TELEGRAPHIC

THE FRENCH FIANGO.

Royalty insists upon creating a sensation.

Paris, 23.—It is certain a ministerial crisis is imminent. The idea of having Prince Jerome tried by the Senate officers has been abandoned. The Prince wanted to see a whole troop of friends under the pretext that they were counsels. The judge de instruction allowed Jobois, Bonapartist deputy, to act as his counsel also, making three advocates, but he has intimated that he will be the last.

The ex-Empress is staying at Hotel du Rhon, in the very apartment occupied by Napoleon before his election as president. To an interviewer she said: I have come to France using my right to testify to Napoleon my sympathy and forgetfulness of all past discord; also come to comfort Princess Mathilde. What I am doing is only a family affair. I will make no political manifestation in the presence of a government of which I know nothing. The rooms at the hotel are taken for a week in the name of Countess Princeford. Many noted Bonapartists flock to the Hotel du Rhon. It is stated that both Eugene and Princess Mathilde received polite hints that they would do well to take themselves out of the country.

Another authority says the ex-Empress wishes that her presence must not be understood as of political significance. De Cassagnac, in Paris, says the ex-Empress, with chivalrous generosity, has forgotten the Prince's past, his revolts, intrigues and ambitions, and merely considered her place where the name of Napoleon has been persecuted. This step by the noble woman is perfectly natural and logical.

The differences in the cabinet arose from the discussion of the third clause in the government expulsion, allowing the government to place the Orleans princes now in active service on the retired list. It is understood the minister of war refuses admission, while it is affirmed that other members of the cabinet have. Buller's more stringent amendment decreasing the immediate cashiering of the princes. The latter's harsh enactment is a stumbling block over which the ministry promises to break up before long.

It is hardly possible to overrate the dangerous character the ministerial crisis has assumed. There were three cabinet councils on Tuesday when the news came that the special committee showed a majority against the government. The ministers of war and marine again resigned. President Grey urged them not to resign. He said, "You are a soldier and you are a sailor. I am quite sure you would never desert your post under fire, but if you retire now and leave me without a cabinet that would be desertion."

At the third cabinet council at 11 o'clock last evening, the meeting was left practically unattended. The cabinet will reach a decision this morning. Late Tuesday evening it was announced that all the members except Duclerc, Billot and Jaurreguery, had resigned. In case the present cabinet is definitely overruled, a Freycinet-Floquet ministry is spoken of.

London, 23.—Standard's special: The Duclerc cabinet is virtually defunct. The political panic is unabated, and fund holders are throwing their stocks on the market. The want of a guiding star is universally felt. The possibility of a military pronouncement is freely talked of throughout the bourgeois class, and there is a reaction against the regime of doctors and journalists, and a yearning for the saving sword. It is certain the chambers will adopt Floquet's proposal. Gambetta's death has thrown the whole working machine of France out of gear.

Paris, 24.—The departure of Eugenie attracted a large crowd, who evinced warm sympathy. Grand Duke Constantine carried to her a private message from President Grey that her presence in Paris was undesirable. It is difficult to say whether her departure was due to that message or the persuasion of her friends, all of whom are grieved by her imprudent action. There was no deep laid scheme in her coming, but hearing of the arrest of Prince Napoleon the telegraphed Roupre that she was coming with attendants, and asked to have the same rooms occupied by her husband in 1848. This was the only point of political significance in the whole affair, and the story that she went to consult an oculist would have been believed except for that. She has seen but few leading people here.

The cabinet can certainly only continue in office two or three days. During the excitement concerning the expulsion of the pretenders Prince Napoleon seems to be entirely lost sight of. One would think the Orleans Princes were the only persons affected by the serious proposals of government.

Ex-Empress Eugenie will start for England to-day, and not next Wednesday as stated.

London, 24.—The Times' editorial on recent events in France says: There can be little doubt that if statesmen continue to be wanting the republic will go headlong to ruin.

Berlin, 24.—The crisis in France has greatly disturbed the Berlin bourse.

The Railroad Disasters.

San Francisco, 24.—Los Angeles dispatch: Captain Waterhouse, wounded at the Tehachapi, died last night. One of his children is dying. All the other wounded are doing well. The coroner has issued warrants for the arrest of the engineer and brakeman of the wrecked train.

Cincinnati, 24.—Reports from the Keyser, West Virginia, Railroad accident, give the following names of the killed and injured: Harry Baldwin, fireman; Wm. Lyons and James McGettigan, brakemen, killed; Martin Welsh, engineer, died soon after from injuries; Daniel Bradley, fireman; James Dalm, engineer; Geo. Tackan and Salomon Gress, brakeman, injured. All lived in Cumberland.

A Mob Follies.

Shawneetown, Ill., 24.—Early yesterday morning a mob of masked men attempted to enter the jail for the purpose of lynching the colored murderer, Holmes, but was repulsed at the first attempt by the sheriff and deputies. The mob brought up a cannon in front of the jail and intended to batter down the wall, but shots from the jail, the ringing of the court house bell and the gathering of citizens scared them away.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881. Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.
