

the coinage laws of 1873, there was nothing in the relative values of silver and gold to justify it. This is not the only cause, but is one reason why the commercial value of silver is not more than it is. In prosperous times, we could safely use a large amount of silver, always providing for its convertibility into money which does not get its value from the law. The honorable secretary of the interior, Hoke Smith, said in a speech that the bullion in the treasury was being coined as fast as the mints could do it, which would increase our circulation to the extent of $55,000,000. It would seem to mean that the bullion in the treasury, including coinage, is being coined.

ALL RESORTS THROGGED.

Cleveland Agitated. Washington, April 13.—The interest the administration takes in the campaign against the free silver movement is undisputed. The letter which President Cleveland is preparing to send to the Chicago business men in reply to their invitation to deliver an address upon the currency is no less emphatic than the one he addressed to the chamber of commerce of New York early in 1893, although it is probable that he will go more into details and more explicitly state the reasons for his opposition to the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1.

MOVEMENTS OF SOME OF THE ROYAL FAMILY.

Parliament Will Meet Again on April 22.—Political Situation Charged With Electricity and a Rupture Between the Conservatives and Liberal Unionists is Predicted.—The Latter Are Becoming Alarmed—American Hopes in London.

London, April 13.—[Copyrighted, 1895, by the Associated Press.]—There was general exodus from London on Thursday last, everybody who could do so hurrying away to the country or seaside for the Easter holidays. The fashionable houses of the metropolis are, as a rule, closed for the present, and Brighton and other seaside resorts are packed with holiday makers. The princess of Wales has abandoned her contemplated journey to Denmark, where she was to visit her parents and, instead a family party, including the duke and duchess of York, and the duke and duchess of Devon, has assembled at Sandringham for the Easter holidays.

Secretary Carlisle will deliver two speeches on the subject of currency, but largely devoted to silver. He will probably speak once in Kentucky and once in Tennessee early in May. His Kentucky speech may be delivered at Louisville, although there have been reports from his old home in Covington to talk to the people there. In Tennessee he will speak at Memphis or Nashville. Other members of the cabinet will also speak on the silver question, although no place has been fixed on. They believe that a campaign of education on the money question will have the effect of checking the movement to ward free silver. They believe has become a serious menace to the integrity of the Democratic party.

Left For Denver.

Chicago, April 13.—The free silver party has headquarters at Chicago today. This morning General A. J. Warner, chairman of the national committee, and Congressman Joe Sibley, arrived and were met by Charles Miller, Sibley's business partner; Colonel Turner, leader of the free silver party in Michigan; and General Wallcut. This afternoon they were joined by Senator Jones of Nevada, and tonight they will leave for the west.

Those Growing Differences.

Parliament will not meet again until April 22, which may give time for a change in the political atmosphere. The situation is now charged with electricity and a rupture between the conservative and the liberal unionists is predicted.

There are growing differences in policy between the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, the conservative leader in the house of commons, and the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, the leader of the liberal unionists. The latter is known to be alarmed at the leanings of his own party toward what is known here as "fair trade."

Those who are in charge of the string of American horses belonging to Mr. Dwyer of New York, which are now in active training at Newmarket, for a number of important events of the racing season here, are reticent concerning the date of their first appearance in public. But the American horses are beginning to be looked upon with more respect than when they first landed in England at the end of January last.

Carson Shortage.

Rest of the 23-First Assistant Melter and Refiner.

It is believed that the Secret Service Agents have drawn the Lines Very Closely Around Him—His Conviction Almost Certain.

Chicago, April 13.—The chief of the secret service of the treasury reports that investigation into the shortage at the Carson mint had culminated today in the arrest of a man, who is believed to be responsible for one of the most skillfully contrived plans to defraud the government ever known. The man, whose name is not given, was arrested at Carson, Nev., on April 13.—Have arrested John P. Jones, ex-first assistant melter and refiner at Carson City, this day for feloniously taking and carrying away gold and silver medals, property of the United States, of the value of $75,000. Defendant in custody of the United States marshal. HARRIS.

More to Come.

Carson, Nev., April 13.—John T. Jones was arrested this afternoon on complaint of Special Agent Harris, charged with taking $75,000 from the mint. Ball was fixed at $25,000. Henry, another suspect in San Francisco, has hired W. W. Foster to defend him, with William Woodburn assisting. Jones says he will, with M. Verington, ex-Governor Colorado, John Rossier and Leslie Bell, besides. Four more complaints are on foot. The preliminary examination comes off Thursday before Judge Hawley.

One Man Dead and One Shot Through the Hand—A Woman in the Case.

Denver, April 13.—A special to the Times from Rock Springs, Wyoming, says: Charles McDougall, deputy sheriff, was shot and instantly killed by Bartender Wayne Rose, in George Hartman's saloon about 2 p. m. today. The bartender accused McDougall of being too intimate with the former's wife. They began shooting at each other. McDougall received a wound in the right breast, from the effects of which he died in an hour. The bartender was shot through the left hand.

JUDGE GROSUP ILL.

WITH THE SPORTS

London, April 13.—The freight arranged for tonight between Frank Craig, the "Harrowed Coffee Cooler," and Ted Turner has been abandoned owing to the latter's illness. Pritchard pays forfeit and Craig thereby becomes the middleweight champion of England, which title he declares he will defend against all comers. John O'Brien, who was defeated by the "Coffee Cooler" a few months ago, will meet the latter tonight at catch weights. Craig is a resident of the United States previous to settling permanently in England.

A SHOWER OF WORMS.

Alliance, O., April 13.—During the heavy storm last night millions of angle worms fell, making the pavements so slippery that it was nearly impossible to walk on them. The storm caused landslides 200 feet long in Gardahl cut of the Fort Wayne railroad.
