THE DAILY HERALD, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1855.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Still another suit. Edward Austin sued by his recent client.

Another youth. John Nelson, arrested on charge of unlawful conduct.

Culver against Rydalch. A bond suit in which 40,000 names.

A gold fever. A sample for the city cemetery.

The following leads are, as usual, of much importance. We shall be in the city to-morrow morning, when we shall publish them.

1. The Democrat, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

2. The True American, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

3. The Independent, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

4. The Morning Star, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

5. The California Republic, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

6. The California Sentinel, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

7. The California Journal, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

8. The California Times, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

9. The California Star, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

10. The California Herald, San Francisco. A radical Whig paper, with which the leading officers of the party are connected.

The following are the leading officers of the party:

1. John McAllister, President.
2. William McAllister, Secretary.
3. Edward McAllister, Treasurer.
4. John McAllister, Assistant Secretary.
5. William McAllister, Assistant Treasurer.
6. John McAllister, Assistant Treasurer.
7. John McAllister, Assistant Treasurer.
8. John McAllister, Assistant Treasurer.
10. John McAllister, Assistant Treasurer.