JOE DAVIS A RULL.

He Buys Thirty-Six Hundred Shares of Apex. BAMBARGER SELLS BARNES STOCK. A Good Day's Trading on the Stock Exchange. The Memberships Are at a Premium.

Big Joe Davis walked into the pit with a big bundle of tall orders to buy Apex, and he had no sooner made known his desire than every bear in the pit hugged him so closely that after a lively tussle Davis was forced to sit down to catch his breath and did not fully recover during the call. It was a pretty scene when Bambarger fired 700 shares of the favorite Apex at 21 and Kullak unloaded 100 shares of the same stock at the same price. The Kullak reported for selling too low and offered 600 at 21 1/2, which Davis swallowed. Conklin could not stand by without taking a hand in and he put 1,000 shares at 22 and it was no sooner said than Davis took it in. Then every bear in the pit rushed forward to unload at the advanced price. Jones was unwinded and sat down to contemplate where all the Apex was coming from. In the flurry Matthews picked 300 shares from Woolley at 30c, just to be on the lowest note. When time was called 3,800 shares of Apex had changed hands.

The company is organized to conduct a general mining and smelting business, and capitalized at $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares of the denomination of $10 each. This stock is subscribed for as follows:

New Star Quarry.

Mr. Atkinson has taken a long time lease on the stone quarry on the John W. Young road near Park City. He claims that the stone is equal to the Fort Collins stone and that the only thing that stands in the way of laying it down in this city at a very reasonable price is the freight rate of 4 1/2 cents per ton. This he expects to have reduced, as it will be to the interest of the railroad to build up a large stone trade, as it will greatly help its earnings expenses.

THE TEACHERS.

The National Educational Association to be held at St. Paul.

The National Educational Association will hold its annual meeting at St. Paul, Minnesota, July 8 to 11, 1890. The objects of this association are to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching, and to promote the cause of popular education in the United States.

A Grand Jury Rehearsal.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 18.—A sensational grand jury rehearsal was developed today when Judge Kunsy, sitting in the circuit court, called the grand jury before him, and after informing them that it had come to his knowledge that an attempt had been made to improperly influence the conclusion of a certain important case, and which could never have been made had the members of the jury not disclosed the proceedings of the highest education, administered a scathing rebuke, and finally dismissed in disgrace three of the jurors. He refused to discharge the rest, although their work was finished, sending them back to investigate the matter and find an indictment against the parties implicated, if the facts warranted such action.

The Central American Union.

SAN JOSE, June 18.—Subject to the final approval of Congress, the President of Costa Rica has agreed to accept the draft of the resolutions regulating the Central American union passed at the conference in Salvador in October, but will send a commission to the republics to arrange for provisions for liberty of the press, regular succession of the executive and the sanctity of human life, the three points committed by the conference.

Naric Tempest Denies.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.] LONDON, June 18.—Naric Tempest asks the foreign correspondent to say that all reports circulating here with other relations that of mere acquaintance with young Robert Peel, who was lately the victim of a bono game in New York, are untrue. She says Peel went to America with a companion of Talbot, who has had in Dakota. Tempest says she sails for America three weeks hence to open at Palmer's theatre in July, in the "Red Hussar."

The Duchess of Fife III.

LONDON, June 18.—At Sheen house yesterday the Duchess of Fife, daughter of the Prince of Wales, was delivered of a still-born male child. The duchess while attending a coach meet caught a severe cold, which resulted in premature confinement. Her condition is critical.

John L. Bound for Mississippi.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.] NEW YORK, June 18.—John L. Sullivan did not leave for Purvis, Miss., this morning as he proposed to, but departed on the 9 o'clock express train for the Pennsylvania road at night. John spent the day in painting the town red. He was accompanied on his trip by Duncan B. Harrington, who will remain with him until he is either discharged or re-indicted by a Mississippi jury. The big fellow had his friends good by and shook hands with every one at the depot, which resulted in premature confinement. Her condition is critical.

Senator Wolcott's Surprising Eloquence.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, June 18.—The maiden effort of Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, yesterday afternoon in favor of free coinage proved quite sensational. Mr. Wolcott came here with the reputation of being an orator, and he maintained that reputation in every respect. He displayed the best voice of the Senate, both as to volume and tone, but the sentiments expressed by him in the latter part of his speech, acted like a firebrand. He arraigned the administration in the severest possible terms, declaring that although the great west had rolled up its sleeves and given General Harrison the greatest majority ever received by a Presidential candidate in time of peace, if the silver policy of the President and Secretary had been known before the election, not a Republican vote would have been given to the Republican candidate beyond the Mississippi river. The Democrats applauded this declaration to the echo, while many Republicans were noticed to give visible facial evidence of pleasure, and when the eloquent new Senator from the silver state sat down he was covered with congratulations. Mrs. Wolcott, the greatest bride but a few days, occupied a seat in the private gallery and seemed to enjoy the sensation which her husband created.
