London Wool Sales—Philadelphia Wool—Western Live Stock Market Shows Symptom with the Speculation Chicago Grain Market Again Stirred Up—High Movement of Frisco Wheat.

New York, April 30.—The result of today's speculation on the stock exchange is a very general depreciation in values.

At the opening trade was fairly active, but prices as a rule were lower and in the early dealings a further decline took place.

In wheat the strangers suffered most, the active list receding 1/8 to 1/4 per cent.

Leather shares were prominent and rose 1 per cent for the common and 1 1/2 per cent for the preferred.

The latter, however, quickly reacted and fell at the end of the day.

A buying movement was developed in the Industrials, in which General Electric was most prominent.

Consolidated Gas, 1/2; Leather, preferred, 1/4; Sugar, 1/4; and Chicago Gas 1/4.

The improvement in the railway list was the small fraction.

many, many times, if you could put packages of Pearline that have been used in a line all the millions of packages, to millions of different women; each one of these women probably just as particular about her washing as you are.

They've no fault to find) SPAIN with it, but are using more and more of it every day; doesn't all this move you to try it for yourself, and see if you won't be just as well pleased? Crossing the ocean is easier, and quicker, and safer, than it was fifteen years ago. So is washing clothes. The latter is due to Pearline.

Send it Back. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "this is as good as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, or sent you anything in a box, unless it is the genuine Pearline.

than any comedy ever presented at this popular theatre. The high esteem in which Madge Carr Cooke is held as an artist, was fully demonstrated by the applause which greeted her return after a week's absence.

Miss Kingsley as the blind girl, Miss Leigh as the pure-minded mother of Douglas were each admirable. To-night's performance of "Young Mrs. Winthrop" by Tom Ricketts, "Mothers" will be placed upon the boards.
