

SALT LAKE HERALD. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. BY THE HERALD PUBLISHING CO. WITH OUR COMPLIMENTS.

Every regular advertising patron of THE SALT LAKE DAILY HERALD will, by calling at the counting room, be given a serviceable and handsome present.

THE HERALD has the largest circulation in Utah. It is a visitor to more homes in this territory and the surrounding region than any other newspaper published.

Yesterday's Temperature. 6 p. m. 77. Noon 70. 6 a. m. 68.

Highest temperature for the last twenty-four hours, 78 degrees; lowest, 50 degrees. Corrected data by United States observer, GEO. N. SALSBUURY, Observer.

Forecast for The Herald. SALT LAKE CITY, July 6, 1893. For thirty-six hours ending July 7, at 6 p. m. Fair weather. Stationary temperature.

TO ADVERTISERS. Charges for Advertisements in THE SUNDAY HERALD must be handed in not later than Friday night.

BRIEF AND BREEZY. The joint city and county building committee will hold a meeting at 3 p. m. today.

LEONARD, the aeronaut, will make another balloon ascension at Garfield on Sunday at 3 p. m.

JIM WILLIAMS and Mike Fitzgerald, who are matched for a six-round glove contest, yesterday definitely agreed that the match should take place in this city on July 31, but the date has not yet been selected.

TOMAS ZETZLE, a German 39 years of age, who was taken in custody by Sheriff McQuinn a few days ago, on complaint that he was insane, was examined by the county physician yesterday and pronounced sane.

The remains of the late W. P. Noble arrived over the Rio Grande Western railway from California at 8 a. m. yesterday. The funeral will be held at St. Mark's cathedral at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Friends are invited to attend.

MR. AND MRS. A. H. HENNINGER, whose little boy was lost in Parley's Canyon on July 4, extend their sincere thanks to the many friends who have sent their personal advice and joined in the search for the little one.

COUNTY CLERK McQuinn's marriage licenses yesterday to Alexander H. Vesch and Eva Carlson, and to Charles Meyer and Gertrude Brashaw, all of Salt Lake. The last named couple were married by Judge Blair in his office.

The Jefferson Drive (loop) will be organized this evening for service on the Democratic side of the fall campaign. David L. Levey will take the reins in hand, and expects to have them "up to snuff" by the time the campaign begins.

CORPORATION OF THE articles of incorporation of the Pacific Coast Road and Investment company were filed with Secretary Richards yesterday. It is an Oregon company, and the aims and objects have been fully set forth in these documents.

OSWALD SALZBERG's report of yesterday's temperature is as follows: 9 a. m., Salt Lake, 85; Baker City, 85; Cheyenne, 81; Helena, 80; Miles City, 80; Winnemucca, 80; Idaho Falls, 81; H. m., Salt Lake, 87; Bingham, 87; Ogden, 76; Logan, 60; Park City, 70; Provo, 77.

It seems that the only thing that has been charged against Policeman Walker, who was recently expelled from the G. A. R. is that he doesn't pay his debts. This has been brought to the attention of Chief Paul, but that official does not see that it calls for any action on his part.

The Utah commissioners yesterday appointed John Green, a Democrat, as respondent on the Morgan county. Summons is now the only county not attended to. The commissioners also adopted a resolution formally accepting the Industrial Home, and also resolved to transfer the commission offices to that building at an early date, as possible. It is expected that the change will be made about August 1.

HERMAN HAAGA a young Salt Lake artist, who has been studying in Paris for the past two years, returned home yesterday, and will remain here until fall, when he returns to Paris. The young gentleman is spoken of highly by those who are familiar with his work, and a bright future is predicted for him. He has a few dollars for consumption, and when he finishes his work as a student will devote himself to figure and historical painting.

Table with columns: Leave, Arrive, Leave, Arrive. Rows for Salt Lake, Ogden, Provo, etc.

Federer-Simms full band. Fare 50 cents round trip. Trains leave Rio Grande Western station.

Shrewd Business Men. Should insist on knowing what they are paying for. THE HERALD'S list of subscribers is increasing at the rate of over 100 each week. Don't accept our statement—examine our books. They are open to everyone.

A FEW PARDONS WANTED. Half a Dozen Applicants for Executive Clemency. DIAMOND IS AMONG THEM. Petition in Behalf of Preston, the Ogden Hotel Man.

Kaul, Hipwell and Others on the List—Two Wayward Girls Forsake the Rescue Home—Liquors Sold to Indians—Police Arrests.

A half dozen applications for pardon have been received and pigeon holed at the executive office during the last few months, and Acting Governor Richards yesterday permitted a HERALD man to inspect the list. No action has been taken on any of them yet, but they will probably receive consideration when Governor West returns.

DIAMOND WANTS CITIZENSHIP. W. H. Diamond, who was given a three years' sentence for manufacturing Judge Gates on April 18, 1893, Hipwell released on the expiration of his sentence. His attorneys, Powers & Hiles, ask for a pardon in order that his citizenship may be restored. A previous application for his pardon, filed with Governor Thomas, sets forth that he comes from an excellent Ohio family, and among the petitioners are Governor McKinley and ex-Governor Campbell.

JOHN HIPWELL'S CASE. A number of leading citizens of Ogden and Weber counties have asked for the pardon of John Hipwell, convicted of stealing cattle last March, and sent to the State Prison for two years. Hipwell was running a butcher shop and some of the stolen cattle were slaughtered by him. The man who pleaded guilty to the theft testified that Hipwell was his accomplice, and upon this evidence he was convicted. The petitioners represent that Hipwell had previously borne an excellent reputation, and had never been convicted with the commission of an offense.

IN C. H. PRESTON'S BEHALF. Readers of THE HERALD will remember the circumstances attending the conviction of C. H. Preston, the Ogden hotel man, of the crime of embezzlement. He was sentenced on Oct. 1 last to eighteen months in the penitentiary. Preston was proprietor of the Brunswick hotel at Ogden, and some time in June, of last year, two of his guests asked him to take charge of their money $200. He was on the eve of departure for the east, but he received the money and gave a receipt therefor. He deposited it in the bank and drew a check for it, which he left with the hotel clerk, with instructions to pay it to the guests upon the presentation of the receipt. The clerk became intoxicated that night and failed to follow instructions, whereupon the guests had Preston arrested and brought back. He gave them a check for the amount, but he was sentenced on Oct. 1 last to eighteen months in the penitentiary. His pardon is now asked, and the petitioners allege that Preston has always borne a spotless reputation, and is a business man in Colorado as well as in Utah. They set forth the absence of any criminal intent in the affair for which he was convicted, and also call attention to his excellent character and his good conduct in the penitentiary.

A CITIZENSHIP PARDON. John Kaul was sentenced in the Third district court on December 12, 1891, to serve two years for an assault with intent to commit rape, and his term expires on December 12, 1893. Several public officials, including ex-Marshal Benton, Mr. Varian and Warden Squires ask that he be pardoned for the purpose of saving his citizenship. He is an old man, served during the war on the Union side and he stoutly maintained his innocence of the offense charged against him.

A FOUR YEARS' TERM. Thomas Wilson was sentenced in the Oregon court on December 17, 1891, to four years for robbery, and his term will expire next October. His pardon is asked on the ground of good behavior at the pen, and that his three years of imprisonment is sufficient punishment.

ON CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE. J. J. Gibbons was convicted of grand larceny in the Third district court and sentenced to one year's imprisonment. It is set forth in the application for his pardon that he had previously borne a good reputation, and that the evidence upon which he was convicted was purely circumstantial. His petition is signed by the jurors who found him guilty and many other citizens.

STOLE A WATCH. Thomas Burns held to await the action of the Grand Jury. In the police court yesterday, Thomas Burns, an old offender, was examined on the charge of grand larceny, and the evidence adduced by the prosecution showed that on Wednesday the defendant stole a watch, chain, chain and some other articles from the person of George F. Dust. Burns was held to await the action of the grand jury, and in default of bonds in the sum of $500, went back to jail.

John Burnside was sent up for ten days for disturbing the peace. Nellie Robinson, Dollie Blake, Rena Blake and Edith Blake were fined $5.00 each for being inmates of a house of ill-fame, and Gussie Blake, the keeper, was fined $17.50.

John Daily, one lone, torn drunk, was assessed $5, and John Doe paid the same amount for trespassing. Sam C. Clark charged with keeping a dangerous and vicious dog, was found guilty and the court ordered that the canine be killed.

FORSOOK THE HOME. Unsuccessful Attempt to Reform Two Wayward Girls. On motion of District Attorney Judd the bonds of John Smith and Frank Howard (colored), who were indicted by the late grand jury on the charge of fornication, were reduced from $500 to $200 yesterday. Smith and Howard are a couple of colored dudes who were charged with committing the crime in question with a girl named Jennie Hardner and Jennie Rogers. On May 31 Judge Judd's kindness of heart and other humane influences prompted him to ask that the girls in question be released on their own recognizance that they might enter the Women's Rescue Mission house. This order was granted and the girls were taken to the home. In a few days, however, they began to again pine for the broad avenues of unrighteousness and, pleading that the home was worse than the penitentiary, they left. Since that time nothing has been heard of them.

LIQUOR SOLD TO INDIANS. Rain-In-The-Face and Pale-Face, Two Soldiers, Jailed for Drunkenness. There is a law prohibiting the sale of liquor to Indians, and it is supposed to be rigidly enforced, but it seems to be more honored in the breach than in the observance, so far as the Indian soldiers at Fort Douglas are concerned, and it is no uncommon sight to see a noble and manly Indian under the influence of Salt Lake fire-water. Assistant City Attorney Coad says it is just as much an offense to sell liquor to Indians, and it is supposed to be rigidly enforced, but it seems to be more honored in the breach than in the observance, so far as the Indian soldiers at Fort Douglas are concerned, and it is no uncommon sight to see a noble and manly Indian under the influence of Salt Lake fire-water.

A Forged Check. A young man, Charles L. Martin, who claims to be a cook, went into Jim Williams saloon on Commercial street, yesterday morning, and induced the bookkeeper to cash a check for $15.25, drawn on the Utah National bank and purporting to be signed by W. S. Aldridge. A short time afterwards it was discovered that the check was a forgery and Captain Donovan arrested Martin, who was by this time considerably under the influence of liquor. Martin will have a hearing in the police court today.

For Stealing Tools. J. E. Leggett, a young carpenter, was arrested by Officer Peck last night on the charge of stealing a lot of tools belonging to Mr. Carter, the proprietor of the Valley house. Kim then went to Dr. Benedict's office, and that gentleman being out, Dr. Smith dressed the wound and the Chinaman continued to advance, and the boy threw the rock, which struck him over the left ear, knocking him down and stunning him.

Arrested and Discharged. Frank Suter, a cook, was arrested yesterday morning for destroying property, but the charge was afterwards dismissed. CAUGHT IN THE DAILY ROUND-UP. When Jim Kennelly knows a thing he knows it and nobody else does. Here is one of his favorite expressions: "There's no use talking that way. I know better."

Jay Gould Davis never has been known to borrow trouble and his temperament is so sanguine that he often talks big words, without noticing them. When asked as to the stock market, he presses the handle of his walking stick against his nether lip and said: "I don't know of any stock market. It don't worry us. We can live a year without work." When Jay Gould uses the plural it is to include several other millionaire brokers.

"You are so fresh that a bath in the Great Salt Lake won't help you," was the complimentary way in which Arthur Clark addressed Harry Ferguson, the night clerk of the Knutsford, last evening. The remark left Harry in the pickle.

Walker, who was chief clerk at the Jones under the regime of Major Erb, has turned up in the city looking as "killing" as ever. He has been looking over the office corner of the Windsor at Denver, where he is known to the traveling men as "the man who never tells."

"How much money do you presume was spent in celebrating the Fourth of July?" was asked of the round-up man, who can furnish the figures for anything from the population of Salt Lake city in the year 3000 to the number of persons on a real estate excursion. To begin with, the Los Angeles collected in $5,500; the Calder's park with $2,000. The receipts of the two street railway companies did not fall below $2,000. Then there were picnic parties up the canyons, whose supplies would count up into the hundreds and whose lively bills equaled the capacity of all the stables in the town. The small boy came in for his usual ration of $25,000 to make the eagle scream. For a year when people are seeing the sky piched with parties and families strolling abroad, Salt Lake people "biew themselves in" in a very patriotic manner.

Dangerous Ice. A medical authority says that, in view of a threatening plague, people cannot be too careful in the selection of the ice they use, as all sorts of diseases may be communicated by this medium, but no directions governing the selection of ice are given. The best ice is always cold, and sometimes a slight moisture may be observed upon the surface; it is devoid of smell and will melt when exposed to a temperature of 10 degrees Fahrenheit. Ice made of water is more desirable; it should be transparent or nearly so and should break into fragments when given a sharp blow. Tough ice that will not break is generally adulterated. Avoid soft ice or ice that has been subjected to excessive heat while under process of manufacture. It sometimes presents a fine appearance but is unhealthy. Ice more than three days old should not be purchased, as it is liable to turn sour on your hands and will have to be thrown away. After having melted, it loses many of its virtues and should not be used. It should always be kept in a cool place and at a distance from gas fixtures to avoid explosions.

When the blood is loaded with impurities, the whole system becomes disordered. This condition of things cannot last long without serious results. In such cases, a powerful alterative is needed, such as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It never fails and has no equal.

A CHINESE MAN'S SAD FATE. Yem-Kim Killed by Young Charles Arnu. HIS WEAPON WAS A ROCK. The Enraged Chinaman Threatened the Boy with a Knife. He Had Been Tormented with Flippers and Was Seeking Revenge—Death Occurred Three Days After the Wound Was Inflicted.

Last Monday afternoon Wah Yem Kim, an old Chinese gardener, was driving down Ninth East street in a light wagon, and when near the corner of Third South, some boys began firing stones at him with flippers. It is said they did not hit him, but, at any rate, their assault enraged the Chinaman, who got off his wagon and advanced towards the boys, at the same time drawing a knife. The boys retreated to the sidewalk, and as Kim approached the sidewalk, Charles Arnu, aged 17, picked up a large rock and ordered him to halt, threatening to knock him down if he did not. The Chinaman continued to advance, and the boy threw the rock, which struck him over the left ear, knocking him down and stunning him.

When Kim regained consciousness, the boys were gone, and he came on up town, hunted up a Chinese interpreter and called at the police station for the purpose of making a complaint against the boys. He did not find his home, however, and as the Chinaman's injury was slight, he was advised to call again on Wednesday, the next day being a holiday.

Kim then went to Dr. Benedict's office, and that gentleman being out, Dr. Smith dressed the wound and the Chinaman continued to advance, and the boy threw the rock, which struck him over the left ear, knocking him down and stunning him. The doctor concluded that there had been a fracture that injured or cut the external jugular vein, and said at once that nothing could be done for the man, who lingered until about 5 o'clock, when he died.

Coroner Taylor and Chief Paul had both been watching the case and last night the police arrested Charles Arnu, who threw the rock, and a boy named Walstrom, who was with him. Their account of the affair was as given above, and the statement is corroborated by several witnesses. The coroner will hold an inquest at 10 o'clock this morning, when some additional facts may be brought out, and all of the Chinese residents are much wrought up over the affair and they will probably be represented at the inquest by counsel.

The deceased was 60 years of age and had lived in Salt Lake for 23 years. It is expected that the funeral will take place tomorrow.

A. O. U. W. ENTERTAINMENT. The Salt Lake Valley Lodge Installed with Appropriate Ceremonies. The installation of Salt Lake Valley lodge No. 12, A. O. U. W., was made the occasion of very interesting exercises at the A. O. U. W. hall on South Main street last evening. Members of the order, with their ladies and guests to the number of about 400, were in attendance, and the occasion was one they will not soon forget.

The installation exercises were conducted by Deputy Grand Master Workman S. W. Darke, and the installation address was delivered by Hon. F. A. Falkenberg of Denver, who took for his theme, "Ten Reasons Why I Am a Workman." The address was a masterly effort and attracted the audience, whose attention was held by the orator. At the close of the exercises refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening spent in social enjoyment. The following programme was carried out: Opening ode..... Lodge members Prayer..... M. W. Richards Organ solo..... Mr. Milo Vincent Duet..... Fuller-Duncan and Mr. Joseph Paul. Address, "Ten Reasons Why I Am a Workman"..... P. M. W. Falkenberg. Instrumental selections, Mandolin and guitar, Messrs. F. W. Lutz and C. Byrva. Selection from "Spemans"..... J. E. Evans Quartette..... "The Song of the Whippoorwill," Messrs. Joseph Paul and C. Strong.

Closing ode..... Lodge members. Following are the officers of the new lodge: H. H. Richards, P. M. W.; S. W. Moser, M. W.; Dr. W. F. Beer, F. A. T. C. Lewis, O. W. H. O. I. ger, recorder; E. J. Brannan, financier; Dr. Schorderer; H. S. Beattie, guide; M. S. Anderson, I. W.; W. H. Fowler, O. W.; George A. Hill, trustee, for eighteen months.

A POLITICAL FORECAST. Candidates Mentioned for the Coming Municipal Campaign. It is somewhat early in the season to commence selecting candidates for the fall municipal elections. Nevertheless the subject is being discussed. W. S. McCormick is spoken of as a candidate for mayor on a citizens' ticket. A fusion of the Democrats and Republicans is deemed likely in some quarters. A. T. Schroeder, recorder, as a straight Democrat, is considered a likely candidate. In the Liberal camp O. W. Powers, for mayor, is the favorite, although Charley Stanton has the majority here very big in his honor. C. M. Jackson is being mentioned as a candidate for any fall office in sight except that of dog catcher and that he don't want. Fred Dennis, is understood, aspires to the recorder's chair.

There is so much disaffection among the Liberals that many of the fire-eaters shake their heads dubiously when the fall campaign is mentioned. The working men are catching up to the present racket and hundreds who voted the Liberal ticket last year will go back on it this fall.

"To stave off the fellows who will want to tell me all about it for the rest of my natural life,"—Puck. THE CROP BULLETIN. The Continued Drought Beginning to Tell on Irrigated Crops. The weekly weather crop bulletin, issued yesterday by Observer Salisbury, contains the following general review: "The continuous drought, which has been so adverse to 'dry farming,' is at last beginning to tell injuriously upon the irrigated crops in sections where the water supply has become low, or where the interval is long between turns of watering. Here the water supply was abundant the crops have made splendid growth. It was a fine week for haying, and the first lucerne crop is now all cut except in the more elevated valleys. Rain is anxiously looked for by nearly everybody, especially in the southern section, where streams are very low and stock ranges dry."

What is now heading out in the coldest and latest sections. The prospects are still good for plentiful crops in favored sections; light crops in other sections probably a general average of three-fourths the usual yield.

STABBED TO THE HEART. "Pony" Anderson Kills Himself with a Bread Knife. He Was a Houseboat at the Sullivan House and the Cause of His Death Act is Unknown.

"Pony" Anderson, who has been employed as a houseboat at the Sullivan house, near the Rio Grande Western depot, for several years, committed suicide last evening by stabbing himself through the heart.

It seems that shortly before 6 o'clock Anderson was seen by a waiter girl in the kitchen of the hotel, and at that time he had in his hand a bread knife, the long blade of which had been ground down until it was quite narrow. The next seen of him was at about 6 o'clock, when one of the employees of the house opened the kitchen door and saw Anderson lying on the ground, his breast covered with blood, and in a dying condition.

The wounded man was taken into the house and medical aid was at once summoned, but he expired in a few minutes without speaking.

An examination of the body revealed a wound about half an inch wide and one and a half inches long, which was found near the man, a suspicion of foul play was aroused, and it was hinted that the deceased might have had a difficulty with some other employe and been stabbed. One of the waiter girls soon found in the kitchen the bread knife which was seen in Anderson's hands being bent and stained with blood; so that from all the facts now known, it would seem that he stabbed himself with it in the kitchen and then stepped out doors, and there does not appear to be anything to justify a suspicion of foul play.

Coroner Taylor arrived on the scene shortly after the man died, and the body was taken to Evans' undertaking establishment on State street, where an inquest will be held this afternoon.

Anderson was about 45 years of age and had resided in this city for a number of years. Office Suptes, who formerly had the Rio Grande boat, was well acquainted with the deceased and knows as much about him as any one. Anderson told the office Suptes, who formerly had the Rio Grande boat, was well acquainted with the deceased and knows as much about him as any one. AMUSEMENTS. ROBERT GAYLOR AS "SPORT M'ALLISTER." The eccentric Irish comedian, Robert Gaylor, begins an engagement of two nights at the theatre tonight in his farcical comedy, "Sport McAllister, One of the 400." His appearance here as a dramatic star has been heralded by the praise of the leading New York papers, and a triumph may be safely predicted. An excellent company of well known farce comedy stars has been engaged by Manager Gaylor to support Mr. Gaylor, and the roster contains the names of America's best comedienne and twenty-two in all of artistic repute, all of whom appeared with Comedia Gaylor during his famous run of over fifty consecutive nights at the Bijou theatre, New York.

Robert Mantell, the romantic actor, plays "Nightingale" Monday night. The sale of seats begins at the box office this morning. The regular popular prices will prevail.
