Can't Sleep!

Sleeplessness and fearful dreams are the earliest and surest signs of brain exhaustion. In healthy sleep brain force is being stored up to meet the next day's demands. But nowadays the nervous system has been so overtaken that it is unable to control the mind, and at night the worries, troubles, and work are as present as during the day. Hence the brain has not time to recuperate its energies. The proper medical remedies are sedatives, nerve tonics, laxatives, and regulators of the general functions. Cocoa and celery are the sedatives and Celery Compound their full beneficial scientific proportions, the best remedies for and kidney and liver disorders. This is a brief description of the medicine which has brought sweet rest to thousands who tossed in sleeplessness from night to morning, or whose morbid dreams caused them to awake more tired than ever. All nervous, sleepless, debilitated or aged people will find vigor and perfect health in the great nerve tonic, PAINÉ'S CELERY COMPOUND. Price $1.00. Sold by Druggists. Circulars free.

THE FOURTH.

Torchlight Procession Grand-Fine Street Illuminations.

When the shades of evening had closed around us on Wednesday—as announced in the programme of the day's and evening's proceedings—a torchlight procession was formed at the corner of Main and Fifth. This was probably the most enjoyable part of the day's celebrations. The sun had dipped far below the horizon, a zephyr-like breeze gently fanned the cheeks of the fair sex, who, with their lords and masters, their lovers true, or their pretty offspring, were waiting on Ogden's main thoroughfare to once more admire the boys as they marched past, this time, however, not by the glaring light of a midday sun, but by the sombre rays of the hand torch, so often to be used in case of fire breaking out during the night.

A departure from the usual route occurred. Instead of the procession heading down Main to Third Street and deploying back to Fourth, it traversed along Fifth Street in a westerly direction, turned into Young Street, then half-faced about into Fourth Street and continued going forward until they once more reached Lester Park.

The sight in Fifth Street was a pretty one. The throwing up of skyrocket, which, bursting in midair, threw out their diamond stars, the Chinese lanterns on the sidewalks, the fiz, crack, clang and bang of fire-crackers and the rifle boom, all contributed to make up as pretty a sight as the Junction City ever previously witnessed.

FOURTH NOTES.

The demand for cooling drinks exceeded the supply. This can hardly come under the head of "good management."

FUNNY it might be, but rather cruel nevertheless, thermometer standing at in the shade: "Now, then you footballers, keep cool!" Galt!

There was enjoyment for all on the Fourth—but some people have such a large capacity that it would be a hard matter to fill their measure.

JULY 5th, 9:30 a.m. "Well, old boy, how do you feel?" "Rocky." We do not pretend to know what rocky means, but our friend looked as though anything of a damp nature would have been acceptable.

Police Court.

Joseph Cavannah, of pugilistic fame, from Pennsylvania, who had been arrested on Wednesday for disturbing the peace, was fined $25. The money not being forthcoming, he was yesterday taken back to the city jail.

Alexander Inley, who was found by Officer Sherwood in an alleyway on Young Street in a state of drunkenness and asleep, was allowed by Judge Dee to depart on the understanding that he (Inley) left the city.

Con Zintz and Charles Shoemaker, charged with sneaking a ride on the train, were allowed to take their departure.

Albert Carley and John Dyher, charged with purloining a coat and vest from a railroad official, had a preliminary examination yesterday before Judge Dee. Their case comes up again to-day.

F. Choo, the Celestial who was arrested by Police Officer Brown on a charge of drunkenness, and who was bailed by some of his countrymen, did not put in an appearance yesterday before His Honor. It is said that he has "skipped."

John Pidcock, for disturbing the peace of the city, will be called to account for his conduct on Saturday next.

Little Mishaps.

As the band was passing up Fourth Street Wednesday evening, a team standing near Wardleigh's music store became startled and flew off at a tangent, coming in contact with a buggy, smashed a wheel, and did other damage. Fortunately, no one was hurt.

An engine was derailed at the union depot on Wednesday, belonging to the Utah & Northern Railway Company. Excepting that traffic was somewhat delayed, nothing of consequence followed the mishap.

Yesterday the unhitched horse of Mr. Russell took a liking to have a run along First Street. The animal was overtaken and stopped near Franklin Street. No damage.

"Dead Men."

"When Greek meets Greek, them comes the tug of war." This trite quotation nearly had a practical illustration at Lake Park on Wednesday. The Ogden veteran war horses of the Grand Army of the Republic on their arrival on the shores of the inland sea, found the citadel in the possession of the Twilight Dusky Ones. The warrior instincts of the G. A. R.'s were at once aroused, and a fight on a large scale would have followed had not a flag of truce been shown, and an arrangement come to. As it was, a few "dead men" were scattered around—drunk, drunk—and peace proclaimed.

Personals.

B. K. COFFERMAN, of Fort Worth, Texas, is around.

J. G. PLYNE, from Eagle Rock, got amongst us yesterday.

E. J. MOORE, of St. Louis, has registered at the Froon Hotel.

VAN A. WALLACE, from Chicago, favors us with his presence.

WM. K. DAVID, from Chicago, was seen on the streets yesterday.

CHARLES E. BROWN, of Cincinnati, Ohio, landed in Ogden yesterday.

M. H. NICHOLAS, from the Golden Gate, is an admirer of our buildings.

J. W. SABIN, hailing from San Francisco, arrived yesterday in the Junction

S. W. STAYLIN, a Philadelphian, is at present admiring the beauties of our aesthetic little city.

Briefs.

STILL hot.

JULY weather and no mistake. FAST-DAY. Most of the business houses closed until 1 p.m.

THE usual hot weather difficulties are being experienced. Insipient cholera morbus rather extensively prevailing.

A PIECE of property, 6x10 rods, situated on Sixth Street, between Green and East, was yesterday purchased by Mr. A. H. Nelson for $1,200.

WE are sorry to say that the amiable wife of Mr. James Gale is still confined to her bed through sickness. Hope, however, is still left to Mr. Gale.

NOR one resident in Ogden had a headache yesterday morning. Oh, dear, no! They were simply slightly suffering from the excessive heat of the previous day.

THE Ogden City Football Club vs. the Second Ward ditto ditto, played on Wednesday and the match ended in a tie. The boys will have to have another tussle for supremacy.

A FOOTBALL match between an eleven from Almy, Wyoming, and a picked eleven from this city is on the tapis. If arrangements can be completed the "kicking" will come off on Lester Park on the 24th.

A BATHING club has been formed in the Junction City under the name of the "Syracuse Bathing Club." Their first trip to Syracuse will commence next week, and will be continued weekly during the "ducking" season.
