Salt Lake City, August 21, 1884.
I have used a Bismarck Cooking Range for two years and find that it gives me the satisfaction, saving of fuel as well as being a quick cooker.
SAMUEL S. WALKER,
Of Walker Bros.
To Messrs. Jennings & Sons.

Salt Lake City, August 21, 1884.
I have been using the Bismarck Range for some time and I find it first class in all respects. It has large fires, good size ovens, full size water back and consequently bakes, boils and heats water in the most satisfactory manner.
H. B. CLAWSON.
Yours truly,
To Messrs. Jennings & Sons.

Salt Lake City, Utah, August 18th, 1884.
Messrs. Wm. Jennings & Sons:
Gentlemen:—Answering your favor, concerning the Bismarck Range I purchased of you, it affords me pleasure in stating that I am well pleased with it, and consider their cooking qualities excellent and their manufacture first class. As an article of household furniture I look upon the Bismarck not only useful but ornamental.
Respectfully yours,
H. DINWOODIEY.
Salt Lake City, Utah, August 15th, 1884.

Messrs. Wm. Jennings & Sons:
Regarding your favor of 12th inst., asking about the Bismarck Range purchased of you in 1883. I can assure you I consider it superior to anything offered in this market. I have had it in constant use and it has given satisfaction in all particulars, and I can confidently recommend it to any one in want of a first class Range.
Through my business here as plumber, I have fitted up over 100 Water Jacket attachments for the Bismarck Range in this City, Ogden, Logan, etc., and in every case I am conversant with; the Ranges have given entire satisfaction, both as to its cooking qualities and hot water attachments, for culinary and bath room purposes.
Yours respectfully,
DAVID JAMES.

PARAGRAPHS.

A restaurant at Coney Island had a large placard on its piazza announcing: "Eighteen carrot vegetable a up."

A colored girl at Newport wears $400,000 worth of diamonds. She is probably a domestic in the family of an editor.

It is said that the whittling man is one who does little thinking. But he makes others think. And, oh! what fearful thoughts they think.

Parent (angrily): "You have been in the water! You have been fishing!" Son: "Yes, ma'am; I was in the water, but I got a boy out who might have been drowned." Parent: "Indeed, who was he?" Son: "Myself."

Scene, Coney Island bathing pavilion; Mr. Smiley: "Miss Madeleine, will you have an oil skin cap to protect your hair?" Madeline: "Thank, yes; I don't wish to get my hair wet." Mabel (aged seven): "Why don't you take it off?"

A Bloomington little girl who was at a party one evening a short time since looked at Hon. David Davis and pertinently inquired: "Mamma, why didn't Mr. Davis put a little of his big on legatways?"

An Indiana man, who was recently hanged, nodded to a minister, who desired to give consolation just before the drop fell, and said: "I'll see you later." The minister is sorry he said anything now.

A young man (to druggist): "I want to get some arnica, Russian salve, carbolic acid, Empress Relief, Davis' pain-killer, and a package of sticking plaster." Druggist: "All right, sir, all right. Anybody got hurt?" "Oh, no; I've just bought a bicycle."

A little girl, meeting a countryman with a load of slaughtered swine, dropped a courtesy. The rustic laughed without returning the civility. "What!" said he, "do you courtesy the dead hogs?" "N, sir," promptly responded the little miss, "I courtesied to the live one."
