HAMBURG TEA.

Why is it so many people are never satisfied? Their homes are marveled of comfort and luxury, friends are generous and affectionate, they are educated and refined, capable, not only of enjoying, but imparting happiness to others, yet they are dissatisfied, miserable, and really, without intending to do so, make others miserable. Their blood is impure, they have taken a heavy cold or they are bilious. A few doses of Frese's Hamburg Tea would remove all obstructions, and enable them to enjoy, with renewed zest, the pleasures they are now compelled to forego.

'MARYLAND, MY MARYLAND.'

"Pretty wives and Lovely Daughters!" "My farm lies in a rather low and malarious situation, and

"My wife!" "Who?" "Was a very pretty blonde!" "Twenty years ago, became

"Sallow!" "Hollow-eyed!" "Withered and aged!" Before her time, from

"Malarial vapors, though she made no particular complaint, not being of the grumpy kind, yet caused me great uneasiness.

"A short time ago I purchased your remedy for one of the children, who had a very severe attack of biliousness, and it occurred to me that the remedy might help my wife, as I found that our little girl upon recovering had "Lost!" "Her sallowness, and looked as fresh as a new-blown daisy. Well, the story is soon told. My wife to-day has gained her old-time beauty with compound interest, and is now as handsome a matron (if I do say it myself) as can be found in this country, which is noted for pretty women. And I have only Hop Bitters to thank for it.

"The dear creature just looked over my shoulder and says, 'I can flatter equal to the days of our courtship,' and that reminds me there might be more pretty wives if my brother farmers would do as I have done."

"Hoping you may long be spared to do good, I thankfully remain,

Most truly yours, U. L. JAMES, BELLEVILLE, Prince George Co., Md., May 20th, 1881.
