The committee has ordered a favorable report on the Caine-Fuller bill, instructing the chairman to ask the rules committee to fix a day for consideration and final action in the House, as soon as the bill and silver debate is over. The vote stood: Ayes, 5; nays, 1—Republican.

LOUIS COHN, the merchant, went before Commissioner Greenman yesterday to answer to the charge of malicious mischief. It seems that in putting up a building on his property, Mr. Cohn found that the lines of trees in the adjoining lot extended over his ground, and it was necessary to cut them down in order to carry up the wall. The case will be determined to-day.

J. H. PACK, an old resident of Salt Lake who is now living at Kanab, Summit county, is the author of a valuable article, that has been kept up all the winter and with the approach of his fall he has written a new article on his own life and the life of his people. Mr. Pack went into the mountains and spent his winter there, and he has gathered a mass of material, having to be also killed before Mr. Pack could be rescued. Mr. Pack's life was in imminent danger at last reports, his face and body being severely lacerated and scorched.

H. S. WOOLLEY, superintendent of the Blackfoot Stock company, of Idaho, is to be the guest of the committee to-day. He says there is much political discussion and ferment in the southern counties where the Mormons have been deterrred from settling. He says his reports of Thomas E. Ricks having come over to the Republicans from voting, and does that gentleman great injustice. It is only a week since he was urged Mr. Woolley that his democracy was an unwavering and staunch ally as ever. Idaho Democrats are by no means snapping.

JULIAN INAGUR, manager for Marie Wainwright here, is expected to make the unusually elaborate preparations for that characteristically appearances at the theater next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. On the first two evenings Miss Wainwright will present her sensational acting of "Amy Roberts," for which she carries two carloads of almost elaborate scenery ever gotten up in this country. On Friday Miss Wainwright will appear as Katharine Blaine in "The Girl of the Year." The company are Barton Hill, Blanch Walsh, Walter Drake, E. Y. Barlow, Edward Johnson and William Ingersoll, all of whom won favor last year in "Twelfth Night."

Those interested in the development of the natural gas field, and that includes the entire natural gas field, will be pleased to learn that Col. Dr. of Ohio, will arrive in this city to-day, and will be in a few days for the coast. He is interested in the field here. Col. Orr is a prominent and wealthy man. He has had a long experience in the natural gas business, and thoroughly understands it and has been successful in his operations. With Senator Drake, Col. Orr is in the natural gas pipe from Tiffin to Dayton, Ohio. The gentleman's opinion of our natural gas field is of great importance. He is a friend of Dr. Lorin Hill.

CHARLES HENRY, Union Pacific ticket agent at Ogden, came to Salt Lake yesterday. He is the representative of the Idaho division of the Union Pacific, who is in Salt Lake yesterday. W. P. ALGER ENTERTAINED

The Union Club Gives Him a Reception AND THE CITY DOES HIM HONOR

He Talks About His Chances for the Presidency and the Sun's Late Attack on Him.

General Russell Alger arrived here yesterday morning, and was promptly way-laid by a Herald reporter at the beautiful rooms of the Union club. The casual in the great desert of entertainment, outside of the sumptuous dinner, was the news of David H. Hill's action in retiring from the presidential race.

Senator Hill has evidently been considered a formidable antagonist, and when the general read in THE HERALD that he had announced it as his intention not to enter the race he smiled one of those expansive smiles that come most easily and benignly to the unquitting statesman.

"Will not run, eh? Well that's strange. What's the matter, I wonder?" said the general meditatively, turning from the stream of hand-shakers to the reporter. "Who do you think will be the Democratic candidate now, general?"

"Can't say, I am sure. It is rather early in the day for a politician of my ilk to be looking into the Democratic fold for possible candidates." "You are probably not so much interested in that as in your own nomination?"

"Well, hardly," said the general with a modestly becoming smile. "I presume that being in the race, general, that your chances seem flowery and bright?" "Oh, yes."

"Maybe I should have asked you the question in another way and said, what do you think of Harrison's chances?" "No, I think not. I would hardly care to answer that question in the race myself for the presidency."

- Lamb Chops. New Green Peas. Roman Punch. Chicken Croquettes. Asparagus. Lobster Mayonnaise. Champagne. Neapolitan Ice. Cakes. Miam Cheese. Roquefort Cheese. Cafe Noire. TOASTS.

John M. Zane acted as toastmaster, and the first toast, "Our country," was responded to by Governor Thomas. The second toast, "Utah," was responded to by Mr. H. M. Wells in his happiest vein, and the little original poem he read aroused unbounded enthusiasm.

Among the prominent guests present were General Alger's partner, Mr. O. R. Johnson, Chief Justice Zane, Judge C. W. Bennett, Hoyt Sherman, Judge James A. Miner, Arthur Brown, Ben Edredge, Ernest Edredge, Joe Goringham, H. M. Wells, Barlow Ferguson, Sam Hill, James Sharp, J. C. Graham, United States Assistant Attorney Stephens, Judge Baruch, Judge H. P. Henderson and many others.

During the time the gentlemen were having luncheon in the dining room, four or five ladies, including Mrs. Alger, Miss Alger, Miss Francis Alger, Mrs. O. H. Johnson, Mrs. C. W. Bennett, Mrs. H. P. Henderson, Mrs. James A. Miner, Miss Hattie Miner, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Ben Edredge, Mrs. Ernest Edredge, Mrs. Amy Edredge and Miss Cecilia Sharp, were in the ordinary, trying to look pleasant and agreeable while pretending to enjoy a cold buffet through some invisible barrier had been served them.

It was at the ladies' luncheon that the engagement of Miss Alger to a gentleman of Tacoma was announced. The marriage is to take place in September, after which the young couple will go to Pittsburgh, where the relatives of the bridegroom are located, and where the young people expect to locate.

The whole party then visited the Tabernacle, where a vocal selection by Messrs. Godard and Carter, and an organ solo by the chorists, were rendered, thanks to the thoughtful courtesy of Mr. D. S. Spencer. The performers and the organs were much admired and the acoustic properties of the building, as usual, a delight to the visitors.

At 4 p. m. the Liberal Republicans or Grand Army of the Republic got possession of the Tabernacle, and held a little session of their own at the executive mansion, which was probably chosen with a view to Michigan, general. The keynote was "A stump speech" by Mr. D. S. Spencer. The performers and the organs were much admired and the acoustic properties of the building, as usual, a delight to the visitors.

The party at 6 p. m. left for the Denver and Elko Grand for their home in Detroit, stopping one day in Chicago. The liberal club graciously sent some choice flowers to the ladies of the party. The Alger are in mourning for their youngest child.

"Queen Esther" was given before a crowded house at Independence hall last evening by the children of the Hebrew Sabbath school for the benefit of the school. The principal characters were: Maudie, Vasthi, and Esther, taken by Harold Stierel, Dora Hochstadt, and Fred respectively. Very well sung and reflected great credit not only on the children, but also upon their teacher, Miss Louisa Taylor, who so ably understood and brought out the latent talent in the little ones. After the performance, which included music, the children called upon the stage to thank Mr. Alexander, and in a very neat speech, he, in turn, thanked them with a gold-headed cane, after which the floor was cleared and dancing indulged in by the gentlemen.

Just before the performance, a little stage to the general, was presented in the road, raked and traveled over, came up and were presented to the general. Both gave the military salute, and both dropped the little finger of their remaining hands upon the seams of their trousers. "What regiment did you belong to?" said the general. "Sixteenth New Hampshire, sah!" "And you?" "The Connecticut."

THE BIG SEWER TAX

Influential Citizens Protest Against It.

MORE ABOUT THE OBNOXIOUS MILL

The Proposed Canyon Road—The Jordan & Salt Lake Canal—Attorney Hall's Successor—General.

J. R. Walker and others have sent the following protest to the city council, and as a number of others are interested in the same question, it is more than probable that the city will have a big legal fight on its hands before the sewer question is settled. "We, residing in sewer district No. 1, call your attention to the fact that up to the present time we have not been connected with the sewer. There seems to be a misunderstanding of the matter somewhere. We have always been and now are ready to pay the same rate as we heretofore paid when said sewer was built; that is, at the rate of 2 per cent. on the valuation of the property at that time. We cannot see the justice of debaring us of the right to connect under these conditions.

When said sewer was built we contributed largely to that end, having property in that district, and some of the signers hereto have valuable property north of our residences, paid large sums of money for said construction. As a business proposition, it seems very unfair to tax us on property in said district No. 1 north of our residences when the tax amounted to a large sum and now on our residence property when it does not amount to so much under the old assessment as under the new method of figuring to swell it to a greater sum. It has been intimated that if we pay at the rate of 2 per cent per square foot we should be allowed to connect. All but blocks 39, 40 and 41, and Washington avenue, owned by the city, are the blocks which seem to be proscribed and cannot be permitted to connect without a special law or some other thing unprecedented applicable to these particular blocks. These blocks are in sewer district No. 1, and cannot be taken out; possibly, on a technical ground, they might be disconnected from the sewer. As an illustration of our case, if we pay 3 cents per square foot we should then have been told in order to secure the coveted price of 2 cents per square foot, we should have paid the $2,500 a year attached to it. He is reported to have some very strong backing. Meantime Van Horn, Brown and others are hustling among their friends. Up to last Tuesday evening it was generally believed that Hall would succeed himself. It is also rumored that Theodore Burmaster will, if he has not already done so, apply for the position now filled by Dennis Eichnor, assistant city attorney.

A New Street Supervisor. It is now whispered in municipal circles that A. L. Williams will be made street supervisor to succeed Mr. Paul, who, for some unknown reason, does not appear to stand very high in the estimation of the powers that be. Dan Dunne Must Go. It is also on dit that Dan Dunne, the city sexton, will be shelled after the second Tuesday in April, when his term of office expires, and there are already in a dozen men on the still hunt for that position.

Ammonia and Alum Officially Condemned.

INDIANAPOLIS IN THE WAKE OF OTHER CITIES.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is Pure. IT CONTAINS NO DELETERIOUS INGREDIENTS.

(See Report of Indianapolis Board of Health, on Baking Powder November 4, 1891.)

AMMONIA AND ALUM NOT FITTED FOR FOOD.

Dr. Latz chemist to the Board of Health, who made the investigation of the Baking Powders on the market, at the request of the Board says: "Physiologists of high standing consider Ammonia and Alum deleterious substances unfitted for use in food."

These are the brands condemned by the Board of Health: Royal, Climax, Atlantic and Pacific, Kanton, Crown, Sea Foam, Bon Bon, Early Rising, Queen, Regal, Ruckelhaus, Forest City, Calumet.

Dr. Latz, City Chemist also says: "Dr. Price's Baking Powder, contains only such ingredients as a Pure Baking Powder ought to be composed of and I recommend the same to every housekeeper as pure, wholesome and effective."

being the city limits," he says. "Besides, there seems to be no reason why the canal can not be cleaned out and kept in good condition at a very small expense."

Attorney Hall's successor. The question of a successor to City Attorney Hall, who tendered his resignation on Tuesday evening last, is now agitating the minds of several legal gentlemen who have the official bee in their bonnets. It is said upon pretty good authority that E. D. Hope is a very ardent applicant, and that he is pulling all the strings he can get hold of in order to secure the coveted prize. Up to last Tuesday evening it was generally believed that Hall would succeed himself. It is also rumored that Theodore Burmaster will, if he has not already done so, apply for the position now filled by Dennis Eichnor, assistant city attorney.
