California Congressmen Trying it on with a New Anti-Chinese Bill.

Washington, 12.—Following is the full text of the new Chinese bill framed by Miller, Jones and Page, yesterday, and which having been this morning agreed to by the majority of the House committee on education and labor, will be offered by Page in the House of representatives next Monday, with the committee's recommendation for its passage under a suspension of the rules.

A bill to execute certain treaty stipulations relating to Chinese. Whereas, in the opinion of the government of the United States, the coming of Chinese laborers to this country endangers the good order of certain localities within the Territory; therefore,

Be it enacted, etc., that from and after the expiration of sixty days next after the passage of this act, and until the expiration of ten years next after the passage of this act, the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States be and the same is hereby suspended, and during such suspension it shall not be lawful for any Chinese laborer to come, or having so come after the expiration of said sixty days, to remain within the United States.

Sec. 2.—That any master of any vessel of whatever nationality, who shall knowingly on such vessel bring within the jurisdiction of the United States and permit to be landed, any Chinese laborer from any foreign port or place, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each and every Chinese laborer so landed, and may be also imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year.

Sec. 3.—That the two foregoing sections shall not apply to Chinese laborers who were in the United States on the 17th day of November, 1880, or who shall have come into the same before the expiration of sixty days after the passage of this act, and in order to furnish them with the proper evidence of their right to go from and come to the United States of their will and accord as provided by the treaty between the United States and China, dated November 17th, 1880, the collector of customs of the district from which any such Chinese shall depart from the United States, shall, in person, or by deputy, go on board each vessel having on board any such Chinese laborers, and being cleared or about to sail from his district for a foreign port, and on such vessel make a list of all such Chinese, which shall be entered in registry books to be kept for that purpose, in which shall be stated the name, age, occupation, place of residence, physical marks or peculiarities, and all facts necessary for the identification of each of such Chinese, which books shall be safely kept in the custom house and every such Chinese so departing from the United States shall be entitled to and shall receive, upon application therefor, from the collector or his deputy at the time such list is taken, a certificate signed by the collector or his deputy and attested by his seal of office, in such form as the secretary of the treasury shall prescribe, which certificate shall contain the name, age, occupation, last place of residence, personal description and facts of identification of the Chinese to whom the certificate is issued, corresponding with said list and registry in all particulars.

Sec. 4.—That for the purpose of properly identifying Chinese laborers who were in the United States on the 17th day of November, 1880, or who shall have come into the same before the expiration of sixty days after the passage of this act, and in order to furnish them with the proper evidence of their right to go from and come to the United States of their will and accord as provided by the treaty between the United States and China, dated November 17th, 1880, the collector of customs of the district from which any such Chinese shall depart from the United States, shall, in person, or by deputy, go on board each vessel having on board any such Chinese laborers, and being cleared or about to sail from his district for a foreign port, and on such vessel make a list of all such Chinese, which shall be entered in registry books to be kept for that purpose, in which shall be stated the name, age, occupation, place of residence, physical marks or peculiarities, and all facts necessary for the identification of each of such Chinese, which books shall be safely kept in the custom house and every such Chinese so departing from the United States shall be entitled to and shall receive, upon application therefor, from the collector or his deputy at the time such list is taken, a certificate signed by the collector or his deputy and attested by his seal of office, in such form as the secretary of the treasury shall prescribe, which certificate shall contain the name, age, occupation, last place of residence, personal description and facts of identification of the Chinese to whom the certificate is issued, corresponding with said list and registry in all particulars.

Sec. 5.—That any Chinese laborer living in the United States under the provisions of the treaty between the United States and China, dated Nov. 17, 1880, and desiring to depart from the United States by land shall have a right to demand and receive a certificate of identification similar to that provided in such section four of this act, to be issued to such Chinese laborers as he may desire to leave the United States by water, and it is hereby made the duty of the collector of customs of the district next adjoining the foreign country to which said Chinese laborer desires to go to issue such certificate upon application by such Chinese laborer, and to enter the same upon registry books to be kept by him for that purpose, as provided for by section four of this act.

Sec. 6.—That in order to the faithful execution of articles one and two of the treaty before in this act mentioned, every Chinese who may be entitled by said treaty and this act to come within the United States except such as resided in the United States on the 17th of Nov. 1880, or who shall have come within the United States within sixty days next after the passage of this act, shall obtain the permission of the Chinese government in each case to be evidenced by a certificate issued by said government, which certificate shall be in the English language or accompanied by a translation into English, showing such permission, which certificate shall state the name, title or official rank, if any, the age, height and all physical peculiarities, former and present occupation, or profession and the place of residence in China, of the person to whom the certificate is issued, and that such person is entitled by the treaty in this act mentioned to come within the United States. Such certificates shall be prima facie evidence of the facts set forth therein, and shall be produced to the collector of customs, of the port in the district, in the United States, which the person named therein shall arrive.

Sec. 7.—That any person who shall knowingly alter or substitute any name for the name written in such certificate, or forge any such certificate or falsely personate any person named in any such certificate, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction of any offense mentioned in this section, the guilty person shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $1,000, and imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term not more than five years.

Sec. 8.—That the master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign place, shall at the same time he delivers a manifest of the cargo, and if there be no cargo, then at the time of the making of a report of the entry of the vessel pursuant to law, in addition to the other matter required to be reported and before landing or permitting to land any Chinese passengers, deliver and report to the collector of customs of the district in which such vessel shall have arrived, a separate list of all Chinese passengers taken on board his vessel at any foreign port or place, and all such passengers on board the vessel at the time. Such list shall show the names of such passengers, and if accredited officers of the Chinese government, traveling on business of that government, with a note of such facts, and the names and other particulars as shown by the respective certificates of other Chinese passengers, and such list shall be sworn to by the master in the manner required by law, in relation to the manifest of the cargo. Any refusal or neglect of the master to comply with the provision of this section, shall incur the same penalties and forfeit as are provided for refusal or neglect to report and deliver the manifest of the cargo.

Sec. 9.—That before any Chinese passengers are landed from any such vessel, the collector or his deputy shall proceed to examine such passengers, comparing the certificates with the list and with the passengers, and no passenger shall be allowed to land in the United States from such vessel in violation of law.

Sec. 10.—That every vessel whose master shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed forfeited to the United States, and shall be liable to seizure and condemnation in any district of the United States into which such vessel may enter, or in which she may be found.

Sec. 11.—That any person who shall knowingly bring into or cause to be brought into, or shall aid or abet the bringing or the coming into the United States by land, or who shall land or aid or abet the landing in the United States from any vessel of any Chinese not authorized by law to enter the United States shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall for each person so brought or aided to come into the United States or landed, be fined in the sum of $100 and imprisoned for a term not to exceed one year.

Sec. 12.—That no Chinese shall be permitted to enter the United States by land without producing to the proper officer of customs the certificate herein required of Chinese seeking to land from a vessel any Chinese unlawfully entering within the United States or who shall unlawfully enter the United States in any way, either by land or water, shall be removed therefrom to the place whence they came by the collector of customs of any collection district in which such Chinese may be found, at the cost of the United States, under such regulations as the secretary of the treasury may prescribe.

Sec. 13.—That this act shall not apply to diplomatic and other officers of the Chinese government, traveling upon the business of that government, whose credentials in the usual form shall be taken as equivalent to the certificate in this act mentioned, and shall exempt their body and household servants from the provisions of this act and no other Chinese.

Sec. 14.—That hereafter no court or court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 15.—That the words "Chinese laborers," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers, and Chinese employed in mining.

Sec. 16.—That the act shall not apply to diplomatic and other officers of the Chinese government, traveling upon the business of that government, whose credentials in the usual form shall be taken as equivalent to the certificate in this act mentioned, and shall exempt their body and household servants from the provisions of this act and no other Chinese.

Sec. 17.—That hereafter no court or court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 18.—That the words "Chinese laborers," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers, and Chinese employed in mining.

Sec. 19.—That the act shall not apply to diplomatic and other officers of the Chinese government, traveling upon the business of that government, whose credentials in the usual form shall be taken as equivalent to the certificate in this act mentioned, and shall exempt their body and household servants from the provisions of this act and no other Chinese.

Sec. 20.—That hereafter no court or court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 21.—That the words "Chinese laborers," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers, and Chinese employed in mining.

Sec. 22.—That the act shall not apply to diplomatic and other officers of the Chinese government, traveling upon the business of that government, whose credentials in the usual form shall be taken as equivalent to the certificate in this act mentioned, and shall exempt their body and household servants from the provisions of this act and no other Chinese.

Sec. 23.—That hereafter no court or court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 24.—That the words "Chinese laborers," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers, and Chinese employed in mining.

Sec. 25.—That the act shall not apply to diplomatic and other officers of the Chinese government, traveling upon the business of that government, whose credentials in the usual form shall be taken as equivalent to the certificate in this act mentioned, and shall exempt their body and household servants from the provisions of this act and no other Chinese.

Sec. 26.—That hereafter no court or court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 27.—That the words "Chinese laborers," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers, and Chinese employed in mining.

Sec. 28.—That the act shall not apply to diplomatic and other officers of the Chinese government, traveling upon the business of that government, whose credentials in the usual form shall be taken as equivalent to the certificate in this act mentioned, and shall exempt their body and household servants from the provisions of this act and no other Chinese.

Sec. 29.—That hereafter no court or court of the United States shall admit Chinese to citizenship, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.
