N SUMMIT COUNTY.

The People's and Liberal Ticket Both in the Field.

UNIED ON ONE NOMINEE.

The Liberals Claim an Overwhelming Victory as Certain—Unless There is a Split.

Politics have commenced to boil and bubble in Summit County. Both parties have tickets in the field already, and are working hard for the success of their candidates.

The People's Convention was held in Cliff's Hall, Co.ville, on the 23rd, when E. R. Young was elected temporary chair and Thomas Alston, secretary.

On motion, the Chair appointed T. L. Allen, John Clark, John Pack, William Archibald and E. J. Kidden as committee on credentials.

While the committee were preparing their report, W. W. Cluff made a brief and timely speech.

The committee reported the following gentlemen entitled to seats in the convention:

- From Kamas—C. Larson, John Pack and S. F. Atwood.
From Rockport—John Horton.
From Waship—E. R. Young.
Park City—Elliott Hartwell, James Rasband.
Parley's Park—William Archibald.
Hoytsville—William Sargent, R. J. Barden.
Coalville—J. H. Williams, J. A. Smith, T. L. Allen, W. W. Cluff, William A. H. on.

On motion, the chair appointed W. W. Cluff, S. F. Atwood and William Archibald committee on permanent organization.

During the deliberations of the committee speeches were made by John Pack and R. J. Redden.

Committee on permanent organization reported as follows: For Chairman, E. R. Young; for secretary, Thomas Alston; for chaplain, Robert Salmon; for sergeant-at-arms, E. M. Allison.

On motion Thomas Alston was admitted as proxy to E. Hartwell, of Park City, absent, and William Hodson to act for James Rasband, of Park City, absent.

Thomas Alston was nominated for County Clerk, and no other names being presented, voted on by acclamation, carried unanimously.

The names of George M. Pace, John Clark, M. F. Harris and W. W. Cluff, presented for selectman.

On motion, proceeded to ballot and Mr. Pace receiving a majority of votes polled, was declared the nominee; made unanimous.

The following gentlemen were unanimously nominated by acclamation: For Assessor and Collector—George W. Young.

For Treasurer—Thomas Ball.
For Recorder—John Boyden.
For Prosecuting Attorney—Edward M. Allison, Jr.

For Sheriff—Edward M. Allison.
For Coroner—William Archibald.
For Surveyor—Frederick A. Mitchell.
For Superintendent of Schools—Charles A. Short.

On motion the following gentlemen were elected members of the central committee for the ensuing year: A. E. Keeler, John Pack, S. F. Atwood, O. F. Lyons, Oscar Wilkins, John M. Malin, Elliot Hartwell, William Archibald, E. R. Young, William Crook, Alonzo Winters, Freeman Malin, Alma Eldredge, W. W. Cluff, T. L. Allen, John Boyden, William Allison, L. L. Raudahl, James Judd, Jacob Jones, Richard Wickles, Robert A. Jones and Lehi Henneler.

On motion the matter of holding political meetings referred to the Central Committee.

On motion a vote of thanks was tendered the officers of the convention.

THE TWO TICKETS.

- PEOPLE'S. LIBERAL.
County Clerk. W. H. Smith.
Assessor and Collector. George W. Young, Oliver C. Lockhart.
Treasurer. Thomas Ball, A. B. Richardson.
Recorder. John Boyden, Jos. M. Cohen.
Prosecuting Attorney. E. M. Allison, Jr., W. I. Snyder.
Sheriff. S. M. Allison, John L. Weber.
Coroner. Wm. Archibald, Childs Manton.
Surveyor. F. A. Mitobell, Chas. P. Brooks.
Superintendent of Schools. Charles A. Short, Charles A. Short.
Selectman. George M. Pace, Erasmus Sorensen.

Both parties, it will be seen from the above, have united on the nominee for superintendent of district schools. His election, if none other, would appear to be reasonably certain. The Record hints the Liberal ticket is a strong one and that it should draw out the entire Liberal vote, and in closing the article advises its readers to "roll up a solid vote for the victorious right, and then let the cheer of victorious right go thundering down the ages."

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any teacher to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's. Drug Store. Large bottles $1.

THE NATIONALS ON TOP.

The First of the Lake Park Series—5 to 4.

The first game of the Lake Park series was played on Sunday last, and was the means of attracting a large number of visitors to this resort. The Nationals footed up but four errors and the Salt Lakes escaped with seven. Busby and Mathias were in the box for the "Kids," while Blanchard and Straub held these positions down for the Salt Lakes. At the end of the second inning, the game stood 4 to 1 in favor of the Salt Lakes; in the fifth the Nationals worked in 3 runs, and 1 in the sixth, and the Salt Lakes were goose-egged each time. It was undoubtedly one of the best games ever played in the Territory. Golding umpired, and gave the usual satisfaction to all concerned. Below is the score:

Table with columns: NATIONALS, SALT LAKES, and rows for individual players and totals.

Nationals..... 1 0 0 0 3 0 1 0 0 0 5
Salt Lakes..... 2 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2
Struck Out—Busby 7, Blanchard 5.
Runs on balls—Blanchard 1, Two-base hits—Busby, Golding, Blanchard. Home runs—T. Barker, Larson. Double plays—Golding to Mathias. Passed balls—Barker 3, Busby 1. Umpire—Golding. Scorer—Berklio.

TO-DAY'S GAME.

The two nines meet again to-day at 3.30 on Washington Square, when another good game is promised.

ON THE MOUNTAIN TOPS.

Among the Cool Glens in the Wasatch Range.

A party of young gentlemen of this city, took advantage of the three days' holiday, and fully prepared for the catching of such of the "finny tribe," as chanced to be off their guard, headed for "Young's Peak Lodge," that delightful resort situated about eighteen miles south of the city, in one of the most charming little valleys that our surrounding mountains can boast of. In fact, I doubt if it has a rival anywhere hereabouts. The picturesqueness of the scenery is almost beyond description; towering masses of solid rock stand out in bold relief, and inspire awe with awe and reverence for these mighty constructions of nature. Young's Peak, from which the resort derives its name, is an almost perpendicular mountain of solid rock, and in the early morning sunlight it looks like an immense iceberg, so smooth and polished has it become through the action of the elements upon its surface. Far below can be heard the roar of the river, as it rushes over the great boulders which have, through time, loosened and fallen into it. These form delightful pools or "boles," as the anglers commonly call them, where the denseness of the stream are wont to lie and wait for an exit from his skill. There are fine specimens of mountain trout, and have a flavor that is very palatable. At the back of the lodge there is another mountain of rock, which is almost flat on the top, and is very easy to climb, and the view obtained is well worth the exertion expended, for on looking below the eye perceives numerous tents scattered here and there amongst the trees and shrubs, looking very picturesque and fulfilling all that the mind could imagine a camper's life would be. On the very top of this mountain is planted the flag of our country, which floats on the mountain breeze as majestically as of old. This resort is bound to become popular, and in fact is already so, for a great many of our most prominent citizens are rusticated here.

Three Cheers.

To the Editor of THE HERALD. Will you please give space in your valuable paper for this little circumstance? On July 27th, United States Marshal Eggleston came to my place at Honeyville with a warrant, charging me with unlawful cohabitation. I was not at home. He insisted that I be sent for. My folks told him that I was nearly seventy-five years of age, quite feeble and ill, and had had no plural wife since 1853. He then said if that was the case, he would not arrest me, and pulling out his warrant, he tore it to pieces telling them to send for me. After long persuasion my folks did so; I came home and when he saw my condition, he told me I might remain here so far as he was concerned. I was sorry that one or two of our boys treated him rather shabbily. Three cheers for United States Marshal Eggleston. ABRAHAM HUNGARER. HONEYVILLE, July 30, 1888.

McGurrian's Victory.

The eastern papers coming to hand all speak in the highest terms of the skill of Frank E. McGurrian, of this city, who recently won the first professional type writing match ever held in the United States. McGurrian did his work, it appears, on a Remington and Traub used a Caligraph. In speaking of the performance one exchange says: "McGurrian proved himself the better man, although Traub showed that he was able to strike the keys faster than his machine would write. McGurrian's work was simply wonderful. In writing from copy he never looks at his keys, and could have done the dictated work as well blindfolded. He will compete for the championship of the world in the speed test which takes place in Toronto, Canada, August 13. An analysis of McGurrian's work shows that he averaged seven and one-half strokes per second."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Surrendered.

Mr. S. H. Hill, of the Utah Central, who for two or three years has been an object of the solicitude and search of the deputies, has turned up. Mr. Hill was indicted on the charge of unlawful cohabitation more than two years ago, since which the officers have made many futile efforts to find him. Yesterday afternoon the gentleman went before Commissioner Norrell, surrendered himself, and gave bonds for his appearance for trial in the District Court. The bond was fixed at $3,000 and was signed by Messrs. Holliver Roberts and James J. Little. Mr. Hill's friends will be pleased to learn that he is in good health.
