Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies.

"I consider Hood's Sarsaparilla the best medicine I ever used. It gives me an appetite and refreshing sleep, and keeps the cold out."

Purifies the Blood

"When I bought Hood's Sarsaparilla I made a good investment of one dollar in medicine for the first time. It has driven off rheumatism and improved my appetite so much that my boarding mistress says I must keep it locked up or she will be obliged to raise my board with every other boarder that takes Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

It is the best blood purifier before the public. It eradicates every impurity, and cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, all Humors, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, General Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla was a God-send to me, for it cured me of dyspepsia and liver complaint with which I had suffered 20 years."

A Pall of Sorrow Cast Over the World,

BY THE EMPEROR'S DECEASE.

The New King's Title to be Frederick III.—Death of Vice-President Potter—Other News Items.

The Dead Emperor.

LONDON, March 9.—Flags are at half-mast generally throughout England, on account of the death of the Emperor William. At 11:15 this morning, Prince Henry, of Battenburg, conveyed a message from the Queen to Count Von Hatzfeldt, German ambassador, expressing her Majesty's sorrow at the Emperor's death.

ROME, March 9.—The Chamber of Deputies will adjourn as a mark of respect for the dead Emperor. The general impression is that there will be no change in the political situation, so long as Prince Bismarck lives.

BERLIN, March 9.—The bourse is closed on account of the Emperor's death.

When the Reichstag met to-day, Prince Bismarck, with deep emotion, informed the members of the death of Emperor William. He also announced that the new King would assume the title of Frederick III.

It has pleased God to call His Majesty, the Emperor and King, our most gracious master, from life, after a short illness, and after a richly blessed reign.

At 7 o'clock this morning, the following bulletin was issued: After the silent flickering up of his vital power, yesterday evening, the Emperor's breath ceased during the night, and he has now attained a high degree.

At the opening of the lower house of the Prussian Diet, to-day, Herr Von Puttkammer, vice-president of the Prussian ministerial council, arose and said: "I have the sad duty to make a most painful communication to the House."

At the opening of the lower house of the Prussian Diet, to-day, Herr Von Puttkammer, vice-president of the Prussian ministerial council, arose and said: "I have the sad duty to make a most painful communication to the House."

WASHINGTON, March 9.—A telegram was received at the Department of State, this morning from Minister Pendleton, announcing the death of Emperor William, and a copy of a dispatch received by the German Charge d'Affaires, from Prince Bismarck, was sent to the Secretary of State.

The President desires you to make known through the foreign office, that the death of the illustrious and venerable Emperor of Germany has deeply aroused the sorrow and sympathy of the people of the United States and their government.

New York, March 9.—The steamship Albatross which arrived yesterday from the West Indies, reports that as she was leaving the harbor of Cartagena, it was learned that the steamer Rafael Reyes had exploded, and thirty people been killed.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Thomas J. Potter, vice-president and general manager of the Union Pacific railroad company, died at Welcker's Hotel, at 11:15 this morning.

What pure air is to an unhealthy locality, what spring cleaning is to the neat house-keeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody at this season.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The official announcement of Emperor William's death was received at the German legation early this morning. The telegram was signed by Prince Bismarck, and stated that the Emperor passed peacefully away at 8:30 this morning.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—On the assembling of the Commons, this afternoon, Mr. Smith, governor, leader, referred with deep sympathy to the death of the German Emperor. Sir William Vernon Harcourt, in the absence of Gladstone, concurred in the remarks. General surprise was expressed that the House of Commons did not adjourn in consequence of Emperor William's death.
