, some of the stones measuring two and a half inches in circumference.

Milford, Penn., 1.—Forest fires are breaking out all along the Delaware Valley and the sun is entirely obscured by smoke. No rain of any account since the 9th of July. Large fires are reported in Palmyra township.

Fredericksburg, Va., 1.—The unprecedented drought prevailing in northern Virginia has been disastrous to the corn crop. In some portions rain has not fallen in three months. There is no food for cattle and in some cases the people travel thirty miles. On the upper Rappahannock water is hauled from the river for household use.

Trenton, N. J., 1.—Crops and cattle are suffering from the drouth which extends the whole length and breadth of the state. The Blue Mountains, New Jersey, are blazing for miles, the dense smoke obscuring the sun. The heat is intense. In the northern part of Hudson County, where the water supply is entirely derived from wells, residents are compelled to carry water from Jersey City and Hoboken, paying as high as $10 a load. The North Hudson County Railroad Company, who have about 600 horses at West Hoboken, cart all their water in large iron tanks. The Burlington reports say the Delaware River and all streams are uncommonly low. Wells, cisterns and springs afford barely enough water for family use. Corn crops and pastures are burning up. Not even a vestige of green can be seen in many fields.

Buffalo, 1.—The drouth in this section is very severe. Farm products are very poor and short of the usual crop.

Ontario, 2.—In the Odessa section the damage done to timber alone will be $80,000. Many farmhouses are burned. Smoke obscures the sun. The fires make the atmosphere uncomfortably warm. The losses are estimated at $1,000,000.

French Politics.

New York, 1.—Cablegrams: The electoral agitation in France is still far from ended, though it has been marked lately by no such sensational incidents as those which occurred during Gambetta's canvass at Belleville a fortnight ago. Last night, however, Rochefort had a curious misadventure at an electoral meeting in the arrondissements. Republican candidates had been addressing their enlightened constituents at Elysee Montmartre, when Rochefort, who is an elector in this district, entered the room. Considerable excitement followed, and the witty pamphlet was forced to ascend the platform. "There is your grave-digger," cried an anti-Gambettist on his appearance, speaking to Rane presumably. Rochefort then attempted to address the crowd, but his friends and foes together made such an uproar that he could not get in a word, and after a few minutes withdrew with a smile and shrug of the shoulders. M. Sick, a Gambettist in disguise, who is next Sunday to be pitted against Tony Revillon in the Twentieth Arrondissement, is having quite a lively time of it with his electors. His chances are very slender, although with perhaps more smartness than candor he has repudiated all connection with Gambetta, and virtually adopted the programme of his opponent. The Intertransigence wittily remarks: The Gambettist watchword at Chironne is sic volo jubeo. One would have thought Gambettism was sick enough already in the Twentieth Arrondissement.

Cable Cities.

Berlin, 2.—At a chess congress, to-day, the match game between Mason, of New York, and Berger, of Graz, resulted in a draw.

The minister of the interior has instructed the authorities to deal energetically with all anti-Jewish outrages by dissolving the meetings and arresting agitators, if necessary.

Irishmen.

Dublin, 2.—At the annual meeting of the property holders' association to-day, it was resolved to put the association on a permanent basis for three years. The society has 120 men out as caretakers and 160 saving crops. Parnell will direct the meeting at Dungarvan to-day. Patrick Egan will be the Parnellite candidate for Moneghgan.
