SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The House amendment to the Senate bill authorizing the construction of bridges across Columbia River between Oregon and Washington Territory, was concurred in.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the river and harbor appropriation bill. Among the amendments reported and agreed to were—the increasing of the appropriation for a harbor at Oakland, California from $200,000 to $350,000; reducing the appropriation for a harbor at Washington, California, from $89,000 to $62,000; increasing the appropriation for a harbor at Yaquina Bay, Oregon, from $120,000 to $150,000, and inserting the item of $5,200 for Tillamook Bay and Bar, Oregon.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—When Mills called up the tariff bill in the House to-day, Kelly, of Pennsylvania, suggested on his individual responsibility, as a means of expediting the adjournment, that the tariff bill be laid aside until next session, its fate then to depend upon the result of the November election, and that the surplus be kept down by the entire repeal of the tobacco tax.

Mills rejected the suggestion, and made a counter proposal that the Republicans should fix an early day for taking the final vote on the bill.

Reed declared that Kelly spoke for himself alone, and that the Republicans would insist upon pointing out the defects of the bill in detail.

Breckenridge, of Kentucky, declared the Democrats intended to have a vote on the bill unless the 4th of March was reached by obstruction. He challenged Republicans to put their platform in the shape of a legislative proposition, and then take a test vote between that and the pending bill, laying it so to the Senate if passed by the House. He suggested that the vote be taken at the end of ten legislative days.

Reed replied that a minority could not pass a bill. It would be absurd to try it.

Springer, of Illinois, endeavored to have considered a resolution directing the committee on ways and means to report a date for taking the vote, but Kelly objected.

The public land bill was passed with Holman's amendment retaining the title in the government to coal mines found on public lands, but allows entrymen to mine such coal deposits until Congress takes further action in the matter.

After Kelly's objection, demands for regular order out of order discussion, the House then went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill. Debate on the subject ensued till 5 o'clock, when the committee arose and the House adjourned.

Sweeping Reduction in Freight Rates.

NEW YORK, June 27.—A further and sweeping reduction has been openly made by the "Soo" line, lowering rates on first-class freight to St. Paul and Minneapolis to 60 cents per 100 pounds; 52 cents on second-class, 43 cents on third, 32 cents on fourth, 25 cents on fifth and 20 cents on sixth-class. This being a strictly all-rail route, the rates are far lower than the bottom rates yet given by any other line, and as low as the lake and rail route to those points. The route is over four different roads—the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg, Canada Pacific road, New York, Ontario & Western, and the Minneapolis, Sault Ste. Marie & Atlantic. This makes not only the lowest possible rates to those points, but also reduces the rates to Pacific Coast points via St. Paul. The local rate from there to Portland or San Francisco, being only $2.80, thus making a first-class rate of $3.40, or via the Canada Pacific $3.25, as against the regular trans-continental rate of $4.

Mexican Elections.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 27.—On Monday the elections for electors, who are to choose a president and members of Congress a week from next Sunday, were had throughout the country. The returns now in show there was no opposition worth mentioning to General Diaz, and the ticket of the administration party.

Harvard College.

BOSTON, June 27.—This morning Governor Ames and staff, escorted by the National Lancers, proceeded to Harvard College to attend the commencement exercises. They were received by President Elliott and escorted to Sanders Theatre, where the literary exercises took place. After prayer by Rev. F. G. Peabody, the exercises were carried out by the graduating class. The following honorary titles were conferred: Master of arts, Honoris Cassa, Edward Burgess, William Endicott, Jr., and Rev. John W. Chadwick; doctor of laws, Charles Stebbins Fairchild, Joseph H. Choate and Prof. W. Bibbs; doctor of divinity, A. Biel, Abbott Livermore, president of the Woburn Seminary, Fairchild is the present Secretary of the Treasury, and Edward Burgess is known to the public as the designer of the Vesper, Paritum and Majestras.

BOSTON, June 27.—At the annual meeting of the Harvard Alumni Association the following officers were elected: president, William C. Elliott of Salem; vice-presidents, Manning F. Force, of Cincinnati; Henry J. Bigelow, of Boston; Horace Davis, of San Francisco; John Quincy Adams, of Quincy; Leverett Saltonstall, of Newton; Charles E. Norton, of Cambridge; Hubert T. Lincoln, of Chicago; Henry S. Holtekooper, of Philadelphia; Edmund Wetmore, of New York, and Charles C. Beaman, of New York. The Secretary of the Treasury, Fairchild, was introduced in the course of his remarks he touched upon the civil service reform saying his liking for it was but the outgrowth of the ideas of fair play and decency that he imbibed at college. Civil service was but a means to good government and to his mind the more offices that could be taken out of politics the better.

Vermont Republicans.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 27.—The Republican State Convention was called to order this morning by John Hatchelder, of Arlington, who made a brief speech. He said the issues of the campaign are plainly defined, protection of American industry, being the chief one. (Applause.) His allusion to the stand of the Vermont delegation at Chicago elicited great applause. It was not the first time that Vermont had led the forces of Republicans to victory. We've not nominated Harrison, because he is a grandson of Tippecanoe, but because he is worthy to be a grandson of that noble man. Morton was lauded and confidence was expressed that he will not prove a Tyler too. Hon. W. H. Dickinson was then nominated for governor, Urban Woodbury was nominated by acclamation for lieutenant-governor, W. H. Dubois was nominated for state treasurer, Charles W. Porter was nominated for secretary of state, and Hon. E. H. Howell for auditor.

The platform heartily endorsed that of the Chicago convention as a clear and forcible presentation of the principles of the party, and that H. Wilson and Morton were the best men for the position of high character and clean politics and a guarantee that the pledges will be kept; it promises that the majority in September shall carry hope and inspiration to Republicans; extends hearty thanks to the Chicago delegation from Vermont; deprecates the suggestion of a national convention; and deprecates the suggestion of a national convention; and deprecates the suggestion of a national convention.

After Kelly's objection, demands for regular order out of order discussion, the House then went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill. Debate on the subject ensued till 5 o'clock, when the committee arose and the House adjourned.

A HOT AND CLOSE GAME.

11 to 9 for Salt Lake—To-day's Big Contest.

The Ogden's came down to bite the same old file yesterday, but all their gnawing made no impression on it. It looked at first, however, as if they would walk away with the game. They did square good fielding at the start, and the Nationals put forward Barker and Ridd for abbaty. Ridges having been hurt in the last game so that he was out of the contest.

The Ogden's went in and the first thing Barker did was to hit Sam Browning with the ball and send him to first. He got in by some errors in throwing on the part of Mathias and Barker.

Salt Lakes came in and were speedily whitewashed. Busby went out on strikes; Platts died at first; Larsen made a base hit but was forced out at second by Mathias' bat. Result 1 to 0 for Ogden's and yells from the benches. Each side took a whitewash in its innings.

In the Ogden's third another two runs were scored by Ridd's mauling and "browning and Mathias' bad mauling; a fine backward running catch by Mathias, however, ended the innings, just as the Ogden's had nearly got two more.

The Nationals third was another goose egg. Score, 3 to 0 in their favor. The Ogden's fourth saw three more runs brought in mainly by Mathias tumbling and Larsen's sulking. This put the Ogden's score 7, Salt Lakes 0, and how the crowd did rend the air.

The charm was broken in the Salt Lakes fourth by Mathias making a score by some good base running. Hodge scored on a pass-ball and the score was lifted to 2.

The Ogden's next was a goose egg, and so was the Salt Lakes. Score still 7 to 2, for the Union Depotters.

The Ogden's came in for their sixth and Busby stepped into the box. It was time, he was greeted with warm applause and some apparent nervousness on the part of the Ogden's. Barker went in to catch. A speedy whitewash resulted, though it was mainly done by Hodge's fly catching in centre.

The Nationals sixth was the eventful one. It opened with a two-bagger by Larsen. Mathias followed, and made first on Browning's fumble. Hodge struck out. Barker took up the bat, with Larsen and Mathias panting on the bases; he put it to Brown, who fumbled and let Larsen in. Gray made a two-bagger, and sent in two men amid a frenzy of yells, lifting the score to 5. Ridd made his first on a scratch. Kelly Golding made first on a hit, and got to third on a series of bulis, and came in on Busby's base hit lifting the score to 8, one ahead of the Weberties. Then how the grand stand rent the heavens. "Busby went in just in time" was the unanimous chorus, and the change of expression on Larsen's face was a study. Busby scored one, Hestmark's mull making the score 9 to 7. Mathias struck out.

The Ogden's came in for their seventh, looking a little droopy. Busby struck the first man out, but hit the second, who got around the third on a series of mulls. Busby kept him there, however, and Ogden did not go beyond her 7.

In the Salt Lake's seventh Brown went into the box for the Ogden's and succeeded in stemming the tide, the innings resulting in a speedy 0.

The Ogden's eighth showed they were not yet done. Browning scored on pass balls and Farly's base hit, making the score 8 to 9. Farly tied the score by coming in on a hit. There the innings ended.

The Salt Lake's eighth saw the score pushed on to 11 by some good batting by Platts and Larsen.

The Ogden's came in for their last with a great gulp. They tried hard, but died easy, and an exciting game ended by a score of 11 to 9 in the home team's favor. The score runs too high in errors to be published.

TO-DAY'S GREAT GAME.

The managers of the National and new Salt Lakes have yielded to the importunities of the impatient public, and the teams on which we are to rely for our amusement this summer will face each other for the first time at 3:30 to-day. The imported men were spectators of yesterday's contest, and they were specially enthusiastic over the grounds. There will be two exhibition games, one to-day the other to-morrow and for to-morrow's game, the old-time favorite catcher, Lloyd, is expected to come down from Park City. These will be the only two games before the Fourth. The nines for this afternoon will be:

SALT LAKES	POSITIONS	NATIONALS
Strahl	Catcher	Ridd
Zelder	Pitcher	Busby
McBride	1 Base	Larsen
McAndrews	2 Base	Mathias
Margents	3 Base	Platts
Flatten	8 Base	Barker
Griffiths	L Field	Barker
Griffin	C Field	Hodge
Iverson	R Field	Grey

The Nationals and Salt Lakes are now both under salary and have signed iron-clad contracts with the local management for all this season.
