IT IS A FACT

That thousands of our business men go to their offices in the morning after an uneasy night, or a late dinner, feeling dull and all out of sorts. This is entirely unnecessary, for a single dose of that sparkling foaming specific, Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, taken before breakfast, will immediately dispel all feelings of heaviness, remove gently but surely the cause, and quicken into healthy action every fibre of the system. For sale by all druggists.

LATEST TELEGRAMS

League Matters.

New York, 1.—The executive council of the Irish National League of America met to-day. There were also present, Patrick Egan, and Mathew Harris of Ireland, and Rev. Dr. Charles O'Really of Detroit, the Treasurer of the National League of America, President Alexander Sullivan in the chair. The league disposed of a large amount of routine business, and received reports from various sections of the country. Among the subjects considered was the one of the so-called land grabbing in the Southern and Western states and territories, by the English aristocracy and English corporations. A committee was appointed to secure a complete report in each state and territory of the quantity of land so obtained, land purchased, names of purchasers, and statements showing whether such purchasers are citizens of the United States. A resolution was adopted, declaring that the league would give no aid to any lecturer, no matter whence he came, whose lectures were for any other than league purposes and recommending to its branches that no invitation be extended to lecturers unless the proceeds of the lectures were given to the national league fund.

The Exposition Opened.

Louisville, 1.—With the first streak of daylight clouds of people began pouring into the city from every point of the compass. Trains were doubled up and then packed. The presidential party left Galt House in carriages, escorted by a body of police and the local military organizations, and moved in the most direct route to the exposition buildings. There was a perfect ovation the entire distance. The great main building, capable of holding 20,000 people, was filled completely. President Depont, of the exposition, welcomed the President in a fitting speech. General Arthur gracefully responded, and concluded by starting the vast machinery, and pronouncing the exposition open.

Garden City Gatherings.

Chicago, 1.—An official of rolling mills of South Chicago denies the published statements that the company intends to shut down its works for an indefinite length of time, owing to the strikes in process there. He says work is temporarily suspended there, simply and only because of the strike.

O'Donnell's Examination.

Port Elizabeth, 1.—The examination of O'Donnell for the murder of James Carey was resumed to-day. The eldest son of Carey deposed that his father and O'Donnell had been on friendly terms throughout the voyage, and had often played cards. The case was remanded to enable the prisoner to call the steward of the steamer Melrose as a witness. Mrs. Carey says there was an Irishman named Kelly, from Wexford, on the steamer.

A Fast Train.

St. Paul, 1.—The members of the Associated Press, bound for the Yellowstone Park, arrived this evening at 6:30, on a special train of Wagoners and dining cars. The trip was made in 11½ hours from Chicago, being 20 minutes faster than expected, the fastest trip ever made between Chicago and St. Paul. The train was in charge of R. S. Hair, traveling agent of the Northwestern railroad.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

George William Curtis Delivers an Address—Taffy for Arthur.

Providence, 1.—At the civil service reform meeting, Rev. Charles Wendt, of the Local Reform Association, opened the proceedings and gave a hearty welcome to the association. Rev. William Curtis then delivered the annual address. Curtis said the efficiency of the Pendleton bill depended at the beginning wholly upon the good faith of the President. If he desired to defeat its purpose, he had only to appoint an unfriendly commission, but the selection of the first commissioner was that of the ablest, sincerest, and one of the most devoted friends of reform—Norman B. Eaton, N. Y., and the association with him of Dr. Gregory of Illinois, and Judge Thurman of Ohio was conclusive of the earnestness of the President's desire to give the reformed system fair play. This is more significant because of the President's previous course, and the fear that he would use his vast patronage in a manner to aggravate the evils of that system. But this apprehension has not been justified. In certain instances, indeed, and especially in the removal of the late naval officer of New York, one of the most efficient and experienced officers in public service, there was a flagrant disregard of essential principles of reform; but the ingenious manner in which this disregard was veiled was apparent, and the desire to promote the interests of reform was an evidence of the President's consciousness of the public expectation that able and capable officers shall not be removed under plea of the expiration of their terms; but on the other hand, the President's steady refusal to satisfy a faction of his party which demands that public patronage shall be prostituted to factional interest, is most honorable and whatever exception may be justly taken to many acts of the administration in regard to appointments and removals, it will not be denied by fair men of every party that the President, whose accession by means of the most tragical event was generally regarded as a serious mistake, if not a calamity—has not only allayed all apprehension of gross misuse of the patronage of the government, but, by his patience and temperate administration, has gained the general approval of the country.

At a business meeting after the oration, Curtis was unanimously re-elected president. Hitchcock of St. Louis presented a resolution that, in the opinion of the league, it is indispensable to a complete reform in the civil service, that Congress should repeal the act of May 10th, 1820, and acts supplementary thereto, now embodied in sections 1691, 1854, 2217, 2293, 2613 and 3830 of the Revised Statutes. The resolution denounces rotation in office as foreign alike to republican principles and to a sound business method, and advocates, as a most urgent step in reform, a return to the early practice of government under which the fidelity and good behavior of public servants, as in the case of private agents, were made the sole condition of a continuance of their employments. A resolution was adopted favoring the application of the principles of the Pendleton bill to civil service in the states and cities of this country. The league decided to admit to membership all civil service reform associations thus applying, and soon afterwards adjourned.

A New Indian Commission—The Strikers.

Chicago, 1.—A Congressional commission consisting of Senators Dawes of Massachusetts, Logan of Illinois, Morgan of Alabama, and Vest of Missouri, Representatives Haskell of Kansas, and Cameron of Wisconsin, and Delegate Maginnis of Montana, were charged with investigating the condition of the reservation of Indians in the northwest, and reporting to Congress the prospect of opening up to settlement some portions of the land now reserved to the Indians, they met here to-day. It was arranged that the commission should leave this place on Friday for St. Paul, and proceed from that point to the Crow agency, thence go to Helena, Mont., where it was to be divided into sub-commissions, and visit all the reservations in that section of country.

The Western Union Company reports that two striking operators returned to work here, and two at St. Paul, and that several others have applied by letter for reinstatement. It is now given out, at the strikers headquarters that the operators on the Gould railroads will be called out within three days. The first number of the daily paper in the interest of the striking operators, will be issued here to-morrow.

A Proof of Stability.

Bay City, 1.—The operators in the Mutual office at Grand Rapids, in obedience to the order of the executive committee of the brotherhood, left their instruments this morning. Railroad operators, about forty in number, also received orders not to do any commercial work.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS.

They Meet, Nominate, Resolve and Adjourn.

Harrisburg, 1.—The convention reassembled, with Robert James as permanent president. The customary vice-presidents and secretaries were elected. Upon taking the chair James paid high and eloquent tribute to the democratic party, which he claimed was instrumental in redeeming the state from the inquiry into which it had fallen for years past. Nominations for auditor general were as follows: W. Hayes Grier of Lancaster, John Swan of Alleghany, George R. Guss of Chester, Jacob Fergler of Butler, Robert McCochran of Cumberland, Robert Taggart of Warren, J. K. Duff of Alleghany, F. S. Brown of Elk, Robert Nicholson of Jefferson, William N. Hirst of Philadelphia, J. F. McKerran of Armstrong. On the third ballot Robert Taggart of Warren was nominated by a vote of 163 to 77. The nominations for state treasurer Thomas M. Reynolds of Bucks county, Joseph Powell, Bradford; McCool of Schuylkill. In the second ballot Powell was nominated, receiving seventy-five votes. The nominees were presented to the convention, and accepted the nominations in short speeches. A platform was adopted which reaffirms faith in the democracy of Pennsylvania and in the true principles of the party; upholds sanctity, personal liberty and rights and local self government; favors genuine deep reaching civil service reform; advocates such taxation of people as is requisite for the necessities of a government economically administered; that the duties should be so adjusted to their application as to prevent unequal burdens; encourage productive industries at home; afford just compensation to labor, but not create or foster monopoly; renounces the proposition of the republican party that people should be taxed to raise surplus funds for the federal government to distribute among the states and the existing surplus in the treasury, but should faithfully be applied to the payment of the public debt; money not needed for the expense of government should remain in the pockets of the people; to this end we are in favor of the entire abolition of the present system of internal taxation as a measure of relief demanded by the people from unnecessary and the unequal burdens. The platform demands that government should redeem all expressed and implied obligations as to coinage, public lands for actual settlers, and not another acre for corporations. The administration of Governor Patterson is heartily endorsed. He has indicated the pledges of reform upon which he was elected, and his upright, intelligent and courageous exercise of the executive powers deserves unqualified approbation of his party and the people of the commonwealth. The platform concludes with a series of ten resolutions, commending the administration of Governor Patterson to the people of Pennsylvania and endorsing the extra session of the legislature and the abolition of the number of useless state offices. After the adoption of the platform the convention adjourned sine die.

The President's Party.

Omaha, 1.—A meeting of prominent citizens was held to-night to make arrangements to give President Arthur a reception on his arrival in Omaha, on Saturday, on his way to the Yellowstone National park. Committees were appointed and other steps were taken, and a telegram was sent to President Arthur tendering him a reception. This afternoon the private car of President Dillon, of the Union Pacific, was sent to Chicago to convey the presidential party westward, it having been tendered to President Arthur by Mr. Dillon.

A Strike of 400 Men.

Detroit, 1.—The entire force of 400 men at the Republic mine at Humboldt, struck to-day for an advance in wages of 12½ per cent. The president of the company shut down the mine at once and told the men to confer with the executive committee. There is much excitement, but no disorder prevails, and the men express a determination to hold firmly together, and compel the company to accede to their demands.

The Rush of Silver Dollars.

Washington, 1.—The Star says the accumulation of silver dollars has become so great that it is now quite a serious question how to dispose of them, and all the storage capacity of the various vaults of the sub-treasuries throughout the country is already overtaxed, and the additional vaults built recently are full. The last Congress appropriated $100,000 for the purpose of defraying the cost of providing additional storage room, and no place as yet has been selected where the new vaults will be built; the matter will be held in abeyance until the supervising architect can report upon the most available place where there is extra room in the public buildings.
