ral MILLER assigned as the reason of the President, which tacitly approved, that the judge's administration was not in harmony with the policy the President deemed proper to be pursued with reference to the affairs of the territory. The attorney general would not make such a statement regarding the course of a judge upon the federal bench, and would not carry to the supreme court the idea that the executive has any power whatever over the course of a judge thereof. The judicial is not answerable to the executive office. Mr. MILLER's language in his letter to Judge SANDFORD is unfortunate in form.

SONS OF AMERICA. No fault can be found with the declaration of principles which the Patriotic Sons of America gave to the press on Friday morning. We are glad the declaration was made, for it will reverse a somewhat prevalent idea that the association is patterned after the Know-Nothing order. The Sons of America are not making war on foreigners; they are not opposed to immigration, nor do they subscribe literally to the doctrine expressed in the phrase, "America for Americans." They do believe, however, in patriotism, and their chief aim or object is to inspire in citizens of the United States, whether native or foreign born, a love of country, devotion to its principles and respect for the flag. The opposition to foreigners to which the Sons are devoted, is expressed in one clause of the statement: "This order in national assembly convened declares that there is no room in a republican form of government for any organization which advocates and practices murder and assassination, and which believes that every intelligent citizen, native or foreign born, who has read the evidence presented to the coroner's jury of Chicago relative to the Cronin murder has felt this to be true, and that their existence is a constant menace to our government."

When one reads the public utterances and of the acts of the anarchists, ninety-five out of every hundred of whom are foreigners, he instinctively wishes there were more Patriotic Sons of America. When we see ignorant fellows, who have never read the constitution of the United States, and who know little or nothing of our system of government, being led to the polls and voted like automatons, there is a yearning for an organization that will make citizenship and patriotism mean practically the same thing. A good many things occur in this country, like the Haymarket affair in Chicago, and the assassination of Dr. Coxey, which suggest that orders of the Patriotic Sons class are essential to the well-being, if not to the preservation of the republic.

LETTERS CONTINUE. To come in quite regularly from Explorer STANLEY, but nobody hears from Hicely STEVENS who went in search of the first named several months ago. It may soon be necessary to send an expedition to find STEVENS.

THE PHILADELPHIA newspapers are still urging the people of that city to send in contributions for the food sufferers. The papers say it would be something to eternally boast about if the city were to give one dollar for each of its million inhabitants.

THE NEW YORK Times is waging earnest and determined war against the governor of our neighboring territory, Wyoming. We would be more inclined to think that our contemporary was wrong, if Governor WARREN would take the trouble to explain or disprove the ugly charges which the Times persists in reiterating in regard to him. True, his excellency has made a denial, but ought that to be considered sufficient when it is so easy to establish its inaccuracy by indisputable proof?

FRANCIS E. WARREN was governor of Wyoming when CLEVELAND was inaugurated, and the former was one of the first removals by the latter. The alleged ground of removal was that the governor was a land-grabber; that he had caused to be fenced vast tracts of the public domain contrary to law, and had wasted rich territory. CLEVELAND removed him, and sent a stranger to take his place. Whether or not there was anything in the charges against WARREN it is certain that the governor was very popular in the territory, and equally certain that his successor was decidedly unpopular. One of President HARRISON's first acts was to summarily oust Governor MOONLIGHT and re-instate WARREN, since which the Times has been doing its utmost to make the governor odious and bring the administration into discredit by reason of his appointment. Some time ago a Cheyenne correspondent "went for" WARREN without gloves, picturing him as an almost infamous creature, and charging all manner of corruption against him, saying among other things that he was the tool of the Union Pacific railway, that he was a prominent land-grabber, and that as governor he had been guilty of manipulating territorial legislation in the interests of corrupt monopolies. WARREN was prompt to deny the charges, but the Times repeated them with emphasis, and published his own signature to a letter over a reputable citizen of Cheyenne, in support of all the paper had alleged. Governor WARREN has since said nothing, apparently concluding that he can "live down" the accusations. Herein lies his error of judgment. It is an error which reflects on the administration as well as upon the governor. Neither can he afford to let the matter rest with the simple denial of the accused. As specific charges have been preferred in proof of the innocence of the accused should be forthcoming; otherwise there are those who will believe what the Times and its correspondents say and think Governor WARREN does not clear himself because he is unable to do so.

THE HERALD knows that Governor WARREN is popular in the territory, and that a good many Democrats, as well as the Republicans generally, desired his re-inauguration when the administration changed. It is because of this knowledge that we suggest that he cannot afford to rest under the imputations on his character and integrity.

DISCOVERED HIS ERROR. First Assistant Postmaster-General CLARKE permits it to be announced that he is not pleased with his office and that he will resign when the leaves begin to fall. He further says that he did not desire to have a place in the cabinet, notwithstanding that he was understood to be one of the most persistent and determined seekers for the position now held by his immediate superior. Why a man like CLARKE should take such subordinate office is not plain. CLARKE was at the head of the leading newspaper of Iowa, and being a forcible writer, he wielded ten times the power and influence that he could possibly have as assistant postmaster-general. It may be some satisfaction to a man of his strong partisan likes and dislikes, to remove Democrats and install Republicans, but after all the gratification ought not to equal that of leading his party in a great state like Iowa. We can imagine that Editor CLARKE has discovered that office-holding is not so desirable as it has been represented to be, especially by the brilliant editor of a widely-read and influential newspaper.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy liver. When the liver is torpid the bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficiency.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED. A general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc. I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the stomach and bowels. W. J. McLELLAN, Macon, Ga.

ONLY GENUINE. Has our Z Stamp in red on front wrapper. J. H. ZEILAN & CO., Philadelphia, Pa. SOLE PROPRIETORS. PRICE, $1.00 Tribuna.

THE OFFENSE UNPARDONABLE. "Waldonia," said her mother, "your little playmate, John Lawrence Tickwood, has not been here for some time. Have you and he quarreled?" "I have intimated to him, mamma," replied the little Boston 7-year-old, "that I cannot associate with him any more. I can overlook his habit of putting his napkin under his chin at dinner," continued the little girl, wiping off her spectacles thoughtfully, "for in minor matters of this kind it is customary among the intellectual to permit some latitude, but he told me a fortnight ago he was tired of beans for a steady diet."—Chicago Tribune.

Blood Diseases are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is an Alternative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

"Last May a large cancer I was broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more wonderful results."

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and I were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyson, (of Ferrandina, Wis.) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continued for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 149 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $2 a bottle.
