

THE THEATRICAL WORLD.

Fanny Davenport's Engagement Will Be Long Remembered.

THE COMING ATTRACTIONS.

THE HOWARD ATHENAEUM COMPANY AND LOTTIE COLLINS.

David Henderson's "Sinbad" Will Open Next Thursday Evening.

The past week at the theatre will be long remembered by our theatre goers. Everybody was there, and no one seeing "Sinbad" presented by Fanny Davenport, can easily forget it.

The emotions and intellect have their wants fully satisfied in the repetition of the oft-told story of Antony and Cleopatra by Miss Davenport, Mr. McDowell and the other players.

"Fedora," which was the bill Monday night drew a large house.

Tomorrow evening and Tuesday evening, the Howard Athenaeum company, will be at the theatre, presenting one of their high class Vaudeville performances.

David Henderson's "Sinbad," with all its splendor of coloring, its gorgeous ensemble ballet effects, its pretty girls, its sprightly dancers, clever singers, and funny comedians, will appear at the Salt Lake theatre next Thursday evening.

"The Voyage of Sinbad," recently presented in New York, has set all the critics a-buzzing over its peculiar structure, being at once farce, opera-bouffe, circus, acrobatic show and melodrama.

It is with much pleasure that I chronicle the testimonial concert to be given Prof. Thomas Radcliffe at the Congregational church, next Thursday evening.

Sting Gossip. Peter F. Dalley, in his amusing comedy, "A Country Sport," has been well received in New York.

Richard Reed has recovered his health sufficiently to resume his tour on January 15, in Nashville, Tenn.

The title of W. C. Hudson's new melodrama, which is to be produced in February, is "A Man Among Men."

The tragedian, Thomas W. Keene, is writing a series of articles for one of the magazines, entitled "Reminiscences of the Stage."

Fanny Rice has written a waltz song entitled "I Love You," which Frank Jones is singing with success in "Miss Innocence Abroad."

The one hundredth consecutive performance of "Charles's Aunt" was celebrated at the Standard Theatre, New York, December 30.

Bobby Gaylor, who has been laid up with the grippe, is convalescing. Joe Kelly has been playing Mr. Gaylor's part, and giving satisfaction.

An English paper claims that Fritz Young has perfected the feat of putting on a pair of slippers during the turning of a rack somersault.

Richard Mansfield has been notified by his London agent that Henry Irving has secured the English rights to play "The Merchant of Venice" at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden.

"Minstrelsy" has not lost all its old-time popularity, as has been proven by the good business which is attending the performances of Lew Dockstader's minstrel.

Louis Aldrich has persuaded a number of Philadelphia managers to impose a tax of 10 cents on each complimentary ticket issued, the receipts to go to the Actor's Fund.

John L. Sullivan is now starring in a play called, "The Man from Boston," in which a scene is introduced which gives Mr. Sullivan a chance to demonstrate that he can still fight better than he can act.

Mrs. John Drew and her company are now playing "The Road to Ruin" in New York. Thus far her business has been good. It is to be hoped that she may continue to receive the appreciation she deserves.

The principal features of the Countess of Aberdeen's Irish Village at the World's fair have combined with a large vaudeville and dramatic company, and are touring Pennsylvania, Indiana, and Illinois under the name of Patsy Branigan's "Irish Village."

John Drew will make a long stay in New York. He will appear in "The Masked Ball," produce Henry Guy Carlton's play "The Butterflies," and follow that by a comedy from the pen of Victorian Sardou which has just reached him. After this season, Manager Freeman intends to limit Mr. Drew's tour to New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and Baltimore.

A production of "The Bohemian Girl" was given at the Drury Lane Theatre, London, England, November 17, last, to commemorate the first production of the opera, that being its fiftieth anniversary. The theatre was filled to its utmost capacity and a repetition of all the favorite numbers of the opera was demanded.

Grand opera and the famous Chicago spectacle, "America," are being alternated at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York. For instance, "Carmen" was given Christmas night, Mozart's "Don Giovanni," Dec. 27, Gounod's "Faust" on the 28th, Verdi's "Rigoletto" 29th, and a repetition of "Carmen" at the matinee 30th. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings being filled with "America."

"The Voyage of Sinbad," recently produced in New York, is described on the programme as a spectacular comedy. It was originally given in Paris as an opera bouffe, and as such it was acceptable. The lines are very poor, although the story is novel and fairly good.

At the close of a performance of "The New South," in Brooklyn, December 23, which was attended by the Standard Post, G. A. R., a handsome stand of colors was presented to the veterans on behalf of the family of the late Colonel W. W. Stephenson, after whom the post was named. General Horatio C. King made the presentation speech and the ceremony closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Miss Alice Penrose, who recently recited "The First Christmas Story" before the Scandinavian society in this city, proved a genuine surprise to the audience, and held their auditors spellbound from beginning to end.

The Bostonians have a new "Maid Marian" for "Robin Hood" in Miss Margaretta. Miss Reid made her debut in grand opera, but being of slight physique she has wisely chosen the less laborious field of English opera.

Patrons of Wonderland will heartily welcome the announcement of the interesting attractions for the week commencing Thursday, January 11.

The violin virtuoso, Marteau, is receiving the highest commendations from the eastern press. It is probable that he will visit this city during his tour.

Mr. Burlev and Mr. Thomas, tenors, and Mr. Brown, basses, are recent additions to the choir at St. Mark's. That choir is doing excellent work.

The Herald quartette did some good service in the Democratic campaign by their original campaign songs last week. They sang at all the Democratic precinct rallies in the city.

Mr. H. S. Krouse, assisted by Miss Jeanie Winslow, will give an opera in the near future. The past success of these artists is an assurance of their success in this, as well as all, musical enterprises.

The Treble Clef society will meet hereafter at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoons and the rehearsals will last an hour and a half. The place of meeting will be the same. The society will probably give a public entertainment next month.

Mr. Willard Weihe was persuaded to play two of his best pieces at the close of the art reception on Tuesday evening. The great number of the guests had gone by that time and will regret having missed the opportunity to hear that artist.

The Choral society will meet in the new quarters at Coulter & Snelgrove's hall tomorrow evening and will at once begin rehearsals for an "Evening With the German Masters" which will be given publicly in the course of a month. There will be an opening for alto, tenors and basses.

A testimonial concert will be given in honor of Professor Radcliffe at the First Congregational church on Thursday, the ladies of that church are managing the affair and have secured the services of Miss Winston, Miss Luens, Mrs. Davis, Miss Phares, Mr. W. C. Clark and other prominent musicians. The Neapolitan Quintette will also appear.

The Musicians' union will hold its regular monthly meeting today at the Parker-Christensen hall. A leading member of the union says the report is that that body is losing ground is a great mistake. Its membership is not so large as when the union was organized, but it retains its best material, and will continue to flourish on the principle of "the survival of the fittest."

"The Crimson Scarf" a beautiful opera will be given at the Eighteenth street hall toward the end of the month. Mr. H. S. Krouse will have charge of the music and Mr. H. G. Whitney of the cast and general management. The cast will include six singers of whom four have already been chosen. Miss Jennie Winston, Mrs. Jennie Hawley-Woodrow, Mr. George D. Pyper and Mr. John D. Spencer.

The Grand Concert orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Willard Weihe, is of recent organization but is one of the strongest musical bodies in the city. It is made up of twenty musicians who practise every Sunday for two hours simply for improvement in their art, but we will doubtless hear them at a public performance before the close of the season. At present the orchestra is practicing the overture to Wagner's "Rienzi," and several other classical compositions.

A Point for You. In view of what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others, is it not reasonable to suppose that it will be of benefit to you? For scrofula, salt rheum, and all other diseases of the blood, for dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, catarrh, malaria, rheumatism, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy.

Moderate charges, payable by easy installments, and as low as can be made, using only the best-severe case requires specially prepared treatment. Thousands of cases cured with no time lost from business. Experience is important. Five years practice in Salt Lake City. No mercury used. Safe time-trial remedy. Home treatment. Persons afflicted with a disease treated by mail and express, successfully, by answering all symptoms on question list. Medicine, compounded at my own laboratory, promptly sent everywhere, securely packed free from observation.

MANY MEN Are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation in passing the urine, in a manner that causes the most annoying of results. On examining the urinary deposit, aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes particles of albumen will appear, or the color of a thin milk like, again changing to a dark or turbid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficult condition, and as few as can be made, of second stage of venereal weakness. The doctor will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and health restoration of the genital-urinary organs.

It is usually the result of Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Masturbation, or sometimes venereal disease, and is often congenital. It is an inflammation, which causes the closing up of the stricture in the urethral canal, obstructing the flow of urine, and rendering the sufferer the most miserable of mortals. We permanently cure Stricture by a painless and effective method, without the use of knife, caustic, or dilation, and with no detention from business. Send 25 cents in stamps for Book (TO YOUNG, MIDDLE-AGED AND OLD MEN), also Sympptom List on which to get a full history of Disease, etc. State your case and get terms for a curative course of treatment. Secrecy observed either in person or by mail. A friendly letter or call may save you this suffering and shame, and will cost you nothing. Give one personal interview if possible.

OUR SUCCESS is especially studied, thus starting bright. Third--Medicine are prepared in our laboratory, exactly to suit each case, thus effecting a cure without injury.

I MAY OBSERVE That those who wish to pay for advice or assistance may confidently do so without hesitation or diffidence, as the result of my long and extensive and respectable professional reputation.
