

A BULLION-BECK STRIKE.

Not a Strike for Higher Wages This Time.

VERY RICH ORE FOUND.

It Runs Up Into the Hundreds, But Has Not Been Explored.

Manager Hyde Says Wages Will Be Restored if the Ore Bodies Improve Satisfactorily—Reports from Deep Creek Districts—Cedar Valley Oxy.

Manager Hyde of the Bullion-Beck, confirms the report of a strike in that property—a strike of altogether different sort than has been disturbing the management and the Eureka miners for several months.

Manager Hyde is not disposed to say much about the strike until the extent of the ore body is determined, but said the ore ran pretty well up into the hundreds.

"Perhaps there is enough of it to pay the miners $3 per day," suggested the reporter.

"You may state that just as soon as we get richer ore, and enough of it to justify us, we will pay the miners $3 a day."

DEEP CREEK WEALTH.

Reports from Dugway, Fish Springs and Other Districts.

DEEP CREEK, May 23.—Once more across the Sahara desert of the west, and I find every body talking railroad. Most of these people have heard so much railroad talk for the last five years that they are becoming used to talk.

It seems that many a poor miner has some ore in Salt Lake in his hand. Make the mine then and these people will respond with their teams and labor to do the grading.

At Rush Valley there was some excitement about the mines at Indian creek, Six Mile creek and Death canyon. From what we learned there have been many new discoveries made recently that must have a railroad to work them.

DUGWAY DEVELOPMENTS.

At Dugway the miners are hard at work developing their properties. To induce the coming of the road these people promise to grade many miles and take it in stock.

While here, and while the traveling, we looked over the route again, and it is my opinion that eighty miles can be graded at a cost of less than $600 per mile in building the culverts, but you must have your construction train up with the graders every night with water, hay and grain.

When you start to build you must have your ties and rails and telegraph all arranged for, as the grading is but only a secondary consideration. It is about eighty miles to Dugway. This will take in many a mining camp. It will begin to pay at Stockton. At Dugway it will load cars of low grade ore; and let me here say that many of these mines are showing gold which will soon make them high grade.

FISH SPRINGS.

The Fish Spring mines are panning out good. The Utah is shipping its car load a week and doing much developing work.

They estimate that they have over $30,000 worth of ore of second class on the dump that can only be shipped with a railroad. Suppose they subscribe the half of that to a road. This would show the company's good faith in their mine and make the property worth millions. They have now about fifty claims, with twenty-five patented already.

Louis Kilkenny & Co. are shipping rich ores. They too own many good mines that would be worth double in value if there was a road.

Chippman & Co. own many mines that they hold at millions. John Monehus, Sons & Co. have what they expect to go to the world's fair on, besides living in affluence and luxury the balance of their days.

The Brim brothers have very valuable properties. The Thomas brothers are shipping ore. In all there are 250 claims in Fish Spring district. A road to Dugway would help the Fish Spring people, and it would pay.

OTHER DISTRICTS.

There are 328 recorded claims in Willow Springs. Many of these claims are only worked to hold them. Many of the owners are too poor to do more than these assessments. The Watson brothers, of Salt Lake, have a fine property that they are working and developing.

Trout creek has about thirty claims, and there are found placer grounds. Granite canyon has some good claims, especially those of Charles Decker & Sons. The deposits in Utah are many of the owners in the mining districts that I have passed through, is to develop these properties, get out ore, and to assist in building the railroad. Their faith in these mines is best shown by the few mines that are offered for sale.

Hurry up the 100. Get in the men with their thousands start the road by July 4; double your money; make times good; and our cry will be, "Give us more cars!" H. J. FAUER.

AT THE JUNCTION CITY.

The Owner of the Reed Hotel Furniture Threatens to Move Out.

OGDEN, May 30.—(Special.)—It is very probable that the Reed hotel matter will be fixed up, one way or the other, tomorrow, as Mr. Rising is said to have made a very liberal proposition to the owners of the hotel, and gives it out cold that unless the proposition is accepted he will move and sell all of the furniture and fixtures of the house and close the hotel.

THE GREAT FAIR.

Some Impressions of a Salt Laker Who Has Been There.

The Utah Forces Are Working Night and Day to Get the Exhibits in Proper Shape.

Dr. Benedict, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Bertie, returned from a tour of the eastern cities yesterday. The doctor visited his old home and many of the friends of his youth, renewing acquaintances of years ago. On the return trip, he visited the World's fair, and took in all that was to be seen. His advice to all who really care to see the exhibits, is: "Wait until September at least. The fair is grand and stupendous, almost beyond belief, but as yet it is in a very chaotic condition, and many weeks will be necessary to make it what it was designed it should be. Too many of the great buildings yet give forth the impression of mammoth warehouses, boxes upon boxes of exhibits remaining unopened. Utah's exhibit is, perhaps, far along in any, but far from being completed, although every effort is being put forth to that end. The Utah building is a decided credit to the territory, and is a general object of interest, best visited by hundreds daily.

"Notwithstanding the announcements," continued the doctor, "that the fair is open, such is not the case. It is true, the doors are open, but very few, comparatively, of the exhibits can be seen. Yet there is probably enough, even now, for the average individual.

"What about the varieties of the alleged gouging of visitors?" "Well, one needs to keep his eyes open and his wits about him. That is all. He does not need to be a mathematician, and the fair is most expensive luxury. The fair is being run by Chicago and for Chicago.

"In other words, it is a hold-up game?" "In some instances, yes; though I believe the general desire of many who are interested is to prevent extortion to any great extent.

"California makes a most excellent showing of citrus fruits, and it is the wonder of all beholders. The foreign displays, however, are, at least, as good as those of our own country, but if there is one thing more than another calculated to turn the average Britisher green with envy, it is the gorgeous Pullman train in its transportation of the traveling public who seek speed, safety, and last, but not least, comfort. While this fast and elegant service has been put on mainly in respect to the large World's fair, it has come to stay and will be a permanent schedule.

In cases where dandruff, scalp diseases, falling and grayness of the hair appear, do not neglect them, but apply a proper remedy and tonic like Hall's Hair Restorer.

She never uses the paints and face bleaches which are so injurious to the skin.

TO BE BEAUTIFUL, OR EVEN PASSING FAIR, ONE MUST HAVE BEAUTIFUL TEETH.

How often the beauty of a face is marred by uneven or decayed teeth. Every other portion of the face may be perfect, and when the mouth is closed, absolutely beautiful, yet if the teeth are not perfect the enchantment is broken and the effect is ruinous to the entire appearance.

How very necessary is it then for every one of us to pay great attention to our teeth, not only for the sake of beauty, but for the sake of health, because all kinds of complications and diseases arise from the teeth, and they are unable to perform their natural functions and to assist the mastication as they should.

How long, in your opinion, will be necessary to take in the show?" "From one month to six. It all depends upon what you are most interested in. To see everything, and to be able to give a general idea of it to one's friends would require the longest period that the fair will be in existence. It is stupendous; beyond description; I might say, it is beyond ordinary human understanding."
