FOR PRESIDENT, Grover Cleveland, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, Adlai E. Stevenson, OF ILLINOIS. HOME RULE FOR UTAH.

Territorial Policy of the National Democratic Party. [From the Chicago Platform, June 1892.] We solemnly declare that the need of a return to these fundamental principles of free popular government, based on home rule and individual liberty, was never more urgent than now. The tendency to centralize all power as the federal capital has become a menace to the reserved rights of the states. We approve the action of the present House of Representatives in passing bills for the admission into the Union, as states, of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona, and favor the early admission of all territories having the necessary population and resources to enable them to statehood; and, while they remain territories, we hold that the officials appointed to administer the government of any territory, together with the Districts of Columbia and Alaska, should be bona-fide residents of the territory or district in which their duties are to be performed. The Democratic party believes in home rule and the control of their own affairs by the people of each vicinage.

UTAH WEATHER TODAY. Fair; slightly cooler in northern and southern portions. SILVER AND LEAD IN NEW YORK. Silver 83 1/2; Lead 4 1/2.

WHAT SHALL be Chicago's color in the coming decoration? asks the Mail. If Chicago is all she has been, painted, it will be red. JOHN SMITH has been nominated for governor of New Hampshire by the Republicans. It has been understood that he resided in Delaware.

It turns out that ex-Senator INGALLS was on any of the vessels released from quarantine, the New York health officers will have to square it with the general public. THE KNOWLEDGE that Jupiter has a little satellite not known before will perhaps account for the slight variations of the weather prophets heretofore, and we shall expect them in future to be more accurate.

THE CHOLERA is a McKinley institution, as it shuts out foreign competition with home goods. It is also like pauper labor imported by manufacturers under the contract system, trying to get in surreptitiously. EX-SPEAKER REED has been re-elected to Congress, and Speaker CUIP will be when the election comes off. Most of the distinguished representatives on both sides will probably share the roll of the next House.

It is certainly true that McKinley receives pay whilst stamping the country for the Republican ticket. With exact punctuality he draws $200.00 from the Ohio treasury as his salary for performing the duties of governor. IT IS MIGHTY lucky for HARRISON that there are no state elections in Pennsylvania and Indiana, as there used to be, in advance of the presidential election, for judging by Vermont and Maine he would get a pair of terrible black eyes there.

FOURTEEN FORKERS have taken the stump in Ohio for Harrison and signified the event by a backward attack on GROVER CLEVELAND, who once politely snubbed him by declining to shake hands with him after FORKNER had behaved towards him in an ungentlemanly manner. THE REGISTRATION board of Augusta, Me., held their last session Saturday. JAMES G. BLAIR failed to register and therefore didn't vote on Monday. How sorry he will feel if he finds he has been guilty of the same neglect in November and be thereby loses his ballot for R. H.

THE COMPLETE returns from the Vermont election have finally been canvassed and they show a Republican loss, compared with 1888, of 9,363, as against a Democratic loss of one. In this ratio, if the Democrats had lost two more votes, the Republican plurality would have dwindled into a minority. IT IS SAID the Olympic club of New Orleans which has lately entertained SULLIVAN, COMBETT and other prize fighters, is arranging to have a ladies' gallery for future exhibitions. A diplomatic gallery, a clergyman's gallery, and one for school children and the Y. M. C. A. should not be overlooked.

THE PREPARATION of the report of the Utah commission has been begun in Chicago, by a "coo-parliament" sub-committee composed entirely of men favorable to keeping Utah in a territorial condition. Our people may, we suppose, expect to be roasted for the action of Congress in holding down the salaries of these barons.

NOT THE NAME

A Republican exchange says: "All parties and citizens are agreed as to the necessity of raising revenue to carry on the government. The methods of raising revenue presented by the Republicans and Democratic parties in this campaign are diametrically opposed to one another. The amount of revenue to be raised in all cases the same." The first two sentences are true; with the last we take issue. In the case of the Democrats obtaining possession of the government the amount of revenue to be raised will not be the same as if the Republican party remains in control, since the Democratic party stands pledged to an economic administration of the government, and demands that the amount of revenue collected from the people shall be limited to the necessities of the government when so administered. Experience teaches the American people that the Republican party is ever lavish, not to say reckless, in the expenditure of the people's money. In the latter years of GROVER CLEVELAND'S administration the revenue collected annually under a protective tariff was $100,000,000 in excess of the necessities of the government. This condition called forth CLEVELAND'S ringing tariff reform message of December 6, '87, demanding of the legislative part of the government a reduction in taxation, that every citizen might be in "the full enjoyment of all the fruits of his industry and enterprise, with only such deduction as may be his share towards the careful and economical maintenance of the government which protects him." When CLEVELAND'S administration closed on March 4, 1889, the surplus in the treasury was $83,000,000, exclusive of the gold reserve. With that surplus added the sum was about $110,000,000. After three years and a half of Republican administration where the surplus, not only gone, but after the treasury department defaulted during the last fiscal year in providing $11,000,000 for the sinking fund, in order that the current expenses of the government might be met, the treasury is threatened with a deficit of some $32,000,000; provided it shall meet the requirements of the law in putting aside $45,000,000 for the sinking fund. These results of Republican control of the government plainly indicate that "the amount of revenue to be raised is in all cases" not "the same."

The same truth is as apparent in the legislation of the Republican party as it is in its administration. The last Republican Congress has gone down to history as the billion dollar Congress. It not only expended that amount, but by its reckless legislation forced upon the first session of the present Congress very large appropriations. Among the amounts so forced are the following: Pensions.....$48,779,889 Sugar bounty..... 8,800,000 Refunding national bank notes..... 9,000,000 Total.....$66,579,889

It will be understood, of course, that the item of pensions, amounting to more than $48,000,000, is merely the increase in pensions made by the last Republican Congress. The Republican Senate in the session of the present Congress just closed, increased the appropriation bills as they passed the House $82,407,798; and of this increase the House was finally compelled to yield $18,961,405, in order to reach an agreement and terminate the session. The above is another evidence that "the amount of revenue to be raised is in all cases" not "the same." It demonstrates that had the Democrats control of the government scores of millions of dollars would have been saved to the people of this country. Democrats stand for the economical administration of government.

"The Republicans," says the same Republican exchange quoted above, "would levy tariffs on imports of articles the like of which can be produced in this country, thus offering aid and protection to home labor and domestic industries. The Democrats declare that a tariff levied on such articles is unconstitutional." The last sentence is inaccurate. Democrats do not say that "a tariff levied on such articles is unconstitutional." What Democrats insist upon is that the exercise of the taxing power of the government for any other purpose than that of raising revenue for the just and necessary expenditures of the government is unconstitutional. If tariff duties were levied on "articles the like of which can be produced in this country," for the purpose of raising the necessary revenues of the government, such an act would not be unconstitutional, but merely unwise. Wisdom would dictate just the policy that has been announced by the Democratic party, viz.: That, instead of taxing such articles as those referred to above—which will be found to be those most commonly used by the masses of the people—it would be better to tax the imported luxuries, that the burdens of the government might fall upon those best able to bear them—upon the wealthy, upon those who buy luxuries. This is the system of taxation advocated by the Democrats, and they are pleased always to place that system in contrast with the one advocated by their opponents.

The Republican system of taxation not only raises the revenues for the government, but in addition to that compels the people to pay tribute to manufacturers who produce goods the like of which are either highly taxed or altogether prohibited from importation by our high tariffs. Not only do the people pay tribute to individual manufacturers, but also trusts and combines which are brought into existence by this Republican system of "protection" as surely as the sun breeds maggots in a carcass. The erudite Republican editor whose writings we are usually observing says: "There must be home competition in making articles such as the Republicans levy a tariff on, thus bringing down the price." Indeed! "Must" there? Who does not know, except this Republican editor with his "must be home competition," that this competition results in a "combine" or the formation of trusts by the "protected" manufacturers who then control the markets and fleece the people at their own sweet wills, the government under the control of the Republican party being a party to the fleecing! Such is the prostitution of the government of the United States which Republicans believe in, and which belief they are about to ask the people of the United States to endorse.

NATHANIEL P. BARNES has been nominated as a Republican elector at large for Massachusetts. Here is really one of the faithful and consistent members of that party, being one of its anti-slavery founders in 1856. So attached to the abolition cause was he, indeed, that he said he was willing to "let the Union slide" rather than the government should in any way recognize slavery.

The Herald's task of smoking out the Liberal party, led, driven and commanded by the grand scoundrel of the Tuscaroras, appears to have been an easy one. The regular meetings of the tribe are to be resumed. BOSS POWERS has been authoritatively placed in charge of the Liberal phalanx again, several thousand dollars have been raised for the campaign, enthusiastic speeches have been made, and now nothing remains but to nominate candidates for delegate to Congress and other offices and elect them. Thus the proceeds of Vanuxem and others that the Liberal party was to be turned over to Tuscarora leadership is verified.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES. In another part of this paper appears the official call for the Democratic primaries to select delegates to the county convention and to the territorial convention, both delegations to be chosen at the precinct meetings to be held on Monday evening. It is highly important that Democrats should attend these preliminary political gatherings and participate in the selection of delegates to the conventions. It is important because much is involved. Salt Lake county belongs to no party in advance of the election. It may be claimed but until all the precincts have been heard from after the close of the polls, all claims will be simply guesses, and in most cases they will have nothing more substantial for a basis than the wishes of the claimant. The Liberals having concluded that there is a possible chance for two years more of spoils, will nominate a full county ticket. The Republicans, while they do not expect to win, the great majority of their voters being yet listed in the Liberal ranks, will nevertheless name candidates for the offices, if for no other purpose than to demonstrate how many Liberals who believe with them politically have concluded that the time has come to divide on party lines. Therefore, there will be three tickets in the field. While THE HERALD believes the chances are in favor of Democratic success, we shall not attempt to bind ourselves or the public to the fact that the contest will be very close. We hope and believe the Democracy will win, but if victory is achieved it must be with an unassailable ticket—with nominees who are best qualified for the respective offices and who will represent the wisdom and best judgment of the majority of the Democratic voters. Frankly, we will need all the votes of the party, and perhaps more. One way to insure the former is for the members of the party generally to take part in the work of making up the ticket; one way to get the latter is to name men for office who shall be so irreproachable in character and so well equipped for the duties assigned that they will win the support of the independent citizens, and those whose party fealty is not so strong as to prevent them from voting for the best men, when these men are not on their party ticket. We believe there is an element in the Liberal party which is not pleased with the Liberal administration, which has been characterized by exorbitant taxes and the unwieldy and extravagant expenditure of the public money. We believe there are Republicans who, realizing that good government cannot come until the Liberal party has been overthrown, will find it in their hearts to vote for a Democratic ticket made up of pure and capable men.

Whether or not there is anything in these suppositions, THE HERALD urges upon Democrats throughout the county the importance and necessity of attending the primaries next Monday evening. We urge this, because we want the convention that assembles on the 24th instant to represent in its membership the sentiment and the confidence of the county Democracy. Whether or not votes can be had from other parties, if the primaries send to the convention men who are the choice of the majority in the respective precincts, the ticket will be satisfactory to Democrats and draw out the full party vote. We are going into this contest, not discounting the strength of the opposition, and not magnifying the forces of the Democracy. We are going in with the hope of winning and with the determination to win if victory be possible. Let there be no mistakes, let every man perform his full duty, and then if triumph comes all will congratulate, and if there shall be failure there will be no reproaches.

AN OFFENSIVE REGISTERAR. Reports reach THE HERALD of the bulldozing and irregular conduct of deputy registrars in one of the Cache towns. It is said that he insists upon knowing the politics of citizens applying for registration, with what object is not for us to say. In the case of naturalized citizens he is not content with an examination of the citizenship papers, but inquires minutely into the number of witnesses examined and whether or not they were citizens, and so on. It has been observed that his querulousness and annoying officiousness are confined to Democrats, for whom he seems to entertain no love. As several Democrats have been missed by him in his house to home visits, whether intended or not does not matter, they have applied to him for registration. He has refused to list their names, but says he will register them on the day that he keeps his office open for that purpose, though declining to designate the day. He claims to have the authority of the Utah commission for doing as he does, and when told that he must be governed by the law he says he will be guided by the instructions of the commission, rather than the statutes. If these stories are true, and the Democrats of the town referred to know whether or not they are true, the local Democratic committee should see to it that the fellow is "brought up standing." Laws are enacted for compelling just such fellows as he to do their duty when they happen to get into office. He cannot rise above the statutes unless the people meekly submit to his self-elevation. Any citizen who is denied registration by him has ground for action against the registrar, and courts are here for the purpose of affording the necessary relief and protection.

THE NEW YORK BOARD OF HEALTH. Buys the St. Charles Brand of Evaporated Cream and it is recommended by the leading physicians as being free from disease germs because it is STERILIZED. All Medical authorities agree that milk should be sterilized to guard against the transmission of disease germs. It is then PURE FOOD and is easily digested if Sterilized to the PROPER POINT. That's why "ST. CHARLES" leads. It is the most perfect nourishment for infants and invalids whose digestive organs are necessarily weak. Your Grocer and Druggist sell it.

Not tells that the choice for the place has fallen on Mr. NAY M. BRIGHAM of this city. The paper says he will at once enter upon his duties and will have full swing in his department, out of course, will consult from time to time Congressman BENZ.

THE HERALD seems to think there is a reproach in calling the Republican party in Utah the Mormo-Republicans, and asks how it would do to apply the same style of distinction to Liberals, as Mormo Liberals, Presby Liberals, Metho-Liberals, etc. It would be all right and would be entirely appropriate if the majority of Liberals here belonged to any particular sect, and had been taught from their cradles to understand that they were a distinct people, set aside for a particular purpose, and that they must stand as one man in religion, politics, social life and business.—Trib.

REPUBLICANS ARE predicting that Mr. CLEVELAND in his forthcoming letter of acceptance will repudiate the tariff plank of the Chicago platform. Not much. He has already said to the gentleman notifying him of his nomination that the platform expresses his views generally, and he will not depart from this except perhaps to emphasize or simplify the resolution on that subject. Mr. CLEVELAND made the tariff issue of the Democracy. His candidacy in 1888 was the presentation of it, and his renomination last June was meant as a complete endorsement of his record.

MR. WILLIAM WHITMAN is president of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, and it was he who prepared the woolen schedule of the McKinley tariff. This fact gives the New England Tariff Reform league an opportunity to ask a question: Why did Mr. WHITMAN demand a tax of 41 cents a pound on imported cotton-wool dress goods as "compensation" for the duty on imported wool?
