The Musicals.

On Tuesday evening last, those who were fortunate enough to attend the concert given by Home Circle Orchestra in the Union Opera House, were treated to a rare musical feast, such as, until within the last few weeks, the residents of Ogden have had few opportunities of listening to. The director is a musician of no mean order, and it should be a source of pride to the citizens of Ogden that one whose talent might be and has been recognized in the foremost cities of the Union, has such faith in the Junction City, Utah, as to respect for her people, and such undoubted assurance in her permanent growth, and the musical appreciation of her people, as to desire to devote his time and talent in helping to build up and foster a love of the "art divine."

We have equally as high a regard, and as great a confidence, in the musical ability possessed by Ogden City, and believe that, in this respect, she is second to no city of her size in the west. Our brass band, whose fame has deservedly extended beyond the limits of Utah's borders, is a gem and a fadless one, as is very eloquently testified to by the fact that for thirty years they have more than held their own, and to-day can obtain an audience in the open air in spite of wind and weather that is nothing less than remarkable.

Alleged Adultery.

Yesterday morning, at the depot, Deputy Marshal Steele and Police Officer Moroni Brown arrested John Lee and Lizzie Morgan on the charge of adultery, alleged to have been committed on Monday last in Ogden. They were brought before Commissioner L. R. Rogers, who also acted as prosecuting officer, and the defendant was represented by Mr. J. N. Kimball. Five witnesses were examined, whose testimony elicited the information that both defendants reside, when at home, at Grouse Creek, Box Elder County, from whence Mrs. Lee had fled from her husband. It appears that she was bound for Salt Lake, and had boarded the train, in company with the defendant first named as a side depot some miles nearer this city, and that it was the intention of Lee to provide means for her journey to Salt Lake City, but could only do so by first coming to Ogden. The parties having remained over night in town, it was supposed that adultery was then committed, but the evidence disproving the allegations, in the opinion of the commissioner, both defendants were discharged from custody.

Personals.

W. H. JONES is down from Brigham City. ABEL LEONARD, of the metropolis, is in the city. H. R. SEBREE, of Howard Sebree Co., Salt Lake, is in town. J. B. WALDEN, of Pavey & Walden, of the capital, is in town. JOSEPH GROESBECK, representing Remington, Johnson & Co., came up yesterday morning.

Sold.

The Union Opera House in this city, which has long disgraced the dignity of the drama hereabouts, has been sold, we understand, to Mr. H. O. Harkness, of McCammon, Idaho. The consideration could not be ascertained. It is said that the management will probably be turned over to Mr. D. D. Jones, the Fifth Street lumber man. It is to be hoped, however, that its use will be changed to a more compatible business, in order that the people of the city will be compelled to erect a more inviting place of operatic recreation.

Broken Arm.

A man named Ferguson, a switchman on the Central Pacific Railway, while coupling cars at the depot (?) in this city, met with an accident whereby one of his arms got crushed. He was taken to Dr. Bryant's office, and that gentleman dressed the wounds and made the patient as comfortable as possible. Last night he was conveyed to Sacramento, where he will receive official treatment in the C. P. hospital.

Briefs.

APRIL SHOWERS. SEASONABLE weather. WATER carts at a discount. UMBRELLAS at a premium. OUR conference storm is upon us. SURELY visitors yesterday were like angels' visits, few and far between. THE Probate Court met yesterday, and transacted the usual routine business. Rock for the foundation of the new City Hall is being deposited on the Union Square. We understand that the second warders are contemplating the erection of a hall for recreation purposes. EXCAVATIONS for Ogden's municipal mansion are being pushed energetically in spite of the inclement weather. THE newsboy, makes his round, rain or shine. Long ago did he decide that he cannot control the weather, and appears also determined to show that he cannot be controlled by it. CONFERENCE visitors are not confined to Salt Lake City, we can assure our concealed metropolitan friends, as many strange faces were to be seen on the Junction's streets yesterday. The edge of the sidewalk, abutting upon the National Bank building, is being planted with trees. This will beautify the spot, and add comfort in the warm season, it being a place which is open to the sun's powerful rays all day long from noon till. THE look on a lady's face at the depot yesterday, as she was decaying by the shunting of a train into walking about a dozen times up and down the "platform" (?) in the vain attempt to cross the lines, would have put to shame even the stony heart which all railroad officials are supposed, and with good grounds, to possess. In view of the "pattering" out of the real estate boom at the capital, several gentlemen in the realty business there are in town looking up the superior advantages and unexcelled opportunities for men of means and brains to make money in the Junction City, the west's unrivalled and peerless growing and going-to-be metropolis. THE dramatic season just closed has been a phenom'ally successful one to the Second Ward Theatians, their efforts having realized them the sum of $575 in the aggregate, $400 of which have been devoted to charitable purposes. The members of this popular company ought to feel proud of the record, and encouraged to continue in their efforts to provide healthy entertainment for Ogden's enterprising people. We had a runaway yesterday. A team was standing at the Eagle Mills, untied, when another team, possessed with more ambition than sense, endeavored to occupy the position of the first named, and did actually scare them into running away. The maddened team, in their frenzy, lost no time bolting up Fourth Street, but on reaching the vicinity of Ogden's beautiful Opera House fell against the bulletin board which tells the passer-by that the "dramatic season" is over, and the steels got stuck, not in the mire, but in a newly laid and soft asphaltum sidewalk, where the tonnage of the wagon became divided in twain. The astonished proprietor finally retook possession of his fleeing property, thankful that no other damage had resulted.

Police Court.

Judge Dee had a quiet day in court yesterday, the only business done being the sentencing of the Fourth Street violator of the city ordinance relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors to 40 or forty days. The judge very graciously permitted Mr. Fisher to have until this morning to decide whether to take the "jug" or turn over the coin. Mr. Rowlands' case has been deferred for hearing until Monday.

THE INCURABLE CURED!

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Feb. 24, 1887. Gentlemen—Seven years ago a sore developed on my nose from a simple nail scratch. I tried a few simple remedies, but the sore would not yield. It grew worse every year for seven years. Many physicians were consulted, but all failed. I was in very poor health, and could hardly drag about. After I had finished the course of S. S. S. I was strong and buoyant, and had a good appetite. I regard it as a most valuable medicine for ladies in weak, delicate health. It is a household medicine with me. Yours respectfully, Mrs. E. W. WILSON.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., April 2, 1887. Gentlemen—For twenty years I have had a sore on my left cheek. It had gradually been growing worse. The many physicians who had been consulted were unable to do me any good. Last fall a year ago I began using S. S. S. At first it inflamed the sore, and it became more violent than ever; so much so, indeed, that my family insisted that I should leave off the medicine. I persisted in using the S. S. S. until the end of ten months the sore was entirely healed. Thinking that the evil was out of my constitution, I left off the medicine, but in a few months the sore again broke out and appeared. I at once began again on S. S. S., and now that it is also disappearing I have every faith in S. S. S. It has done me more good than all the doctors and other medicines I ever took. Yours truly, A. E. SHANES.

WATERLOO, N. C., April 12, 1887. Gentlemen—Two or three years ago a cancer came on my face. It soon grew to be quite large. It wore on me, and my general health was very poor. Last year I began a course of S. S. S. which I have continued to the present time with the happiest results. The cancer has entirely disappeared, there being no evidence or symptom of a cancerous character left. My general health is good now, and my appetite is better than it has been in years. I am 52 years old, and to-day I am working in the field planting corn. Yours truly, JOSAS LAMARCA.

Gentlemen—I had a sore on my upper lip for eight years. Seven different doctors attempted in vain to heal it. One gave me a couple dollars, and another thought I had a cancer, and I took a course of eighteen bottles of S. S. S. The result has been a complete cure. The ulcer or cancer healed beautifully, leaving scarcely a perceptible scar. From that day I have been in excellent health, the specific having purified my blood thoroughly, increased my appetite, and perfected my digestion. In a word, I feel like a new man. I have not had a sore of any kind since I was entirely cured. Yours sincerely, Mrs. W. F. CANNON.
