

UTAH NEWS.

The Herald is delivered daily by carrier in Ogden and Park City at 25 cents per week, $1.00 per month, or $10.00 per year.

BRANCH OFFICES: OGDEN—Reem & Co., Utah Loan and Trust Building, Telephone No. 182. PROVO—Office at E. Olsen's Book and Music Store.

OGDEN.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 1892.

WHITE IS GUILTY.

A Jury so Decides in the First District Court.

The County Court—Disreputable Houses Banned—General Cleanings.

The following cases came up before Judge Miner yesterday:

R. H. Jones vs. C. H. Davis; on motion of H. H. Jones, order granting two days' further time to prepare and serve statement on motion for a new trial.

United States vs. W. E. White, continuation of trial; verdict, guilty; sentence set for May 29, 1892.

United States vs. Peter Christensen; order continuing case till September, 1892.

The People vs. S. C. Kinsey; order continuing till September, 1892.

In reissuance of petit jurors; order for five petit jurors.

United States vs. Thomas Shelton, indictment fornication; on trial.

The County Court.

The county court met in regular weekly session yesterday and transacted the regular routine of work.

The Ballantyne Lumber company petitioned the court to issue them a warrant amounting to $100 to replace one that had been lost.

L. B. Adams asked that a road be located across his property between Ogden and Weber valleys. The matter was reported to Sheriff.

Selectman Shurtliff reported the La Plata road was now in good condition and one man was still at work.

Selectman Foy reported that the Weber river was cutting out the south side of the embankment near the new bridge and that men had been put to work to repair it.

T. J. Wilson presented a bill of $27.50, which was reduced to $22 and allowed.

The bill of the Fraternity Printing company was reduced to $4 and allowed.

Judge Cross reported on the matter of leasing school lands in the county and asked that further time be given him to render a final report, which was granted.

Judges of election were appointed for the coming bond election, in the several precincts as follows:

First Ward—Ogden—J. H. Restall, Ben Ferron, James Cassin.

Second Ward—J. C. Chamberlain, George H. Matson, C. A. Nelson.

Third Ward—Thomas D. Doe, Amos J. Stone, Dore Brown.

Fifth Ward—T. A. Whalen, M. S. Brown, Don Macquire.

Barrick Creek—J. J. Cortez, Fred Garner, David Jenkins.

Ogden—E. B. Fuller, J. Thompson, James Chambers.

Harrisville—Temple Short, Josiah Taylor, William H. Anderson.

Huntsville—Angus McKay, Joseph Smith, L. U. Felt.

Hooper—J. H. Hooper, Charles Parker, Eli D. Spaulding.

Kaysville—Edward Sewell, P. B. Peterson, William J. Bartlett.

Mariotti—J. D. Powell, John Allen, Timothy Terry.

North Ogden—James Wood.

Vanderhoof—George S. Dean.

Plain City—Edwin Dix, Thomas England, Charles Neal.

Pleasant View—Andrew Ross, Thomas Boone, R. H. Slater.

Riverdale—Joseph Fife, John C. Child, John T. Hybe.

Slaterville—Bluford A. Bybee, Charles Jay, E. W. Smoot.

Utah—Samuel Dye, Robert Gale, C. de la Haune.

West Weber—Ralph Hunt, Joseph B. Alford, H. D. Peterson.

Wilson—T. J. Wilson, William Sewell, J. B. Trimble.

The election of a county attorney was again postponed to get everything in proper running order. A start will probably be made on Friday.

Notes on the Sids.

H. J. White was up from the capital on Monday.

Farmers are beginning to wish for more rain.

Mrs. A. F. Barnes of Salt Lake is spending a few pleasant days in Kaysville.

Edward Wilkinson, who has been on a visit to Jordan for nearly two years, returned last Saturday.

A very interesting programme was rendered at the joint session of the mutual improvement associations last Sunday evening.

Mr. M. T. Owens, with his wife and family, arrived here from Carterville, Ga., last week. They are thinking of becoming permanent residents of our town.

A meeting of the local Woman's Suffrage association will be held at the Hotel Utah Society hall on Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Robbins were held on Sunday afternoon and were numerously attended.

A large cortège followed the remains to the cemetery for her last resting place.

NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL.

E. V. Wood of McKee's Rocks, Allegany county, Pa., in speaking to a traveling man of Chamberlain's medicine, said: "I recommend them above all others. I have used them myself and know them to be reliable. I always guarantee them to my customers and have never had a bottle returned." Mr. Wood had hardly finished speaking when a little girl came in the store with an empty bottle. It was labeled "Chamberlain's Pain Balm." The traveler was interested, as there was certainly a bottle coming back, but waited to hear what the little girl said. It was as follows: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by Z. C. M. I. drug department.

PROBATE COURT.

A citation was issued to R. L. Nuts requiring him to appear before the probate court on Tuesday, May 21, at 3 o'clock p.m. to show cause why J. F. Maguire should not be appointed guardian of his person and estate.

A citation was also issued requiring Caroline S. Embling, administratrix of the estate of Mark Sellman deceased, to appear at the same place and on the same date to show cause why she should not distribute the estate as heretofore directed by the probate court.

RAILROAD NOTES.

C. F. Sumner, freight agent at San Francisco of the Southern Pacific railway, passed through the city yesterday on his way east.

J. F. Lodwidge, chief clerk in Superintendent Knapp's office at the Union depot, is expected home from California the latter part of the present week.

The special Pullman car "Newport," with J. H. Bondict and party from San Francisco will pass through Ogden this morning.

A Demi Nocturne Held.

The police made a raid on every joint in the city night before last, and corralled in all twenty-seven of the fairies. Among the flock were white, negro, Chinese, Japanese and women of several other nationalities. The entire gang was brought before Judge Gidon yesterday and each fined not less than $25 and costs; the owners of the houses where the usual sum of $50 and costs. All but about five paid their taxes, while those that were unable to do so are caged up in the Hotel de Maxton.

General Cleanings.

An interesting game of ball will take place at the baseball park near Fire Points tomorrow, between the Ogden and Salt Lake nines.

R. H. Whipple went to Hancock, Ida., on business yesterday relative to the Cache Valley canal, which is now under construction between that place and Soda Springs.

Seth Webb, a heavy stock man from American Falls, Ida., arrived in the city yesterday morning to appear as a witness in the Hyrum Rice case in the First District court.

PROVO.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 1892.

COUNTY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Excellent Programme Arranged for Saturday.

At 10 o'clock—Devotional exercises and preliminary prayers.

10:15—Lecture by Professor G. H. Brimhall on substitute.

11:30—Vocal selection, Miss Laura Webb.

11:45—Discussion of the following question: "Resolved, That the Caucasian race should control in the United States." Professor F. E. Merrill, J. P. Hall, Jr., and Rhena Brimhall for the affirmative, and E. A. Wilson, D. H. Robinson, and W. C. Collins for the negative.

12:30—Reading of manuscript paper, Lake View teacher.

12:45—Answering of questions.

12:50—Quotations from Utah authors, by all the teachers.

12:55—Miscellaneous business.

Accident at Deseret.

Francis M. Lyman came up from Deseret with the distressing news that Mrs. Martha Robison of Fillmore had received some frightful injuries caused by a team running away while she and Mrs. Lizzie Henry were out for a ride. They alighted at the residence of William Black and Mrs. Robison went to the head of the team and took hold of the horses. They became frightened and made a dash forward, knocking her to the ground and trampling upon her body. The woman was unconscious when picked up and sustained an ugly wound in the head and side. After being attended to for some time she was restored to consciousness but suffered great pain. Up to last accounts the unfortunate woman was resting more easy.

The Race Course.

R. H. Dodd and Billy Wilson, who have leased the race course near the lake resort, yesterday began the erection of a grand stand for the accommodation of patrons, which will seat in the neighborhood of five hundred people. The grounds are being improved by a basket of diamonds being laid out. This will be the scene of a great portion of the summer sport. Mr. Ewert has been given the contract for grading up the grounds and doing other work about the grounds.

Splinters.

Hon. David Evans is a visitor in Provo.

Cook's frame building on Centre street was removed to the west part of the city, where it will be used as a residence.

J. T. Hall of New York, D. W. Page of Denver and L. Scanlan, E. Fitzgerald and Orson Rogers of Salt Lake were guests at the Roberts yesterday.

Richard Duval of the firm of Duval & Mills, contractors of Salt Lake city, is spending a few days in Provo for pleasure and is registered at the Roberts house.

Superintendent E. A. Wilson has issued a call for a meeting of the city teachers to arrange for an excursion to the lake. The committee of committees will handle all the students and teachers of the district schools in Provo. They will be accompanied by a band and carry on some interesting exercises.

KAYSVILLE NOTES.

A Wrecked Freight Train.

A freight train on the Union Pacific was wrecked at Layton on Monday night. Seven cars were derailed. The accident occurred at about 10:30 p.m., near the new depot building. The wrecked cars were loaded; some with coal, others with lumber and one with ore. The wreck crew were at work yesterday and by 6 o'clock last evening the track had been cleared. Traffic was not delayed, as the wreck occurred where trains could pass on the sidetrack. No one was injured.

THE CREAMERY.

The machinery for the creamery has all been placed in position, and yesterday a trial run was made to get everything in proper running order. A start will probably be made on Friday.

Notes on the Sids.

H. J. White was up from the capital on Monday.

Farmers are beginning to wish for more rain.

Mrs. A. F. Barnes of Salt Lake is spending a few pleasant days in Kaysville.

Edward Wilkinson, who has been on a visit to Jordan for nearly two years, returned last Saturday.

A very interesting programme was rendered at the joint session of the mutual improvement associations last Sunday evening.

Mr. M. T. Owens, with his wife and family, arrived here from Carterville, Ga., last week. They are thinking of becoming permanent residents of our town.

A meeting of the local Woman's Suffrage association will be held at the Hotel Utah Society hall on Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Robbins were held on Sunday afternoon and were numerously attended.

A large cortège followed the remains to the cemetery for her last resting place.

NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL.

E. V. Wood of McKee's Rocks, Allegany county, Pa., in speaking to a traveling man of Chamberlain's medicine, said: "I recommend them above all others. I have used them myself and know them to be reliable. I always guarantee them to my customers and have never had a bottle returned." Mr. Wood had hardly finished speaking when a little girl came in the store with an empty bottle. It was labeled "Chamberlain's Pain Balm." The traveler was interested, as there was certainly a bottle coming back, but waited to hear what the little girl said. It was as follows: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by Z. C. M. I. drug department.

PROBATE COURT.

A citation was issued to R. L. Nuts requiring him to appear before the probate court on Tuesday, May 21, at 3 o'clock p.m. to show cause why J. F. Maguire should not be appointed guardian of his person and estate.

A citation was also issued requiring Caroline S. Embling, administratrix of the estate of Mark Sellman deceased, to appear at the same place and on the same date to show cause why she should not distribute the estate as heretofore directed by the probate court.

RAILROAD NOTES.

C. F. Sumner, freight agent at San Francisco of the Southern Pacific railway, passed through the city yesterday on his way east.

J. F. Lodwidge, chief clerk in Superintendent Knapp's office at the Union depot, is expected home from California the latter part of the present week.

The special Pullman car "Newport," with J. H. Bondict and party from San Francisco will pass through Ogden this morning.

A Demi Nocturne Held.

The police made a raid on every joint in the city night before last, and corralled in all twenty-seven of the fairies. Among the flock were white, negro, Chinese, Japanese and women of several other nationalities. The entire gang was brought before Judge Gidon yesterday and each fined not less than $25 and costs; the owners of the houses where the usual sum of $50 and costs. All but about five paid their taxes, while those that were unable to do so are caged up in the Hotel de Maxton.

General Cleanings.

An interesting game of ball will take place at the baseball park near Fire Points tomorrow, between the Ogden and Salt Lake nines.

R. H. Whipple went to Hancock, Ida., on business yesterday relative to the Cache Valley canal, which is now under construction between that place and Soda Springs.

Seth Webb, a heavy stock man from American Falls, Ida., arrived in the city yesterday morning to appear as a witness in the Hyrum Rice case in the First District court.

PROVO.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 1892.

COUNTY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Excellent Programme Arranged for Saturday.

At 10 o'clock—Devotional exercises and preliminary prayers.

10:15—Lecture by Professor G. H. Brimhall on substitute.

11:30—Vocal selection, Miss Laura Webb.

11:45—Discussion of the following question: "Resolved, That the Caucasian race should control in the United States." Professor F. E. Merrill, J. P. Hall, Jr., and Rhena Brimhall for the affirmative, and E. A. Wilson, D. H. Robinson, and W. C. Collins for the negative.

12:30—Reading of manuscript paper, Lake View teacher.

12:45—Answering of questions.

12:50—Quotations from Utah authors, by all the teachers.

12:55—Miscellaneous business.

Accident at Deseret.

Francis M. Lyman came up from Deseret with the distressing news that Mrs. Martha Robison of Fillmore had received some frightful injuries caused by a team running away while she and Mrs. Lizzie Henry were out for a ride. They alighted at the residence of William Black and Mrs. Robison went to the head of the team and took hold of the horses. They became frightened and made a dash forward, knocking her to the ground and trampling upon her body. The woman was unconscious when picked up and sustained an ugly wound in the head and side. After being attended to for some time she was restored to consciousness but suffered great pain. Up to last accounts the unfortunate woman was resting more easy.

The Race Course.

R. H. Dodd and Billy Wilson, who have leased the race course near the lake resort, yesterday began the erection of a grand stand for the accommodation of patrons, which will seat in the neighborhood of five hundred people. The grounds are being improved by a basket of diamonds being laid out. This will be the scene of a great portion of the summer sport. Mr. Ewert has been given the contract for grading up the grounds and doing other work about the grounds.

Splinters.

Hon. David Evans is a visitor in Provo.

Cook's frame building on Centre street was removed to the west part of the city, where it will be used as a residence.

J. T. Hall of New York, D. W. Page of Denver and L. Scanlan, E. Fitzgerald and Orson Rogers of Salt Lake were guests at the Roberts yesterday.

Richard Duval of the firm of Duval & Mills, contractors of Salt Lake city, is spending a few days in Provo for pleasure and is registered at the Roberts house.

Superintendent E. A. Wilson has issued a call for a meeting of the city teachers to arrange for an excursion to the lake. The committee of committees will handle all the students and teachers of the district schools in Provo. They will be accompanied by a band and carry on some interesting exercises.

KAYSVILLE NOTES.

A Wrecked Freight Train.

A freight train on the Union Pacific was wrecked at Layton on Monday night. Seven cars were derailed. The accident occurred at about 10:30 p.m., near the new depot building. The wrecked cars were loaded; some with coal, others with lumber and one with ore. The wreck crew were at work yesterday and by 6 o'clock last evening the track had been cleared. Traffic was not delayed, as the wreck occurred where trains could pass on the sidetrack. No one was injured.

THE CREAMERY.

The machinery for the creamery has all been placed in position, and yesterday a trial run was made to get everything in proper running order. A start will probably be made on Friday.

Notes on the Sids.

H. J. White was up from the capital on Monday.

Farmers are beginning to wish for more rain.

Mrs. A. F. Barnes of Salt Lake is spending a few pleasant days in Kaysville.

Edward Wilkinson, who has been on a visit to Jordan for nearly two years, returned last Saturday.

A very interesting programme was rendered at the joint session of the mutual improvement associations last Sunday evening.

Mr. M. T. Owens, with his wife and family, arrived here from Carterville, Ga., last week. They are thinking of becoming permanent residents of our town.

A meeting of the local Woman's Suffrage association will be held at the Hotel Utah Society hall on Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Robbins were held on Sunday afternoon and were numerously attended.

A large cortège followed the remains to the cemetery for her last resting place.

NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL.

E. V. Wood of McKee's Rocks, Allegany county, Pa., in speaking to a traveling man of Chamberlain's medicine, said: "I recommend them above all others. I have used them myself and know them to be reliable. I always guarantee them to my customers and have never had a bottle returned." Mr. Wood had hardly finished speaking when a little girl came in the store with an empty bottle. It was labeled "Chamberlain's Pain Balm." The traveler was interested, as there was certainly a bottle coming back, but waited to hear what the little girl said. It was as follows: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by Z. C. M. I. drug department.

PROBATE COURT.

A citation was issued to R. L. Nuts requiring him to appear before the probate court on Tuesday, May 21, at 3 o'clock p.m. to show cause why J. F. Maguire should not be appointed guardian of his person and estate.

A citation was also issued requiring Caroline S. Embling, administratrix of the estate of Mark Sellman deceased, to appear at the same place and on the same date to show cause why she should not distribute the estate as heretofore directed by the probate court.

RAILROAD NOTES.

C. F. Sumner, freight agent at San Francisco of the Southern Pacific railway, passed through the city yesterday on his way east.

J. F. Lodwidge, chief clerk in Superintendent Knapp's office at the Union depot, is expected home from California the latter part of the present week.

The special Pullman car "Newport," with J. H. Bondict and party from San Francisco will pass through Ogden this morning.

A Demi Nocturne Held.

The police made a raid on every joint in the city night before last, and corralled in all twenty-seven of the fairies. Among the flock were white, negro, Chinese, Japanese and women of several other nationalities. The entire gang was brought before Judge Gidon yesterday and each fined not less than $25 and costs; the owners of the houses where the usual sum of $50 and costs. All but about five paid their taxes, while those that were unable to do so are caged up in the Hotel de Maxton.

General Cleanings.

An interesting game of ball will take place at the baseball park near Fire Points tomorrow, between the Ogden and Salt Lake nines.

R. H. Whipple went to Hancock, Ida., on business yesterday relative to the Cache Valley canal, which is now under construction between that place and Soda Springs.

Seth Webb, a heavy stock man from American Falls, Ida., arrived in the city yesterday morning to appear as a witness in the Hyrum Rice case in the First District court.

PROVO.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 1892.

COUNTY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Excellent Programme Arranged for Saturday.

At 10 o'clock—Devotional exercises and preliminary prayers.

10:15—Lecture by Professor G. H. Brimhall on substitute.

11:30—Vocal selection, Miss Laura Webb.

11:45—Discussion of the following question: "Resolved, That the Caucasian race should control in the United States." Professor F. E. Merrill, J. P. Hall, Jr., and Rhena Brimhall for the affirmative, and E. A. Wilson, D. H. Robinson, and W. C. Collins for the negative.

12:30—Reading of manuscript paper, Lake View teacher.

12:45—Answering of questions.

12:50—Quotations from Utah authors, by all the teachers.

12:55—Miscellaneous business.

Accident at Deseret.

Francis M. Lyman came up from Deseret with the distressing news that Mrs. Martha Robison of Fillmore had received some frightful injuries caused by a team running away while she and Mrs. Lizzie Henry were out for a ride. They alighted at the residence of William Black and Mrs. Robison went to the head of the team and took hold of the horses. They became frightened and made a dash forward, knocking her to the ground and trampling upon her body. The woman was unconscious when picked up and sustained an ugly wound in the head and side. After being attended to for some time she was restored to consciousness but suffered great pain. Up to last accounts the unfortunate woman was resting more easy.

The Race Course.

R. H. Dodd and Billy Wilson, who have leased the race course near the lake resort, yesterday began the erection of a grand stand for the accommodation of patrons, which will seat in the neighborhood of five hundred people. The grounds are being improved by a basket of diamonds being laid out. This will be the scene of a great portion of the summer sport. Mr. Ewert has been given the contract for grading up the grounds and doing other work about the grounds.

Splinters.

Hon. David Evans is a visitor in Provo.

Cook's frame building on Centre street was removed to the west part of the city, where it will be used as a residence.

J. T. Hall of New York, D. W. Page of Denver and L. Scanlan, E. Fitzgerald and Orson Rogers of Salt Lake were guests at the Roberts yesterday.

Richard Duval of the firm of Duval & Mills, contractors of Salt Lake city, is spending a few days in Provo for pleasure and is registered at the Roberts house.

Superintendent E. A. Wilson has issued a call for a meeting of the city teachers to arrange for an excursion to the lake. The committee of committees will handle all the students and teachers of the district schools in Provo. They will be accompanied by a band and carry on some interesting exercises.

KAYSVILLE NOTES.

A Wrecked Freight Train.

A freight train on the Union Pacific was wrecked at Layton on Monday night. Seven cars were derailed. The accident occurred at about 10:30 p.m., near the new depot building. The wrecked cars were loaded; some with coal, others with lumber and one with ore. The wreck crew were at work yesterday and by 6 o'clock last evening the track had been