INHUMAN ACTION.

Southern Pacific Is Once More
Roundly Scored.

ACTION OF GOVERNOR
HOGG COMMENDED.

Coxey's Army Is Well Received in Salem, Ohio.

Fifteen Hundred Members of the Industrial
Army Will Come from the Sound Country—Write
Refuses to Endorse Coxey - Fry's
Contingent Leaves Dallas, Texas, in a
Special Train of Five Coaches—Another Detachment at De Soto, Missouri.

Dallas, Texas, March 29.—At a meeting of the Central industrial council of Texas, a strong labor organization, held at Dallas, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily commend the action of Governor James S. Hogg in the stand he has taken in defense of the men known as "Fry's industrial army," whom the Southern Pacific Railway company has chosen to haul into the state and dump in the heart of an arid desert, there to die of thirst and starvation.

BROWN GROWS WARM.

Misrepresented by Argus-Eyed Demons of Hell.

Columbiana, Ohio, March 29.—Coxey has rejoined his army. The colonel is enjoying a big boom. The farmers' allies provided him with loads of provisions, and a lot of wood. In a speech, during one of the army's stops today, Carl Brown said he was being misrepresented by forty argus-eyed demons of hell who were all around him. He meant the reporters, and he has issued orders to put the newspaper men out of camp.

Had Good Times at Salem.

Salem, O., March 29.—Coxey's army passed a pleasant night in two halls set aside for their accommodation. They breakfasted on coffee, bread and jelly, while the officers had pies and cake. This caused grumbling among the rank and file, but Coxey was quick to allay the grumblings. Snow has fallen all night making the roads between Salem and Columbus very uninviting. As Coxey did not arrive on the morning train, orders were given and the start was made at 10 with fourteen new recruits who joined at breakfast. Provision delivery being established along the route and surplus supplies being shipped ahead, the snow continued to fall throughout the morning.

Tacoma Will Contribute.

Tacoma, Wash., March 29.—According to statements of a leading Populist, there are in Tacoma and Seattle over 1,500 members of the industrial army. Some time ago a man representing himself as an organizer of this order, was in this city, and it is said gained a number of recruits. One man who claims to be a member, says that instructions have been received from headquarters that will start the contingent from the sound counties toward Washington. The route taken will be over the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways.

Veritable Tramps.

Austin, Tex., March 29.—Nothing startling has been heard today concerning the industrial army at Sierra Blanca. Reports from that place have been greatly exaggerated as to numbers and the men with the possible exception of thirty or forty, are said to be veritable tramps on their annual spring march from the sunny south to the north, where they will remain until next winter. Reliable information received today asserts there is not over a dozen men in the whole gang who want work or will work if it is offered.

They Are Riding Now.

Dallas, Texas, March 29.—A telegram to the Times-Herald from Sierra Blanca, Texas, says: A special train of five coaches and two baggage cars left here at 1 o'clock this morning with General Fry's first regiment of the industrial army on board. The train is being escorted by Captain Cunningham, who will join the regiment at Valentine, which place they reached day before yesterday. The train is expected to reach San Antonio tonight.

Interest Increasing.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 29.—Reports from near-by towns indicate that interest in Coxey's army is steadily increasing. It is stated about 200 men are camped along Redbank and that the northern cities along the Allegheny river will come bringing supplies with them.

Marched Through Mud.

Letonia, O., March 29.—On the road to Letonia the commandant marched through mud six inches deep. Letonia turned out a mounted committee of twenty citizens to welcome the army. Food was provided for 350 and what the army of ninety-seven could not eat was placed in the wagons.

Detachment at De Soto.

De Soto, Mo., March 29.—Coxey's commonwealth army has a detachment in camp here. They arrived last night 105 strong, and will leave today to join the main army. They form a hard looking band, and are well equipped.

Will Not Endorse Coxey.

Denver, Colo., March 29.—Governor Waite has refused a request to endorse Coxey's movement and issue a call for the unemployed of Denver to march to Washington.

TROUBLES AT BLUEFIELDS.

New Orleans, March 29.—Two vessels arrived here today from Bluefields, Nicaragua.

United States Consul Seale and Mr. West, with the latest advice, will leave for Washington tomorrow. Mr. John McCauley, a wealthy planter of Bluefields, in a letter to the Picayune, after describing the occurrences in Bluefields during the temporary occupation of the British marines, says: "No sooner had the British marines been withdrawn, and the vessel steamed away, than the very unreliable and incapable Lacayo brought thirty soldiers and several boxes of arms and ammunition from Rama."

This was in direct violation of an agreement entered into by and between Lacayo and the United States consul, Hon. S. C. Braid, that Nicaraguan soldiers would not be put on the police force during the absence of the British marines, and the presence of these Nicaraguans on the river steamer created great excitement.

In less than ten minutes, 1,000 American citizens, armed with revolvers, appeared. It was a trying moment. Owing, however, to the timely action of the American minister, Lacayo was able to escape in the nick of time. He himself to confine his intruders to his residence. If a shot had been fired, there would not have been a Nicaraguan left alive in Bluefields. Within five minutes thereafter, including Lacayo, who beyond doubt deserves to be shot for the many outrages he had perpetrated against the American citizens.

"A general meeting of citizens was then convened, when the action of the citizens was endorsed. No assistance will be rendered to Lacayo and the Americans shall remain neutral pending the arrival of a United States warship, unless it becomes necessary to defend their homes and property, and even then they will be directed by the United States consul.

"I must here allude to that, owing to the perfidy of Lacayo, and hypocritical antagonism of the British consul, Hon. S. C. Braid has been subjected to a most trying ordeal and more especially as he has received no instructions from the government in connection with the matter connected with the unsatisfactory condition of affairs here, and for which Lacayo is responsible.

"The regular order, the Joy-O'Neil contested election case, was then taken up and the filibuster against the seating of O'Neil was resumed.

Building Tactics of the Enemy Met and Promptly Overcome—Reed Insists, But is Told to Take His Seat—Republicans Refuse to Serve as Tellers, So a Lone Democrat Does the Work—One of the Wildest Scenes Ever Occurring in the House.

Washington, March 29.—When the House met at noon today, a feverish antagonism against the speaker, Hon. S. C. Braid, had been subjected to a most trying ordeal and more especially as he has received no instructions from the government in connection with the matter connected with the unsatisfactory condition of affairs here, and for which Lacayo is responsible.

The regular order, the Joy-O'Neil contested election case, was then taken up and the filibuster against the seating of O'Neil was resumed.

At 1:50, while the roll of the House was being called, Mr. Pruden, the president's executive clerk, appeared at the bar of the House and transmitted the president's special message vetoing the Bland seigniorage bill.

Mr. McKelghan (Populist), of Nevada, cast the other negative vote. Then came more filibustering, and Mr. Patterson moved to suspend the speaker and instruct the sergeant-at-arms to take the absentees into custody. The order, according to the resolution, was to continue in force from day to day until vacated.

Mr. Reed attempted to make the point that a quorum was necessary to adopt a resolution suspending the speaker in force beyond adjournment, but the speaker overruled him, holding that it was plainly within the power of less than a quorum to adopt means to compel the attendance of absentees.

McGARRAHAN BILL PASSES.

Session of the Senate Shorter Than Breakridge's Constancy.

Washington, March 29.—After the introduction and reference of several unimportant bills, a resolution of the Senate took up the bill proposing the limitation of time for completion of title to coral lands disposed of under the act of Congress known as the "donation act," and for the protection of purchasers and occupants of the lands which are situated in the state of Washington, Oregon and Idaho. The bill was passed by a vote of 70 to 20.

While the sheriff and captain were conferring, a mob invaded the armory and took away the company's guns.

Governor Tillman then procured a special train, and ordered the Sumpter light infantry to the scene, but before they started quail was restored. The mob was composed of the best citizens, and there will be further serious trouble if the spies insist upon searching houses.

T., today, a posse of United States officers and a gang of horse thieves had a pitched battle, lasting over an hour and resulting, after an exchange of over a hundred shots, in the wounding and capture of Dick Wilson, and the escape of the rest of the gang. There were fifteen in the gang, but the capture of all is considered a certainty.

PROSPECT OF TROUBLE BETWEEN THE FACTIONS IN DENVER.

Denver, Colo., March 29.—Late this afternoon, Judge Glynn, sitting for the district court, issued an order for an injunction restraining the old police board from interfering with the new board pending the settlement of the controversy between the two boards in the courts on the quo warranto proceedings.

Police and Fire Departments Are Tied Up, and Even the Sheriff

The sheriff is also enjoined from taking a hand in the controversy. As Judge Allen's injunction restrains the new board from interfering with the old board, the two injunctions leave the city in almost the same state as martial law would.

TOOK AWAY THEIR RECEIPTS.

Omaha, Neb., March 29.—Judge Caldwell's action in the Union Pacific wage case this afternoon rather took the breath out of the receivers. Specific objections to the provisions demanded by the engineers and trainmen are made. There is no coming together on the main points of continuing the wages paid on a weekly basis. Mr. Clark suggests that the matter be referred to an expert railroad man for adjustment. Judge Caldwell decided to hear it.
