COME AND SEE ME.

BITS FROM BRIGHAM.

SOME of our shippers are heavy losers by the recent break in Butte.

O. P. CHRISTENSEN, a practical and proficient watchmaker and jeweler, died here last week.

A NEW floor is being laid in the lower room of the Rosebaum Hall. It will be used for dancing.

A CONSIGNMENT of household goods from Logan to James Bywater, Jr., looks rather suspicious.

BISHOP MEACHAM, of Park Valley, is laying over to doctor a valuable animal that was badly snaggled.

ONE sociable, one surprise, two dancing parties, four meetings and a minstrel show in town to-night.

MR and Mrs F. H. Blackburn have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of their youngest child, a big, bright, buxom baby boy.

MESSRS. JENSEN and Critchlow have dissolved partnership. The ex-sheriff goes into the stock business, or becomes a full-fledged cowboy from choice.

MORE pneumonia amongst the children now than was ever known before. Mrs. Dr. Nelson has seventeen lung fever cases alone. Jacob Jensen and wife have been called upon to mourn the departure of a little darling.

April showers in the middle of December! As one extreme generally follows another, sleighs, sleds, skates and snowshoes may take a back seat until next winter when they will be wanted.

JAMES HANSON is serving out a second term for unlawful cohabitation, his plea was "guilty" and the punishment severe, it being the second offense. He will not be caught dapping the third time.

SARAH A. SNOW, wife of Apostle Snow, who has been prostrated with a nervous affliction, a couple of weeks, has recovered her usual health. Miss Snow her daughter, has returned to Ogden to renew her studies.

DEPT WARD is coming into prominence. The smoke stack of the new salt refinery towers skyward. W. H. Craghead will move into his old quarters with grocery, lunch stand and fruits on Jan. 1st, and L. Halling is building for a similar line of business across the track west.

"GOBLINES" is not a characteristic of railroad officials generally, but as "cleanliness" comes next to it Superintendent Rapelje approached the mark nearer than any of his predecessors. He has issued orders that offices and waiting rooms at all depots on his division, must be scrubbed every Saturday and a section man is delegated to do the work as well as to tidy up generally about the premises.

THE stake conference of the Y. M. M. I. A. convened in the Tabernacle on Sunday, in a three-meeting session. President Charles Kelly presiding. A programme was followed, consisting of lectures on historical, biographical and scientific subjects in addition to doctrinal discourses, the whole pleasingly interspersed with glee and quartette singing and instrumental music by the Christenson Brothers' oriental band. Elders Wells and Anderson were present, and did much to make the conference the crowning success that it was. The Relief Societies and Y. L. M. I. A. also met in conference capacity on Tuesday and Wednesday, at same place, with good attendance.

BRIGHAM is credited with having more fine and costly residences, in proportion to population than any other city in the Territory. L. Snow, Jr., is adding to that reputation with a $3,000 dwelling that will be ready for occupancy beginning with the new year. He purchased the old H. R. Jensen homestead on South Main, and has modernized the substantial structure so completely that the original builder would never recognize it except by location. The exterior is more grand than gaudy, more imposing than picturesque, but the interior shows up the elegant, the handsome and costly. James Pett is the architect and William Wrighton the builder. Judge Peters, go thou and do likewise.

IT was a mammoth surprise in the First Ward meetinghouse on Tuesday evening, given in honor of Bishop Minge, Counselor Fosgreen and Elder E. A. Box, all candidates for the Pen from that ward. Each was presented with an appropriate memento, and each in turn acknowledged the gift and invoked Heaven's choicest blessings upon the givers. The evening was pleasantly spent in songs, recitations, sports, pithy speeches and picnicing. Speaking of candidates for the Pen, Brigham will have a full quorum at the Hotel de Government this winter, made up of men whom we have always regarded as our very best citizens.

BRIGHAM CITY, December 15, 1888.

MANTI MATTERS.

THE principal speaker at the Tabernacle on Sunday was Elder G. D. Evans. The weather during the week has been changeable; frost, alternating with snow and rain.

MANTI has been flooded with drummers this week, beating up orders for their respective houses for the holidays. The attempt to break up the Manti cow pasture has failed for the present, for want of the consent of the two-thirds majority necessary therefore.

THE Lindsay Dramatic Company performed for three nights this week to full houses. Of course the principal attraction was Mr. Lindsay and Miss Pratt. The first evening's performance was considerably marred by the baby, so much so that the manager at the close requested the baby, for the future, to be kept at home.

MANTI, December 15 1888.

When Baby was sick, We gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, She cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, She clung to Castoria. When she had Children, She gave them Castoria.
