The Sharon Divorce.

San Francisco, 12.--In the Sharon divorce, to day, Frank Rodney, a cousin of the plaintiff, testified that the evening before Sharon's arrest in September last, he accompanied Miss Hill to the Palace Hotel. He said she said to Sharon: "You know, Senator, I am your lawful wedded wife, although you have told some of the best people in the city I am only your mistress." Witness said the Senator denied the accusation. Witness said the marriage certificate was the same document he had seen in December, 1881.

Miss Hill, the plaintiff, testified in her own behalf. She first conversed with Sharon in the spring of 1880. He said that if I would come to his office he would give me some points about stock. Gave him $7,500 to invest. Always talked love to me when I visited his office. Said he wanted me to love him. If I would let him love me he would give $1,000 a month and a house. I told him he had mistook his woman; millions could not buy me. He said he was only teasing me, that he loved me better than anyone since his wife died and proposed a secret marriage, but I rejected the proposition. He told me about a woman with a baby in Philadelphia; said he did not think the baby was his, but sent money to the mother to stop her making trouble.

A Lot of Nonsense.

New Orleans, 12.--Senator Jones telegraphs to Major Burke, of the Times Democrat: "Messrs. Hoar, Cameron and Fry, Republican members of the Copiah county committee, authorize me to deny that either of them furnished the statements contained in the Washington dispatch to a Chicago paper of the second inst., which is the subject of an editorial in your paper of the seventh. Neither of them attended the ball and neither knew or ever heard before of the statement made by said correspondent."

Note--The statement referred to is as follows: "The Republican members of the Copiah committee say that at one of the balls given in New Orleans, at the Mardi Gras, Jefferson Davis with his daughter, the daughter of General Lee, General Longstreet and some other noted Confederate generals sat in a box which was draped with the Confederate flag; that a floral sword decorated with the Confederate colors and addressed simply, 'To the President,' was presented to this noted ex Confederate party in the box and accepted."

The first train leaves here at 3 to-morrow morning, reaching St. Paul at 3.30 to-morrow afternoon, and Minneapolis at 4 o'clock, connecting with the night trains out of those cities. This brings the through mail service from New York to St. Paul inside of forty-eight hours, and shortens the time between Chicago and St. Paul five and a half hours.

Omaha, 12.--The people of Nebraska, Colorado and the far west points are delighted with the fast mail service. Twenty-four hours has been saved between New York and all Union Pacific points. If the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy would shorten the time one hour from Chicago to Omaha, it would receive the mail in time for the early evening delivery and thus benefit Denver, Cheyenne, Ogden and Salt Lake. The Union Pacific could then leave Omaha at 7 p. m. The mail now arrives at Ogden at 5 p. m., and leaves for the west at 7.15 the following morning. If the Central Pacific would leave at 7 p. m., it could arrive at San Francisco at 7 p. m., instead of 8.40, and thus save fourteen hours from Ogden, or thirty-seven hours between the Atlantic and Pacific Coast. The Central Pacific officials are being urged to change the time.
