The work of enlarging the chapel began the first of the week. An addition to be built will greatly increase the seating capacity of the building. The work will not interfere with the regular services, which will be held next Sunday as usual.

The First Methodist church is being repaired and renovated. The lower rooms will probably be finished this week, and on Monday the work on the audience room will begin, and it is hoped everything will be in ship shape order by the first Sunday in September.

EWING's example could be followed by several other members of the city council, with credit to the city. So far as known, Ewing has never used his influence as a councillor to further his private ends, but there are several members of the august body of whom the same cannot be said.

OBSERVER SALIBERTY's report of yesterday's temperature is as follows: At 5:50 a. m.—Salt Lake, 70; Baker City, 64; Cheyenne, 64; Denver, 65; Helena, Miss. City, 62; Montrose, 64. At 1 p. m.—Salt Lake, 81; Bingham, 75; Ogden, 75; Logan, 76; Park City, 70; Provo, 72; Stockton, 71; Alta, 74.

GREAT Salt Lake is drying up fast this week. The amount of every day's evaporation must be something immense. The waters have receded a mile or more from high water mark around about Willard. Thousands of acres of the dry bottom are already left high and dry above the water. This extensive tract will remain exposed until the fall rains and winter snows swell the numerous feeders of the great dead sea, that it greatly augmented condensation volume may eventually be tremendous evaporation and escape. The river, Jordan, and Weber river are its principal feeders.—Egler.

THE LAST DAY.

The Chautauqua Exercises Close This Evening.

A Very Interesting Programme Yesterday, and the Attendance Somewhat Larger Than Usual—Today's Programme.

Today closes the Chautauqua meeting. The audience have been somewhat of a disappointment to the promoters in numbers, but the exercises have been of a character that should have attracted a crowd each day.

Yesterday the morning devotional exercises were led by the Rev. Joseph Wilkes, and Dr. Wisard followed with one of the most interesting lectures of the course. He was at his best, and did full justice to his subject. The audience fully realized the treat they were enjoying.

Mrs. M. L. Powell continued her lectures in the evening, and a discussion, and reviewed many principles of each.

Professor Wolfe gave the instruction in music, and led in the singing of Chautauqua songs.

It was the great day of the Chautauqua, and the pavilion was beautifully decorated with bunting and branches of trees. "O. L. S. C." was conspicuously placed in the center, and at either side the dates 1883 and 1922.

In the afternoon singing the class songs of 1883 opened the exercises; followed by prayer by the Rev. Joseph Wilkes.

The exercises of the two graduates followed. Their productions were full of suggestions and instruction. They were Mrs. Ida Day of this city and Miss Catherine Watt of St. George.

A class poem was read by Miss Powell, which was followed by singing.

The president, Rev. T. G. Webster, then delivered an address. He said he was in sympathy with the Chautauqua movement because it included everybody created in the image of God. There is no one who is not included in it. Its representatives are in all parts of the world. It provides the best classes of text books on history, science and all branches of knowledge.

He was also in sympathy with it because of the summer assemblies which provide beautiful, mental recreation for all.

At the close of the address he presented the graduates with diplomas. As they received the diplomas the audience arose and gave the Chautauqua salute. Both graduates were presented with flowers.

The Rev. James Wilks followed with an address. He reviewed the incident connected with his work in Africa and spoke in glowing terms of the good the Chautauqua movement had been to all classes.

Rev. F. G. Webster introduced the poet of the Utah Chautauqua, Rev. E. M. Knox of Kayville, who read a poem.

The dismissal benediction was by Rev. Smith of Salt Lake.

THE LAST DAY'S PROGRAMME. Devotional exercises at 8:30, led by Professor O. E. Davis of Hammon, N. D. Bible study, 9 to 10, by Rev. Wisard, D. D. subject, "Leviticus."

From 10 to 11, Miss Powell's last lecture on "Believe and Education."

Professor Wolfe's last lecture in music. Dr. Wisard's lecture on the book of Ruth. Closing of Chautauqua exercises.

NOTES. No one can afford to miss Dr. Wisard's lecture on Ruth.

Miss Catherine Watt began her Chautauqua course in Africa and finished in Utah. Mrs. Ida Day began the course in Ohio and finished in Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. D'Valley, Chautauqua graduates, attended the Ottawa assembly of 1883 and 1889, were present.

JUSTICE KESLER'S SMILE. It Covered Quite a Number of Unfortunates Yesterday.

U. P. Lundgren and John Engbeck pleaded not guilty to the charge of fighting, and both were discharged.

Mike Crowley and Sam Williams entered a plea of guilty to the charge of being drunk, and sentence was suspended.

The charge of fighting against Robert McDonald and Louis Oppenheimer was dismissed.

H. Eppesman was fined $15 for neglecting to properly keep books as a second-hand dealer.

THE REPUBLICAN CLUB.

California and Texas Both Represented Last Evening.

The Harrison and Reid club held a meeting last night at the G. A. R. hall. They were a little more enthusiastic than usual, owing probably to the recent desertions from the Liberal party.

Ex-Governor Fletcher of Missouri, A. M. Storrer of California and General A. E. Norton of Texas were the speakers. The latter is a very old man, with flowing white hair and beard, but in speaking he exerts many young men.

Among other things he said that any man who thought Weaver would carry any of the southern states were crazy, and he didn't think they would carry any of the silver states.

The meeting adjourned after giving three cheers for Missouri and three more for Texas. A drum corps enlivened the proceedings.

MRS. MAXWELL'S WILL. The Contest Now in the Probate Court.

Comedants Claim That She Was Incompetent at the Time It Was Made—Other Probate Work.

The contest over the will of the widow of the late General George H. Maxwell is now on in the probate court, and the hearing will probably last several days.

The decedent left the greater bulk of her property to persons outside of the territory, and now her brother, "Doc" Sprague, seeks to have the document refused admission to probate on the grounds that Mrs. Maxwell, at the time of the making of the same, was incompetent, that undue persuasion was used, etc.

Other probate work. Estate of Wilson S. Smith; Carrie M. Smith and Charles Auer appointed administrators without bonds under the terms of the will.

Estate of Sarah E. Groo; will admitted to probate and Byron Groo appointed administrator upon filing a bond of $1,000.

Estate of Hiram H. Eldredge; hearing of claim of A. S. Kendall continued to Aug. 17.

Estate and guardianship of George Husler; insane; order confirming sale of real estate.

Estate of Charles F. Gilman; account allowed and decree of distribution made.

Estate of Benoni W. Chase; order confirming sale of real estate.

Estate of Eliza Ann Luck; decree of distribution.

BIG DAMAGE SUITS.

Three of Them Filed in the District Court Yesterday.

A Row at a Fall—A Judgment That Did Not Pan Out—An Alleged Grand Larceny.

Charles Nelson has brought an action for $5,000 damages against William J. Tuddenham, George Curley and Charles J. Brain. He alleged that the defendants were the contractors on a building on Commercial street, and that he was hurt through their carelessness in allowing an elevator or hoist to become out of order, whereby he was thrown, on July 16 last, a distance of twelve feet, by reason of the breaking of a rope, and was very much injured. Powers & Hiles are his attorneys.

A Woolly Transaction. Harriet E. Hurt filed suit yesterday against John Cahoon and Richard W. Windler. She alleges that the defendant Cahoon and T. S. Austin were the owners of about three thousand sheep, which they leased to Windler for a certain rental. That Austin sold to the plaintiff a half interest in the sheep, and gave her a bill of sale, which she has lost, and that the defendants refuse to recognize her as the owner of any interest whatever in the sheep. She asks for $1,300 as rents and profits, and when the lease expires asks that half the sheep be returned to her.

For False Imprisonment. James Kelly, a minor, through his guardian, Thomas Jones, and his mother, Mary Kelly, have each filed an action against Samuel J. Pollock and Lewis W. Clark, asking for $5,000 damages for false imprisonment. Young Kelly, who is about eighteen, and his mother were arrested at the instance of the defendants last month and taken before Commissioner Greenman, charged with threatening to shoot and kill Pollock and Clark. They were imprisoned for two days, and their examination was held on July 13, when they were discharged. They allege the arrests were effected by malice and that they suffered great agony of mind in consequence of the charge.

A Row at a Ball. D. Ferguson and Seth Park were before Commissioner Greenman yesterday charged with disturbing the peace. They attended a dance at Sandy, and a row ensued. Many witnesses were examined, and the commissioner discharged Ferguson, but found Park guilty. The fine was only a nominal one, being $1, but the costs amounted to $51.25 in consequence of the number of witnesses and the distance they had to come.

A Judgment That Did Not Pan Out. Some weeks since Henry N. Norrell brought suit against George Brennan for $187, and at the same time had him arrested, alleging that he was about to leave the territory with intent to defraud his creditors. The case was tried before Justice Kroeger, who gave judgment for the amount claimed, and dismissed the charges on which he had been arrested. Brennan shortly after this brought an action before Justice Lobbrie to recover $269 for false imprisonment. The case was tried and the justice rendered his decision yesterday. He gave judgment for the plaintiff for $269 damages and allowed an additional $50 for attorney's fees.

Mr. Norrell was indignant at the verdict, and meeting the judge shortly after he gave him a piece of his mind. He says the judgment he received against Brennan was not worth fifty cents, although when Brennan contracted the debt he represented he had property, which was afterwards proven he did not own, and says business men have no redress when justice miscarries. He will appeal the case, and has no doubt of the findings of a higher court, but says he is bound to quit, as Brennan is insolvent, and besides being out the original bill, it will cost a good deal to fight the case on an appeal.

Burgh's Case Today. Commissioner Greenman will not render a decision in the case of Nicholas Beucher, who is charged with assault with intent to kill, until today at 10 o'clock.

Charged with Grand Larceny. John Rogers and W. M. Clark were arrested at Tooele City on a charge of grand larceny. They were brought before Commissioner Greenman yesterday, who held them in $150 bonds to appear today at 11 o'clock. They hired a team from W. L. Price of this city and started for Deep Creek. Price claims he understood they were going no further than Parley's canon, and hence the arrest.

Violating Water Right. Hans Hansen was brought in from Draper yesterday by Deputy Marshal Charley Goodsell and taken before Commissioner Greenman. He is charged with interfering with water rights. The case was set for Friday at 10 o'clock, and was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

Judge and-noon's Work. James Kelly, a minor, vs. Samuel J. Pollock et al., on motion Thomas Jones was appointed guardian ad litem for plaintiff.

S. D. N. Bennett vs. Golden Star Mining and Milling company; appellant failed to docket his appeal within the thirty days allowed by the court, and it was moved that the appeal be dismissed and the case remanded back to Justice Kroeger for the enforcement of the judgment.

William Ferrigo vs. Herman H. Dodge et al.; thirty days allowed in which to file the undertaking on appeal.

Alexander McIntosh, a native of England, was admitted to citizenship.

In the case of James Dorgan vs. C. H. McMasters et al., the answer of defendant Parker was filed, and also assignment. Decree granted, cancelling mortgage.

Mason & Co. vs. W. N. Whitney et al.; ten days given to answer for C. S. & J. Rigby.

In Various Halls of Justice. J. Blanchard yesterday filed suit against Sears & Higgins for $3.35.

Notice of appeal has been filed in the case of John Long vs. C. J. & W. A. Thompson.

C. W. Bonner has brought suit before Commissioner Martin, against Jacob Hill, for $69.30.

L. Hall has filed suit in Justice Hall's court against Frank Hines, for $35 for medical services.

In the case of Henry C. Brown vs. J. H. Watts, Commissioner Martin yesterday gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $150.

Judgment was yesterday rendered in fa-

OUT THEY GO.

More Liberals Disgusted with the Party.

Butler Leaves the County Court, Ewing Says Good-by to the Council and Parsons Waives an Appeal.

The old bulk, so long rotten, is going to pieces with a suddenness that is causing a stampede from almost every quarter. The events of the last few days are portentous.

Following close upon the resignation of Harvey Harby as selectman came the resignation of O. W. Powers as chairman of the Liberal city committee, he having suddenly discovered that his business needed his undivided attention.

Yesterday there was another break in the ranks when Selectman Butler handed in his resignation because, he said, the Liberal party had failed to do its duty in the bond election matter.

Then there was another bomb, when A. H. Parsons announced that he had tendered his resignation as chairman of the Liberal city committee.

But the sensations of the day were not over, for later Councilman Ewing announced his intention of vacating his seat in the council chamber. He declined to state his reasons, but it may be taken for granted that the recent session in which he and the mayor were the principal characters has had very much to do with it.

It is also understood that M. K. Parsons, ex-city councilman, has had enough of Liberalism and will hereafter be found with the straight Republicans.

Look out for a stampede all along the line. All kinds of furniture and cabinet work made to order at Sandberg Furniture company.
