

THE DRY GOODS TRADE NEVER BETTER THAN DURING THE PAST WEEK AT THE WIDE-AWAKE, RELIABLE FIRM OF WALKER BROS. & FYLER CO.

Our wonderful success proves beyond a doubt that the people of Salt Lake fully appreciate good goods and low prices. While we do not solicit trade through agents by offering to issue coupons whereby they are compelled to do all their trading at one place, and charged $3.00 initiation fee for the privilege of so doing, with the promise of paying it all back in dividends, or whatever you may call it, nor do we resort to any mock auction schemes to gull or deceive the people. We do our business open and above board, keeping the best of merchandise and making our prices lower than all our competitors. If the goods purchased of us are not as represented and first-class in every respect, you have the privilege of returning them and getting your money back. Remember facts and figures are more reliable than mock auction schemes or promises of dividends. A word to the wise is sufficient. Read the special Low Prices we shall offer during the coming week. THE SOCIAL WORLD

Affairs of the Week in the Beau Monde Reviewed.

Grand Preparations for the Kirmess—Club Meetings—Literary, Musical and Card Parties—Luncheons, Personals, Etc.

The American booth is under the direction of Mrs. S. O. B. Cummins, who will be ably assisted by Mesdames Woodward, Ellsworth, Daggett, W. F. Colton and W. H. Jones, the Misses Fannie Lincoln, Lucile Young, Addie Zane, Bertha Carter, Ella Druehl; Messrs. Pollock, Ford, Smedley, Westerdahl, and Max Smith. Uncle Sam and Columbia will warmly welcome the public, while George Washington and Martha propose holding their drawing room levees with all the dignity and stateliness of "Ye olden time" courties, and right refreshing, too, will it be in those times of frivolity. The little bachelors are on their way and all to the drawing room. Columbia has secured that famous painting of the "Black Canon," by C. Esie, and will dispose of it during the progress of the Kirmess.
