The Election Results Coming in Rather Slowly.

CARLISE ELECTED AFTER ALL.

The Contest was Close, and the Official Count will be Necessary to Decide in Several Cases.

Arizona.
TUCSON, November 4.—The Democrats elect both houses of the Legislature.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 4.—One hundred and twenty-three thousand three hundred and seventy-three votes were cast out of the total registered voters in the State (about 200,000) gives Swift (Republican) for Governor 55,811; Carlisle (Democrat) 51,715; Russell (Prohibitionist) 2,443; Wigginton (American) 4,457; O'Donnell (Independent) 11,506. In the First Congressional District Garter (Republican) is falling behind. The present indications are that the Legislature will be: Senate—15 Democrats, 29 Democrats; Assembly—41 Republicans, 30 Democrats.

Colorado.

DENVER, November 4.—The election of Adams (Democrat) for governor by a plurality of 2,000 is conceded by the Republicans. All but six counties in the State are heard from, giving the returns on Congressman about even. The counties yet to come in have always been Democratic, so the indications are in favor of a small majority for Reed, Democrat. The Democrats of Arapahoe County elect six and possibly seven out of eight representatives, and one senator. This is an increase of seven in the lower house, and one in the senate. The legislature and Senatorial contest in other counties are elected by the Democrats, so there is little doubt they will have the lower house of the general assembly, and possibly the senate. The remainder of the State ticket, except the State secretary and auditor, and possibly the Attorney-General, is claimed by the Democrats. There is no change in election matters from this morning, except that the names show the vote for Reed, Democrat, and Snymer, Republican, to Congress is very close, and will probably require an official count to determine the result. Reed's prospects are not so bright as this morning. In the lower house of the next general assembly the Democrats claim they will have 27 members out of 49, which will be an increase of twelve. In the Senate they claim they will have eight out of 20, an increase of six.

Florida.

ORLANDO, November 4.—Pendle, labor candidate, in the First Florida District, is not elected, as would appear from the estimates made of the membership of the next House of Representatives by the Secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee. On the contrary, his competitor, Davidson, Democrat, is re-elected by at least 3,000 majority. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Democratic, thus ensuring the election of a Democratic Senator to succeed Jones.

Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., November 4.—Referring to a despatch to the Associated Press, sent from this city yesterday by Hon. William M. Springer, upon the result of the Congressional election in this district, his opponent, Major James A. Connally, this evening furnishes the following card for publication: "Mr. Springer having announced through the Associated Press, that his virtual defeat was caused by money sent into this district from outside by Protectionists, I want to say that it is one of the notorious facts of the campaign just closed, that my name was fought without money, while Mr. Springer's workers were abundantly supplied with money till the last vote was polled. In the Democratic counties of Morgan and Sangamon, where he and I are best known, he was there by a live wire for twenty miles behind me most. He is the only Democratic candidate for Congress, as I am informed, who has failed to carry Sangamon County, since Abraham Lincoln carried it forty years ago. Not one cent of money was sent to my assistance from any source, and my attempt of his to pose as an independent 'protectionist gold' is an insult to the independent voters of this district, who made a vigorous, honest and open effort to rid themselves of the same." (Signed) JAMES A. CONNALLY.

Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 4.—It will take the official count to-day to decide the standing of the Legislature. The Democrats claim it by two majorities, and the Republicans by six. The News-Tribune, published a list, not official, giving the Republicans two majorities. There is no change in the Congressional delegation. Homan's majority is about 700. No positive statement can yet be made by the Legislature. Governor Gray will not leave the present return, if he is elected in the ratio of the Republican ticket, would elect a Republican State ticket, it would require an official count to determine whether the Republicans or Democrats had carried the Legislature. The Republican State Central Committee says, that basing the claims upon the returns from more than one-half of the counties, the Republicans elect the State ticket by 500; that the Legislature in doubt is conceded. The Republicans expect to gain it and the Democrats hold tenaciously to the claim that it will be anti-Republican by from 2 to 5 majority. The Congressional delegation is unchanged since yesterday.

A REPUBLICAN GAIN.

The Republican State central committee has official returns from 82 of the 92 counties in the State, which show a Republican net gain on the vote of 1883 of 5,654. Estimating the ten remaining counties on the basis of 1884, gives the Republicans a plurality of the State ticket of 3,412. There is no further change in the legislative situation. Committees of both parties insist on their respective claims, the Republicans claiming 78 members, and the Democrats 80. The Legislature consists of 100 members of the House and 50 Senators. Senator Harrison's seat at Washington is the prize to be contested for.

Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, November 4.—Nothing definite can be stated in regard to Carlisle's election until the official count is completed. The Times-Star this morning, does not change the outlook, which is considered favorable to Carlisle by a close vote.

Louisville, November 4.—The Courier-Journal received the following to-night:

COVINGTON, Ky., Nov. 4. I am elected by from 500 to 600 majority. (Signed) JOHN G. CARLISLE.

Massachusetts.

BOSTON, November 4.—The Massachusetts Legislature stands: Senate—33 Republicans, 15 Democrats; House—160 Republicans, 79 Democrats, and 1 Independent.

Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, November 4.—Additional returns from the interior of the State confirm, in a general way, last night's statement regarding the Congressional districts. All the districts, excepting the Fifth and Thirteenth, return Democrats by fair to large majorities. Clardy in the Tenth and Burns are out down nearly one-half, but the remainder receive nearly, if not quite, the usual Democratic majorities. In the Second district, where Mansur and Hale, both Democrats, ran, Mansur the regular nominee, has about 1,300 majority. Wade, Republican, in the Thirteenth district, will have about 1,500 majority. The complexion of the Legislature cannot yet be given, nor can the Democratic majority on the State ticket be stated.

A Waterloo, Ill., special to the Globe-Democrat says: "Col. William B. Morrison to-night, in response to inquiries as to the causes of his defeat, says: Jarrett, the tin-plate emissary of Pennsylvania, and other protectionists professing to represent the Knights of Labor interests, were in the district ten or more days, just before election hiring and bribing such as could be hired and bribed and continued to consolidate in Baker's interest most of the labor element; in proof of which hiring and bribery we have Jarrett's letters. While this was going on, Baker was declaring for a pure ballot. Mr. Hewitt's interview, as telegraphed to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, falsely representing me as standing in the way of tariff reductions, facilitated Jarrett's mission of bribery in the interest of protectionists, but it is all right, if the blood of the martyrs is still the seed of the church." To the question whether the result was a surprise, Colonel Morrison said: "I recognized the influences that were at work as I went through the district. I received a great deal of information as to what was doing. Heretofore, I have had my share of the labor vote of the district. This time it was handled as I have indicated." Colonel Morrison does not entertain the idea that the cause of tariff reform has received a setback by reason of his defeat. To the inquiry whether any sentiment antagonistic toward the administration had had a bearing on the result, Colonel Morrison said: "No, I think not. These are hard times. There is some feeling that the change of administration has not been followed by that effect on business, and by such revival of good times as was anticipated. This feeling, what there was of it, produced some sympathy among the Democrats—perhaps—but I did not discover any anti-administration sentiment, based upon any specific objection to the course of the President."

Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., November 4.—Returns all day have been generally favorable to the Democrats, and the most sanguine Republicans are not now claiming the election of McGill, as Governor, by more than 5,000; while the Democrats are elated and confident that Dr. Ames will be elected by a small majority. Returns are coming in slowly, hundreds of precincts in the State being remote from telegraphic communication. It is quite probable that it may take the official count to decide. In Hennepin County, the home of Dr. Ames, some 1,500 ballots for him were thrown out because the words "Labor ticket" was printed thereon; offsetting this the Republicans claim extensive Democratic frauds in this county. Whether McGill's ticket, as a whole, certainly is, as he ran about 12,000 behind the other candidates for State offices. The Minnesota Legislature has 150 members, viz: 47 Senators and 103 Representatives. In the last Senate, there were 32 Republicans, 11 Democrats; in the House, 79 Republicans and 21 Democrats. It is impossible to give reliable figures in the composition for the next Legislature, but the estimates given now, are: Senate, 78 Republicans, 15 Democrats; House, 75 Republicans, 25 Democrats, and the Farmer's Alliance, which would give a Republican majority of 29 on joint ballot.

Nebraska.

OMAHA, November 4.—The Democrats to-night celebrated the election of John A. McShane, the first Nebraska Democratic Congressman, by a big torchlight parade and a reception to the victorious candidate.

New Hampshire.

CONCORD, November 4.—All but four small towns, which in 1884 gave 106 for Currier, Republican, and 116 for Hill, Democrat, for Governor, give Sawyer (Republican) 38,019; Cogswell (Democrat) 37,044; Wentworth (Prohibition) and scattering 2,194. Reckoning the votes of these small towns the same as in 1884, Sawyer lacks 1,230 of election, and Cogswell 2,158.

CONCORD, November 4.—The election of McKinney (Democrat) to Congress in the First district over Hayes (Republican) is conceded by a plurality of about 151. This is a Democratic gain of one member and equally divides the New Hampshire delegation.

New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., November 4.—The result as to the legislature is still in doubt. Both Republicans and Democrats claim to have a majority on joint ballot. The Democratic State committee claims that Green (Democrat) had between 9,000 and 10,000 majority over Howe (Republican) for Governor. The Republicans have 12 Senators, and the Democrats 9. The Democrats claim 31 of 60 members of the Assembly. The Republicans claim the same number. In a number of districts the vote is so close that the result cannot be definitely known until the ballots are counted. In the second assembly district of Mercer County, Walters, Democrat, has been elected by two majorities and the Republicans will ask the court to order a recount on the ground of alleged fraud. This action will be taken after the board of canvassers meet on Friday. The Democrats claim that the result will give Walters an increased majority.

New York.

NEW YORK, November 4.—The Legislature by the last count, has a Democratic majority of 1 on joint ballot without Donahue, the Labor Assemblyman of Passaic. There will be recounts in Salem, Burlington, the Third district of Passaic and the Second district of Essex County.

North Carolina.

RALEIGH, November 4.—The Second district has been carried by the Republicans, Abbott a negro, being elected.

West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., November 4.—There is no change in the election returns in this, the Third, district. Snyder, Democrat, is elected by a reduced majority. The whisky element carried the day by electing for a license.

Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, November 4.—From complete returns from all the legislative districts, the Democrat, to-night, figured that the Republicans will have a majority of 35 over all opposition in the Legislature on joint ballot, and that they control both the Senate and the Assembly.

WELL LIKE A LOG.

Another Brutal Prize Fight in New Jersey.

NEW YORK, November 4.—Heavy weight, Jack Smith, of England, who won last year's championship of the New York Athletic Club, and Billy Dunn, who has successfully encountered Jack Fallon and other good men, fought a prize fight in New Jersey this morning.

In the first round Smith got in a heavy blow with his right on his antagonist's left cheek, and partly dazed him. The call of time saved him from further injury. One of the joints of Smith's first finger on the right hand was dislocated. In the second round Dunn became very aggressive. Smith tried the upper cut in return for a blow in the ribs, and followed it up by three good ones about the neck. When time was called, Smith was doing capital work. Smith opened the third round by swinging his right to Dunn's left eye, bringing first blood. Suddenly Dunn swung his right and landed it directly under his opponent's left ear. Smith fell like a log, knocked completely out. He had not recovered consciousness when time was called, and the purse and battle were awarded to Dunn.

The Fire Fiend's Work.

CAMPBELLTOWN, N. B., November 4.—A destructive fire occurred at Dalhousie last night, and the best portion of the business part of the town is in ashes. Twenty-two buildings were consumed. The fire is said to have originated in a tenement over the postoffice. The loss is heavy.

A TOWN ON FIRE.

WINDSOR, Mad., November 4.—Dispatches from Battleford, N. W. T., report that the town is on fire, but that the flames are under control. The Town Hall, American News establishment and McDonald's and Baker's stores were burned. The Hudson Bay's store was saved.

ANOTHER BIG BLAZE.

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., November 4.—A fire this morning destroyed two and a half blocks containing fifty buildings. The town has no fire apparatus. Thirty families are homeless and some of them entirely destitute. The loss is $50,000; insurance $12,000.

The Labor Party to be Permanent.

NEW YORK, November 4.—The Central Labor Union campaign committee met to-night and considered the question of forming a permanent political organization. The call will issue soon to all districts for delegates to the convention, which will be held at an early date and at which it is proposed to form a new party that shall take an active part in the canvass of 1888.

Beastie Getting Better.

NEW YORK, November 4.—The condition of Surveyor Beattie continues to improve.

THE WHITE SPECTRE.

The Thrilling Experience of a Railway Operator.

AN EARLY MORNING VISITOR.

Mixing Up the Trains—A Narrow Escape from Casualties—Miscellaneous News Notes.

A Ghastly Visitor.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., November 4.—Peter Kinney, employed as telegraph operator at Ingraham station, on the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railway, had an adventure at an early hour this morning that he will not soon forget. He was engaged at his instrument, when he heard a noise as if some one was trying to open the door, but thought nothing of it, nor even looked up from his work until, startled by a touch on his coat sleeve he turned around and to his horror saw a tall gaunt figure dressed in white with a long knife in its hand standing directly over him. He cleared the slight railing surrounding his desk as a single bound, but the strange visitor was between him and the door and he began pleading for his life. The spectre made no move to follow him except to prevent his escape by the door. As the ghastly creature made no advance, the operator in a measure recovered his self-possession and stood on the defensive in the farthest corner of the room. The apparition then seated itself in Kinney's chair before the telegraph instrument, keeping a close watch on the movements of the operator. They retained the same relative positions for nearly an hour, during which time the trains on the railroad approaching that point, were brought to a standstill. One or two trains had been stopped for the night to go ahead. The crew of the first train finally walked up the track to the telegraph office to find out the cause of the delay when they discovered his predicament and subdued his captor after a desperate struggle. It was subsequently learned that the strange visitor resided at Sheridan station, nearly a mile away, and had escaped from his home about midnight.

Didn't Want to Go.

KANSAS CITY, November 4.—Mangus, head chief of the Chiricahu Apaches, and thirteen bucks and squaws, passed through here under guard to-day, en route to Fort Marion, Florida. While the party were going through Colorado, Mangus jumped through the car window and ran some distance before he was captured. Then he obtained a knife and stabbed himself in half a dozen places, inflicting serious wounds. This morning he attacked his interpreter, striking the man about the head with his shackles on his wrist. During the consequent uproar the train started, carrying off all the party except the interpreter, who was left behind and will follow to-night.

DENVER, November 4.—A Pueblo special to the News says Mangus Colorado, Apache chief, in charge of the detachment of colored troops, on his way to Florida, attempted to escape, near Pueblo, this morning. When the train was three miles east of Pueblo, and running at forty miles an hour, Mangus asked permission to go into the saloon, which was granted. As soon as he entered he locked the door, smashed the glass, and leaped through the window. The train ran nearly a mile before it could be stopped, and when it backed up, Mangus was found lying along side of the track, unconscious and badly cut and bruised, and three ribs broken. He was taken aboard the car and came to his senses. He then made a desperate fight. One hand had slipped out of the manacles, leaving them hanging to the other, and he slugged one of the soldiers with it in the face, knocking him down. Then he got on the floor, and thence under the seat, struggling with a half dozen soldiers, and howling. The rest of the Apaches swung a roar but each was guarded by a negro, with a cocked carbine, and for a while the bedlam prevailed. Finally Mangus was stretched across two seats with the bell-cord wound him all the way up his legs and body.

The sudden death Tuesday at San Maris of the Spanish interpreter made Mangus sullen and he took it to heart greatly, which is supposed to have caused his fit of desperation.

The Cambridge Ceremonies.

BOSTON, November 4.—It has been arranged that the President, after his return from the ceremonies in Cambridge on Monday, will hold a reception at Faneuil Hall for the general public, about 5 o'clock p.m. After this he will return to the Hotel Vendome, where a full dress reception, under the auspices of the city of Boston, will be held in the evening. After this the President will be escorted to Boston & Albany Station by the cadets, where he will take the 10.30 train for New York. Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Endicott will arrive here Saturday morning and will be the guests of Mrs. Powell Mason, a sister of Mrs. Endicott. On Monday, Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Endicott will be the guests of Mrs. Elliott, wife of President Elliott, of Harvard, returning to the evening reception at the Hotel Vendome.

Shot for High Treason.

CITY OF MEXICO, November 4.—The newspapers here have a report that General Garcia De La Cadona has been shot for high treason.

BLACK JACK'S IDEAS.

They are Very Good, Coming From a Republican.

CHICAGO, November 4.—The Inter-Ocean will publish the following to-morrow: "General Logan was chatting with a number of friends at the Grand Pacific Hotel yesterday, and in response to inquiries expressed himself on the results of the elections. In his opinion, it was coming just about as important to elect a good mayor for great cities as it was to elect good governors for the States indeed, in many instances, the mayor of a great city was called on to exercise much more judgment and nerve than a governor. Frequent riots, mutterings of Socialism and Anarchy, all these were but arguments for the election of good, strong mayors, and mayors who were not only amenable to themselves, but to a strong united party for all their conduct. In his opinion the Republicans to-day occupied in every respect the strongest possible position, and if it only stands firm and does not waver from its established line of principles, the future years will bring to it many more grand victories. Above all things, the Republican party wants to steer clear of all the 'isms' and fool theories that are afoot. To stoop to inject Socialist ideas into its platform, to pander to any element, however strong it may appear on the face of returns, which does not regard the sacredness of life, liberty and property, to abandon a single one of the principles of the Republican party would be to commit a great mistake. Let the Democratic party pander to all the low elements and Socialistic ideas, but let Republicans stand firm on their own platform."

THE NEXT HOUSE.

Democrats Claim a Good Working Majority.

WASHINGTON, November 4.—Edward McPherson, secretary of the Republican Congressional committee, makes the following computation from returns received up to 9 o'clock this evening, of the political complexion of the House of Representatives of the Fifty-fifth Congress: Returns for far as received indicate the election of 54 Republicans, 150 Democrats, 5 Labor and Independent, six doubtful, one vacancy—325. The doubtful are: One in Illinois (Lands); one in Kentucky (Carlisle); one in Ohio (Campbell); and three in Missouri (Clardy, Groves and Mansur). The Labor and Independents are one in Florida (Pendleton); one in Indiana (Rush); one in Iowa (Anderson); one in Virginia (Hopkins); one in Wisconsin (Smith). If the Democrats get four of the doubtful, they will have 163, or a majority of the House. McPherson says that the attitude of the Democracy toward the present administration is somewhat similar to that of the Republicans toward the administration of President Hayes, and that many dissatisfied Democrats voted the labor ticket. Labor, he thinks, will be an organized factor in the political contest of the future and the labor vote must be taken into serious consideration.

Mr. Phil Thompson, secretary of the Democratic committee, says the Democrats will have a good working majority in the House.

The Difficulty Settled.

PHILADELPHIA, November 4.—An important conference was held this afternoon between the members of the aid committee of the Philadelphia Manufacturers' Association and the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, by which the Frankfort troubles are practically settled. The Knights of Labor were represented by General Master Workman Powderly and Messrs. Hayes, Aylesworth and Carleton of the general executive board, while nearly all the members of the association committee were present on behalf of the manufacturers. As a result of the conference the following statement was given out at the meeting: The aid committee of the Philadelphia Manufacturers' Association with the executive board of the Knights of Labor withdrew all the grievances of the strikers at Troth's Mill, with the exception of the one relating to the question of wages, which will be referred to arbitration. This was agreed to by the aid committee. This practically settles the difficulties at Troth's Mill. It was also agreed that the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, in connection with the aid committee of the Philadelphia Manufacturers' Association, have formulated a set of rules which shall govern them in the settlement of all further difficulties between employers and employees, to the end of hereafter preventing strikes and lock outs.

The Stock Yards Strike.

CHICAGO, November 4.—The strike at the stock yards took a new and perhaps very serious turn to-night. To-morrow will probably decide whether or not there is to be a collapse or a protracted and more general struggle. The result depends upon the action taken to-morrow upon the mandate issued to-night by Master Workman Butler, The Knights of Labor met this evening, in the different assembly meetings, an order was read from Master Workman Butler calling out Armour's beef men to-morrow. It is asserted by many that Armour's men will disregard the order and stay at work. Their refusal to obey would make them liable to expulsion from the Knights of Labor. It would, however, doubtless settle the strike, there being little question that in such an event the employees of Morris & Swift would at once apply to be taken back. Should Armour's men obey the order to quit, it is generally conceded that another general strike of all classes of labor at the stock yards is almost inevitable.

Bills from Berlin.

BERLIN, November 4.—Under-Secretary Jacob has been appointed secretary of state for the Imperial Treasury. Completed statistics show that the year's increase in the value of German exports to America is $1,000,000, including $4,000,000 worth of sugar. Compared with the exports of 1879, the increase amounts to $200,000. The total exports for this year are placed at 3,000,000,000 marks, of which 10 per cent went to America.

Those Recent Dismissals.

MADRID, November 4.—Inquiries have elicited information that three-fourths of the sergeants recently dismissed from the army were members of secret Republican societies. Zorrillas admits that the dismissal of the Sergeants was a serious blow, but they boast that these are still 10,000 men in the army in their confidence and that they could at any moment cause an important garrison to declare for the Republic.
