The branch office of THE HERALD is in Reed & Snyder's iron building on Washington avenue...

FRIDAY, January 21, 1890

The City in Brief.

The remains of William H. Hill, the fireman who was killed in the snow plow wreck on the Central Pacific near Levan...

The accounts of R. W. Cross, as United States court commissioner, were submitted to the First District court yesterday...

The city council meets in regular session to-night. The city jail remains where it was a week ago...

The stone wall, or coping, is being laid on the north front of the city hall grounds...

Deputy Marshal Pratt received a dispatch from Lehi yesterday telling that a horse had fallen upon and injured Deputy Marshal J. B. McMillan...

When Judge Henderson sentenced George W. Silks to pay a fine of $300 and costs for gambling, the latter humbly remarked...

The heavy rains last fall thoroughly saturated the ground with water...

Yesterday's noisome sun was a reminder of last June. Its fervent heat made the snow disappear rapidly...

The Presbyterians are preparing to commence work on their new building, corner Twenty-fifth street and Adams street...

There is considerable inquiry for good farming lands which have water rights...

The Park City train was late last evening. So was the Utah Central, but only a few minutes...

Representative Kimball returned to the capital last evening. Mrs. Kimball is getting along pretty well...

William Archibald, convicted of unlawful cohabitation and sentenced to the pen for two months and a half, was taken down last evening by Deputy Marshal Hoge...

The Utah and Northern train is running only to Franklin, Idaho. It leaves here at 9:15 a.m. and expects to arrive here at 6:30 p.m.

The Southern Pacific folks expected to get a train over the Sierra Nevada late last night, and that it would reach Ogden late this evening...

An immense smelting plant is to be erected in Ogden. Particulars hereafter.

Festival of Days. The announcement in the local press that the Presbyterian ladies would hold a festival of days in the vacant store recently occupied by W. P. P. St. Clair...

The police court turned out quite a grisly yesterday, to swell the chain gang, whose labors on the streets will be in great demand while the thaw continues...

John Murray, who stole two pairs of shoes from a saloon on Twenty-fourth street, was convicted of petty larceny and sentenced to jail for thirty days...

John Keefe, convicted of medicancy, was given board and lodging at the city's expense for ten days.

Resolutions. At the meeting of Oasis Lodge No. 306, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, yes, the following resolutions, submitted by the committee, were adopted:

WHEREAS, An Almighty and Divine Providence in His infinite wisdom has projected into nature the laws governing life and death and all material things...

Resolved, That while we deeply mourn his sad demise, the prime and vigor of manhood, we are in submission to the will of the Divine Creator.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother William H. Hill, Oasis Lodge No. 306, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, has lost a faithful member, a most efficient officer and its members...

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this lodge; copies of them to be sent to the relatives of the deceased and that the press of this city be requested to give the publication.

Articles of Incorporation. There were filed for record yesterday in the county clerk's office, the articles of incorporation of the Boyle Furniture company...

There were filed for record yesterday in the county clerk's office, the articles of incorporation of the Boyle Furniture company, the purposes of which shall be to establish and conduct the business of buying and selling furniture, carpets, wall paper, household goods and whatever appertains to a general furniture business...

Continued November Term, 1889, Hon. H. P. Henderson, Judge, Presiding.

Thursday, January 30, 1890.—People vs. David Reese, marshal of Brigham city, assault case. Ordered that motion for new trial be denied.

People vs. David Reese. Judgment, $150, United States vs. James Hansen, unlawful cohabitation. To be sentenced March 10.

United States vs. William Archibald. Defendant arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

People vs. George W. Silks, convicted of carrying on gaming. Judgment, $300 fine and costs.

People vs. George W. Silks. Order that the forfeiture of his bonds be operated. United States vs. William Archibald, unlawful cohabitation. Judgment, two months imprisonment and $50 fine and costs.

Thibault and Denahy vs. David Kay et al. Defendant submitted and taken under advisement.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. It is not worth the small price of 75 cents to free yourself of every symptom of these distressing complaints if you think so, call at our store and get a bottle of Silks' Balm on its use according to the directions on the bottle, and if it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Sold by A. C. Smith & Co.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A truly worthy medical writer says: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most cases are not treated by a cure which can be expected from salves, powders, douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power, with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.
