

SUFFRAGE CONVENTION.

Two Splendid Meetings at the Joint Building.

NOTED WOMEN PRESENT.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT BOTH SESSIONS.

Governor West Presents Miss Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw—Representatives from Colorado Present—A Number of Interesting Addresses Made—The Programme for Today.

The National Woman's Suffrage Association of Utah held a meeting yesterday morning and another at 8 p. m. at the city and county building in the room recently vacated by the framers of the constitution.

It was a gala day in the lives of Utah's public-spirited women, who showed their earnestness to watch the proceedings by taking up the full seating capacity of the hall.

Among those who occupied the platform were the following: Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw, Mrs. E. B. Wells, Mrs. M. C. Bradford, Mrs. Bullock, of Provo, Mrs. M. Isabella Howe, Mrs. Amelia Young, Mrs. Rogers, of Davis, Mrs. F. S. Richards, Mrs. A. H. Thacker, of Salt Lake, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. E. S. Taylor, Mrs. Bathsheba W. Smith, Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford and Mrs. L. M. Stansbury, both of Colorado, Mrs. E. Allen, Mrs. John McKiever and Mrs. Dr. Ferguson.

Miss Anthony was introduced by Governor West in a neat and well-ordered speech, and the famous woman suffragist returned the compliment of the generalship of the meeting. Her easy and graceful way of handling the convention and her always appropriate and apt remarks, carried away the speakers, showed the hand of one familiar with such matters. Mrs. E. B. Wells, president of the Utah association, acted as the emcee for the occasion and won from one of the speakers the title of being an "impersonation of executive ability."

The Rev. Anna Shaw completely charmed the audience by her winning eloquence. Her speeches are always facetious and were full of pungent, but good-natured, wit. The speaker ex. The convention, according to Miss Anthony, is in the nature of a solicitation, and it is apparent that the prospect of being able to vote has put the people in a very good humor.

The proceedings. The convention was called to order at about 10:30 by Mrs. E. B. Wells, president of the Utah woman's suffrage association. The Rev. Miss Shaw offered prayer.

Governor West Speaks. Governor West then introduced Miss Anthony to the convention. He said he was glad that this city had been chosen as the place for the convention because the convention that had just closed, prompted by the spirit of the people, had wisely engrafted in its organic law a provision giving equal rights to women. It is therefore meet that they should counsel together on a subject near the hearts of so many of the women of this city.

Miss Anthony followed in a brief speech, which was listened to with close attention. The Women Congratulated. Miss Anthony said this was the second occasion in which a governor had favored her with an address of introduction. Both the national and state convention in states which have given the guarantee of woman suffrage in their organic and primal law. The governors of Pennsylvania and New York had not yet done so.

Colorado's Representatives. Mrs. Stansbury said that Colorado owed thanks to Utah for what it had done for Colorado. It will doubtless be more difficult to secure the ballot than it will be in using it. Whatever else the women may do in Colorado, their votes will be cast untrammelled.

Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, of the same state, said that it was somewhat confusing to be introduced as a defeated candidate. (Laughter.) The next morning Mrs. M. C. Bradford, of the same state, said that it was somewhat confusing to be introduced as a defeated candidate. (Laughter.)

Mrs. William Ferry spoke gloriously of what women were achieving in the land. Mrs. M. C. Bradford, of the same state, said that it was somewhat confusing to be introduced as a defeated candidate. (Laughter.)

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

Mrs. M. I. Horne. One of the early pioneers in this valley, said that she was full of joy to think that the long struggles of the Utah women were to be rewarded. Suffrage was tried many years ago and the older women of Utah know that it was a success. Women's love and nobility will only be enhanced by giving them the freedom of choice to which they were entitled.

west she was delighted with the opportunity, and now felt, as the Methodist said in prayer meetings, when they come to a tight place and can think of nothing else, "It is good to be here." (Laughter.)

Men Dissatisfied. Men seem to be dissatisfied with the feminine sex because God did not consult them when he created woman. When the man was made, he was thought to wake him up and ask his advice. (Laughter.) The difficulty is that men have done all the legislating for women. The present dress of women was not made by God, but by an evil genius—a man-dressmaker in Paris. (Laughter.) Women should have a voice in making the laws under which they are to live. When women become self-responsible and free as men the better it will be for all.

No One's Business. The question is frequently asked, "What will women do with the ballot?" No one can tell how his neighbor will use it, she said, emphatically, "I'll use it as I please, and it will be no one's business. It can safely be told, however, how the aggregate of women's votes will tend. It will be for the best interests of the home, of society and of the development of individual character. Men's function will continue to be to look after the wool, lumber and the pig iron. Men will look to the aggregate good of the state while women will look to the moral elevation of the home and the community, and this will always be the natural tendency.

Not Good to Be Alone. The reason that men have been imperfect as legislators and lawmakers is because God said it was not good for man to do things alone. The co-operation of a body on one side as on the other.

Coin Furnishes an Illustration. When she and Miss Anthony had learned they were coming west they began reading up on coin's financial history. An ideal home cannot be made with out woman and an ideal state cannot be built without her. And Professor Elliot, of Harvard university, says the home is the top rock of a state. He is inconsistent, however, like most men who inveigh against woman suffrage.

Will Get on the Throne. Women have been fed upon sentiment and poetry and have been told that they are the power behind the throne. Like Queen Lil they have come to think that it is much better than being behind the throne to be on the throne. (Laughter and applause.)

Spouses Who Differ. It was claimed, she said, that women will vote with their husbands. She had not voted with her spouse. He is a Republican and she is a Democrat. There is something decidedly unique about sitting opposite a life partner at table who is diametrically opposed to one in political faith. It is the spice and variety of life. (Applause.)

Men as Cooks and Dressmakers. In earlier days cooking and washing was almost entirely in the hands of women. Now men monopolize the trade. The next morning Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

Women Want Suffrage. Many women have claimed that to give women the suffrage would be thrusting upon them something they do not want. It is not a question of what they do not want, but of what they do want. They have brought in petitions signed by thousands of women, and still they were met by the same chestnut. Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, said that if a position were created in which he would be converted and the Sun would be theirs. Miss Anthony and her colleagues got names of New York citizens to the number of hundreds of thousands. The next morning Mr. Dana came out with an editorial in bold head lines: "When Will the Women Vote?" and coming after in heavier type was an account of the woman's liberation. (Applause and laughter.) He had gone back to his wallow. (Applause.)

GRIFFIN WAXED WARM.

County Court Disregards Rules in Letting of Contracts.

LOW BIDS DO NOT COUNT.

YESTERDAY'S ACTION COMMENTED ON BY A WELL-KNOWN BIDDER.

He May Ask the District Court to Enjoin the Selection from Making a Contract With Taylor & Jensen—The Guardians of the Selections Abandon Their Charges—Jack Delaney is Here Ready to Answer All Questions—Various Matters Presented.

It has been decided by the county court that work for the county should not be let to the lowest bidder, but that it shall be given to the man who lives nearest the job, no matter whether he is the lowest or not.

At least that is the conclusion one would reach after witnessing the exhibition yesterday.

It will be remembered that recently the court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

The court asked for bids for the sprinkling the roads outside the city limits. The first bid which was received were thrown out, for reasons which the court did not state. The clerk was instructed to re-advertise and on Saturday last another lot of offers were received from various parties to the same end.

OUR ROYAL VISITOR.

PRINCE FRANCIS JOSEPH OF BATTENBERG, IN TOWN.

Accompanied by a Number of Distinguished Personages—A Trip to See the Organ Recital at the Tabernacle and a Visit to the Alta Club.

Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg, accompanied by his suite, arrived here yesterday over the Union Pacific.

Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg, accompanied by his suite, arrived here yesterday over the Union Pacific. He was met at the depot by a number of distinguished visitors, and accompanied them to the city. The party is made up of the following persons: Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg and valet, Mr. Thomas Salt and valet, Colonel E. Townsend, late Second Lieut. Guards; Lieutenant G. Mansell, Royal Navy; Sir Bruce Burnside, late chief justice of the court; Mr. Bertram Burnside, Mr. Harcourt Paine, private secretary to the prince; Mr. Knutsford, and a little later drove over the city, visiting all points of interest.

Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg, accompanied by his suite, arrived here yesterday over the Union Pacific. He was met at the depot by a number of distinguished visitors, and accompanied them to the city. The party is made up of the following persons: Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg and valet, Mr. Thomas Salt and valet, Colonel E. Townsend, late Second Lieut. Guards; Lieutenant G. Mansell, Royal Navy; Sir Bruce Burnside, late chief justice of the court; Mr. Bertram Burnside, Mr. Harcourt Paine, private secretary to the prince; Mr. Knutsford, and a little later drove over the city, visiting all points of interest.

Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg, accompanied by his suite, arrived here yesterday over the Union Pacific. He was met at the depot by a number of distinguished visitors, and accompanied them to the city. The party is made up of the following persons: Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg and valet, Mr. Thomas Salt and valet, Colonel E. Townsend, late Second Lieut. Guards; Lieutenant G. Mansell, Royal Navy; Sir Bruce Burnside, late chief justice of the court; Mr. Bertram Burnside, Mr