

SEVENTY-SIX COLUMNS
The demands of Utah's press upon the Sunday
HERALD are again
increasing. It is again evident that when an enlargement of the paper is necessary,
the largest paper
published in the Territory.

SALT LAKE DAILY HERALD.

SIXTEEN LIVE PAGES
The SUNDAY HERALD continues steadily and surely to win its way into popular favor. Its circulation shows a gratifying increase from week to week. Advertisers, mark the fact.

VOL XVII. NO. 125.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH: SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1886.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

WORSE THAN THE FIRE!

Chicago Puts on Sackcloth and Ashes.

ST. LOUIS WINS—SCORE 4 TO 3.

The Bartholdi Ceremonies—W. C. T. U.—A Woman's Rights—Wilson Barrett—Other Items.

Chicago in Mourning.

St. Louis, October 23.—The sixth and what proved to be the decisive game between the Chicago and St. Louis Browns was by far the closest and most exciting of the series. Although the game was overcast with threatening clouds, which promised to rain at any moment, a crowd early began to arrive on the grounds and continued to pour through the gates until long after the game was well under way. The attendance was slightly larger than yesterday, the total receipts were $7,500. This made the total amount won by the St. Louis club by the result of the game $14,300, of which sum $6,554.25 was $14,300 at Chicago and $6,355.85 at St. Louis. Before the game began Mr. H. Clay Sexton, on behalf of the members of the Merchants' Association, presented Bushong, pitcher of the Browns, with a handsome silver service, and Captains Anson and Comiskey with bouquets. For umpire, Pierce of the League staff, had been selected. His voice was weak and his decisions throughout the game gave rather poor satisfaction. At precisely 3:30 the game began with the Chicago at bat. Before the end of the first inning, it became evident that it was to be a battle of pitchers, Clarkson being a crack pitcher and Carruthers of the respective clubs, being in splendid condition. Neither scored in the first inning, and only one man reached first base—W. Nell of St. Louis, who got his base on balls. For the Chicago, Pfeiffer hit made to right, stole second, reached third on a passed ball, and came home on Ryan's hit. In the fourth, Pfeiffer sent a ball under the seats behind center field for a home run, and in the sixth made the third and last run for the visitors by getting to third on a bit, which passed between the legs of both Anson and Welch, and coming home on Williamson's fly to Welch. Up to eighth innings St. Louis had not made a hit nor got but one man on first. In this inning, however, Comiskey got to first on a sae hit to right; then Welch hit to Burns, who threw the ball past Anson, allowing Comiskey to score. After Foutz and Robinson had retired on flies, Bushong took first base on balls, and Latham's hit hit brought in two runs. Latham, however, over-ran third and touched out. Carruthers retired the nine by going out at first on a line hit to Burns. This left the score tied and the crowd went wild. The ninth inning yielded no runs for either side, though Burns made a two-base hit for the Chicago. In the tenth inning they retired in one-two-three order. For St. Louis, Welch hit safe second, Foutz hit to Williamson, who fumbled the ball, letting Welch to second. Robinson went out at first, Welch going to third, and coming in with a winning run on a wild pitch. The crowd immediately rushed on to the field in the highest state of excitement and jubilation, and the world's champions were carried from the grounds on the shoulders of their admirers. Score—Chicago 3, St. Louis 4.

On the Turf.

Lexington, Ky., October 23.—The fall meeting of the Kentucky Association closed to-day. Purse for all ages, one and one-eighth miles—Goldman won, Little Minnie second, Bedstone third. Time, 1:50 1/4. Thomas stake for 2-year-olds, one mile—Terracotta won, Banburg second, Mary third. Time, 1:44. Selling purse, for all ages, one and one-fourth miles—Skobloff won, Woodrat second, Bob Swim third. Time, 2:09 1/2. Purse for 2-year-olds, five furlongs—Dunbrook won, Lady Max second, Ransche third. Time, 1:04.

The Bartholdi Ceremonies.

WASHINGTON, October 23.—Major General Schofield, who has charge of the ceremonies attending the inauguration of the Bartholdi Statue next Thursday, called at the White House to-day, and had an interview with the President with regard to his participation in the ceremonies. The President and most of the Cabinet will attend, but the details of the trip to New York have not been completed. It is reported that Mrs. Cleveland and the wives of several of the Cabinet officers will accompany the party.

Taken to the County Jail.

Chicago, October 23.—John T. Mahan, clerk of election, who was incarcerated on registration day, was before Judge Pendergast this morning charged with contempt of court. The Judge sent him to the county jail for fifty days.

Released From Confinement.

Buena Vista, October 23.—The government has temporarily released from confinement the Socialist Anselme in order to enable him to conduct a canvass for a seat in the House of Representatives to which he has been nominated.

Will Immediately Elect a Ruler.

London, October 23.—The Bulgarian government has announced to the powers that the Soubraje will meet on October 31st, and after verifying the election returns will immediately elect a ruler.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., October 23.—The morning meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held to-day in sections in the various churches. The most notable paper presented was that of Mrs. J. K. Barney on prison and jail, who, with Mrs. Mary E. Hunt, of Massachusetts, in her paper on scientific instruction, urged that there is a demand for supplementary reading books in schools and that they be supplied in the shape of temperance literature. Mrs. E. H. Bradley, of England, spoke on "social purity" and said: "I bring you a greeting of love from the English societies I represent, and from our champion, best loved and worst hated in Britain, William Thomas Stead. Social purity, as we use it, means the purifying of the people. I wish we had a movement like your Women's Christian Temperance Union in England. Many of our purity workers are not with us on the temperance question, and this somewhat retards the work."

A Woman's Right to a Homestead Entry.

WASHINGTON, October 23.—In the case of Marian Good, nee Wilcox, of Fairwin, Kansas, on appeal from a decision of the Commissioner General of the Land Office, the Secretary of the Interior has decided, in accordance with the former ruling of the department, that the marriage of a single woman who has made a homestead entry will not defeat her right to make a final proof and receive a title to the land under the homestead law. This decision reverses the Commissioner of the General Land Office, who held that a woman who makes a homestead entry and subsequently marries before completing the same, forfeits her right thereby to acquire a title to the land.

Saved Back Hire.

CLEVELAND, O., October 20.—W. K. Vanderbilt is an insignificant looking gentleman, and does not even appear rich. Tuesday morning, after paying his bill at the Stillman, he picked up his heavy valise and actually walked to the Union depot. If Cleveland had been Niagara Falls this course would have been justified, but the hackmen here are not highwaymen, and they look upon Vanderbilt's pedestrian tour as a personal insult. Opinion is divided among the hotel employees. Some think that economy was at the bottom of William K.'s action, and others are under the impression that he was trying to disguise himself as a commercial traveler.

Too Horrible to Contemplate.

KANSAS CITY, October 21.—One of the most barbarous crimes ever perpetrated was committed last night by a colored man named Cy Liberty. He engaged in a quarrel with his wife, and knocked her down and beat her to insensibility. The fiend then saturated her clothing with kerosene and set fire to it and left her, making his escape by the back door of the house. It was several moments before the neighbors discovered the woman's awful condition, and when the flames were extinguished her body was burned to a crisp, and she died to-day. The murderer is still at large. Lynching in cases of his capture is freely discussed.

Wilson Barrett.

NEW YORK, October 23.—Wilson Barrett, the English actor who has made a most favorable impression in the title part of the classic drama "Clandon" at the Star Theatre, appeared for the first time here this afternoon in one-act sketches, "A Clerical Error" and "Chatterton." In the former he did not appear to advantage, partly because of the construction of the sketch, and partly because his fine mobile face was hidden beneath a full beard, but as Chatterton, an unfortunate young genius, whose poetic soul defies the wastings of starvation, he outlined a most engrossing and attractive figure and was warmly received.

For the Indian Training School.

WASHINGTON, October 23.—The Secretary of the Interior has informed the War Department that thirty nine Indian youths between the age of 12 and 22 years, among the Apaches confined at Fort Marion, Fla., will be received for educational and industrial training, if delivered to Captain Pratt Superintendent of the Carlisle Indian Training School in Pennsylvania, and he has also directed the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to provide school accommodations for those below 12 years of age suitable to be sent to school.

A Railway Wreck.

DETROIT, October 23.—Word has just been received of what is believed to be a serious wreck on the Grand Haven & Milwaukee Railroad, about eight miles from here. A passenger train ran into a freight late to-night. Help has been sent from this city. No particulars have been yet received.

Lynched for Murder.

JACKSONVILLE, October 23.—A Times-Union special from Apalachicola says that John and Lot Riten were lynched to-day, at Blountstown, Franklin County, this state, for the murder of John Griffin on October 24.

Deputy Fourth Auditor.

WASHINGTON, October 23.—The President has appointed L. N. Buford, of Mississippi, to be Deputy Fourth Auditor.

Sick and bilious headache, and all derangements of stomach and bowels, cured by Dr. Pierce's "Pelllets"—or anti-bilious granules. 25 cents a trial. No bilious boxes to allow waste of virtues by druggists.

A ROYAL VAGABOND.

A Scandal in High Circles in Berlin.

A VERY SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.

A Fast Ocean Mail Service—Another Schooner Lost—The Earthquake Abroad—General News.

A Royal Vagabond.

BERLIN, October 23.—A scandal has been caused in the highest circles by the arrest of Baron Otto Von Schleinitz, nephew of the deceased minister of that name, and a member of the emperor's household. He is charged with acting as agent of a band of men leagued together for the purpose of extorting money from wealthy and high born persons, and with selling forged titles and decorations. Schleinitz was a captain in the Prussian army. He gambled and ran through a fortune. On the discovery of his crime the police favored his escape to France out of regard for his uncle, who was then alive. Since the latter's death Schleinitz has been traced to England, where he is charged with the forgery of a bill of exchange for 2,400 marks. He has just been extradited. An accomplice named Lange, who was concerned in the forgery, committed suicide upon hearing of Schleinitz's arrest.

For a Fast Ocean Mail Service.

QUEENSTOWN, October 23.—Government has sent out circulars to steamship owners asking for tenders for a fast ocean mail service. The conditions set forth in the circulars are that the contractors shall maintain a regular line of staunch and powerful steamers to perform weekly voyages between Liverpool and Quebec in the summer, and between Liverpool and Halifax and Portland in the winter, the steamers to make fifty-two voyages each way during each year. The proposed contract is to be for ten years. The steamships required must be of not less power, strength or capacity than the Parisian of the Allen line, and are to be of not less speed than fifteen knots an hour. The contractors are not to discriminate in freight rates against Canadian shippers. The contract is to be subject to the approval of Parliament.

A Sensational Suicide.

WASHINGTON, October 23.—The Sixth Auditor's Office was the scene of a sensational suicide to-day. Robert W. Alston, a clerk in that branch of the government service, after coolly announcing to the chief of the division that he was "going to put an end to this thing," walked to his desk, took a .33 caliber revolver from his pocket, and in the presence of his fellow clerks sent a ball crashing through his brain. The pistol was placed so near his head that his hair was singed and his skull shattered. The unfortunate lived but forty-five minutes after the fatal shot was fired. Nervous depression is said to have led to it. He was a son of Colonel Robt. Alston, of Atlanta.

Another Schooner Lost.

BOSTON, October 23.—The schooner John W. Monson, which sailed from this port August 11th, on a cod-fishing voyage, is now given up for lost. She carried a crew of ten men. Charles Doty was her master and nearly all her crew belonged to the provinces. The vessel was of 55-ton register.

Honoring the Knights.

PHILADELPHIA, October 23.—The parade of the Knights of Labor to-night in honor of the delegates from this city to the Richmond convention who returned this evening, was, without exception, the greatest demonstration of the kind ever seen in Philadelphia. It is estimated that 30,000 men were in line.

All Hands Lost.

St. JOHN'S, N.F., October 23.—A telegram from Tilt Cove, Notre Dame Bay, this evening, reports the loss of a fishing vessel and all hands on Thursday last.

The Earthquakes Abroad.

ATHENS, Greece, October 23.—A shock of earthquake was felt here to-day.

Each at once her choppy fingers laying Upon her skinny lip.

SALARIES IN NEW YORK.

The Beggary Fittance Earned by Clerks and Salesmen.

Comptroller Lowe has announced that hereafter he will not pay any part of a clerk's salary to the loan brokers, who have so long fattened on this kind of usury, says a New York letter to the Utica Herald. The pressure to which the salaried men are subject makes them incessant borrowers, and after they have run in debt elsewhere as much as possible they apply to the salary brokers a class which has reached permanence, if not respectability. Some of this number limit loans to $5 or $10 a month, and find their customers in retail clerks. Others hang round the postoffice and city hall and deal out large sums, but the best pickings are found at the custom house, where most of the officials live a month ahead and pay large fees for cash advances. The salary broker under such favorable circumstances can clear $2,000 a year, and live in an easy manner on the shaves inflicted on others. When a clerk's wages are mortgaged a month ahead he is so afraid that his employer will find out that he pays in self-defense. Security, indeed, is of the highest importance, and hence all such transactions are advertised as "confidential." This is the amplifier. Lowe has his determination to oppose the ruinous system. He will pay no more salary orders to brokers, and if any order is presented it will not be paid until an explanation is given why personal application is not made. It is one of the common complaints among salaried men that they can not live on their income. No wonder, for New York salaries are very low compared with expenses. Clerks in retail stores get from $5 to $15 a week, and the latter is paid only to the best salesmen. Bookkeepers receive from $500 to $1,000, though a few favored men in large places get $2,000 a year. Situations in the postoffice at $300 are in great demand, and clerks in public offices at $1,500 are among the spoils of party success. Such a berth, indeed, is often sought for by bribery—that is, by paying $5 a week bonus for the appointment. Now, when you consider that a set of apartments costs $20, and that a flat three stories high rents from $35 to $40 a month, it is not surprising that a salaried man should be almost always in debt. There has been for several years a reduction of salaries of all kinds, owing to severe competition in trade. Among the poorest paid class is the gas man at the elevated road, who only gets $2.25 a day, and yet many of them are married. There is a great pressure, however, to get even such petty berths and New York, indeed, contains such an immense number of people in search of work that the very smallest salaries are accepted.

AN ALLEGED GHOST.

A Very Strange Story From Doer, Del.

THE MONTHLY APPARITION.

A Romance From Real Life, and Its Peculiar Ending—A Family Broken Up.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., October 15.—A strange sequel to a very sad story that agitated Philadelphia fifteen years ago comes from Dover, Del. In 1871 John Hess was Lieutenant of Police in this city in what is now known as the Eighth District. One of his subordinates was named William Darrah, who was an inseparable companion of his superior officer. Darrah had a very beautiful wife and two lovely children. The two men had been acquainted from boyhood up and Hess was a frequent visitor at the house of the subordinate. One day in the summer of 1872 Mr. Darrah received an anonymous note warning him to beware of Hess, as the latter was taking advantage of the roundsman's absence from home to make love to his pretty wife. No attention was paid to the letter and so little stock did Darrah take in it that he laughingly showed it to his superior, and shaking him by the hand said: "I would no more doubt you, old boy, than I would the Bible."

Not many days after this Darrah received a second note, and a week later a third, all the same import. To these he paid no more attention than he did to the first. On or about August 25th, 1872, Darrah was on duty. He was taken suddenly ill in the street, and hurried home to obtain medical assistance. As he entered the house he saw Lieut. Hess in the back kitchen with his arm about Mrs. Darrah's neck. To say that the man was startled would be but faintly to express it. He said nothing, however, but went upstairs and threw himself on the bed. Within twelve hours he had fully recovered and was again on duty. The following week he was placed on night duty, his hours of service being from 7 p.m. to 6 a.m. About 5 o'clock in the morning, while patrolling his beat, he was approached by a woman who thrust a note in his hand and then suddenly disappeared down a dark alley-way. Darrah walked under the light of a street-lamp and opened the piece of paper which was folded several times. He read these words: "You did not believe what I first wrote you. If you doubt me, go to your home at once."

AN AWFUL DISCOVERY.

The policeman had almost forgotten the anonymous communications and the subsequent sight in the back kitchen, but this brought it to his mind with renewed force. He hurried to his humble little dwelling and stealthily entering by the back way, he saw Lieutenant Hess seated in a chair while Mrs. Darrah was tying his cravat. After she had adjusted it to her satisfaction, she threw her arms about the neck of the handsome Lieutenant and kissed him passionately several times. Darrah was almost stunned. He went back and patrolled his beat until 6 o'clock, then going to the station house he met Lieutenant Hess just as the State House bell was striking the hour. Approaching him he said: "John Hess, we have been friends for many years. I have trusted you as I would my own brother. I have been warned, as you know, that you were taking advantage of this friendship. I could not and would not believe it until this morning, when I was convinced by my own eyes. It is impossible for me to permit you to live any longer. To-morrow morning at 6 o'clock I will kill you. Make the best of the twenty-four hours you have to live, for as true as God hears me I will do what I say."

On Twelve Counts.

PITTSBURG, October 23.—Samuel Gay, defaulting chief clerk, Pittsburg, in the Pension Office, pleaded guilty to-day on twelve counts. Sentence was deferred.

AN APPARITION.

About a year after his release from the Eastern Penitentiary, Darrah was suddenly awakened by seeing a bright light in his room. He arose, dressed himself and sought to discover from whence the glare came. The whole room seemed to be illumined with a ghostly glow, but no fixed light from whence the glow came could be discovered. He declares that he was thoroughly awake, and that his mental faculties were unimpaired, and that he was not the subject of a hallucination. Seated in a chair near the head of the bed, he saw the dim outline of a form. As he looked the glow in the room became dimmer and the form more distinct, finally resolving itself into the shape of a man, clothed in a blue uniform. To Darrah's unspeakable amazement he recognized the features of the man he had slain years before. This is the story in his own words:

OTHER WITNESSES.

Exactly one month after this Darrah's strange experience was repeated, and on the next month, and the next. Then, determined to see whether the apparition was the result of a disordered mind or not, he called in a friend, one Abraham Huckle, who sat up with him all night. Just before daylight the little room was lighted up again with the strange phosphorescent glow, which as before grew less and less bright, and as it died away the form of the man in the chair at the head of the bed. His head was thrown back and his arm extended, and his expression was that of one enjoying a joke. The two men watched for nearly twenty minutes without uttering a sound—Huckle by the way, almost frightened out of his wits. Darrah broke the suspense by speaking, and the ghostly visitor disappeared. To still further convince himself that he was not the victim of an optical delusion, Darrah on the 27th of the following month called on two more friends, and they, too, were rewarded with the sight of the shadowy man in uniform.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Clara L. J. Young deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, executors of the last will of Clara L. J. Young, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary vouchers, within ten months after the first publication of this notice to the said executors, at the residence of Nathaniel V. Jones, second South Street, Salt Lake City, in the County of Salt Lake, Utah.

VALLEY HOUSE,

Salt Lake City.

The above Hotel will be

Permanently Closed to the Public

MONDAY, OCT. 25th, 1886,

By the Proprietor, A. C. BRIGGS, who will, commencing the following day,

Tuesday, Oct. 26,

AT 10 A. M.

and continuing daily till Goods are all disposed of, offer at PUBLIC AUCTION the entire stock of Parlor, Bedroom, Dining Room, Kitchen, Hall and Office Furniture pertaining to the said Hotel.

Call Early and Secure

BARGAINS

Pioneer Patent Roller Mill COMPANY,

MILL: No. 53 E. North Temple Street.

OFFICE: 21 W. South Temple Street.

BRANDS:

High Patent, —AND— Baker No. 1.

Superfine Whole Wheat Flour

Highest Cash Price Paid for Wheat.

Telephone to Mills, No. 571; Office No. 371.

ELIAS MORRIS, Supr.