Still Further Particulars of the Blow-Up.

THE CAPTURE OF A DESPERADO.

The Mexican Mutineers—Failure of the Boomers—Dispute About the Blow-Up.

The Explosion.

London, January 27.—The Times continues its onslaught on Parnell, with a leading article which says Parnell's... Still further particulars of the dynamite explosion, calls to mind his attempt to... The Times assures the Irish agitators that their present policy of murder and... will never succeed in coercing the House of Commons into accepting naked revolution... The Daily News thinks it almost an insult that the Englishmen keep their heads in the face of such an outrage. It predicts that the "next effort of the cowards will be an attack on some infant school."

London, January 27.—In some respects, the panic produced by Saturday's events has really increased. Fears were entertained yesterday that dynamite meditated an attack upon the National arsenals, and naval stations, and they were placed under a special watch. At Chatham dockyard the police kept aloft during the entire night. To-day instructions were issued to put a stop to all ingress to the tower, the House of Commons and Westminster Hall, even members and guests were refused admission. The entrance to the palace ground is closed. All public doors to Parliament buildings are locked and a barricade has been thrown across the hall at the top of the staircase. The injured are reported improving. Colonel Majendie is proceeding with the examination of the banquet hall and the council chamber in the White Tower. The work of removing the debris from the White tower was completed this afternoon. The hole made in the floor where the dynamite exploded is ten feet long by five feet wide. The masonry of the building was found to be practically unimpaired, but much of the solid oak woodwork was torn or split.

Paris, January 27.—The Daily News editorial statements about the London explosion. It declares positively that the authors of the explosion are the same men who made the dynamite attack on the London bridge and the Tower Street railway station. The chief organizers of both plots, Gil Blas asserts, have been for a long time past printing offices in Paris, and until a recent date lodged in St. Dennis quarter, Paris, where they manufacture infernal machines used in the diabolical work. When everything is in readiness for the perpetration of contemplated atrocities, continues Gil Blas, picked men who were to lodge and set the machines, departed separately and by different routes for London, each carrying one or more of the machines. This was six weeks ago, Gil Blas says. No one of these conspirators speaks French, and no member of the entire band ever attended anarchist meetings in Paris.

Capturing a Desperado.

MEXICO, January 27.—The Tribune-Republican's Las Vegas, New Mexico: Nicholas Aragon, the famous outlaw, one time a member of the notorious "Billy the Kid" gang, was captured this morning by the Lincoln County officers, near Chaparral, thirty miles south of this place. The officers surrounded the adobe hut, in which the outlaw had taken shelter. In answer to the demand for his surrender, he sent word by a Mexican woman that he had plenty to eat and drink, and an abundance of ammunition, and would never be taken alive. Deputy John Hurly mounted the roof of the hut, and while clinging a hole through which fire might be communicated to the inside, he was shot dead by the desperado. A general fusillade followed, during which Aragon and other Brent were wounded. A messenger was hastily sent to Las Vegas for reinforcements and giant powder, with which to blow up the building. In the meantime, Aragon sent out his guns and surrendered. He will arrive at the Las Vegas jail tomorrow morning. He is an old-time killer, and numbers fully a dozen men on his dead list. The enraged populace are liable to lynch him.

Dispute About the Blow-up.

WASHINGTON, January 27.—Shortly before the House was called to order to-day a number of members were discussing the recent explosion in London. The discussion took place in the cloak-room on the Democratic side. Among those present were the Republicans Cobb and Finney, the latter expressed himself as strongly opposed to the means resorted to by Irishmen to effect the desired end. Finney replied that many of the circumstances of the explosion in London were justifiable. It was the only way in which the Irish could win their cause. "You claim that to be justifiable," said Cobb, "justifiable, when the lives of thousands of women and children are endangered. If you look upon it in that light, you are not humane." "I am not a humane, sir," retorted Finney, "but humane as you are, more humane members were considerably agitated, and controlled themselves, and made dispute to words."

The Mexican Mutineers.

WASHINGTON, January 27.—Secretary Lincoln has received a telegram from Major-General Pope, commanding the Department of Arizona, forwarding a telegram from Lieutenant McDonald, dated January 25th, with regard to his engagement with the Mexican mutineers on the Mexican frontier on the 25th inst. He says that his troops were in ambuscade when the leaders came along, and a man in front made a break with his revolver, which caused the troops to fire. A charge was then made by Lieutenant Jenks, and four mutineers were killed, and twelve captured. In about fifteen minutes the mutineers were scattered, along the road for a long distance. The day after Lieutenant McDonald left the field the Governor of Lower California came along with about thirty men, claimed to have been picked up from the ranches, and gathered in some others who were still in hiding, half starved and frozen. An Indian runner informed Lieutenant McDonald that more mutineers were coming to water at Pilot Knob and were anxious to fight the troops. No attention was paid to the challenge and the two parties marched away together, until they had passed a few hundred yards into Lower California. Instructions are asked as to dealing with the Governor of Lower California and the party who crossed the line at the Indian Wells, but McDonald is very indignant at the conduct of the Governor and protests strongly against turning the prisoners over to him.

Failure of the "Boomers."

WASHINGTON, January 27.—The following dispatch, announcing the failure of the Oklahoma Boomers, has been received:

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Jan. 27. To the Adjutant-General, Washington: The following has just been received from General Hatch at Stillwater: "I have stopped the troops en route to Caldwell until I receive further orders." STILLWATER CREEK, Indian Territory: Adjutant-General Department of Missouri: The Boomer colony has come to terms. They will leave the country for the nearest point in the Kansas line. The troops will be sent with them. The reinforcements from Coffeyville turned back to the Kansas line, when within sight of this place, on the approach of the troops, and are hurrying out of the country. Will send troops to look for men coming from Wichita, by way of Hunnewell. We leave troops sufficient. (Signed) HATCH, Colonel. AVONIA, Brig-Commanding.

Anti-Celestial.

OTTAWA, January 27.—Mr. Shakespeare, member of Parliament for British Columbia, who has just arrived here, says the agitation in British Columbia in opposition to Chinese immigration is strong. Shakespeare also states that a law will again be passed by the local government, prohibiting immigration and that a resolution will be forwarded to the Dominion Parliament.

French Facts.

PARIS, January 27.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, debate was commenced on the extra estimates asked for by the budget committee. The chamber voted the war budget. The Temps states that on the arrival of the reinforcements sent to Tonquin, the total force in that country, including the Annamite sharpshooters under French command, will equal 40,000 men.

Anti-Irish Demonstrations.

A Star on Fire.

According to astronomers, one of the fixed stars has been blotted out of the firmament by the action of fire. The startling event is, however, of less consequence to any inhabitant on our planet than the loss of a dear friend or relative by consumption. Whoever is threatened with such a bereavement should recommend with the most persistent earnestness the use of "Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar" by the party in peril. In every stage of an obstinate cough, the healing, soothing, curative effect of this new and powerful agent is strikingly manifested. Sold by druggists everywhere at 25c, 50c, and $1. Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, January 27.—The House committee on foreign affairs postponed, until Friday, consideration of the resolution calling on the Secretary of State for information whether any citizen of the United States was concerned in bringing about the London explosion. While no vote was taken that would show the feeling of the members toward the resolution, there was an expression of opinion that there was no occasion to begin the investigation. The members say the resolution, as prepared, will not be reported back to the House. One of a different character, however, may be reported.

The director of the mint is engaged in the preparation of a report on the production of gold and silver in the United States during the calendar year of 1884. From the returns made from the mints and assay offices, it appears, he says, that, contrary to his own expectation and general opinion, a greater amount of gold was obtained from the mines in the United States in 1884 than during the previous year. The reports from the mints and assay offices of deposits of gold and silver, which he caused to be verified by the accounts, show during the calendar year of 1884 that they received gold of domestic production to the amount of $30,867,109, nearly $500,000 more than the previous year, while the deposits of foreign gold bullion were $11,271,399; foreign coin, $6,328,922; jewelry, plate, etc., $1,899,577; and United States gold coin, $285,171. Total, including redeposits, $39,381,148. Burdard says there can be no question but that nearly $31,000,000 in gold, as shown by these reports, were obtained from the mines of the United States during the last calendar year, because the description and character of gold is apparent to the weigh clerks upon inspection as it is easily ascertained, and generally the locality also, whence received, by inquiry or a knowledge of the business of the depositor, and is entered on record. Secondly, every ounce of the $39,000,000 gold reported, which have been received during the year, is entered in accordance, and has been, or must be, paid for by the officers in charge of the institution where it has been received. Thirdly, the deposits of foreign gold bullion exceeded its net imports, $2,473,797, and its net exports, $3,000,000, and less by nearly $5,000,000 than the imports of foreign gold coin, it was because that of the imports of the latter last November and December at the port of New York, amounting to nearly $5,000,000, only $681,612 had, up to the 1st of January, been sent to the New York assay office, the remainder probably being held in New York, perhaps awaiting export, or demand. It is so improbable that foreign bullion could have been entered at the New York assay office as domestic gold, the director says that no deduction should be made on that account from $39,000,000 reported as deposits of domestic gold bullion.

Con. Murphy Lynched.

HELENA, Montana, January 27.—This city was thrown into a tremor of excitement yesterday, on news being received of the capture of the notorious Montana horse thief and desperado, Con. Murphy. Two men, McFarland and Bashaw, left here yesterday, and encountered the desperado and his brother at O'Neill's ranch, about fifteen miles east of here, on the Bozeman road. A lively battle ensued, but the outlaws were finally brought to bay. These two men started this morning with their prisoner for Helena, but were overhauled on the way by a party from here, who took Murphy and swung him from a bridge, about one mile and a half distant. At present his body hangs lifeless from the bridge.

Wants to Go Afloat.

PHILADELPHIA, January 27.—Chief Engineer Melville, of Arctic fame, issued to-day, an address to the American public, wherein he expresses the belief that the time is now ripe for the making of a final and successful voyage to the North Pole. The route he advocates is by way of Franz Josef's Land, and he declares it to be an entirely safe and feasible one. It would be, he thinks, the actual saving of life to make the attempt now, before the knowledge, born of experience, expires, and he trusts that there is some man in America, who will rise to the occasion, and from his abundance supply the paltry sum requisite to fit out an Arctic expedition. This sum he places at $80,000, provided a transport ship is only chartered, or $130,000 if it be retained, which he asserts is not necessary. He will write, he says, the name of his patron across the Polar continent.

SECTION 4.—That all laws and parts of laws authorizing the coinage and issuance of United States trade dollars, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5.—That the President is hereby authorized to renew negotiations with the States of the Latin Union, and with other foreign powers for the purpose of making treaties with them in order to secure such co-operation as may enable the nations agreeing thereto to open their respective mints to the free coinage of silver, with full legal tender power, at an agreed ratio to gold.

SECTION 6.—That in case no such treaties as aforesaid shall be made and ratified prior to August 1st, 1885, then and thereafter so much of the act of February 25th, 1878, as authorizes and directs the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase from time to time silver bullion at the market price thereof, not less than $2,000,000 worth per month, or more than $4,000,000 worth per month, and cause the same to be coined into standard dollars monthly, as far as so purchased, shall be suspended.

Morrill gave notice that he would call up the bill on Tuesday next.

Hale presented the conference report on the naval appropriation bill. The report was adopted after brief remarks by Hale and Deck.
