OGDEN.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1887

The branch office of THE SALT LAKE HERALD is at the office of H. J. Grant & Co., Main Street, Ogden.

Brief Bits.

BEN ISRAEL at the Salt Lake Theatre to-night.

In the Police Court, yesterday, Joseph Wilcox was fined $10 for battery. The fine was paid.

FAST DAY was generally observed in this city yesterday, and the meetings were well attended.

THE UTAH & Northern brought down twenty-five Chinamen from Butte, yesterday. They were bound for San Francisco.

SARGENT WEEKS, the famous rifle shot of the Sixth Infantry, came in from Chicago last night and went down to Salt Lake.

It was reported on the streets late last night that Mr. William Driver had been elected to fill the position in the Chamber of Commerce made vacant by Mr. Boyle's resignation.

The good work goes bravely on. The old plank sidewalk in front of the Horrocks block, on Fifth Street, is being torn up, and will be replaced by a substantial stone pavement.

THE BOARD of directors of the Chamber of Commerce held their monthly meeting last night. All reporters were excluded. It was learned, before the meeting, that John A. Boyle, vice-president and deceptor, intended to resign.

Mrs. BESS E. RICH, the retiring president of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association, of the Third Ward, was the victim of a very pleasant surprise party last night. The affair was gotten up by the young ladies of the association.

In the First District Court.

The following business was transacted in the First District Court in this city, yesterday:

Rosenheim, Lewis & Co. vs. J. J. Brewer and L. J. West. The clerk having computed the interest in this case, it was ordered that judgment be entered against defendant for $939, with interest at 10 per cent, and $59.30 costs, and for execution to issue.

J. J. Kelley et al. vs. A. J. Kershaw et al.; motion for the marshal to make return on order of sale taken under advisement.

Fire at Ogden.

At about 9 o'clock last night, fire broke out in the frame building near the corner of Young and Fifth Streets. The building is owned by James Horrocks and used by Mrs. Ingram, as a boarding and lodging house. The firemen were soon on the ground and did good service, in preventing the flames from spreading to the adjacent buildings. The loss is estimated by Mr. Horrocks at about $1,000; insurance, $2,000.

Free Postal Delivery.

If Ogden has a population of 10,000, as is claimed, there is no reason why the free postal delivery should not be inaugurated at once. Postmaster Tyler says that the revenue is sufficient, and all that remains to be done is for the citizens to co-operate in this matter and Ogden will get free postal delivery. It is a pressing need, and there is no reason for delaying action.
