Arrested by the United States Marshal.

Friday last Deputy United States Marshal Norman and W. E. Gill arrested at Morgan, Utah, Charles Parkin, on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. On a telephone message sent to Marshal Corey, who was at Logan, Mr. Parkin was arrested at that place, and returned to Ogden. The former gave bonds of $500 and the latter $1000 to appear before United States Commissioner R. W. Cross for preliminary hearing at 10 o'clock p. m. next Tuesday.

A Canning Prisoner.

Brown, the rascal confined in the county jail who has made himself notorious for his many unsuccessful attempts to gain his liberty, seems to believe in the teachings of the poem, "If first you don't succeed, try, try again." Last Friday night he was discovered picking the cell door lock by Deputy Sheriff Lampson. The instrument used was several sticks nicely tied together on the end of which was fastened a crooked nail. Brown is possessed of a great head and a conceiving device, and that is what troubles him.

Dyer's Death.

The announcement of the death of Hon. Frank H. Dyer, cast a shadow of gloom upon his wide circle of friends in Ogden, who honored and respected him as a statesman and business man, and deeply his untimely demise. Many telegrams of condolence were sent the bereaved family yesterday, and the members of the Ogden bar appointed a committee to draft proper resolutions of respect.

Race Track Settings.

The directors of the Junction City Driving Park association held another meeting yesterday and elected Colonel A. B. Hayes secretary. An excellent programme is being arranged for the spring races, which will immediately follow the Salt Lake races.

The track at the Junction City Driving park will be in excellent condition this season.

Thinks It Immense.

Adam Peters, secretary of the Red Jacket Mining company, of La Plata, reported yesterday from a prospecting trip to the Glendale mining district in Tooele county. Mr. Peters was seen by a Herald representative to whom he stated that some low grade ore is being taken out. While there he saw some ore that assays as much as $3,000 to the ton, and it went more in silver alone, than ore taken from some of the La Plata mines, in which he is interested, in silver and lead combined. He is greatly elated over the prospects in those regions and has invested in three claims.

SLATE QUARRIES.

The County Teachers Enjoy Themselves—A Lecture on Jefferson.

There is now every indication that the much talked of slate quarries near Provo will be of great value to our city. Last evening Mr. A. O. Smoot, jr., tendered the information that the city and county building of Salt Lake would be roofed with Provo slate, the contract having already been let for furnishing it. Mr. Smoot is in the interest of the slate business and will endeavor to secure the services of men skilled in the work of taking out slate, who will be employed immediately.

The county teachers had a splendid time together yesterday, and their programme was an intellectual treat. The pedagogues are looking forward to the lectures to be given at the summer session of the Teachers' association by Colonel Parker with great expectancy. That gentleman will be greatly received and a programme will be prepared possessing great merit.

The grandest tribute ever paid to the immortal Jefferson, father of Democracy in Provo, was that given by Dr. Gory in his lecture on Friday evening.

He said that Jefferson looked upon the future as the golden age when the liberty which was his birthright would be extended to all people, and the people could be trusted implicitly. The evils of tyranny which had made all the world groan in poverty and distress in the dark history of the past, which rightfully belonged to Jefferson. The gentleman closed his series of lectures last night, the subject being "The Compromise in American History."

The news of the death of Frank Dyer was received with the greatest regret by his Democratic friends in Provo.

At the surprise party tendered to John H. Brown, who has been chief of the fire department, he was presented with a beautiful easy chair.

The injunction made against the Rio Grand Western by the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern railroad companies will be passed upon Tuesday morning by Judge Blackburn, when the status of the dispute between the opposing companies will be made known.

General Cleanings.

The pas well was visited by a large number yesterday. The oil discovery is not all bush, but is as reported.

Two patent medicine combinations are still doing nicely.

The tray was found in a back alley, but the thief and the man are out of sight. The jewelry was valued by Mr. Goldwater at about $25.

ITEMS ABOUT TOWN.

Mrs. Brimhall, the wife of N. G. Brimhall, is very low, and the neighbors are expecting her death daily. She is a very large woman and is paralytically helpless. W. H. Hush has recovered from a long siege of unpleasant sickness and now enjoys the open air.

A number of fresh water wells have lately been dug for family purposes on the premises of David Stark, Daniel Storz, George Peery, George Williams and the Central school, also James Finlayson. We do not have a flowing well in town, and many have experimented expensively to obtain one with little success.

William S. Sargent, a bartender at the Golden Gate saloon, now carries his right arm in a sling, caused by a scullery act. Dr. Shires says he can heal for a month or two.

Henry Schiaber has returned from a trip to Colorado, where he went on business, health and pleasure.

Gardening has commenced. K. Rata, PATSON, March 26.

FORT DOUGLAS ITEMS.

Two Prisoners—A Billboard—Concert This Afternoon—Veteran.

Two prisoners made their escape from the guard house last Thursday night, or rather in the wee small hours of the morning. They were arrested at Ogden and returned to their old domicile the following day. An investigation of the matter is being made.

VAMOOSED.

Acting clerk employed at the officers' club, vamoosed rather mysteriously and suddenly a few nights since. Some property was reported missing from the officers' chambers at the club and the money drawer was said to have been relieved of all loose cash.

WEATHER.

has been rather Marchy on the hill the past week. Squalls of all kinds have prevailed.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

Swords are being ground and bayonets sharpened, with the view of looking after the sealeries.

Why does England take every advantage possible against this country? Did she not force two wars on us? Didn't we win her when we had but two millions of inhabitants, and again when we had ten millions? If we take hold of her with over seventy millions, we may have to wipe up the earth with her.

DRILL, INSPECTION AND CONCERT.

No battalion or regimental drill on Friday—too much work.

Inspection, review parade and muster, on the last day of the month, Thursday, at 9 a. m.

Band concert by Sixteenth Infantry band in the fort band stand this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

NOTES.

We are informed that the charter has been received for the Veteran Order of Old Soldiers and Sailors, and we expect to see quite a large order formed of Utah veterans.

We were surprised to hear of ex-Marshal Frank Dyer's death. He had many friends at Fort Douglas as well as throughout the territory.

The health of the troops and residents on the hill was never better.
