

BI-METALLIC PLANS.

The American Idea Will Now Be Discussed.

ROTHSCHILD'S PLANS REJECTED.

British Delegates Will Now Endeavor to Curtail Extension and This Break Up the Conference.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The scheme for a solution of the monetary problem submitted to the international monetary conference by Rothschild, was rejected by the committee to which it was referred on the vote of the delegates from France, Italy, Belgium, Norway, Sweden and Russia. The first objection made to the plan was from delegates of the nations belonging to the Latin union. They disapproved the proposal that forty-three per cent be fixed as the maximum purchase price of silver.

THE SPREE MISSING.

The Great Steamship Forty-eight Hours Overdue.

New York, Dec. 2.—The North German Lloyd steamship Spree at midnight was forty-eight hours overdue, and anxiety for her safety is very great. Three hundred passengers are aboard. The worst that is feared is that her big engines are broken down and will be hard to repair. It is supposed the Spree, being helpless, drifted out of the steamer track, for her sails are useless except to steady her. This would explain why she was not sighted by the City of New York or the Britannia, which both go over the same route.

CORRIGAN SPEAKS.

The Reverend Priest Defends His Position.

He Opposes the Germanization of America, and the Denunciation of the Public School System.

New York, Dec. 2.—Rev. Father Patrick Corrigan, of Hoboken, announces in an open letter to the editor of the Freeman's Journal tonight, that he has been summoned by Bishop Wigger to attend trial for letters written by Father Corrigan in opposition to the anti-American spirit of the late German congress held in Newark, and his attack upon public schools.

SLID INTO THE SEA.

A Terrible Earthquake in San Salvador.

Sixty Buildings Wrecked, Twenty-four Persons Injured and a Part of an Island Slid into the Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The steamer City of Panama brings news of an earthquake in San Salvador on Oct. 18. Signs of activity were noticed about the crater of the Conchagua volcano, near La Union in the Gulf of Fonseca. At 10 o'clock that night came a violent earthquake, and the 5,000 inhabitants of La Union fled to the beach.

JAY GOULD IS DEAD!

The World's Famous Financier Passes Quietly Away.

HE IS CONSCIOUS TO THE END.

The Direct Cause of Death Pulmonary Consumption—The Funeral Will Occur Monday—Interment in Woodlawn.

New York, Dec. 2.—Jay Gould is dead. He breathed his last at 9:15 this morning surrounded by his children at home. There were no signs of pain, and he was conscious until a few moments before he died.

A. W. McCUNE. J. H. LEYSON.

The J. H. LEYSON COMPANY, JEWELERS,

128 Main Street, The Largest, the Most Elegant Stock of WATCHES, JEWELRY and DIAMONDS, Silver and Silver-plated Ware, Novelties, etc., in Salt Lake City.

Open Evenings till December 31. Mail orders solicited. Watch Repairing.

A POLITICAL BOMB.

It Exploded in Wyoming's Capital Yesterday.

GOVERNOR OSBORNE INSTALLED.

He Takes Possession of the Governor's Office Issues a Proclamation, and will See That the Vote is Counted.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 2.—[Special.]—Governor-elect John E. Osborne went quietly to the capital building at 8 o'clock this morning and took the oath of office before Notary Paul D. W. Gill. The oath was administered in the state library in the presence of Chairman Ward of the state Democratic committee, George A. Draper, E. S. Johnston and several other citizens.

At the time of his visit here he was accompanied by his two youngest sons, Howard and Frank, his two daughters, Helen and Anna, and Dr. John P. Mann who was his family physician and who was with him at his death. Other parties with him at the time were Mr. S. H. H. Clark, general manager of the Union Pacific railway, John M. Tarrant, general solicitor of the company and Mr. Henry Hyde, president of the Equitable Life Insurance company of New York. The day was spent in looking over the property of the company, and a visit was made to Gardiner Beach.

Shortly after Governor Osborne took possession of the office R. H. Redpath, private secretary to A. W. Barbour, who has been acting governor for the past two years, came in. He had a key to the outer door in his possession and locked himself and the governor (Osborne) in the room. Both have remained in the office all day. The Republicans have invoked the aid of the county Republican executive board, had by frauds unsent enough Democratic legislators to give the Republicans a majority.

Taking advantage of loosely constructed state laws regarding the manner and method of seating a governor elected to fill a vacancy the Republican state board of canvassers intended to canvass only the legislative vote and not canvass that for state officers.

This scheme, if carried out, would have enabled the Republican managers to control the legislative vote and constitute a majority of the state government indefinitely. Now a canvass of the state vote will have to be made under the supervision of Governor Osborne, and every legislator and state official elected will take his seat.

BANQUET TO CLEVELAND

To Be Given by the Reform Club—Covers Laid for Five Hundred.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—[Special.]—The great banquet to be given to Grover Cleveland by the Reform club and which was to have taken place tomorrow night will probably occur Dec. 10th. The preparations are on a scale of unwonted magnificence, and thus far invitations have been sent out to all famous Democrats who took part actively in the late campaign. Covers will probably be laid for 500, and the speeches to be delivered will be the most significant of all the anti-insurrection utterances. It is believed that President-elect Cleveland is preparing a very elaborate speech for the occasion.

MURDERED FOR THIRTY DOLLARS

A Robber Kills a Woman and Wounds Another in Robbing a House.

RALPHIGH, N. C., Dec. 2.—Last night the residence of Dr. McDonald was entered by a robber. Two elderly ladies, Dr. McDonald's sisters, were in the sitting room. He presented a pistol and demanded money. They screamed and he fired, killing one and wounding the other fatally. Dr. McDonald, an elderly gentleman, came in when the robber, at the point of a pistol, made him deliver up his pocketbook containing $30. The supposed murderer is under arrest at Sanford.

PITTSBURG'S TROUBLE.

A Conflict Between the Mayor and the Chief of Police.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 2.—After closing the disorderly houses in this city, the order was revoked by Chief Brown of the department of public safety. The action is the result of a conflict between Mayor Gourlay and Chief Brown. It seems probable that the women who inhabit houses

The report concludes with a statement of the American, Mexican and Indian delegates to the conference. This statement is not yet obtainable. The American delegates regard the position cheerfully. The way is now cleared for a full discussion of the bi-metallic plan in accordance with their original program.

A prominent opponent of prolonged debates is Herbert Currie, British representative. His aim is to try to curtail discussion to bring the conference to a close at the end of next week. The American delegates will not yield to the application of a hasty closure, but if Currie's influence prevails, the British, German and Austrian delegates will withdraw, at the latest by the middle of December, and thus break up the proceedings.

The report of the committee to the conference expressed views on the individual responsibility of the nations. The committee, and continues by setting forth that it is necessary that preliminary to the proper examination of any proposals with a precise understanding as to the measures are likely to be taken by countries producing silver; existing prohibitions of the sale of production of silver in the United States and Mexico; policy of the United States in regard to the production of silver, and the policy of India regarding silver.

United States Delegate Henry W. Cannon stated that in the United States no existing legislation there is no means for limiting the production of silver, and that a modification of the present law in that direction is impossible. The ratio of silver extracted from American mines is insignificant as compared with the annual total general production.

A PECULIAR COLLECTION

To Be Taken Up in Plymouth Church on Sunday.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 2.—[Special.]—A peculiar collection will be taken up in Plymouth church Sunday, the church made famous both by its late pastor, Henry Ward Beecher, and by its present minister, Dr. Lyman Abbot. Last week this church decided to sever its connection with the American board of foreign missions and to give all its collections hereafter to other missions more in sympathy with the Congregational church. It is believed that many of the Congregational churches of the country will follow the example of Plymouth. The reason of this change lies in the ultra opinions of the members of the American board. It is asserted that they have refused to send any one abroad who would not affirm the belief that all heathens that die out of the faith are lost.

A BRUTE CORBELLED.

An Animal "Jack the Ripper" Arrested at Columbus, Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 2.—Judd Holland, a colored ex-convict, was arrested here for killing a dozen live cows within the past week. The killing was done with a knife, the animals being slashed in a most brutal way, somewhat after the manner of an animal "Jack the Ripper."

INDIA PRESS COMMENTS.

Very Old Man Rothschild Should Have Proposed a Plan.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 2.—The newspapers of India are watching with anxious interest the proceedings of the monetary conference. The Allahabad Pioneer says the chief importance of Rothschild's scheme is the percentage, and it is believed that Rothschild was apprehensive of a majority in the opinion of bankers and merchants of London. He now appears to be the mouthpiece of the government, for without authority of government he would never have made a proposal involving the alteration of a legal tender of silver. Further meaning is attached to his proposal, seeing that the British ministry, which has such an interest in the scheme, recognizes the necessity of immediate steps towards the support of silver and for securing the co-operation of other nations to that end. It is held also that the substituting of the proposal should have devolved upon Rothschild, as the anti-silver legislation of the past twenty years found its largest support among Jewish financiers, especially Rothschild, who as holder of chief government stocks, who gained enormously through the appreciation of gold. Probably the Jewish crisis opened the eyes of Rothschild to the fact that the anti-silver strain being carried too far and bring on disaster that would obliterate advantages of service by the moneyed interests.

Another trouble before the government is the renewed agitation of the Irish tenant farmers for an abatement of judicial rents fixed four years since. Thomas declares that the fall in prices of live stock and farm products generally makes a revision of rents imperative. A temporary clause in the act of 1877 would have done the most good. The government will ask parliament to restore the clause exactly as it was.

The announcement of the death of Jay Gould stirred the pulses of the dealers both inside and outside the London stock exchange. Although the news had no notable influence on prices a mob of people blocked the approaches to the exchange, all talking on the same theme and waiting to see its effect.

FOR ANNEXTION.

A Great Demonstration Made at Stimpson, Oct.

STIMPSON, Oct. 2.—The annexationists made a demonstration here tonight that opened the eyes of the federation leaders. Nearly one thousand voters gathered in the opera house and listened to speeches in favor of annexation, then a vote was taken which resulted: Annexation, 418; independence, 62; remain as we are, 21. At the close of the meeting some one raised the stars and stripes, which was applauded uproariously, while the display of the Union Jack brought forth a storm of hisses.

THE PANAMA CANAL SCANDAL.

Enormous Sums of Money Paid French Newspapers.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A Paris correspondent gives a list of the sums of money paid newspapers by the Panama Canal company prepared by Rossignol, former auditor, as follows: Petit Journal, 300,000 francs; Telegraph, 140,000; Jeuneville, director, Telegraph, 120,000; Maitin, 50,000; Gaulois, 15,000; Meyer, director, Gaulois, 30,000; Radical, 100,000; Senator Magnier, L'Evenement, 50,000; Patron, director, Journal des Debats, 40,000. The last named edition has requested any money. Other papers make no reference to the exposure.

RUINED BY FLOOD.

California Onion and Potato Crop Badly Damaged.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—News was received today that the Jersey tract of 5,300 acres, eighty miles from Antioch, Cal., had been flooded by an overflow of the San Joaquin river and the labor of reclaiming the cabbage, beet and nut crop, and badly injuring five persons, none fatally, however. Several others were slightly injured, but the passengers in the cars got off with a shaking up.

COLLIDED IN A FOG.

A Rear End Collision in Which Five Persons Are Injured.

ASHLAND, Ky., Dec. 2.—In a heavy fog at 8 o'clock this morning the Chesapeake and Ohio west bound accommodation struck a wrecking train, completely demolishing the caboose, box and nut car, and badly injuring five persons, none fatally, however. Several others were slightly injured, but the passengers in the cars got off with a shaking up.

FEELING IN WALL STREET.

Real Regret that the Career of the Millionaire Had Closed.

New York, Dec. 2.—The general feeling in Wall street is one of surprise, for so many times has the report of his death spread, only to be contradicted as soon as certain effect in stock had been produced. So often, no later than yesterday, was the old trick played, that it became like the cry of wolf when there was no wolf. When the result was finally confirmed, there was regret, real regret, that the career of the famous millionaire should close when he was only fifty-seven years of age. It seemed to be felt by his old enemies as well

THE "ATLANTA."

Mr. Gould's Private Car in Which He Spent a Great Deal of Time.

The "Atlanta" Mr. Gould's private car, was turned out of the Pullman works nearly five years ago, and is considered a "lucky car" by the colored porters, as it never left the track nor had a box lock. The car has been in constant service. When not in use by Mr. Gould the Gould boys would keep it moving over the country. The car in its interior is very plain and not half as showy as the cars of the fourths of the managers of one horse railroad. It was built for service, not for display.

The dining room is large and comfortable, and the car is filled with dishes, some of the plates hand painted, but no cotter than some of the common folk of Salt Lake set out to their friends.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

BIOGRAPHICAL.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of the Wizard of Wall Street.

Jay Gould was born in Roxbury, N. Y., May 27, 1826. At the age of fourteen he entered Hobart academy, New York. Here he studied surveying and mathematics, and after leaving school was employed in making surveys for a map of Ulster county. In 1856 he published a history of Delaware county. After his marriage he became interested as a partner in the business of Colonel Zadok Pratt, a noted hatter of "cheviot stock leather," and with the ample means provided by his wife, bought out the old partner's interest.

EFFECT ON THE MARKET.

But Little Excitement and the Exchange Presented No Unusual Appearance.

New York, Dec. 2.—The fact of Gould's death was known before the opening of the Stock Exchange; but the effect on the market was less marked than expected. Missouri Pacific declined only 1/4 to 54, Western Union only 1/4 to 85. Manhattan Elevated 1/4 to 125, Union Pacific 1/4 to 85. There are known particularly as Gould properties, to which he paid special attention.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

BIOGRAPHICAL.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of the Wizard of Wall Street.

Jay Gould was born in Roxbury, N. Y., May 27, 1826. At the age of fourteen he entered Hobart academy, New York. Here he studied surveying and mathematics, and after leaving school was employed in making surveys for a map of Ulster county. In 1856 he published a history of Delaware county. After his marriage he became interested as a partner in the business of Colonel Zadok Pratt, a noted hatter of "cheviot stock leather," and with the ample means provided by his wife, bought out the old partner's interest.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

FEELING IN WALL STREET.

Real Regret that the Career of the Millionaire Had Closed.

New York, Dec. 2.—The general feeling in Wall street is one of surprise, for so many times has the report of his death spread, only to be contradicted as soon as certain effect in stock had been produced. So often, no later than yesterday, was the old trick played, that it became like the cry of wolf when there was no wolf. When the result was finally confirmed, there was regret, real regret, that the career of the famous millionaire should close when he was only fifty-seven years of age. It seemed to be felt by his old enemies as well

THE "ATLANTA."

Mr. Gould's Private Car in Which He Spent a Great Deal of Time.

The "Atlanta" Mr. Gould's private car, was turned out of the Pullman works nearly five years ago, and is considered a "lucky car" by the colored porters, as it never left the track nor had a box lock. The car has been in constant service. When not in use by Mr. Gould the Gould boys would keep it moving over the country. The car in its interior is very plain and not half as showy as the cars of the fourths of the managers of one horse railroad. It was built for service, not for display.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

BIOGRAPHICAL.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of the Wizard of Wall Street.

Jay Gould was born in Roxbury, N. Y., May 27, 1826. At the age of fourteen he entered Hobart academy, New York. Here he studied surveying and mathematics, and after leaving school was employed in making surveys for a map of Ulster county. In 1856 he published a history of Delaware county. After his marriage he became interested as a partner in the business of Colonel Zadok Pratt, a noted hatter of "cheviot stock leather," and with the ample means provided by his wife, bought out the old partner's interest.

EFFECT ON THE MARKET.

But Little Excitement and the Exchange Presented No Unusual Appearance.

New York, Dec. 2.—The fact of Gould's death was known before the opening of the Stock Exchange; but the effect on the market was less marked than expected. Missouri Pacific declined only 1/4 to 54, Western Union only 1/4 to 85. Manhattan Elevated 1/4 to 125, Union Pacific 1/4 to 85. There are known particularly as Gould properties, to which he paid special attention.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

BIOGRAPHICAL.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of the Wizard of Wall Street.

Jay Gould was born in Roxbury, N. Y., May 27, 1826. At the age of fourteen he entered Hobart academy, New York. Here he studied surveying and mathematics, and after leaving school was employed in making surveys for a map of Ulster county. In 1856 he published a history of Delaware county. After his marriage he became interested as a partner in the business of Colonel Zadok Pratt, a noted hatter of "cheviot stock leather," and with the ample means provided by his wife, bought out the old partner's interest.

EFFECT ON THE MARKET.

But Little Excitement and the Exchange Presented No Unusual Appearance.

New York, Dec. 2.—The fact of Gould's death was known before the opening of the Stock Exchange; but the effect on the market was less marked than expected. Missouri Pacific declined only 1/4 to 54, Western Union only 1/4 to 85. Manhattan Elevated 1/4 to 125, Union Pacific 1/4 to 85. There are known particularly as Gould properties, to which he paid special attention.

FEELING IN WALL STREET.

Real Regret that the Career of the Millionaire Had Closed.

New York, Dec. 2.—The general feeling in Wall street is one of surprise, for so many times has the report of his death spread, only to be contradicted as soon as certain effect in stock had been produced. So often, no later than yesterday, was the old trick played, that it became like the cry of wolf when there was no wolf. When the result was finally confirmed, there was regret, real regret, that the career of the famous millionaire should close when he was only fifty-seven years of age. It seemed to be felt by his old enemies as well

THE "ATLANTA."

Mr. Gould's Private Car in Which He Spent a Great Deal of Time.

The "Atlanta" Mr. Gould's private car, was turned out of the Pullman works nearly five years ago, and is considered a "lucky car" by the colored porters, as it never left the track nor had a box lock. The car has been in constant service. When not in use by Mr. Gould the Gould boys would keep it moving over the country. The car in its interior is very plain and not half as showy as the cars of the fourths of the managers of one horse railroad. It was built for service, not for display.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

BIOGRAPHICAL.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of the Wizard of Wall Street.

Jay Gould was born in Roxbury, N. Y., May 27, 1826. At the age of fourteen he entered Hobart academy, New York. Here he studied surveying and mathematics, and after leaving school was employed in making surveys for a map of Ulster county. In 1856 he published a history of Delaware county. After his marriage he became interested as a partner in the business of Colonel Zadok Pratt, a noted hatter of "cheviot stock leather," and with the ample means provided by his wife, bought out the old partner's interest.

EFFECT ON THE MARKET.

But Little Excitement and the Exchange Presented No Unusual Appearance.

New York, Dec. 2.—The fact of Gould's death was known before the opening of the Stock Exchange; but the effect on the market was less marked than expected. Missouri Pacific declined only 1/4 to 54, Western Union only 1/4 to 85. Manhattan Elevated 1/4 to 125, Union Pacific 1/4 to 85. There are known particularly as Gould properties, to which he paid special attention.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

BIOGRAPHICAL.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of the Wizard of Wall Street.

Jay Gould was born in Roxbury, N. Y., May 27, 1826. At the age of fourteen he entered Hobart academy, New York. Here he studied surveying and mathematics, and after leaving school was employed in making surveys for a map of Ulster county. In 1856 he published a history of Delaware county. After his marriage he became interested as a partner in the business of Colonel Zadok Pratt, a noted hatter of "cheviot stock leather," and with the ample means provided by his wife, bought out the old partner's interest.

EFFECT ON THE MARKET.

But Little Excitement and the Exchange Presented No Unusual Appearance.

New York, Dec. 2.—The fact of Gould's death was known before the opening of the Stock Exchange; but the effect on the market was less marked than expected. Missouri Pacific declined only 1/4 to 54, Western Union only 1/4 to 85. Manhattan Elevated 1/4 to 125, Union Pacific 1/4 to 85. There are known particularly as Gould properties, to which he paid special attention.

FEELING IN WALL STREET.

Real Regret that the Career of the Millionaire Had Closed.

New York, Dec. 2.—The general feeling in Wall street is one of surprise, for so many times has the report of his death spread, only to be contradicted as soon as certain effect in stock had been produced. So often, no later than yesterday, was the old trick played, that it became like the cry of wolf when there was no wolf. When the result was finally confirmed, there was regret, real regret, that the career of the famous millionaire should close when he was only fifty-seven years of age. It seemed to be felt by his old enemies as well

THE "ATLANTA."

Mr. Gould's Private Car in Which He Spent a Great Deal of Time.

The "Atlanta" Mr. Gould's private car, was turned out of the Pullman works nearly five years ago, and is considered a "lucky car" by the colored porters, as it never left the track nor had a box lock. The car has been in constant service. When not in use by Mr. Gould the Gould boys would keep it moving over the country. The car in its interior is very plain and not half as showy as the cars of the fourths of the managers of one horse railroad. It was built for service, not for display.

GOULD'S WEALTH.

A Close Friend Estimates It at Not Less Than $100,000,000.

New York, Dec. 2.—Many guesses were made in regard to Jay Gould's wealth and the disposal that will be made of his immense holdings of securities. One of his closest associates and oldest personal friends said in regard to this matter: "Mr. Gould's wealth will be found near $100,000,000. Nearly $40,000,000 are in Manhattan, Western Union Telegraph and Missouri Pacific stock. The holdings of these three stocks are trusted and will not be sold. His other securities will be taken care of in the interest which has had charge of them for the past three years. It is estimated that Gould held $15,000,000 of Western Union stock and $30,000,000 of elevated stock."

B