Naval Authorities on the Hurricane at Apia.

MATAAFA'S OFFER TO AMERICANS.

The Samoan King Visits Admiral Kimberly—Memorial Services—The Germans Very Sulky.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The long graphic report of the disaster at Samoa was read with a great deal of interest here. Naval officers generally were of the opinion this evening that no blame could be attached to any one for the loss of the ships and life. They were not inclined to hazard any decided opinion in regard to the handling of the various vessels.

COMMODORE WALKER.

Chief of the bureau of navigation and acting secretary of the navy probably voiced the general feeling when he said to an Associated Press reporter to-night: "Any man who gives an opinion is simply guessing, we do not know just how matters stood and it would be merely guess work to say what might have been done. It is impossible to tell much about it. There were some fine men and excellent officers on the ships and we know that the vessels were lost. Admiral Kimberly is a splendid officer and a fine man, and Captain Farley, Commander Mullan and Captain Schoonmaker of the Vandalia, who lost his life, are excellent officers. They doubtless did all they could. I think probably there is no blame to be attached to any one."

GERMANS AND AMERICAN VESSELS.

Our vessels may not have been able to go against the fearful gale, and even if they had been, it may be that they were not able to turn round so as to go out. But," said the commodore, "we can't tell, it all goes work. The management of the vessels seemed to have been about the same after the hurricane struck them. A mistake seems to have been made in staying in the harbor, but this is a case of our hindsight being better than our foresight. "The vessels might not have had time to get out. There is no telling, though, but what some of the vessels might have gone down with all on board, even if they had put to sea. It was probable, however, they would have pulled through, but there is no telling of the officers would come in, and they no doubt did what seemed best. They may have thought the blow was coming up, but that they could weather it. They all took the same course and were all in the same box. The men could not do a great deal in these hurricanes. The wind blew everything down and the seas were heavy, almost beyond conception. I remember a hurricane in the Hawaiian which blew down large, heavy stone buildings and razed almost the entire town, and this seemed to have been such a storm. "The Idaho, a United States war vessel, was once caught at sea in a hurricane, and though she escaped, she was never any good afterwards."

THE WIND WAS SO FEARFUL.

that it forced the oakum out from between the planking of the ship's deck and twisted the vessel all out of shape, until it resembled twisting withies in a wicker chair. The deck was so shaken that it could go down below and see through the crevices what was going on above. A little more and the vessel would have foundered."

NAVY CONSTRUCTOR HILCHORN'S IDEA.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Navy Constructor Hilchorn, acting chief of the construction bureau, does not credit the report that the fires of the Trenton were extinguished by floods that came through the hawse pipes. He says the pipes were placed on the berth deck to allow the heavy forward gun to be worked. The effect was to make the vessel ride at anchor more easily than if they had been placed on the upper deck. In a heavy sea water would come through them, and complaint had been made that they kept the deck wet. Still they were furnished with rubber sacked buckets, which, if applied, would make the pipes nearly water tight, and Captain Hilchorn says it is entirely incredible that enough water should come through to extinguish the fires. Undoubtedly the crew on her wreck was inefficient engine power.

THE ENGLISH SHIP, CALLOPHE, WHICH ESCAPED BY A MARGIN OF HALF A KNOT AN HOUR TO WINDWARD, HAD 3,000 HORSE POWER TO 3,700 DISPLACEMENT, WHILE THE TRENTON HAD 3,100 HORSE POWER, BUT TONNAGE 3,900.

Present and Past French Republicans.

PARIS, April 14.—At a banquet at Versailles to-day, Deputy Laguerre read General Boulanger's speech. He contrasted the doings of the present "sham republicans" with the doings of the Republicans of 1793, and said that on the hundredth anniversary the reforms of their institution must be commended. Laguerre and Heriase were arrested on leaving the banquet hall. They protested on the ground of the inviolability of members of the chamber of deputies, and were released.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint.

It is not worth the small price of 75 cents to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints! If you think so, call at our store and get a bottle of Siphon's Vitalizer. Every bottle has a printed guarantee on it; use accordingly, and if it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Sold by A. C. Smith & Co.

Eupespy.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electro-Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you Good Digestion and out the demon Dyspepsia and install instead Eupespy. We recommend Siphon's Vitalizer for women and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c, and $1.00 per bottle by A. C. Smith & Co. Druggists.

MERELY AN INDICATION.

A Bloody Tragedy Between Kansas and Texas—A Truce for Burial.

St. Louis, April 14.—A tragedy occurred a few days ago in the eastern part of Oklahoma, between two men from Kiowa, Kansas, and two men from Texas, for the possession of a claim. Guns were used freely, and one of the Kiowa men was killed, and one Texas man fatally wounded. The other man called a truce, and placed the wounded man on a wagon, started for a neighboring ranch. Before they reached it, the truce was renewed, and the entire party was discovered later by some cowboys, stretched out on the prairie. The cowboys took one dead and three wounded men to the nearest stage station.

Anticipating Serious Times.

HEPAPPA, April 14.—This evening a number of striking Erie switchmen entered the dining room of the hotel where a dozen new men are boarding and began to quarrel. One of the switchmen struck one of the new men when the latter drew a pistol, and was about to use it when a policeman interfered. Last night a similar disturbance was made at an adjoining hotel. It is anticipated that this is only the beginning of a more serious trouble.

MANTI MATTERS.

Prosecuting Attorney Reid is the father of a bouncing baby girl, again. Manti is free from diphtheria again, all cases having been pronounced well and the quarantine raised. The Manti people have just completed the planting of a fine row of poplar trees on their fronting their meeting house, which in a few years will form another pleasing feature to the many abounding in Manti.

Geo. Bonch, the welcome tax assessor, and special hotel man, is improving, renovating and preparing his plans for the boom that will strike Manti when the railroad "cuts" there. He says he intends making his place second to none in the "sunny south."

The photographic inventor, Wm. Hill, has just invented a neat device in the form of a book mark on which a person's likeness may be printed. The sample we saw was an excellent piece of work in beautiful colors. Color photographic work is a specialty of Mr. Hill's, and he is permanently located at Manti.

Prof. A. C. Smythe, a former well known resident of Salt Lake, has charge of the Manti choir, and under his able management it has arrived at a stage of perfection that is very complimentary to the professor, and forms a pleasing feature of the meetings in Manti.

Mr. Harry Felt, of Provo, has just become a partner in the Scottish printing company, and will take the external management of the paper. Friend Jakeman was in need of someone to assist in this department. It is hoped that the Scottish will boom as it never boomed before with the combined push of the Jakeman-Felt energy in its most realistic sense. They intend enlarging to double their present size commencing with (vol. 5) next number.

Manti has a political club sailing under the banner of the People's party, that is doing a good work in disseminating political instruction among the future politicians of Manti and giving the younger men a chance to learn something regarding the running of our glorious Republic. Many more of our cities should establish and prepare such meetings as these and better run us for our future management of the great state of Utah. If they don't, I fear we will have to employ foreign brains and our Utah boys take a back seat and pay an experience bill that might be incalculable.

THE TEACHERS IN SESSION.

The Subject of a Summer Institute—Many Interesting Matters.

The teachers of Salt Lake county met in regular session again on Saturday, Superintendent Stewart in the chair.

Referring to the question of a summer institute, Mr. Stewart thought it would be well to hold one, in conjunction with adjacent counties, and after some discussion Mr. Stewart was authorized to open correspondence with adjacent counties on the subject, and invite other institutes to join with us.

Superintendent Stewart presented the following "Outline for the study of geography."

- 1—Primary geography—Common things—Animals, plants, soil, air, etc.; have them come in contact with these things; heat effects, cold, etc.
2—Observation of nature—Rivers, lakes, mountains, hills, slopes, creeks, etc.
3—Location—Size, form, direction, distance, etc.; including walks with pupils.
4—Climate—Rain, snow, hail; how formed, etc.; Questions; stories; causes of wind, sun's rays, etc.
5—Insects—Government; interesting stories.
6—Maps of the schoolhouse and grounds, etc.
7—Transportation, commerce, benefits, etc.
8—Generalizing—Outline of countries, by moulding.
The following books were recommended for the pupils:
"Seven Little Sisters," "Each and All," "Aunt Martha's Corner Cupboard," "Little People of Asia," "Dodgson's Stories of American History," "Children of All Nations," "Little Folks of other Lands," "Little Lucy's Wonderful Globe," "Sea and Sky," "World at the Fireside," "Natural History Reader," "Little Folks in Peabody and Fur," "Life and Her Children," "Fairy Land of Science," "Children's Fairy Geography," "Zig Zag Journeys."

Higher geography:

- 1—Review of primary—Structure of country; drainage, position, occupations, people, government, religion, history, cities; by lectures, essays, questions, books, stories, daily news.
2—Physical and astronomical geography. The following books were recommended for the advanced class: Brown's "Countries and People of the World," Lippincott's "Travels in Four Continents."
For teachers: Parker on "How to Teach Geography," "Child and Nature," by Fry; "The Teaching of Geography," by Gieckle; "The Earth," by Reclus.
Some discussion took place upon the "Study of Geography," and the meeting adjourned for two weeks. The following programme will be followed:
1—A lecture by Mr. Chesshire on how to teach grammar.
2—What familiarity should exist between the teacher and his pupils.—Mr. J. Cornwall.
3—A reading.—Miss Keip.
4—Mind Studios.—Chap. 12 and 13; conductor, Mr. J. Hoffe.

Mr. C. J. Smith, travelling salesman for Bedford, Clark & Co., Chicago, had the misfortune to sprain his wrist most severely. "I was suffering great pain," he says, "and my wrist was badly swollen; a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved the pain and reduced the swelling in one night, and in consequence my business was not interrupted, for which I am very grateful. I can recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm from personal experience." Sold by Z. C. M. I. drug department.
