

THE RUSH CONTINUES FIRE!

At our Great FIRE SALE, and HUNDREDS of people are taking advantage of the EXTREMELY LOW PRICES we are quoting on

WOMEN'S SUITS, OVERCOATS, HATS, BOOTS, SHOES and RUBBERS, FURNISHING GOODS,

These Goods are but SLIGHTLY DAMAGED and it will pay you to come and examine the entire stock before it is too late.

O. K. SHOE & CLOTHING CO., FIRE!

117 Main Street.

UTAH NEWS.

THE HERALD is delivered daily by carrier to Ogden and Park City at 25 cents per week...

BRANCH OFFICES: OGDEN—Room 4th, Utah Loan and Trust Building...

Advertisements left at branch offices will appear in the next issue.

OGDEN.

TUESDAY, February 23, 1892.

THE HOLIDAY.

It Was Duly Celebrated—A Destructive Fire—General Notes.

Yesterday being Washington's birthday, a legal holiday, the city was very quiet.

Pieces of amusement were very active, however, and the way people, mostly the young, turned out to pay homage to the birth of George...

THE O. P. S. OF A. BALL.

The Grand opera house was a scene of beauty last night the occasion being the ball given by the Ogden lodge of Patriotic Sons of America.

THE CATHOLIC HALL.

The Catholics of Ogden have fitted up a nice hall and suite of rooms in the Peery block which was formally dedicated last evening.

Rev. P. M. O'Shaughnessy, Chairman.

The Star Spangled Banner. Chorus, O'Connell, Kelly, Knapp, W. J. Maguire.

Song—"Beneath the Low Thatched Roof."

Instrumental—"The Mocking Bird."

The Mandolin Club of the Sacred Heart.

Misses Mary Parker, Maggie McGovern, May Leman, Maggie Wallace, Floche Houta, Edith Eeck, Julia Kneass, Stella Williams, Virginia Hutz, Katie Carmahan, Mary Langsdorf, Nellie Healy.

Song—"Come Back to Erin."

Scotieta—"Sweet and Lowly."

Mrs. Dr. Conroy, Miss Farmer, Miss Maguire, Mrs. Roepel, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Terpana.

Address—"The Holy of Holy's."

Song—"The Holy of Holy's."

Misses Mary and Agnes Maguire, Miss Farmer, Duet—"What are the Wild Waves Saying."

"B" and "C" Group.

Song—"The Isle That's Crowned With Shamrock."

Academy.

Mrs. H. Brown, Pianist.

At the close of the programme the guests repaired to the second floor where a banquet was held which lasted for over an hour.

A Destructive Fire.

A fire completely destroyed the residence of Mr. J. B. Ballantyne, on Barlow's lane, between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh street, on Sunday evening.

About 5:30 o'clock the house was discovered to be ablaze, and an alarm was sent in to the department, who responded quickly.

The building was wrapped entirely in flames, and all the firemen could do was to use their efforts in saving the adjoining buildings.

All the family were away at the time, Mr. Ballantyne being at the house of a sick friend, and Mrs. Ballantyne and her children were at church.

None of the contents of the house were saved. The insurance on the house was $1,500, and on the contents, $800.

A gentleman by the name of Stephens, and wife, who lately arrived from England, had taken rooms there. Their household goods were yet unpacked, and all were destroyed by the raging flames. The loss to all is very severe.

Talking of Utah.

Mr. E. B. Ridgeley returned yesterday morning from a four weeks' trip to the east, where he has been in the interest of Ogden.

He visited Kansas City as well as other large eastern cities. At Pittsburg, Kan., he visited the electric smelters of the Pittsburg Short Method Smelting and Refining company, which are said to be the best in existence.

Mr. Ridgeley states the company is greatly interested in the establishment of a smelter in this city.

In speaking of full times, Mr. Ridgeley stated that people in the agricultural states felt keenly the discrepancy in the money market, although there seems to be considerable inquiry for farm property, and a great many farms are changing hands.

"Everywhere in the money centers I visited," continued Mr. Ridgeley, "I found a growing feeling for the west and particularly Utah. The money market, of course, is steadily easing up, and as it does there is a greater demand for Utah securities.

That Elevator Query.

As to whether a gentleman should remove his car on entering an elevator, Mr. Ballantyne is in it, it seems to me as though everything is against the practice.

In the first place, it is doubtful whether ladies should make use of an elevator—whether it would be best for them to reach the top of a building via the stairway.

But as to the hat proposition, why shouldn't a man take off his hat in a street car, or a railroad car or many other public places, in the presence of ladies?

But there is a graver reason why men, at least bald ones, should keep their ties on in elevators, specially in semi-open ones, as the Loan Trust, for in the rapid ascent and descent of the case, the cold air is apt to strike the bare head and with such force as to give rise to the death of cold. By all means leave the Hat On.

Sale of Red Jacket Stock.

John R. Porter, of Iowa, arrived in the city a few days ago, and having heard considerable about the La Plata mines, he took a trip up to the camp to make an investigation of it.

He became thoroughly satisfied with the future outlook of the mine, and he has been very courteous and obliging to the public, but the people of Ogden can feel assured of first-class attractions under the management of Mr. Porter, who will probably make Ogden his home.

A Change of Management.

The Grand opera house has changed management. The firm heretofore known as Brown & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent.

Mr. D. H. Peery, Jr., retaining Mr. Brown will continue as lessee and manager, and Horace K. Peery will be his assistant.

Many will regret to learn that Mr. Peery has severed his connection with the Grand, as he has been very courteous and obliging to the public, but the people of Ogden can feel assured of first-class attractions under the management of Mr. Brown, as has been exemplified in the past.

City Council.

All members of the city council were present last evening except Lundy, Shurtliff and Spencer.

After the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, the committee on laws reported a set of rules for the government of the city hospital, something very badly needed.

The rules were allowed to take the usual course of ordinance and will come up next council night for second reading.

The committee also recommended that Dr. Jones' bill for treating the firemen injured in a fire last summer be not paid by the city. Report adopted.

The committee on claims reported a number of claims aggregating $805, and recommended their payment.

The fire committee recommended the appropriation of $2,500 for fitting up the new fire stations and made some suggestions as to the expenditure of the money.

The committee was authorized to make the necessary purchases.

The committee on public buildings and grounds recommended the placing of electric lights at the corner of Adams and Thirty-first street and Madison and to the expenditure of the money.

The committee also recommended that the salary of the supervisor of public buildings and grounds to $100 per month. The report was adopted.

The committee on claims recommended the purchase of an Eagle crematory for the destruction of garbage, dead animals, etc., at a cost of about $10,000.

On objection, the ordinance was laid over for one week.

The special committee on the Jones investigation reported the accounts of the city assessor and collector correct. Referred to the finance committee.

E. T. Hendrickson petitioned for reimbursement for fire loss. Referred to the committee on claims.

Numerous citizens petitioned for a sewer on Twenty-sixth street, from Washington to Jefferson. Committee on sewers.

An ordinance amending the ordinance fixing the salary of supervisor of public buildings and grounds was read the first time.

After a small amount of unimportant business the council adjourned.

General Cleanings.

Ernest Eldridge was up from the capital city yesterday.

The Equitable Co-op. moved yesterday to the Peery block.

William Rampton, of Salt Lake, was in the city yesterday.

Lincoln lodge 9, Knights of Pythias, met in Castle hall to-night in regular session.

Ted Marks, manager of "Wilkinson's Widows," was registered at the Red yesterday.

Hyrum S. Young, of the Deseret National bank of Salt Lake, was in the city yesterday.

The city fathers not having any discrepancy at all for the father of his country met as usual last evening.

Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald, wife of resident Engineer Fitzgerald of the Southern Pacific, is reported quite ill.

There are undelivered messages at the Western Union telegraph office for H. C. Brubeck and Barker & Randolph.

The bill posters filed the city with James O'Neil advertising matter. He will appear in "Monte Cristo" at the Grand Saturday night.

The directors of the First National bank held a meeting yesterday. A general inspection of the books was made and the cash on hand counted up.

Quite a delegation of Knights of Pythias will leave for Provo to-morrow to attend the initiation of Garden City lodge No. 10. They will join the Salt Lake delegation at the capital.

The Southern Pacific passenger from the west was delayed several hours yesterday on account of washouts on the Truckee division where the thaw of the last few days has caused high water.

The firm of Preshaw & Co., undertakers, made an assignment to Mr. J. S.

PROVO.

TUESDAY, February 23.

CASS HITE'S CASE.

His Trial for Murder Begins To-day—An Accident at the Mills—Patriotic.

Exceptional interest is being shown in the Cass Hite murder case, which is set for trial in the first district court to-day.

On Tuesday last the party who had the defense are the well known attorneys Judge Powers and Ogden Hill, assisted by Mr. Hite's brother, a St. Louis attorney.

The accused has a great many friends who are very anxious for his acquittal, and the trial will be most vigorously contested.

There are two other defendants in the case, Shaeffer and Burgess, who were admitted to bail last November in the sum of $5,000 each.

The tragedy took place at Green River on the 9th of September last. Difficulty arose between Hite and Mr. Kohler, the victim, over some remarks about gambling, after which Hite shot Kohler.

On the date of the killing Hite went over to the residence of Mrs. Gammage, ostensibly for a settlement, whether amicably or not the testimony will bring out.

Mr. Burgess and Shaeffer, who were armed also, appeared on the scene.

The landlady, who had forebodings of trouble, asked the men to leave her place and have no difficulty. Cass was given a chair by Mr. Drake and sat about seven feet from the door where Kohler came out.

Hite asked him, in substance, what he was carrying a Winchester around for and told him that a man would do that was a carry a pistol around town is the same.

Here Hite sprang up and said "take that back," and the shooting began.

The witnesses in the preliminary examination were put on the stand, some testifying that Hite shot first and others that Kohler did. Several shots were fired in the confusion.

Mr. Drake was wounded in the arm by a bullet from the pistol of Mr. Hite.

The defendant was freed by the coroner's jury at the examination a short time after the tragedy, but was subsequently arrested on a charge of murder in the first degree.

ACCIDENT TO THE WOOLEN MILLS.

About 12 o'clock yesterday a vigorous shaking of electric light poles and breaking of a globe at the Sinton corner caused a little consternation on Centre street.

A large number of people were seen making their way toward the Provo woolen mills in the center of the city.

It was discovered upon reaching there that the south wing of the building, containing the washing and drying machinery had partly fallen down. The part of the building is constructed with adobe and the theory is that during the frozen season the temper was so low that the adobe, and the machinery, became so brittle that it was unable to sustain it.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

At 10 o'clock yesterday there was a large gathering at the auditorium of the B. Y. Y. club, for the purpose of celebrating the birthday of George Washington.

On the stand were H. H. Cliff, A. O. Smoot, Judge Blackburn, Wilson H. O. Dusenberry, J. E. Booth, Benjamin Cliff and others.

Judge Blackburn read a masterly tribute to the memory of the immortal Washington. It was well prepared and evinced a depth of thought worthy of the greatest approval.

Sentiments were given by Dr. M. H. Hardy, A. O. Smoot, J. E. Booth, and H. H. Gies played a piano solo and received a hearty encore.

Stella Jaques received high favor in a patriotic address, and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" with a vim which bespoke true patriotism.

The music of America began their parade and exercises at 3 o'clock. The Opera band was at the head of the procession.

The celebration of Washington's birthday was carried out in grand style in Provo. The Patriotic Order Sons of America made a parade from the lodge room through Centre and J streets led by the Opera band. They were beautifully arrayed in national colors and looked imposing.

The celebration of Washington's birthday was carried out in grand style in Provo. The Patriotic Order Sons of America made a parade from the lodge room through Centre and J streets led by the Opera band. They were beautifully arrayed in national colors and looked imposing.

The ball was eminently successful, the members were in regulation and a fine collection of dancers joined in the festivities.

The P. O. S. of A. gave one of the finest and most enjoyable of their parties in the Opera house to which the elite of town was invited.

Mr. H. A. Terpening of Salt Lake read an address replete with historical data on the subject of the organization of which he is a member.

Mr. Henry Bowings acted as master of ceremonies and floor manager.

The affair will long be remembered as an occasion of genuine enjoyment. Spaces will not permit a detail of the guests and their apparel.

PROVO.

TUESDAY, February 23.

CASS HITE'S CASE.

His Trial for Murder Begins To-day—An Accident at the Mills—Patriotic.

Exceptional interest is being shown in the Cass Hite murder case, which is set for trial in the first district court to-day.

On Tuesday last the party who had the defense are the well known attorneys Judge Powers and Ogden Hill, assisted by Mr. Hite's brother, a St. Louis attorney.

The accused has a great many friends who are very anxious for his acquittal, and the trial will be most vigorously contested.

There are two other defendants in the case, Shaeffer and Burgess, who were admitted to bail last November in the sum of $5,000 each.

The tragedy took place at Green River on the 9th of September last. Difficulty arose between Hite and Mr. Kohler, the victim, over some remarks about gambling, after which Hite shot Kohler.

On the date of the killing Hite went over to the residence of Mrs. Gammage, ostensibly for a settlement, whether amicably or not the testimony will bring out.

Mr. Burgess and Shaeffer, who were armed also, appeared on the scene.

The landlady, who had forebodings of trouble, asked the men to leave her place and have no difficulty. Cass was given a chair by Mr. Drake and sat about seven feet from the door where Kohler came out.

Hite asked him, in substance, what he was carrying a Winchester around for and told him that a man would do that was a carry a pistol around town is the same.

Here Hite sprang up and said "take that back," and the shooting began.

The witnesses in the preliminary examination were put on the stand, some testifying that Hite shot first and others that Kohler did. Several shots were fired in the confusion.

Mr. Drake was wounded in the arm by a bullet from the pistol of Mr. Hite.

The defendant was freed by the coroner's jury at the examination a short time after the tragedy, but was subsequently arrested on a charge of murder in the first degree.

ACCIDENT TO THE WOOLEN MILLS.

About 12 o'clock yesterday a vigorous shaking of electric light poles and breaking of a globe at the Sinton corner caused a little consternation on Centre street.

A large number of people were seen making their way toward the Provo woolen mills in the center of the city.

It was discovered upon reaching there that the south wing of the building, containing the washing and drying machinery had partly fallen down. The part of the building is constructed with adobe and the theory is that during the frozen season the temper was so low that the adobe, and the machinery, became so brittle that it was unable to sustain it.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

At 10 o'clock yesterday there was a large gathering at the auditorium of the B. Y. Y. club, for the purpose of celebrating the birthday of George Washington.

On the stand were H. H. Cliff, A. O. Smoot, Judge Blackburn, Wilson H. O. Dusenberry, J. E. Booth, Benjamin Cliff and others.

Judge Blackburn read a masterly tribute to the memory of the immortal Washington. It was well prepared and evinced a depth of thought worthy of the greatest approval.

Sentiments were given by Dr. M. H. Hardy, A. O. Smoot, J. E. Booth, and H. H. Gies played a piano solo and received a hearty encore.

Stella Jaques received high favor in a patriotic address, and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" with a vim which bespoke true patriotism.

The music of America began their parade and exercises at 3 o'clock. The Opera band was at the head of the procession.

The celebration of Washington's birthday was carried out in grand style in Provo. The Patriotic Order Sons of America made a parade from the lodge room through Centre and J streets led by the Opera band. They were beautifully arrayed in national colors and looked imposing.

The celebration of Washington's birthday was carried out in grand style in Provo. The Patriotic Order Sons of America made a parade from the lodge room through Centre and J streets led by the Opera band. They were beautifully arrayed in national colors and looked imposing.

The ball was eminently successful, the members were in regulation and a fine collection of dancers joined in the festivities.

The P. O. S. of A. gave one of the finest and most enjoyable of their parties in the Opera house to which the elite of town was invited.

Mr. H. A. Terpening of Salt Lake read an address replete with historical data on the subject of the organization of which he is a member.

Mr. Henry Bowings acted as master of ceremonies and floor manager.

The affair will long be remembered as an occasion of genuine enjoyment. Spaces will not permit a detail of the guests and their apparel.

PROVO.

TUESDAY, February 23.

CASS HITE'S CASE.

His Trial for Murder Begins To-day—An Accident at the Mills—Patriotic.

Exceptional interest is being shown in the Cass Hite murder case, which is set for trial in the first district court to-day.

On Tuesday last the party who had the defense are the well known attorneys Judge Powers and Ogden Hill, assisted by Mr. Hite's brother, a St. Louis attorney.

The accused has a great many friends who are very anxious for his acquittal, and the trial will be most vigorously contested.

There are two other defendants in the case, Shaeffer and Burgess, who were admitted to bail last November in the sum of $5,000 each.

The tragedy took place at Green River on the 9th of September last. Difficulty arose between Hite and Mr. Kohler, the victim, over some remarks about gambling, after which Hite shot Kohler.

On the date of the killing Hite went over to the residence of Mrs. Gammage, ostensibly for a settlement, whether amicably or not the testimony will bring out.

Mr. Burgess and Shaeffer, who were armed also, appeared on the scene.

The landlady, who had forebodings of trouble, asked the men to leave her place and have no difficulty. Cass was given a chair by Mr. Drake and sat about seven feet from the door where Kohler came out.

Hite asked him, in substance, what he was carrying a Winchester around for and told him that a man would do that was a carry a pistol around town is the same.

Here Hite sprang up and said "take that back," and the shooting began.

The witnesses in the preliminary examination were put on the stand, some testifying that Hite shot first and others that Kohler did. Several shots were fired in the confusion.

Mr. Drake was wounded in the arm by a bullet from the pistol of Mr. Hite.

The defendant was freed by the coroner's jury at the examination a short time after the tragedy, but was subsequently arrested on a charge of murder in the first degree.

ACCIDENT TO THE WOOLEN MILLS.

About 12 o'clock yesterday a vigorous shaking of electric light poles and breaking of a globe at the Sinton corner caused a little consternation on Centre street.

A large number of people were seen making their way toward the Provo woolen mills in the center of the city.

It was discovered upon reaching there that the south wing of the building, containing the washing and drying machinery had partly fallen down. The part of the building is constructed with adobe and the theory is that during the frozen season the temper was so low that the adobe, and the machinery, became so brittle that it was unable to sustain it.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

At 10 o'clock yesterday there was a large gathering at the auditorium of the B. Y. Y. club, for the purpose of celebrating the birthday of George Washington.

On the stand were H. H. Cliff, A. O. Smoot, Judge Blackburn, Wilson H. O. Dusenberry, J. E. Booth, Benjamin Cliff and others.

Judge Blackburn read a masterly tribute to the memory of the immortal Washington. It was well prepared and evinced a depth of thought worthy of the greatest approval.

Sentiments were given by Dr. M. H. Hardy, A. O. Smoot, J. E. Booth, and H. H. Gies played a piano solo and received a hearty encore.

Stella Jaques received high favor in a patriotic address, and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" with a vim which bespoke true patriotism.

The music of America began their parade and exercises at 3 o'clock. The Opera band was at the head of the procession.

The celebration of Washington's birthday was carried out in grand style in Provo. The Patriotic Order Sons of America made a parade from the lodge room through Centre and J streets led by the Opera band. They were beautifully arrayed in national colors and looked imposing.

The celebration of Washington's birthday was carried out in grand style in Provo. The Patriotic Order Sons of America made a parade from the lodge room through Centre and J streets led by the Opera band. They were beautifully arrayed in national colors and looked imposing.

The ball was eminently successful, the members were in regulation and a fine collection of dancers joined in the festivities.

The P. O. S. of A. gave one of the finest and most enjoyable of their parties in the Opera house to which the elite of town was invited.

Mr. H. A. Terpening of Salt Lake read an address replete with historical data on the subject of the organization of which he is a member.

Mr. Henry Bowings acted as master of ceremonies and floor manager.

The affair will long be remembered as an occasion of genuine enjoyment. Spaces will not permit a detail of the guests and their apparel.

PROVO.

TUESDAY, February 23.

CASS HITE'S CASE.

His Trial for Murder Begins To-day—An Accident at the Mills—Patriotic.

Exceptional interest is being shown in the Cass Hite murder case, which is set for trial in the first district court to-day.

On Tuesday last the party who had the defense are the well known attorneys Judge Powers and Ogden Hill, assisted by Mr. Hite's brother, a St. Louis attorney.

The accused has a great many friends who are very anxious for his acquittal, and the trial will be most vigorously contested.

There are two other defendants in the case, Shaeffer and Burgess, who were admitted to bail last November in the sum of $5,000 each.

The tragedy took place at Green River on the 9th of September last. Difficulty arose between Hite and Mr. Kohler, the victim, over some remarks about gambling, after which Hite shot Kohler.