mittee of seven members to join a similar committee on the part of the Senate to accompany the remains of Senator Miller from Washington to California. The House then adjourned.

The Strikes.

GALVESTON, March 11.—A dispatch from Sherman to the News says: The first indication that the railroad strike had affected the Houston & Texas Central road was given to day when three freight trains were pulled off on account of the lack of business.

Billiard Sharps.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Another good sized audience greeted the third night's play of the billiard match between Vignaux and Schaffer. To-night's play was a repetition of that of its predecessors.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mrs. HENRY DINWOODEY'S condition is not improved, and her recovery is still a subject of much doubt.

WHEN THE NAME of John C. Young was read in the House last evening as one of the Governor's appointees for the Asylum board, a member sang out: "Shoulfn't that be Don C. Young, Mr. Clerk?"

WE SAW in Fox & Symons' gallery yesterday a pair of enlarged photographs of Mr. C. S. Varian's father and mother.

MR. WEST says he is very much gratified by the importance which the Governor attaches to his maps of Utah.

IT IS an open secret that several changes are to be made in the present editorial staff of the Tribune.

THE LONDON BANK OF UTAH.

The Recent Order of the Court in Regard to the Receiver.

In the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah, in the matter of W. H. H. Bowers vs. the London Bank of Utah (Limited) the following order has been made:

PUT TO THE PROOF.

Mr. Thurman's Challenge to His Low Defamers.

THE HEAD OF HIS OFFENDING.

The Down-Town Liars Asked to Prove Proof of Their Reckless Assertions in Regard to Him

To the Editor of THE HERALD: There are times in the life and history of every man, when forbearance ceases to be a virtue, when patience becomes absolutely exhausted and when the duty which a man owes to society, if not to himself, demands of him something more than a passive silence.

In Sunday's issue of the Salt Lake Tribune, as the public are aware, my reputation as an honorable man was viciously assailed, and I was held up to the gaze of my fellow citizens as a sneak and traitor.

And, on motion of defendant's attorney, the said United States Marshal, since he had not received the monies and assets so received from said Receiver, as well as other monies, and assets of defendant in his hands under process of this court, shall pay and discharge all liens perfected by judgments (in the order of such liens) that there may be against such funds and assets, and the residue thereof the said Marshal shall deliver to the said defendant or its recognized agent.

The Author of It.

Just who wrote Governor Murray's veto to the appropriation bill, was the subject of some speculation in both houses yesterday; to clear the matter up we give the following: It was given out when the message reached the House, that it was from the hands of His Excellency, and as it had been written in a great hurry, it was thought best for Secretary Thomas to read it. When the reading finished, there was a rush of reporters to the Clerk's desk in order to obtain copies. The Tribune reporter, however, did not appear with the rest, and when asked whether he did not intend to print the message, he replied with a knowing wink of the eye (the undamaged one) that he was "fixed all right."

The Offer Accepted.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, CITY HALL, SALT LAKE CITY, March 9, 1886.

The Herald Company.

Gentlemen—I have the honor to inform you that your communication to the Council of the Legislative Assembly tendering the members and officers thereof receipts bills for subscription to your paper during the session was received this day, filed and ordered to be spread upon the minutes. I am directed to acknowledge your courtesy. Respectfully, HERBER M. WELLS, Chief Clerk.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE CARELESS COMPANY TO-NIGHT.—Greatly to the surprise of everyone concerned, the sale at the box office yesterday commenced with the demand for the Mikado right running ahead of that of the Pirates—to-night. There has been a good sale for both, however, and if the weather holds up, there will doubtless be a big Mikado matinee to-morrow.

AMUSEMENTS.

CARMEN.—This morning at Moore, Allen & Co's drug store, the sale for the opera of Carmen, by Mapleson's Company, will commence. "The Colonel" has shown that he knows how to appreciate the difference in the times since his previous visits, when he brought Gerster in Liria, the tickets were 50c when he came with Farsch Madi in Truvatore, tickets were 80c; he has now yielded to the strong pressure of the management, and seen influenced by the turn out for Salvini and Nevada and reduced prices to 50c. Everyone will be willing to pay this price to see Minnie Hank Del Puente and Ravelli. Other prices appear in the advertisement.
