

A MINER MURDERED

At Cokedale, Near Helena, During a Drunken Row.

DEATH BY RAILWAY DISASTERS.

A Train Goes Through a Bridge—A Big Accident on the International & Great Northern in Texas.

HELENA, MONT., Nov. 17.—(Special telegram to THE HERALD.)—Fred Livingston, a miner in the employ of the Livingston Coal and Coke company, was murdered in cold blood about 12 o'clock last night by Irvine Moser, another miner, immediately after the shooting Under Sheriff Jameson was telegraphed to come to Cokedale as there was liability of a lynching being at that place. The sheriff and deputy hastened up and found that Moser, the murderer, had made his escape, the jury finding that the deceased was killed by Irvine Moser. The two men had been drinking and the cause of shooting was a fancied injury.

A Murderer Lynched. SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 17.—A mob last night surrounded the jail and took Ned Stevens, colored, who murdered Sheriff Trail, and hung him to a tree.

A Train Goes Through a Bridge. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 17.—This morning while a freight train of five cars on the Kansas City, Wyandotte & Northwestern was crossing a bridge over the Kaw river near this city, a span gave way and precipitated the entire train into the river.

Mekinsley in Russia. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—The decision of the tariff committee to increase the restrictions on commerce is such as to threaten the isolation of Russia from the rest of the world. Even existing machinery is subject to a high tariff.

A Warren Line Steamer Over Due. BOSTON, Nov. 17.—The Warren line steamer Kansas, from Liverpool November 1, is long overdue. It is feared she has met with a mishap. She carried 130 steerage passengers.

World's Fair Matters. CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The congressional committee to investigate the world's fair management met again this morning. Director General Davis was in attendance and gave a full and comprehensive statement with reference to the site question and contemplated business for various departments of the fair. He considered any proposition to establish foreign business at the expense of the government to be against the spirit of the act.

A Verdict in Favor of O'Shea. LONDON, Nov. 17.—The trial of the O'Shea divorce was resumed this morning. The first witness was a servant at O'Shea's house at Eltham at the time O'Shea charges Parnell with paying clandestine visits to his wife. She testified that Mrs. O'Shea and Parnell were once locked in the drawing room. Mrs. O'Shea afterward explained the locking of the door was essential to the safety of Parnell, as members of secret societies were prowling about the vicinity.

Revenue Marine Division Report. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Captain Shepherd, chief of the revenue marine division, reports that during the last fiscal year, 283,113 nautical miles, and boarded and examined 33,161 vessels, of which 915 incurred fines and penalties amounting to $99,010; 30 distressed vessels were assisted, the value of property saved being $2,500,000; 43 persons were rescued from drowning and 811 assisted in other ways. The expenditures were $37,100.

Reported Murder of French Explorers. BRUSSELS, Nov. 17.—Two French explorers, Danely and Plisson, who are making a geographical tour around Lake Van, are reported to have been murdered.

Stiffening Prices. NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—High London quotations and the buying of stocks by London houses caused a partial return of confidence in the stock market. This was increased by an understanding that Jay Gould, D. O. Mills, the Vanderbilts and other important interests would join hands in giving support to prices. It is also stated that a large amount of gold which Gould is interested in has been heavy buyer of Northern Pacific.

Barnum Probably Dying. BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 17.—P. T. Barnum is believed to be on his deathbed. Inquirers at his residence are told his condition is not such as to create apprehension, but Dr. Hubbard, his physician, told your correspondent last night, it would not be at all surprising if the great showman's present attack terminated fatally within a few days. He has not the strength necessary to recuperate and his illness has certainly exhausted nearly all his remarkable vitality. He has not been left alone a moment since the beginning of his illness. Either Mrs. Barnum or a trained nurse or Private Secretary Bowser has been at his bedside constantly. He was better this morning. He was able to sit up and read the papers and attend to some business.

Nashville Races. NASHVILLE, Nov. 17.—Two year olds, half mile—Hornly Bill won. Ed Bell second, Laura Doxy third. Time—53. Three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs—Billy Plunkerton won, Pantalote second, Dick Darling third. Time—1:30. Three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs—Little Croze won, Consignee second, Neva C. third. Time—1:34. Three-year-olds and upward, mile and seventy yards—Fred Fink won, Gilford second, John Morris third. Time—1:52. Four-year-olds and upward, five furlongs—Miss Francis won, Maggie B. second, Chicago third. Time—1:07.

Plot to Steal Examination Papers. LONDON, Nov. 17.—A plot to steal the army examination papers before the time of examination, has been discovered. The secretary of war offers a reward.

Russian Nihilists' Sentence. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—The trial of nihilists implicated in the plot against the czar is concluded. Sophie Guegnberg, arrested in Paris for having bombs in her possession, together with two of her ac-

RELIGIOUS INDIANS.

The Excitement Concerning the Messiah.

PRETTY LOGICAL REASONING

By Chief Gall on Christian Doctrines—White Men Believe Strange Things in Religion, and Why Not Redmen?

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) STANDING ROCK AGENCY, N. D., Nov. 17.—The news that General Miles is liable at any moment to receive a regiment or two of United States regulars against the Sioux is causing a great deal of excitement among the redmen, but their belief in the coming of the Messiah is in no way lessened thereby. The Indians have evidently in many instances gone stark mad. The most exciting among the many trials which have occurred here is the last night was that of the alleged Virgin Mary. When the Indian court officer called her name there came out from the murmuring crowd in the large room Wawatwin, the "scarlet woman," the wife of Olligosa, a member of the Watoikis band of Sioux, although it is said she is not a native but came from a band of Indians across the Manitoba line. Fearlessness was the leading element of her attitude as she stood so gracefully before the railing, behind which sat the agent and his interpreter, and looking indifferently at her, John Grass and the other Indians who composed the court.

PRINCESS VICTORIA OF PRUSSIA.

Her Wedding Trousseau is Placed on Exhibition in Leipzig, Saxony.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) BERLIN, Nov. 17.—(By cable to the N. Y. Sun.)—A great social and court event will occupy the attention of the loyal citizens of Berlin this week when Princess Victoria of Prussia, daughter of Empress Frederick, is to be united in marriage to Prince Adolph, of Schaumburg-Leippe. In anticipation of the wedding all Berlin talks of nothing but Princess Victoria's black silk unmentionables. The Empress Frederick has given them to her daughter as a wedding present, in fact, they form the chief part of that young lady's trousseau, which is exhibited by a firm in Leipzig, Saxony. Saturday afternoon, the sidewalk in front of the door was swarming with people, mostly women and young ladies, who had come to see this marvelous exhibition. They were gravely disappointed, as the three beautiful gowns, which were being shown, were only a few yards long, and the beautiful hand embroidery on the pillow cases and covers in old German style, I saw nothing that I have not seen just as dainty made in great America, except for the fact that what really astonished me was the number of the exhibit. This daughter of an emperor, a sister of the mightiest monarch on the face of the earth, upon her marriage, will be given to her husband a wardrobe of underwear, half tulle, lace and China silk, as many sets of bed and table linen, and a great many other things. I am sure there are hundreds of Americans who have tried every year who can boast of many duplications of the trousseau of Princess Victoria.

But then there are those six black unmentionables. They held evidently the place of honor in the outfit, being deposited in white silk cushions in the center of the table. My curiosity was aroused by these objects of idolatry said to be in an undecorated case. They are for riding costumes, the first ever made. A young man said that one of the things in the royal house possessed such things and that the Princess Sophia when she married the Greek Crown Prince, begged her mother in vain for a similar outfit. They are in no way different from the regulation riding garments except that the material, which is of heavy silk and the trimmings, which are of the most delicate and which is turned up like a flannel. The trousseau exhibited is silver finished in the official press and special mention is made of the fact that the entire outfit is furnished by German and made in Germany. This is an untruth on the face of it. The China silk, for instance, is of French manufacture, and moreover, the Queen of England's riding outfit, which she wears from Scotch or English business houses. The exhibition has in reality been opened up to increase the popularity of Empress Frederick as a supporter of German trade.

Parrell to His Followers. DUBLIN, Nov. 17.—Parrell, in a letter to the Freeman's Journal, reminds his followers of the importance of being in parliament on the opening day. He says, unquestionably the coming session will be the following of Parrell's last, and great issues depend upon its course.

The Telegraph on Parrell. LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Telegraph publishes Parrell's political obituary. It says he must cease for the present, at least, to lean on the Nationalist party. It is reported that the following of Parrell do not desire him to retire unless by his own written consent, which would be the leadership of the Irish party will be vested in a commission, of which Justice McCarthy will be president.

Revenue Marine Division Report. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Captain Shepherd, chief of the revenue marine division, reports that during the last fiscal year, 283,113 nautical miles, and boarded and examined 33,161 vessels, of which 915 incurred fines and penalties amounting to $99,010; 30 distressed vessels were assisted, the value of property saved being $2,500,000; 43 persons were rescued from drowning and 811 assisted in other ways. The expenditures were $37,100.

Reported Murder of French Explorers. BRUSSELS, Nov. 17.—Two French explorers, Danely and Plisson, who are making a geographical tour around Lake Van, are reported to have been murdered.

Stiffening Prices. NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—High London quotations and the buying of stocks by London houses caused a partial return of confidence in the stock market. This was increased by an understanding that Jay Gould, D. O. Mills, the Vanderbilts and other important interests would join hands in giving support to prices. It is also stated that a large amount of gold which Gould is interested in has been heavy buyer of Northern Pacific.

Barnum Probably Dying. BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 17.—P. T. Barnum is believed to be on his deathbed. Inquirers at his residence are told his condition is not such as to create apprehension, but Dr. Hubbard, his physician, told your correspondent last night, it would not be at all surprising if the great showman's present attack terminated fatally within a few days. He has not the strength necessary to recuperate and his illness has certainly exhausted nearly all his remarkable vitality. He has not been left alone a moment since the beginning of his illness. Either Mrs. Barnum or a trained nurse or Private Secretary Bowser has been at his bedside constantly. He was better this morning. He was able to sit up and read the papers and attend to some business.

Nashville Races. NASHVILLE, Nov. 17.—Two year olds, half mile—Hornly Bill won. Ed Bell second, Laura Doxy third. Time—53. Three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs—Billy Plunkerton won, Pantalote second, Dick Darling third. Time—1:30. Three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs—Little Croze won, Consignee second, Neva C. third. Time—1:34. Three-year-olds and upward, mile and seventy yards—Fred Fink won, Gilford second, John Morris third. Time—1:52. Four-year-olds and upward, five furlongs—Miss Francis won, Maggie B. second, Chicago third. Time—1:07.

Plot to Steal Examination Papers. LONDON, Nov. 17.—A plot to steal the army examination papers before the time of examination, has been discovered. The secretary of war offers a reward.

Russian Nihilists' Sentence. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—The trial of nihilists implicated in the plot against the czar is concluded. Sophie Guegnberg, arrested in Paris for having bombs in her possession, together with two of her ac-

RELIGIOUS INDIANS.

The Excitement Concerning the Messiah.

PRETTY LOGICAL REASONING

By Chief Gall on Christian Doctrines—White Men Believe Strange Things in Religion, and Why Not Redmen?

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) STANDING ROCK AGENCY, N. D., Nov. 17.—The news that General Miles is liable at any moment to receive a regiment or two of United States regulars against the Sioux is causing a great deal of excitement among the redmen, but their belief in the coming of the Messiah is in no way lessened thereby. The Indians have evidently in many instances gone stark mad. The most exciting among the many trials which have occurred here is the last night was that of the alleged Virgin Mary. When the Indian court officer called her name there came out from the murmuring crowd in the large room Wawatwin, the "scarlet woman," the wife of Olligosa, a member of the Watoikis band of Sioux, although it is said she is not a native but came from a band of Indians across the Manitoba line. Fearlessness was the leading element of her attitude as she stood so gracefully before the railing, behind which sat the agent and his interpreter, and looking indifferently at her, John Grass and the other Indians who composed the court.

PRINCESS VICTORIA OF PRUSSIA.

Her Wedding Trousseau is Placed on Exhibition in Leipzig, Saxony.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) BERLIN, Nov. 17.—(By cable to the N. Y. Sun.)—A great social and court event will occupy the attention of the loyal citizens of Berlin this week when Princess Victoria of Prussia, daughter of Empress Frederick, is to be united in marriage to Prince Adolph, of Schaumburg-Leippe. In anticipation of the wedding all Berlin talks of nothing but Princess Victoria's black silk unmentionables. The Empress Frederick has given them to her daughter as a wedding present, in fact, they form the chief part of that young lady's trousseau, which is exhibited by a firm in Leipzig, Saxony. Saturday afternoon, the sidewalk in front of the door was swarming with people, mostly women and young ladies, who had come to see this marvelous exhibition. They were gravely disappointed, as the three beautiful gowns, which were being shown, were only a few yards long, and the beautiful hand embroidery on the pillow cases and covers in old German style, I saw nothing that I have not seen just as dainty made in great America, except for the fact that what really astonished me was the number of the exhibit. This daughter of an emperor, a sister of the mightiest monarch on the face of the earth, upon her marriage, will be given to her husband a wardrobe of underwear, half tulle, lace and China silk, as many sets of bed and table linen, and a great many other things. I am sure there are hundreds of Americans who have tried every year who can boast of many duplications of the trousseau of Princess Victoria.

But then there are those six black unmentionables. They held evidently the place of honor in the outfit, being deposited in white silk cushions in the center of the table. My curiosity was aroused by these objects of idolatry said to be in an undecorated case. They are for riding costumes, the first ever made. A young man said that one of the things in the royal house possessed such things and that the Princess Sophia when she married the Greek Crown Prince, begged her mother in vain for a similar outfit. They are in no way different from the regulation riding garments except that the material, which is of heavy silk and the trimmings, which are of the most delicate and which is turned up like a flannel. The trousseau exhibited is silver finished in the official press and special mention is made of the fact that the entire outfit is furnished by German and made in Germany. This is an untruth on the face of it. The China silk, for instance, is of French manufacture, and moreover, the Queen of England's riding outfit, which she wears from Scotch or English business houses. The exhibition has in reality been opened up to increase the popularity of Empress Frederick as a supporter of German trade.

Parrell to His Followers. DUBLIN, Nov. 17.—Parrell, in a letter to the Freeman's Journal, reminds his followers of the importance of being in parliament on the opening day. He says, unquestionably the coming session will be the following of Parrell's last, and great issues depend upon its course.

The Telegraph on Parrell. LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Telegraph publishes Parrell's political obituary. It says he must cease for the present, at least, to lean on the Nationalist party. It is reported that the following of Parrell do not desire him to retire unless by his own written consent, which would be the leadership of the Irish party will be vested in a commission, of which Justice McCarthy will be president.

Revenue Marine Division Report. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Captain Shepherd, chief of the revenue marine division, reports that during the last fiscal year, 283,113 nautical miles, and boarded and examined 33,161 vessels, of which 915 incurred fines and penalties amounting to $99,010; 30 distressed vessels were assisted, the value of property saved being $2,500,000; 43 persons were rescued from drowning and 811 assisted in other ways. The expenditures were $37,100.

Reported Murder of French Explorers. BRUSSELS, Nov. 17.—Two French explorers, Danely and Plisson, who are making a geographical tour around Lake Van, are reported to have been murdered.

Stiffening Prices. NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—High London quotations and the buying of stocks by London houses caused a partial return of confidence in the stock market. This was increased by an understanding that Jay Gould, D. O. Mills, the Vanderbilts and other important interests would join hands in giving support to prices. It is also stated that a large amount of gold which Gould is interested in has been heavy buyer of Northern Pacific.

Barnum Probably Dying. BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 17.—P. T. Barnum is believed to be on his deathbed. Inquirers at his residence are told his condition is not such as to create apprehension, but Dr. Hubbard, his physician, told your correspondent last night, it would not be at all surprising if the great showman's present attack terminated fatally within a few days. He has not the strength necessary to recuperate and his illness has certainly exhausted nearly all his remarkable vitality. He has not been left alone a moment since the beginning of his illness. Either Mrs. Barnum or a trained nurse or Private Secretary Bowser has been at his bedside constantly. He was better this morning. He was able to sit up and read the papers and attend to some business.

Nashville Races. NASHVILLE, Nov. 17.—Two year olds, half mile—Hornly Bill won. Ed Bell second, Laura Doxy third. Time—53. Three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs—Billy Plunkerton won, Pantalote second, Dick Darling third. Time—1:30. Three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs—Little Croze won, Consignee second, Neva C. third. Time—1:34. Three-year-olds and upward, mile and seventy yards—Fred Fink won, Gilford second, John Morris third. Time—1:52. Four-year-olds and upward, five furlongs—Miss Francis won, Maggie B. second, Chicago third. Time—1:07.

Plot to Steal Examination Papers. LONDON, Nov. 17.—A plot to steal the army examination papers before the time of examination, has been discovered. The secretary of war offers a reward.

Russian Nihilists' Sentence. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—The trial of nihilists implicated in the plot against the czar is concluded. Sophie Guegnberg, arrested in Paris for having bombs in her possession, together with two of her ac-

RELIGIOUS INDIANS.

The Excitement Concerning the Messiah.

PRETTY LOGICAL REASONING

By Chief Gall on Christian Doctrines—White Men Believe Strange Things in Religion, and Why Not Redmen?

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) STANDING ROCK AGENCY, N. D., Nov. 17.—The news that General Miles is liable at any moment to receive a regiment or two of United States regulars against the Sioux is causing a great deal of excitement among the redmen, but their belief in the coming of the Messiah is in no way lessened thereby. The Indians have evidently in many instances gone stark mad. The most exciting among the many trials which have occurred here is the last night was that of the alleged Virgin Mary. When the Indian court officer called her name there came out from the murmuring crowd in the large room Wawatwin, the "scarlet woman," the wife of Olligosa, a member of the Watoikis band of Sioux, although it is said she is not a native but came from a band of Indians across the Manitoba line. Fearlessness was the leading element of her attitude as she stood so gracefully before the railing, behind which sat the agent and his interpreter, and looking indifferently at her, John Grass and the other Indians who composed the court.

PRINCESS VICTORIA OF PRUSSIA.

Her Wedding Trousseau is Placed on Exhibition in Leipzig, Saxony.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) BERLIN, Nov. 17.—(By cable to the N. Y. Sun.)—A great social and court event will occupy the attention of the loyal citizens of Berlin this week when Princess Victoria of Prussia, daughter of Empress Frederick, is to be united in marriage to Prince Adolph, of Schaumburg-Leippe. In anticipation of the wedding all Berlin talks of nothing but Princess Victoria's black silk unmentionables. The Empress Frederick has given them to her daughter as a wedding present, in fact, they form the chief part of that young lady's trousseau, which is exhibited by a firm in Leipzig, Saxony. Saturday afternoon, the sidewalk in front of the door was swarming with people, mostly women and young ladies, who had come to see this marvelous exhibition. They were gravely disappointed, as the three beautiful gowns, which were being shown, were only a few yards long, and the beautiful hand embroidery on the pillow cases and covers in old German style, I saw nothing that I have not seen just as dainty made in great America, except for the fact that what really astonished me was the number of the exhibit. This daughter of an emperor, a sister of the mightiest monarch on the face of the earth, upon her marriage, will be given to her husband a wardrobe of underwear, half tulle, lace and China silk, as many sets of bed and table linen, and a great many other things. I am sure there are hundreds of Americans who have tried every year who can boast of many duplications of the trousseau of Princess Victoria.

But then there are those six black unmentionables. They held evidently the place of honor in the outfit, being deposited in white silk cushions in the center of the table. My curiosity was aroused by these objects of idolatry said to be in an undecorated case. They are for riding costumes, the first ever made. A young man said that one of the things in the royal house possessed such things and that the Princess Sophia when she married the Greek Crown Prince, begged her mother in vain for a similar outfit. They are in no way different from the regulation riding garments except that the material, which is of heavy silk and the trimmings, which are of the most delicate and which is turned up like a flannel. The trousseau exhibited is silver finished in the official press and special mention is made of the fact that the entire outfit is furnished by German and made in Germany. This is an untruth on the face of it. The China silk, for instance, is of French manufacture, and moreover, the Queen of England's riding outfit, which she wears from Scotch or English business houses. The exhibition has in reality been opened up to increase the popularity of Empress Frederick as a supporter of German trade.

Parrell to His Followers. DUBLIN, Nov. 17.—Parrell, in a letter to the Freeman's Journal, reminds his followers of the importance of being in parliament on the opening day. He says, unquestionably the coming session will be the following of Parrell's last, and great issues depend upon its course.

The Telegraph on Parrell. LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Telegraph publishes Parrell's political obituary. It says he must cease for the present, at least, to lean on the Nationalist party. It is reported that the following of Parrell do not desire him to retire unless by his own written consent, which would be the leadership of the Irish party will be vested in a commission, of which Justice McCarthy will be president.

Revenue Marine Division Report. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Captain Shepherd, chief of the revenue marine division, reports that during the last fiscal year, 283,113 nautical miles, and boarded and examined 33,161 vessels, of which 915 incurred fines and penalties amounting to $99,010; 30 distressed vessels were assisted, the value of property saved being $2,500,000; 43 persons were rescued from drowning and 811 assisted in other ways. The expenditures were $37,100.

Reported Murder of French Explorers. BRUSSELS, Nov. 17.—Two French explorers, Danely and Plisson, who are making a geographical tour around Lake Van, are reported to have been murdered.

Stiffening Prices. NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—High London quotations and the buying of stocks by London houses caused a partial return of confidence in the stock market. This was increased by an understanding that Jay Gould, D. O. Mills, the Vanderbilts and other important interests would join hands in giving support to prices. It is also stated that a large amount of gold which Gould is interested in has been heavy buyer of Northern Pacific.

Barnum Probably Dying. BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 17.—P. T. Barnum is believed to be on his deathbed. Inquirers at his residence are told his condition is not such as to create apprehension, but Dr. Hubbard, his physician, told your correspondent last night, it would not be at all surprising if the great showman's present attack terminated fatally within a few days. He has not the strength necessary to recuperate and his illness has certainly exhausted nearly all his remarkable vitality. He has not been left alone a moment since the beginning of his illness. Either Mrs. Barnum or a trained nurse or Private Secretary Bowser has been at his bedside constantly. He was better this morning. He was able to sit up and read the papers and attend to some business.

Nashville Races. NASHVILLE, Nov. 17.—Two year olds, half mile—Hornly Bill won. Ed Bell second, Laura Doxy third. Time—53. Three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs—Billy Plunkerton won, Pantalote second, Dick Darling third. Time—1:30. Three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs—Little Croze won, Consignee second, Neva C. third. Time—1:34. Three-year-olds and upward, mile and seventy yards—Fred Fink won, Gilford second, John Morris third. Time—1:52. Four-year-olds and upward, five furlongs—Miss Francis won, Maggie B. second, Chicago third. Time—1:07.

Plot to Steal Examination Papers. LONDON, Nov. 17.—A plot to steal the army examination papers before the time of examination, has been discovered. The secretary of war offers a reward.

Russian Nihilists' Sentence. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—The trial of nihilists implicated in the plot against the czar is concluded. Sophie Guegnberg, arrested in Paris for having bombs in her possession, together with two of her ac-

RELIGIOUS INDIANS.

The Excitement Concerning the Messiah.

PRETTY LOGICAL REASONING

By Chief Gall on Christian Doctrines—White Men Believe Strange Things in Religion, and Why Not Redmen?

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) STANDING ROCK AGENCY, N. D., Nov. 17.—The news that General Miles is liable at any moment to receive a regiment or two of United States regulars against the Sioux is causing a great deal of excitement among the redmen, but their belief in the coming of the Messiah is in no way lessened thereby. The Indians have evidently in many instances gone stark mad. The most exciting among the many trials which have occurred here is the last night was that of the alleged Virgin Mary. When the Indian court officer called her name there came out from the murmuring crowd in the large room Wawatwin, the "scarlet woman," the wife of Olligosa, a member of the Watoikis band of Sioux, although it is said she is not a native but came from a band of Indians across the Manitoba line. Fearlessness was the leading element of her attitude as she stood so gracefully before the railing, behind which sat the agent and his interpreter, and looking indifferently at her, John Grass and the other Indians who composed the court.

PRINCESS VICTORIA OF PRUSSIA.

Her Wedding Trousseau is Placed on Exhibition in Leipzig, Saxony.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) BERLIN, Nov. 17.—(By cable to the N. Y. Sun.)—A great social and court event will occupy the attention of the loyal citizens of Berlin this week when Princess Victoria of Prussia, daughter of Empress Frederick, is to be united in marriage to Prince Adolph, of Schaumburg-Leippe. In anticipation of the wedding all Berlin talks of nothing but Princess Victoria's black silk unmentionables. The Empress Frederick has given them to her daughter as a wedding present, in fact, they form the chief part of that young lady's trousseau, which is exhibited by a firm in Leipzig, Saxony. Saturday afternoon, the sidewalk in front of the door was swarming with people, mostly women and young ladies, who had come to see this marvelous exhibition. They were gravely disappointed, as the three beautiful gowns, which were being shown, were only a few yards long, and the beautiful hand embroidery on the pillow cases and covers in old German style, I saw nothing that I have not seen just as dainty made in great America, except for the fact that what really astonished me was the number of the exhibit. This daughter of an emperor, a sister of the mightiest monarch on the face of the earth, upon her marriage, will be given to her husband a wardrobe of underwear, half tulle, lace and China silk, as many sets of bed and table linen, and a great many other things. I am sure there are hundreds of Americans who have tried every year who can boast of many duplications of the trousseau of Princess Victoria.

But then there are those six black unmentionables. They held evidently the place of honor in the outfit, being deposited in white silk cushions in the center of the table. My curiosity was aroused by these objects of idolatry said to be in an undecorated case. They are for riding costumes, the first ever made. A young man said that one of the things in the royal house possessed such things and that the Princess Sophia when she married the Greek Crown Prince, begged her mother in vain for a similar outfit. They are in no way different from the regulation riding garments except that the material, which is of heavy silk and the trimmings, which are of the most delicate and which is turned up like a flannel. The trousseau exhibited is silver finished in the official press and special mention is made of the fact that the entire outfit is furnished by German and made in Germany. This is an untruth on the face of it. The China silk, for instance, is of French manufacture, and moreover, the Queen of England's riding outfit, which she wears from Scotch or English business houses. The exhibition has in reality been opened up to increase the popularity of Empress Frederick as a supporter of German trade.

Parrell to His Followers. DUBLIN, Nov. 17.—Parrell, in a letter to the Freeman's Journal, reminds his followers of the importance of being in parliament on the opening day. He says, unquestionably the coming session will be the following of Parrell's last, and great issues depend upon its course.

The Telegraph on Parrell. LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Telegraph publishes Parrell's political obituary. It says he must cease for the present, at least, to lean on the Nationalist party. It is reported that the following of Parrell do not desire him to retire unless by his own written consent, which would be the leadership of the Irish party will be vested in a commission, of which Justice McCarthy will be president.

Revenue Marine Division Report. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Captain Shepherd, chief of the revenue marine division, reports that during the last fiscal year, 283,113 nautical miles, and boarded and examined 33,161 vessels, of which 915 incurred fines and penalties amounting to $99,010; 30 distressed vessels were assisted, the value of property saved being $2,500,000; 43 persons were rescued from drowning and 811 assisted in other ways. The expenditures were $37,100.

Reported Murder of French Explorers. BRUSSELS, Nov. 17.—Two French explorers, Danely and Plisson, who are making a geographical tour around Lake Van, are reported to have been murdered.

Stiffening Prices. NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—High London quotations and the buying of stocks by London houses caused a partial return of confidence in the stock market. This was increased by an understanding that Jay Gould, D. O. Mills, the Vanderbilts and other important interests would join hands in giving support to prices. It is also stated that a large amount of gold which Gould is interested in has been heavy buyer of Northern Pacific.

Barnum Probably Dying. BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 17.—P. T. Barnum is believed to be on his deathbed. Inquirers at his residence are told his condition is not such as to create apprehension, but Dr. Hubbard, his physician, told your correspondent last night, it would not be at all surprising if the great showman's present attack terminated fatally within a few days. He has not the strength necessary to recuperate and his illness has certainly exhausted nearly all his remarkable vitality. He has not been left alone a moment since the beginning of his illness. Either Mrs. Barnum or a trained nurse or Private Secretary Bowser has been at his bedside constantly. He was better this morning. He was able to sit up and read the papers and attend to some business.

Nashville Races. NASHVILLE, Nov. 17.—Two year olds, half mile—Hornly Bill won. Ed Bell second, Laura Doxy third. Time—53. Three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs—Billy Plunkerton won, Pantalote second, Dick Darling third. Time—1:30. Three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs—Little Croze won, Consignee second, Neva C. third. Time—1:34. Three-year-olds and upward, mile and seventy yards—Fred Fink won, Gilford second, John Morris third. Time—1:52. Four-year-olds and upward, five furlongs—Miss Francis won, Maggie B. second, Chicago third. Time—1:07.

Plot to Steal Examination Papers. LONDON, Nov. 17.—A plot to steal the army examination papers before the time of examination, has been discovered. The secretary of war offers a reward.

Russian Nihilists' Sentence. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—The trial of nihilists implicated in the plot against the czar is concluded. Sophie Guegnberg, arrested in Paris for having bombs in her possession, together with two of her ac-

RELIGIOUS INDIANS.

The Excitement Concerning the Messiah.

PRETTY LOGICAL REASONING

By Chief Gall on Christian Doctrines—White Men Believe Strange Things in Religion, and Why Not Redmen?

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) STANDING ROCK AGENCY, N. D., Nov. 17.—The news that General Miles is liable at any moment to receive a regiment or two of United States regulars against the Sioux is causing a great deal of excitement among the redmen, but their belief in the coming of the Messiah is in no way lessened thereby. The Indians have evidently in many instances gone stark mad. The most exciting among the many trials which have occurred here is the last night was that of the alleged Virgin Mary. When the Indian court officer called her name there came out from the murmuring crowd in the large room Wawatwin, the "scarlet woman," the wife of Olligosa, a member of the Watoikis band of Sioux, although it is said she is not a native but came from a band of Indians across the Manitoba line. Fearlessness was the leading element of her attitude as she stood so gracefully before the railing, behind which sat the agent and his interpreter, and looking indifferently at her, John Grass and the other Indians who composed the court.

PRINCESS VICTORIA OF PRUSSIA.

Her Wedding Trousseau is Placed on Exhibition in Leipzig, Saxony.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.) BERLIN, Nov. 17.—(By cable to the N. Y. Sun.)—A great social and court event will occupy the attention of the loyal citizens of Berlin this week when Princess Victoria of Prussia, daughter of Empress Frederick, is to be united in marriage to Prince Adolph, of Schaumburg-Leippe. In anticipation of the wedding all Berlin talks of nothing but Princess Victoria's black silk unmentionables. The Empress Frederick has given them to her daughter as a wedding present, in fact, they form the chief part of that young lady's trousseau, which is exhibited by a firm in Leipzig, Saxony. Saturday afternoon, the sidewalk in front of the door was swarming with people, mostly women and young ladies, who had come to see this marvelous exhibition. They were gravely disappointed, as the three beautiful gowns, which were being shown, were only a few yards long, and the beautiful hand embroidery on the pillow cases and covers in old German style, I saw nothing that I have not seen just as dainty made in great America, except for the fact that what really astonished me was the number of the exhibit. This daughter of an emperor, a sister of the mightiest monarch on the face of the earth, upon her marriage, will be given to her husband a wardrobe of underwear, half tulle, lace and China silk, as many sets of bed and table linen, and a great many other things. I am sure there are hundreds of Americans who have tried every year who can boast of many duplications of the trousseau of Princess Victoria.

But then there are those