THE FERRY CROWD.

Their Chagrin at Marshal Parsons' Confirmation.

NATIONAL BANK CIRCULATION. Senator Hiscock's Wild Scheme for Promoting It—An Interesting Debate in the House—The Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—The Terry crowd, as they come to be known in Washington, who have been making relentless warfare against Marshal Parsons' confirmation, are greatly chagrined at their defeat in not securing his rejection. They were talking to-day of having a reconsideration of the vote whereby he was confirmed, but whatever hopes Mr. Ferry and his followers may have had in this respect cannot now be realized. That gentleman knows that a motion to reconsider must be made at the same executive session where the confirmation was had.

Senator Hiscock's National Bank Plan.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Senator Hiscock today introduced a bill providing that national banks may secure circulation by deposits of government, state, railway, and municipal bonds of par market value and not in default of interest for ten years past, the amount of circulation not to exceed 90 per cent. of their market value, except on government bonds, not exceeding 100 per cent. of their market value, and on improved real estate not exceeding 50 per cent. of the assessed value; property situated in the same locality as the bonds, and a responsible guarantor, or guarantors, to be named by the bank, the percentage of circulation on the bonds, except in the case of government bonds, must not exceed 75 per cent. of the face value, except in the case of government bonds, which may be made good any deficiency caused by a decline in value. The circulating notes issued will be redeemable in full at the option of the government. The secretary of the treasury is authorized to issue the notes in proportion to the amount of the fund accumulated from notes in default of interest, and to pay the interest on the fund at a rate not to exceed 4 per cent. The fund is to be paid into the treasury as an addition to the fund. Payment is not to cease when the fund reaches $100,000,000, but to continue until the principal and interest on the fund has been paid in full.

Utah Commissioners in Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—The two members of the Utah commission, Messrs. Godfrey and Saunders, were reinforced to-day by the arrival of Mr. Robertson, who has been in Philadelphia attending the session of the Lower Legislature. All three gentlemen expect to leave for Salt Lake within the next forty-eight hours. They all vigorously deny that their presence here has any relation to politics.

The Senate Leak Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Senate in executive session disposed of the report and recommendation of the Dolph special committee to the Senate to-day. The proceedings of executive sessions become public by the publication of the report of the committee to establish the responsibility of anyone with the newspaper men, and to determine the extent of the circulation of the report was discussed nearly four hours and it was not until 11 o'clock that the committee was reported by a vote of 25 to 23. This is the largest margin in connection with the committee's report.

The Impending Pittsburg Strike.

PITTSBURG, April 18.—A new feature of the strike situation is the probability of a strike of the street railway employees at the same time as the other railway employees go out. They are considering the advisability of making a simultaneous demand for higher wages. As a result of the conference today it is said by leading men on both sides that the difficulty will probably be settled without a strike.

The Case of Miss Harriet Coffin.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.] NEW YORK, April 18.—Proceedings for the appointment of a committee on the person and estate of Miss Harriet Coffin, who has been under restraint since her sensational episode with Kyrie Bethow over a year ago, and who has been repeatedly pronounced insane, will be resumed before Justice Callen, of Brooklyn, Saturday morning. As Miss Coffin has persistently refused to sign the checks which she received as interest on the $50,000 estate left by her grandfather, her board will have to be appointed, and her lawyer will ask to have another appointed as committee, to take charge of the person and property of her daughter. Neither Miss Coffin's relatives nor the trustees of the estate will oppose this application, but it is believed that Mrs. Coffin will refuse to give Mrs. Coffin sole charge of her daughter's person and estate, and will insist that she be accompanied by a competent nurse, who will take care of her during her confinement, believing that travel and a complete change of scene may tend to remove Miss Coffin's mental derangement.

THE CRIME COLUMN.

The Story of a Murder that was Committed Years Ago.

SENATE REPUBLICAN SILVER COMMITTEE. WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Senate Republican silver committee held a meeting this morning, at which Secretary Windom said the reason for his advocating redemption in bullion of the certificates issued for the purchase of bullion was that it would make the certificates more valuable, and that the redemption in silver dollars would be, in his opinion, to disobliterate the certificates, and to embarrass the government.

KILLED BY MEXICAN OUTLAW. A Fight in Kentucky—A Reign of Terror in Santiago de Cuba—Arrested for Committing Pension Frauds.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.] GAFFNEY CITY, S. C., April 18.—Samuel Jeffries, an aged, retired farmer and one of the wealthiest men of the state, was arrested last night, charged with murdering Dr. Alexander White, twenty-six years ago. The murder is a most sensational one and nearly all the prominent people in the state are deeply interested in it. The story dates back to the end of the rebellion. At that time Samuel Jeffries killed a neighbor named Samuel Sparks, a doctor, and a friend of his, who did not go to the war, but a substitute, Sparks was a conscript officer, and near the close of the war, he attempted to compel Jeffries to go into the army. He refused to do so, and went into the woods and hid away from the conscript officer. He hid himself in a cave, and there he was discovered by the conscript officer, who shot him. He was buried in a secret place, and his body was never recovered. It was not until the death of Alexander White, a physician, who was a friend of Jeffries, that the murder was discovered.
