

MALICE OR JIM JAMS

The Tribune Swears Out Indiscriminate Search Warrants.

MARY A. THAXTON DIVORCED

The Incendiary Case Today—A Horrible Field—Smaller Crimes—A. L. Williams' Bonds.

Harry Glenn is a compositor in the Times office. He is likewise a brother or Sergeant Glenn of the police force. Yesterday, while in the composing room of the Tribune he noticed several galleys of type containing the evidence in full of the secret police investigating committee. It had evidently been furnished to the Tribune by some one pledged to secrecy, before it was presented to the city council. May be some one of the Tribune's four boarders did it; who knows! At any rate, there it was, where it had no right to be and couldn't be, except through some clerical error and slight of hand performance. Whoever conspired with the Tribune to furnish it will deny it. Anyone who will steal it will deny it.

Harry Glenn's report, asked of the printers around him, he could read the proofs of it, to which the answer was made that the proofs were destroyed but that he might take others. Being interested in his brother's account he did this and departed with the paper.

Directly the Tribune people heard of it and caused the arrest of Glenn for petit larceny which he never committed. He gave bonds in the sum of $500 with Nick Treweek and H. K. Bloch as his sureties.

Not satisfied with this the Tribune swore out search warrants against the Times and Herald. The latter were never served. Was it malice or Jim-Jams that caused the trouble? The Herald gets its news straight every time, but it gets it, and without resorting to court processes it scoops his contemporaries every day.

Third District Court. The divorce case of Mary A. Thaxton vs. James A. Thaxton came up for hearing before Judge Zane yesterday.

The case of C. S. Kinney vs. L. C. Cline et al. the demurrer was withdrawn and the defendant was allowed ten days in which to answer.

In the case of John C. Edwards vs. Margie Thompson et al. an order of publication of summons was made.

The Female Incendiary. Mrs. Lang, who is charged with having set fire to the boarding house kept by her on First South street, on Monday, appeared in the police court yesterday morning, and the request of her attorney, W. H. Dickson, the case went over until this morning.

OTHER POLICE NEWS. John Kirkwell, charged with using abusive language, was tried and acquitted.

David Smith was fined $10 for an assault upon G. B. Duncan.

Thomas Williams, one of the hobos arrested on Sunday, was sent up for thirty days for having burglar's tools in his possession.

Ed Wilson, who was charged with stealing some jewelry from H. T. Waldren's store on Main street, last Saturday, was tried on the charge of petit larceny and acquitted.

The examination of Ed Woods, the fellow who was treated on Monday night on the charge of assault with intent to commit rape, was set for this afternoon at 4.

The Children Held for Home Stealing. In the case of A. J. Giral, the Chilean rascal, who was examined before Commissioner Greenman on Monday on the charge of stealing a horse belonging to Mr. Foote, the keeper of a livery stable, the court yesterday decided to hold the defendant to answer the action of the grand jury, and fix his bonds at $200. The Chilean was unable to find sureties and went to jail.

County Court. At yesterday's session of the county court there were present Hon. G. W. Bartch, and Selectmen John P. Cahoon, Harry Hardy, John Butler.

WILLIAM'S BONDS. The county clerk fixed the bond for Collector-elect A. L. Williams at $500,000, as follows:

Territorial and territorial school tax $200,000 County tax $100,000 Special school tax $100,000 Total $400,000

The clerk was instructed to correct all the clerical errors for 1891 on the school roll.

ASSESSMENTS. The county clerk reported that he had placed in the hands of the collector of Salt Lake county, the duplicated assessment roll for the year 1891, showing the amount of tax to be collected as follows:

Territorial and territorial school $200,311.18 County tax $117,334.47 Special school tax $100,000.00 Total $417,645.65

COUNTY TREASURER RECEIPTS. The county clerk presented receipts of the county treasurer, showing $602.90 collected from the following sources by the county treasurer:

Merchants' license $ 525.00 Sale of personal property 132.20 Sale of title lands to Olias Roberts, July 6, 1891 44.80 Sale of title lands to Olias Roberts, August 1, 1891 110.00

LIQUOR BONDS. Bond of George Bass to sell liquor at retail in Farmington, approved, and the clerk instructed to issue a license therefor.

PETITIONS. Israel Spitz presented a petition asking to be appointed road supervisor of District No. 7. The clerk was instructed to issue certificate.

THE GREAT BATTLE

The Salt Lake Man Wins in Five Rounds. $17,000 BET ON THE RESULTS.

WILLIAMS' BOND READY.

The County Collector Elect Will File it on Friday.

"I haven't broke into the collector's safe yet," said A. L. Williams good naturedly to a Herald reporter last evening. "A politician has a hard road to travel," sympathetically observed the scribe. "Pretty tough, I tell you," said the collector elect, and he spoke feelingly of the days' agonies he had undergone during the recent campaign. "After being charged with the railway company, when I didn't owe it a cent, and after being made out the biggest gambler in town, when I never put a 25-cent piece on a faro table in my life, and after being elected, to be kept out of office, is pretty rough sailing I can tell you.

"But I will get my bond all right," continued the man of sorrows brightening up, "and I will file it on Friday."

"What legal counsel have you engaged?" "Dickson, and I have consulted Rawlins & Critchlow."

"You will have a long legal controversy on your hands."

"As far as I am concerned, I am ready to submit the case to Judge Zane for his opinion; it will have to go to the supreme court, any way, and we might as well go there and done with it."

Mr. Williams had no trouble in getting sureties on his $500,000, as the banker who will become the custodian of the county's money naturally took care of that. It is interesting to note that W. S. McCormick is one of the bondsmen.

A DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

Burglars Enter Mrs. David Woodman's House and Ransack It.

A very daring robbery was committed in broad daylight yesterday some time before noon. Mrs. David Woodman, who resides on First West street, about a block north of the foundry, left her house to go down town, but before leaving securely locked all the doors. Between 12 and 1 o'clock an unknown man walked deliberately in the front door, and catching the key with his fingers, unlocked it. Then he entered and ransacked the house thoroughly. He finally left, after securing a gold watch, some diamond jewelry, some silverware and a fine wrap. He was seen coming out of the house with the bundle, but the idea that a robbery had been committed did not occur to any one, and the fellow was allowed to walk off with his plunder unmolested.

A GIFT FROM HER PASTOR.

"In June, 1888, after the great flood," says Mrs. E. L. Henrie, of Johnston, Pa., "at a time when I was very much run down with diarrhoea and had tried two doctors with little result, I received a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from my pastor. This remedy relieved me at once, and cured me in a short time. I got several bottles, and gave it around among my acquaintances who were afflicted in the same way. I think I save it to a dozen people, and it relieved and cured, so far as I know, in all cases. It is the best medicine for this disease I have ever known." For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

CLIFF HOUSE.

Located Corner Main and Third South Streets. The Cliff is the best $2 per day house in this city. Rooms large, cool and airy; new electric lighting, electric bells, and all the latest conveniences and accessories. Dining hall spacious and perfect in its appointments. Table first-class. The kitchen is supervised by the most celebrated chef and supper, light breakfast, dinner and supper, light table serving lunch.

PERSONAL MENTION.

DR. R. M. GRAVES, of Ogden, is at the Callen. DR. H. HENRY, of Smithfield, is at the Callen. SHERIFF FOWLER, of Provo, is at the White house.

SERRETT W. M. CURTIS, Duchesne, is at the White house. ALP SMUTHEWATER, of the Ogden Democrat, is at the Knisford.

MISS MARY J. HARRIS, of the Ogden Democrat, is at the Knisford. NELS HELGREN, superintendent of the Glenwood Co-op, is in town.

W. W. WALKER, an Omaha iron manufacturer, accompanied by his wife, is at the Cliff. The water is several inches lower in Ogden than it was at this time last year.

Miss J. J. STANLEY, a young lady, has taken a suite of rooms at the Continental. H. O. YOUNG, a prominent Park City business man, is registered at the Templeton.

Mrs. R. C. CHAMBERLAIN, secretary of her mother, will arrive from the west this morning. VINCE KELLY, who has the contract on the Salt Lake Co-op, is in town purchasing goods for the firm.

WHITE HOUSE.

corner of Main and Second South. Most central location in any hotel in the city. Opposite postoffice. Union Ticket and Pullman office in the hotel. Newly remodelled and furnished throughout. Table set with the best of the table and all modern conveniences. Terms $1.50 to $2 per day.

NOT A POISONOUS FACE BLEACH.

But a true beautifier, being the only preparation sold under a positive guarantee of $1000 that it contains not a grain or fraction thereof of poisonous or deleterious substances. Indorsed by the most celebrated artists of the lyric and dramatic stage; recommended by eminent physicians, and pronounced harmless by leading chemists—Wideman's Famous Skin Cream.

THOUSANDS OF SUFFERING WOMEN.

Delicate women who complain of a tired feeling, pain in the back and legs, nervousness, dizziness, painful or suppressed menstruation, will find in Oregon Kidney Tea a faithful friend. It can be relied upon in every instance to give immediate relief from kidney and urinary troubles. Thousands of women are suffering every day from some disorder of the kidneys or liver, who might be permanently cured by using Oregon Kidney Tea.

DELICIOUS COLD BEVERAGES.

The decoctions served to the thirsty and warm at the Occidental are delicious, pure and superior. First-class wines, liquors, beers, ales and cigars. Family supplies a specialty.

ASER & MURPHY, Proprietors.

SILVER BROS' IRON WORKS.

No. 149 West North Temple.

SALT LAKE PLUMBING CO.

Sanitary plumbing a specialty. Prompt attention given to all kinds of jobbing. Store 96 E. Second South street, Salt Lake City, Utah. Telephone 111.

W. G. COLLETT, C. M. FREEER.

Assaulters.

W. G. Gray, an employee of the Eagle

THE TINTIC FIGHT

The U. P. Shuts the R. G. W. Out From the Mines.

THE WORKINGMEN'S TRAINS

The Montana Editors Are Due Here on the 5th and Preparations Are on Foot For Their Welcome.

Mr. S. W. Eccles, of the Union Pacific, has returned from Eureka, where he has been watching the laying of the tracks around and up to the mines, which caused such a furore last week. He says the work is now completed. When asked as to the truth of the rumor that a portion of the track laid by the Union Pacific had been torn up by the miners, he said some rails and ties had been put on Eureka Hill, but the ground had been removed, but this did not cut any figure in the fight.

From a gentleman who came in last evening, it was learned that the Union Pacific has so grid-ironed the ground in the vicinity of the Bullion-Beck, Eureka Hill and the other big mines of the camp as to simply shut out the Rio Grande Western from the camp. Asked as to what he imagined the next move would be, he said it was impossible to prognosticate. Unless the Rio Grande Western could get close up to the big mines and thus avoid the necessity of a haul on the ores, it might just as well stop where it is, for the local traffic would receive outside of the ore could never sustain it. It looked to him as though the Bullion-Beck people and the Union Pacific were pulling together in this move.

Workmen's Trains. The Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs people have inaugurated what they call workmen's trains, and on these half the usual fare is asked. These trains leave this end of the line before 8 o'clock a. m., and the other end of the line after 5:30 p. m. This is a good move, and one that will be appreciated by the workmen.

The Montana Editors. The Montana editors and newspaper men will arrive here on the 5th. Arrangements are being made by the chamber of commerce to give them a pleasing reception.

The John W. Young Road. A meeting of property owners along the John W. Young road has been called for Monday evening, September 7, at the general offices of the West Side association, 35 and 38 Central block. The rapid strides the West Side is making in various improvements and the building up of that section, is bringing out many matters of personal importance to property owners along that road, and it is expected that a large attendance will be present.

Sale of the Pacific Short Line Deferred. OMAHA, Sept. 1.—(Special telegram to THE HERALD.)—This morning was set for the receiver's sale of the Nebraska & Western railway, known as the Pacific Short Line, but the sale was deferred off in accordance with a request from Strong & Cadwallader, of New York, solicitors for the Manhattan Trust company.

The short line extends from Sioux City to O'Neill, a distance of 123 miles. The order of sale was made on June 30 to satisfy a judgment of $2,705,435 obtained by the Manhattan Trust company of New York, on a suit brought to recover the principal and interest on bonds of the railway company held in trust by the Manhattan company. As the hour approached the steps and sidewalk at the north door of the federal building presented an animated appearance. There were a large number of lawyers present representing claimants of the road property.

The order of the road present were several Sioux City men, headed by A. S. Gairland, a prominent banker of Sioux City, who represented a syndicate of capitalists of that city. These people had decided to enter in the competition as bidders in order to save the money they had already invested. Despite all rumors to the effect that the Illinois Central or the Northwest were after the road, neither of these roads was represented in the crowd which gathered.

Dickinson on Union Pacific Affairs. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special telegram to THE HERALD.)—Assistant-General Manager Dickinson, of the Union Pacific, returned last night from a western trip, accompanied by his family. He proposed entire ignorance of the rumored change of control by which the Vanderbilts had secured the Union Pacific. He had not seen Gould or Clark since the story started and knew nothing about it except what he had seen in the papers.

Changes in the Grand Trunk. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Montreal special to THE HERALD: It is rumored in railway circles there to be important changes among high officials of the Grand Trunk within a month. Dissatisfaction is said to exist on the part of several officials on account of the lobbying they are compelled to do and one or at least of the very highest officials will resign.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—A Union Pacific director says: "I have not heard that Gould, Sage or Dillon have said any of their holdings as reported. They are all heavy subscribers to the debt certificates, and it would be hardly likely for them to sell out at this time. Upward of three quarters of the amount is being steadily increased. I do not know whether Dillon is going to resign or not."

Sidney Dillon Will Not Resign. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The reports circulated about pending developments in regard to Union Pacific affairs are denied by the officers and directors of the company. The report that Sidney Dillon will resign the presidency is called ridiculous by Director Orr.

The Burlington Rushing to Helena. CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The fact that the Burlington company is pushing the extension of its lines to Helena, Mont., is being utilized to certain quarters to create discord among members of the Western Traffic association. Montana lines have suddenly awakened to the fact that when the extension is completed the Burlington will be in active competition with the shortest lines from Helena to Chicago, and it is understood they will lay the matter before the advisory board next month with the allegation that the Burlington has violated the agreement. The Burlington people say the extension was begun before the Western Traffic agreement was formed.

Guatemala's Gaps Insulting. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—A dispatch from the City of Mexico says the press of Guatemala and San Salvador are very insulting to the United States. In referring to the City of Panama incident, the former claims the United States was weak in acceding to the extension of Salvador, and the latter says the United States knowing its strength is arrogant towards smaller nations. A telegram dated the 31st, and published in the United States that President Ezeta of Salvador has telegraphed to dispatch Mariscal, foreign minister of Mexico, is untrue, but the fact is as stated in the dispatch of the 13th and had no reference to the war between Guatemala and Salvador, but to

Abstracts of title to real estate situated in Salt Lake county neatly, accurately and promptly furnished by the county recorder.

TO SPECIAL SCHOOL TAXPAYER

A fund of special district school taxes of the year 1890, which were paid to the collector under protest, is still in the collection. The referee and he stubbornly refused to agree on Mr. Painter. After brief consultation among the second tax payer, of San Francisco, was selected and Mr. Painter, who was at 10:15 the men stepped to the center of the ring and a flash light was taken; a moment later they shook hands and the fight commenced.

Round 1—After some preliminary sparring for an opening, Morrison led for the face and got in a light blow. Williams retaliated with a heavy one to the chest. This was followed by a counter, and it was a close fight until Morrison slipped and went down. Williams commenced forcing the fight in the corner, and got in heavily on the face and side. He followed this with one on the nose which brought the crowd. Morrison aimed a wicked blow to Williams' face, but was quickly repulsed from the point by clinching. The round ended in Williams' favor, and the Salt Lake delegate, who was in the ring, announced his man to go slow and save his strength.

Round 2—Both men came up briskly. Williams' face was wreathed in smiles, while Morrison's was a study in gloom. Morrison promptly led for the ribs, but was too eager and got a blow in the neck which staggered him. This was followed by many exchanges which did little damage on both sides. Then there was some sparring and Williams suddenly got in a left hand swing on the Ogden man's face which made him wince. An air exchange Morrison clinched three times, and when parted by the referee the Ogden man got in a hot one on Williams' ribs. This riled the latter, and he struck three stingers on his opponent's face. Morrison was getting a little weak, commenced to play for Williams' wind, and got in a couple of light blows to the face, and this round also ended in favor of the Salt Lake man. La Blanche did some clever work in tracing his man up, and he sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 3—Both men advanced quickly to the center of the ring, but Morrison immediately backed to his corner. Williams followed him and opened the ball with a punch in the stomach, while Morrison countered on the face. Then Williams made a rush and caught the Ogden man on the chin and landed him on the ropes. He followed this up with three smashes in the face which made Morrison very tired and somewhat groggy, and he quickly got out of range. Williams followed him up, however, and landed heavily on Morrison's jaw. This was followed by a rally and some tie-fights, which ended in a clinch. On breaking away Williams got in on the face and time was called.

Round 4—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 5—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 6—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 7—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 8—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 9—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 10—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 11—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 12—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

THE TINTIC FIGHT

The U. P. Shuts the R. G. W. Out From the Mines.

THE WORKINGMEN'S TRAINS

The Montana Editors Are Due Here on the 5th and Preparations Are on Foot For Their Welcome.

Mr. S. W. Eccles, of the Union Pacific, has returned from Eureka, where he has been watching the laying of the tracks around and up to the mines, which caused such a furore last week. He says the work is now completed. When asked as to the truth of the rumor that a portion of the track laid by the Union Pacific had been torn up by the miners, he said some rails and ties had been put on Eureka Hill, but the ground had been removed, but this did not cut any figure in the fight.

From a gentleman who came in last evening, it was learned that the Union Pacific has so grid-ironed the ground in the vicinity of the Bullion-Beck, Eureka Hill and the other big mines of the camp as to simply shut out the Rio Grande Western from the camp. Asked as to what he imagined the next move would be, he said it was impossible to prognosticate. Unless the Rio Grande Western could get close up to the big mines and thus avoid the necessity of a haul on the ores, it might just as well stop where it is, for the local traffic would receive outside of the ore could never sustain it. It looked to him as though the Bullion-Beck people and the Union Pacific were pulling together in this move.

Workmen's Trains. The Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs people have inaugurated what they call workmen's trains, and on these half the usual fare is asked. These trains leave this end of the line before 8 o'clock a. m., and the other end of the line after 5:30 p. m. This is a good move, and one that will be appreciated by the workmen.

The Montana Editors. The Montana editors and newspaper men will arrive here on the 5th. Arrangements are being made by the chamber of commerce to give them a pleasing reception.

The John W. Young Road. A meeting of property owners along the John W. Young road has been called for Monday evening, September 7, at the general offices of the West Side association, 35 and 38 Central block. The rapid strides the West Side is making in various improvements and the building up of that section, is bringing out many matters of personal importance to property owners along that road, and it is expected that a large attendance will be present.

Sale of the Pacific Short Line Deferred. OMAHA, Sept. 1.—(Special telegram to THE HERALD.)—This morning was set for the receiver's sale of the Nebraska & Western railway, known as the Pacific Short Line, but the sale was deferred off in accordance with a request from Strong & Cadwallader, of New York, solicitors for the Manhattan Trust company.

The short line extends from Sioux City to O'Neill, a distance of 123 miles. The order of sale was made on June 30 to satisfy a judgment of $2,705,435 obtained by the Manhattan Trust company of New York, on a suit brought to recover the principal and interest on bonds of the railway company held in trust by the Manhattan company. As the hour approached the steps and sidewalk at the north door of the federal building presented an animated appearance. There were a large number of lawyers present representing claimants of the road property.

The order of the road present were several Sioux City men, headed by A. S. Gairland, a prominent banker of Sioux City, who represented a syndicate of capitalists of that city. These people had decided to enter in the competition as bidders in order to save the money they had already invested. Despite all rumors to the effect that the Illinois Central or the Northwest were after the road, neither of these roads was represented in the crowd which gathered.

Dickinson on Union Pacific Affairs. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special telegram to THE HERALD.)—Assistant-General Manager Dickinson, of the Union Pacific, returned last night from a western trip, accompanied by his family. He proposed entire ignorance of the rumored change of control by which the Vanderbilts had secured the Union Pacific. He had not seen Gould or Clark since the story started and knew nothing about it except what he had seen in the papers.

Changes in the Grand Trunk. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Montreal special to THE HERALD: It is rumored in railway circles there to be important changes among high officials of the Grand Trunk within a month. Dissatisfaction is said to exist on the part of several officials on account of the lobbying they are compelled to do and one or at least of the very highest officials will resign.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—A Union Pacific director says: "I have not heard that Gould, Sage or Dillon have said any of their holdings as reported. They are all heavy subscribers to the debt certificates, and it would be hardly likely for them to sell out at this time. Upward of three quarters of the amount is being steadily increased. I do not know whether Dillon is going to resign or not."

Sidney Dillon Will Not Resign. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The reports circulated about pending developments in regard to Union Pacific affairs are denied by the officers and directors of the company. The report that Sidney Dillon will resign the presidency is called ridiculous by Director Orr.

The Burlington Rushing to Helena. CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The fact that the Burlington company is pushing the extension of its lines to Helena, Mont., is being utilized to certain quarters to create discord among members of the Western Traffic association. Montana lines have suddenly awakened to the fact that when the extension is completed the Burlington will be in active competition with the shortest lines from Helena to Chicago, and it is understood they will lay the matter before the advisory board next month with the allegation that the Burlington has violated the agreement. The Burlington people say the extension was begun before the Western Traffic agreement was formed.

Guatemala's Gaps Insulting. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—A dispatch from the City of Mexico says the press of Guatemala and San Salvador are very insulting to the United States. In referring to the City of Panama incident, the former claims the United States was weak in acceding to the extension of Salvador, and the latter says the United States knowing its strength is arrogant towards smaller nations. A telegram dated the 31st, and published in the United States that President Ezeta of Salvador has telegraphed to dispatch Mariscal, foreign minister of Mexico, is untrue, but the fact is as stated in the dispatch of the 13th and had no reference to the war between Guatemala and Salvador, but to

Abstracts of title to real estate situated in Salt Lake county neatly, accurately and promptly furnished by the county recorder.

TO SPECIAL SCHOOL TAXPAYER

A fund of special district school taxes of the year 1890, which were paid to the collector under protest, is still in the collection. The referee and he stubbornly refused to agree on Mr. Painter. After brief consultation among the second tax payer, of San Francisco, was selected and Mr. Painter, who was at 10:15 the men stepped to the center of the ring and a flash light was taken; a moment later they shook hands and the fight commenced.

Round 1—After some preliminary sparring for an opening, Morrison led for the face and got in a light blow. Williams retaliated with a heavy one to the chest. This was followed by a counter, and it was a close fight until Morrison slipped and went down. Williams commenced forcing the fight in the corner, and got in heavily on the face and side. He followed this with one on the nose which brought the crowd. Morrison aimed a wicked blow to Williams' face, but was quickly repulsed from the point by clinching. The round ended in Williams' favor, and the Salt Lake delegate, who was in the ring, announced his man to go slow and save his strength.

Round 2—Both men came up briskly. Williams' face was wreathed in smiles, while Morrison's was a study in gloom. Morrison promptly led for the ribs, but was too eager and got a blow in the neck which staggered him. This was followed by many exchanges which did little damage on both sides. Then there was some sparring and Williams suddenly got in a left hand swing on the Ogden man's face which made him wince. An air exchange Morrison clinched three times, and when parted by the referee the Ogden man got in a hot one on Williams' ribs. This riled the latter, and he struck three stingers on his opponent's face. Morrison was getting a little weak, commenced to play for Williams' wind, and got in a couple of light blows to the face, and this round also ended in favor of the Salt Lake man. La Blanche did some clever work in tracing his man up, and he sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 3—Both men advanced quickly to the center of the ring, but Morrison immediately backed to his corner. Williams followed him and opened the ball with a punch in the stomach, while Morrison countered on the face. Then Williams made a rush and caught the Ogden man on the chin and landed him on the ropes. He followed this up with three smashes in the face which made Morrison very tired and somewhat groggy, and he quickly got out of range. Williams followed him up, however, and landed heavily on Morrison's jaw. This was followed by a rally and some tie-fights, which ended in a clinch. On breaking away Williams got in on the face and time was called.

Round 4—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 5—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.

Round 6—Morrison was not so sorry this time, and when Williams gave him a stiff punch in the face he met it with an upper cut, but the Salt Lake dancer out of range. He quickly returned, however, and gave the Ogden man a couple of smashes in the face which staggered him. Williams became somewhat careless after this, and to the surprise of every one, Morrison got in a terrific right hander on the jaw, which sent him into the ring for the next round looking quite fresh.