

THE LAWMAKERS.

Still Studying Civil Service in the Senate.

FRIDAY'S WORK IN THE HOUSE.

Rose Elizabeth—To Go Over the Veto on the Turf—From the Capital—Other News Notes.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The debate on the civil service bill was resumed. The amendments increasing the salaries of assistant treasurers at Baltimore and Boston beyond the amounts in the House bill gave rise to another discussion in the committee of appropriations, which was held in the Senate, that that day saved $500,000 in cutting down the appropriations in this bill. He showed a $1,000,000 of the reduction claimed to be the expense of the two Houses, which are always that much less in the short session (for which the bill provides) than in the long session, that $1,000,000 of it was from a reduction in the pension office specifically ordered in the bill of the last Congress; that $500,000 of it was in expenses connected with the internal revenue bureau and that the reduction of appropriations for that bureau would be in the interest of the pensioners and the distillers; that $1,000,000 came from an omission to appropriate for the mint of San Francisco, (which would have to be taken out of the permanent appropriation under the silver act of 1875) and the rest of the reduction claimed in the bill came from cutting down and raising the salaries of officers here and there in the cases under consideration. The amendments increasing the compensation of the commissioner of patents from $4,000 to $5,000 was rescinded. The vote was subsequently rescinded and the amendment agreed to without division. A like amendment as to the commissioner of patents was agreed to. The Senate then took up the river and harbor appropriation bill, and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

On motion of Toole, the Senate bill was passed providing for an additional justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Montana. Payson, of Illinois, from the committee on public lands, reported back the bill for the lands granted to certain western States to aid the construction of railroads, which the Senate amendments extending the Gulf and Ship Island railroad from the terms in forfeiting. The amendment was finally agreed to.

Mr. Harter, of Pennsylvania, presented a memorial signed by 2,000 Knights of Labor of the fifth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, urging the passage of the bill now pending before Congress calculated to protect the interests of labor. Referred.

The House went into committee of the whole (Mr. Hammond, of Georgia, in the chair) on the general deficiency bill. There was no general debate and the bill was forthwith read for amendment.

Mr. Harter, of Illinois, offered an amendment making an appropriation for the payment of claims of the Pacific Mail Steamship for the transportation of troops to Panama in June, 1885. He maintained that it was the duty of Congress to pay this claim, which had been approved by the order of President Cleveland under the statutes regarding the property of American citizens. Not to provide for the appropriation would be to cast a century upon the President. Agreed to—70 to 42. The clause making an appropriation of $500 for the deficiency in the expenses of the board of visitors to the Naval Academy in June, 1885, having been reached, Mr. Burnes, of Missouri, went to the clerk's desk and had read a memorial submitted by the disbursing officer of Annapolis giving an itemized statement of the expenses incurred by the board of visitors in the month of June, 1885, and a list of the names of the board of visitors, including turtles, spring chickens, and chickens, eggs, squash, butter, cognac, Santa Cruz rum and cognac.

Canon called attention to the fact that Congressional visitors were not subject to criticism in this connection. Whatever of the blame there was attached to the officers of the academy who expended the money.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, offered an amendment providing that none of the money of other appropriation made by Congress for the expenses of the board of visitors shall be used to pay for instructing lectures. The amendment was adopted—70 to 42.

Mr. Donkey, of Missouri, in speaking to the paragraph relating to the navy department, submitted some remarks in which he contrasted the condition of the navy in 1862 with its condition to-day. In 1862 there were 302 atrocious vessels in the navy and to-day there were but eighty-seven vessels, and these the Secretary of the Navy, certified that only twenty-seven were serviceable during the twenty years $219,000,000 had been expended for the naval establishment, of which $60,000,000 had been expended for the construction and repair.

After listening forty-three of the pages of the bill, the committee rose and the House took a recess until 3 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of the pension bills.

ROSE ELIZABETH.

Miss Cleveland and Her New Position.

CHICAGO, July 2.—It is expected Miss Cleveland will arrive in Chicago within the next few weeks to enter upon her duties as editor of the Literary Life. The negotiations which resulted in her undertaking the work were carried on principally by letter. In her reply to the first letter, in which the subject was broached, Miss Cleveland says: "I quite agree with your idea, and could not fail to have much enthusiasm in the concentration of my energies towards its realization. While, however, my possible embarkation in such enterprise as the Literary management of such a periodical would necessarily involve the sacrifice of other plans and interests, with my idea of the position you propose to me, I could admit no conflicting or dividing interest to interfere with this work."

To Go Over His Veto.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The House committee on invalid pensions has resolved to attempt to pass over the President's veto, the bill granting a pension to Andrew J. Wilson, of New York, and Mr. Sawyer to-day reported the measure back to the House, giving notice that it would be up to-morrow. It appears from the report of the committee that Wilson was drafted into the army, notwithstanding his allegation that he was suffering from deafness and an eye complaint. In the service he contracted rheumatism and kidney disease, on which he based his application for a pension. His application was rejected by the pension bureau on the grounds that he was disabled before he was enlisted, which was also the reason for the veto. The committee takes the position that under the circumstances the government is stopped from setting up a claim of prior disability. Fastib, who is a member of the invalid pension committee, also reported back the bill granting a pension to C. W. Tiller, with a recommendation that it be passed over the President's veto. This is a case of a Louisville policeman whose application for a pension as a dependent parent was denied by the pension bureau on the ground that the dependency of the claimant was not established.

On the Turf.

BRIGHTON BEACH, July 2.—First race for two-year-olds, three-quarters of a mile—Magyar won by a head, Reid second, Falsehood third. Time 1:17 1/2. Second race, selling race, seven-eighths of a mile—Error won by half a length, Brunwick second, Peter L. third. Time 1:31 1/4. Third race, selling race, seven-eighths of a mile—Frolic won by a length, Commander second, Gold Star third. Time 1:24 1/4. Fourth race, Brighton handicap, for all ages, one and eighth miles—Wesell won by a length, Valley Forge second, Nettle third. Time 1:57 1/2. Fifth race, handicap, one three-eighths mile—Little Dan won by half a head, Tola second, Olivette third. Time 2:25. Sixth race, one mile—Ben Fryer won by half a head, Blizard second, Florence M. third. Time 1:40 1/4.

As Good as Their Word.

DETROIT, Mich., July 2.—With the second reading of the home rule bill was defeated in Parliament, it was promised that $1,000 would be set as campaign expenses for each Irish member voting for it. The following cable was sent from here to-day:

Parnell. Five thousand pounds more transmitted to your trustees. The league in America is more than good to its engagements. (Signed) CHARLES O'REILLY, Treasurer.

This makes £17,000 or $55,000 sent by O'Reilly within a week of $1,000 for each Irish member who voted with Parnell for the second reading.

A Couple of Sentences.

DEVER, Col., July 2.—A ter a trial lasting a week, the district court this afternoon sentenced Andrew Greene, colored, to be hanged July 27th, for murdering J. C. Wintnah, a street car driver on May 19th, while attempting to rob the money box on the car. John Witters, also colored, Greene's accomplice in the crime, was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Thanks From Bigger.

DETROIT, July 2.—The following cable message was received in this city to-day:

Rev. Dr. O'Reilly Detroit. Assure our American friends of our deepest thanks for the magnificent contribution of $12,000 received. (Signed) Broder.

From the Capital.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The President to-day returned to the House, without approval, the act granting a pension to Wm. Boone. It appears that Boone, who had never made application for a pension to the pension office, enlisted in August, 1862, was in action in November of the same year, and was taken prisoner and at once paroled. During his parole, he took part in a Fourth of July celebration at Aurora, Ill., in 1863, and was terribly injured by the discharge of a cannon, which he was assisting to manage. In reviewing the case, the President says, he is unable to discover the relation between the accident and military service, or any reason why, if the pension is granted as proposed by this bill, there should not also be a pension granted to any of his companions, claimants who chanced to be injured at the same time. He says, further: "The disabled man and wife and family, in need, are objects which appeal to the sympathy and charitable feelings of any decent man, but it seems to me that if by no means follows that those entrusted with the people's business and the expenditure of the people's money, are justified in so executing the pension laws as that they shall furnish means of relief in every case of distress or hardship."

The Military Governor of Paris—A New Club.

PARIS, July 2.—General Saussier has consented, at General Boulanger's request, to retain the office of military governor of Paris. The Franco-American club's headquarters were illuminated and decorated with flags last night, in honor of the opening of a new French military club by General Boulanger, minister of War. General Boulanger sent his aide-camp to thank the Franco-American club for their exhibition of sympathy. It is stated that all French colonels absent on special service have been ordered to rejoin their regiments forthwith. It is also reported that Gen'l Desailly, military attaché of the French Embassy at Vienna, and who was appointed to that post for the express purpose of studying the Austrian cavalry tactics, has been recalled to resume command of the troops in the Vosges on the German frontier.

Revolutionary Movement.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Galveston July 2.—El Partido, the Liberal government organ, announces that for the two weeks past, printed documents have been in circulation in this capital calling upon the people to take arms and overthrow the present administration, and named General Negrete as commander-in-chief of the proposed revolutionary army. General Negrete has himself issued a circular, dated La Barca, to the same effect. Government authorities say General Negrete is harmlessly insane on the subject of revolutions, and that this is one of his periodical attacks. Several similar reports of outbreaks have been circulated recently, but they have been entirely without foundation.

Kentucky Pastimes.

LOUISVILLE, July 2.—A special from Elliott County, Ky., says: Moonshiners who were opposed by Mr. Parton in the manufacture of untaxed whisky, burned the Baptist Church to which he belonged, burned his house and also the dwelling of one of his neighbors and poisoned a large number of cattle. Parton, accompanied by his neighbors James Pennington, Tobias Cox and Samuel Slater, went gunning for the moonshiners on Monday, and coming upon two of them, named respectively Simons and Turkeson, shot them down and buried them.

Parnell's Life Threatened.

LONDON, July 2.—Parnell receives letters every day menacing him with injury or assassination for his efforts to "dismember the empire." He has not, however, solicited the police protection or called public attention to his perilous position. He is smothered everywhere he goes in his campaign work by a body guard of persons friends and sworn enemies of Irishmen who say they feel personally able to take care of him and themselves. At 4 o'clock this afternoon fifty-one Conservatives, ten Unionists, fifteen Gladstonians and seven Parnellites have been elected.

Floods in Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., July 2.—The heavy rain fall in the past forty-eight hours has caused a damaging rise in all the streams in this section of the State. James River, at this point, is ten feet above the high water mark, and all the wharves in the lower part of the city (Rocket's) are submerged, the water being about two feet deep in the lower main street, and still rising. People living in that vicinity are giving out and merchants are removing their goods to places of safety.

Another Seizure.

HALIFAX, July 2.—A telegram from Shelburne, N. S., to-night states that the Dominion cruiser Terror this afternoon formally seized the Portland fishing schooner City Point, which was forcibly detained at Shelburne yesterday for the alleged violation of the fisheries treaty. The vessel is to be taken into the wharf at once, but the authorities will await instructions from Ottawa before stripping her.

On the Diamond.

DETROIT, July 2.—Boston 2. Detroit 11. CHICAGO, July 2.—Chicago 1. New York 11. KANSAS CITY, July 2.—Kansas City 4. Philadelphia 3. ST. LOUIS, July 2.—St. Louis 6. Washington 7.

Cholera Reported.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The Marine Hospital bureau has received information through the state department that six deaths from cholera occurred at Dunsmuir and four cases and two deaths at Ft. Meade yesterday.

GLADSTONE'S FIGHT.

The Elections in Britain on Friday.

GLADSTONE'S COUP DE MAIN.

Comment of the Leading Papers on the Results, So Far, of Friday's Voting.

Gladstone's Coup de Main.

LONDON, July 2.—A most desperate electoral struggle between the Gladstonians and Unionists ended to-day by an utter rout of the latter in the Parliamentary district known as Leithburghs. W. Jacks was returned to the last Parliament as a regular Liberal by a majority of 3,870 in a total poll of 8,840 votes. He opposed the Home Rule bill, but was nevertheless considered invincible in his district, and was nominated in the present canvass as a Unionist to continue his opposition to the Premier's Irish policy. Jacks' hostility to Gladstone angered thousands of the Scotchmen of Leith, but they looked upon their opposition to him as hopeless and were unable to build a candidate to oppose him, all those mentioned for the seat having declined to run. The Tories in order to emphasize the Unionist opposition to the Premier withdrew opposition and left the field clear to Jack so he might go back to the House with a larger increased majority. At the last hour allowed by law, the Liberal managers nominated Gladstone himself as their candidate, the Premier consenting. Thus equipped the Gladstonians went to their work. This was so soon effective that Jack's became scared, and to-day withdrew from the contest, leaving the Leith membership to Gladstone, who was elected without opposition. This with his Midlothian district gives the Premier two seats in Scotland. He will perhaps choose to sit for the latter, and select a reliable man to recast Leith with the assurance of success.

LONDON, July 2.—Gladstone has issued a manifesto to the Welsh electors, in which he says: "This is not the first nor tenth time that the Tories have raised the cry of alarm and predicted the ruin of the Empire. They have been at it all their lives. They have always raised that cry when their great and good measures were proposed which have made the age illustrious. The reform of Parliament, the abolition of slavery, of religious tests, of church rates, and of the Irish church, freedom of burial law, defence of tenants rights and many more good measures."

Which did they give you? Which did they not oppose and cry down as destructive of the Constitution and throne, of religion and property? People say the Irish are never content, nor would you be content if you had been oppressed as they have. Above all, if after you had your own parliament, because it is a just demand, give it to them, promptly and graciously, not waiting, as Wellington waited, before granting the Catholic emancipation, to yield under the terror of civil war. Let Wales on this great occasion be worthy of herself.

A feature of to-day's polling is the great number of absentions. In nearly every case the votes ARE GREATLY REDUCED.

In number, Liberals have won seats in East Leeds, Southwest Manchester, North Manchester and in the Exchange division of Liverpool. The Tories have won seats in South Salford, West Salford, Hereford, Hastings, Falmouth and South Bristol—a net Tory gain of two. The Unionist candidate for Newcastle-under-Lyme narrowly defeated him. The Unionist candidate at Bristol is equally successful. Jacob Bright, Gladstonian, a brother of John Bright, is elected in Manchester. Sir T. Brassey, Gladstonian, who left Hastings to contest Liverpool, is defeated. At Stockport, Jennings, Tory, received 4,762; Gedge, Tory, 4,475; Leigh, Liberal, 4,184; and Davey, Liberal, 8,598.

In West Leeds Herbert Gladstone received 5,226 and Williams 2,970. It is feared that to-day's polling will depress the Liberals.

The British Elections.

LONDON, July 2.—P. J. Power, Parnellite, was elected to represent the east division of Waterford; Mr. Quin was elected for Kilkenny; and Mr. Pinkerton for Galway. Patrick Sarsfield and Hugh Johnston, two Parnellites, who undertook to contest two seats belonging to the Dublin University against David Chamberlain and Hughes Holmes, Conservatives, who had been in the last Parliament, and were nominated for them in the next, were jeered and booed to day wherever they were by students of the university. The latter, at one time, attempted to move and drive the home rulers out of the district, which is a great Tory stronghold. Flunkett, however, prevented the contemplated outrage. The Parnellites stood their ground and made a plucky contest, although the students and Tories thwarted every effort on the part of the candidates to make speeches by drowning their voices with groans and boos. Mr. Sarsfield's scarlet gown was pulled away from him and thrown to the mob, who tore it into small pieces, students.

THREE BOTTEN EGGS.

At Johnston and Sarsfield. The students, singing "God Save the Queen," kept an uproar for three hours. Finally, by a show of hands, the pro-most declared Flunkett and Holmes elected. The poll, however, was deemed and the Provost ordered that the poll be taken next week.

Gladstone has telegraphed as follows to Thomas O'Connor: "I shall watch your combats in Liverpool with great interest. I hope the Liberals will vote to take a man for supporting the all important and absorbing policy of the government. Mr. Chamberlain writes: 'I do not believe the Tories are pledged to coercion. I believe the Tory leaders are willing to go much farther in the direction of local government, for Ireland than hitherto.'"

9 p.m.—Fifty-two Conservatives, 12 Gladstonians, 10 Unionists, 8 Parnellites had been returned.

Returns up to 10 p.m. shows the election of 38 Tories, 38 Gladstonians, 13 Unionists, and 8 Parnellites. The results of yesterday's elections indicate nothing clearly, except the close nature of the contest.

Times, commenting on the elections, says: Though no conclusive numerical advantage has been gained by either side, it is evident that even with the transfer of the Irish vote, Mr. Gladstone barely holds his own in boroughs. The Daily News says: Government has not done badly, considering the disadvantages under which it has been fighting. The Standard says: The results are highly encouraging to the Unionists. The Daily Telegraph says: "It is too early to pre-announce the result, but so far there is little or no encouragement for Gladstone's wild project."

GLADSTONE RE-ELECTED.

LONDON, July 2.—Gladstone was re-elected for Midlothian. Up to 10 o'clock this afternoon twenty-two Tories, nine Unionists, twelve Lib. rats and three Parnellites had been elected.

The Giant Powder Explosion.

MONROEVILLE, N. J., July 2.—The cause of the giant powder explosion at McCainsville will probably never be known. A double force of men began work at 7 a.m. to-day, so that business could be suspended from Saturday until Tuesday morning. The explosion occurred in the mixing room. The building was blown into splinters and fragments of the bodies of the workmen were picked up 500 feet from the scene. Some pieces were taken from the branches of trees many yards away. The largest portion of a body yet found will not weigh fifteen pounds. An immense excavation was made where the building stood and the devastation is apparent for 500 feet in every direction.

The Civil Engineers.

DENVER, Col., July 2.—A special train bearing 400 delegates to the annual convention of the American Association of Civil Engineers, arrived at Denver this morning. They were much fatigued after the journey. The meeting, which was to have been called to order this morning, was postponed until this afternoon, the proceedings of which were only those attendant on organization. This evening the association assembled in the Tabor Grand Opera House and were welcomed by Governor Eaton, on behalf of the State, and the Mayor in behalf of the city, after which Henry Flad, of St. Louis, president of the association, delivered the annual address. After adjournment the union were tendered an informal reception at the Windsor Hotel.
