

THE CAUSE OF SUFFRAGE

Two Sessions Held at the Assembly Hall.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS.

SEVERAL INTERESTING ADDRESSES MADE BY THE LADIES.

Miss Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw Give the Utah Workers Good Advice—The Delegates Had an Enjoyable Trip to Saltair in the Afternoon.

The prime movers in and sympathizers with the National Woman's Suffrage Association of Utah came together yesterday morning and evening in the Assembly hall which had been secured for their future deliberations. The attendance, though good, was not as heavy as had been anticipated, but those who did attend showed much enthusiasm and seemed to have caught some of the vim and zeal of Miss Anthony and her eloquent colleague, Rev. Anna Shaw. Mrs. Wells was on duty as usual as first lieutenant and on the stand were assembled a large number of local ladies of note, as well as prominent workers in the suffrage cause from the outside counties.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Anthony, at 10:30. Prayer was offered by Mrs. E. S. Taylor.

The time was largely devoted to receiving reports from representatives of the various counties.

Mrs. Dr. Ferguson reports progress. Mrs. Dr. Ferguson said that she stood before the people to represent the Salt Lake county delegation which was in a flourishing condition, while the prospects for the future were very bright. It was strange that the emblem of liberty in this splendid republic was the statue of a woman, whose brow was wreathed with the laurels of freedom. Yet women are barred from using the ballot. The many stalwart men who stood in the convention for equal suffrage until the victory was won had earned the lasting gratitude of all women.

The work in Weber. Mrs. Hubbard, of Weber, said the work in that county was progressing favorably, and the prospect was full of hope for women.

Mrs. Pardee's next speech. Mrs. A. J. Pardee said that one of the greatest stumbling blocks in the way of women who would otherwise wish to vote was the refusal of men to women "keeping silent" in the churches. It is a great pleasure to learn that women are about to get out a woman's edition of the Bible, in which these passages are omitted. A recent article in a leading magazine says that conjugal bliss will be an iridescent dream if women become politically independent. This is not only a stock argument of those opposed to suffrage. Men idealize the domestic woman and when they have her secure, leave her for the club and the saloon. A woman's great attraction should be the light of intelligence and not the intelligence to become a domestic vessel. "The hero, Roberts," in his great oration, said that "liberty will bring all the checks that are needed."

Miss Anthony admonished the women to be at home to study the principal laws and institutions of the republic of liberty. In this study they should be the leaders of men, and become their superior in knowledge. Mrs. Anthony gave an elaborate explanation of the financial workings of the National association and advised that the auxiliary societies raise funds for their own support and contribute also to the national council. In this respect, Utah should be the banner state. Women should be ready to become an independent factor so that their good policy demands they can get their united forces on the right side. The speaker referred to a grand celebration to be given Mrs. Stanton on the eightieth anniversary of her birth, when the pioneers among women in the professions would be seated upon the platform before the grand procession in the grandest and largest emporium of the sex. Auxiliary celebrations should be held in all the states.

More eloquence from Miss Shaw. Rev. Anna Shaw was the next speaker and she made a most eloquent address, in which she reviewed briefly the whole question. She was frequently interrupted with bursts of applause.

The session then ended in order that the delegates might enjoy a trip to beautiful Saltair in the afternoon.

The Trip to Saltair. The ladies of the Woman's Suffrage conference went to Saltair yesterday as the guests of Manager and Mrs. Clayton.

Two cars attached to the regular 2:15 p.m. train held the party, which consisted of Miss Anthony, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. Stansbury, Mrs. N. W. Clayton, Mrs. E. S. Taylor, Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, Mrs. Alonzo Hyde and Miss Laura Hyde, Mrs. Lydia Alder, Miss Florence Alder, Mrs. Heber J. Grant, Mrs. O. J. Salsbery, Judge and Mrs. C. W. Bennett, Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. Watson, of Parowan; Dr. Ellis Ship and Misses Olen and Ellis Ship. Miss Maud Pratt, Miss Pearl Kunsel, Miss Lucile and Mrs. Emma Sears, Mrs. Isaac Trumbo, Mrs. I. White, Mrs. Charlotte Kirby, Mrs. Margaret Calne, Hon. C. W. Penrose, Mr. F. Dewey Richards and others.

When the party arrived at Saltair, all the visitors were enthralled in their praise of the great pavilion, and the Salt Lake looked with approval upon the added beauty gained by means of the painting done there last season. The hour at the beach was spent in strolling about the pavilion, or enjoying the luncheon from well-filled hamper, and nearly a score, most of them ladies, took to the water. The temperature was 72 and the bathing as pleasant as in some of the cooler days of July.

Twenty all told made the ride home in the car that made the train ar-

WIRE ORDINANCE PASSED.

CITIZENS' COMPANY CAN NOW SET ITS POLES.

Water Ordered Turned on From Parley's Resolutions of Respect to Mrs. Richard P. Hoerr—General Business Transacted by the City Council.

The ordinance regulating the height of electric wires passed the council last night, and now the new company will go to work setting poles at once. All the members present voted for the ordinance, except Councilman Cohn, who fought the measure to the last.

O'Meara precipitated the contest by introducing a resolution allowing all wires now in use to remain as they are and permitting the new company to place its poles at such a height as might direct. This met with more opposition than he decided to withdraw it and call up the ordinance which has been on the table for some weeks.

The measure adopted at the meeting provides that all wires shall be placed at a uniform distance above the level of the street, the highest distance to be not to exceed 27 feet, and the lowest not to exceed 22 feet.

The health commissioner introduced a resolution for an ordinance providing for the licensing of garbage collectors, which was referred to the city attorney.

Appropriations amounting to $3,317.74 were passed.

The following is a synopsis of the other business transacted. The superintendent of waterworks was instructed to turn the water from Parley's canyon into the mains at once.

Reports of Officers. Mayor Baskin submitted the contract with the Colorado Fuel and Iron company for 5,000 feet of water pipe at $25 per foot, which was adopted.

Attorney Hoerr reported that there are 75 cases pending against the city, in which the aggregate amount of damages claimed is $50,000, not mentioning the $20,000 claimed at Provo. In addition, there are injunctions granted. The attorney has no typewriter, and asks that he be allowed one and a messenger to serve papers. Referred to the committee on education.

Engine Young reported contracts for boring in Emigration canyon for $18 per day, and one with the J. S. Morse & Sons company, for four inch drain pipe at $7.50 per 1,000 feet, both of which were adopted.

Dr. Dalby filed his request for emergency accommodations as mentioned in yesterday's issue, which was referred to the committee on fire and police.

Cheesman, Newell, McMillan, Young, Cohn, Hardy, O'Meara, Lynn, Watson and Mason were the members present the first named presiding, in the absence of the chairman.

Paul Fisher, local soliciting agent of the San Diego, Pacific & Eastern, died a prospectus, with a petition requesting the council to pass a resolution giving the promoters of the enterprise the right to sell bonds. The petition sets up that the council of San Diego has taken such action and that a similar deal on the part of Salt Lake will materially help.

The petition was referred to the committee on finance.

Edward F. Colborn, secretary of the chamber of commerce, sent in a communication asking the city council to assist in receiving the visitors to the silver congress, which was read and filed.

The Citizens' Electric Light company asked for permission to connect its wires with the city mains. A four-inch pipe, which was referred to the committee on waterworks, with power to act.

Miscellaneous. The Twenty-third Ward Irrigation association was granted permission to make ditches and sink a flowing well, provided the well is located on private property.

The petition of O. S. Bookler to the health department was reported on adversely by the sanitary committee and the health department instructed to enforce the ordinance. This report was adopted.

Councilman Morris offered the following resolution: Whereas, our fellow colleague Richard P. Hoerr, in the loss of his beloved wife, and in order that we may show our sympathy and respect in this, the saddest moment of his life, be it

Resolved, That it be the sense of the city council that we attend the funeral in a body.

On motion Mr. Cohn and Mr. Watson were appointed a committee to procure a conveyance to the funeral, and to attend and the resolution adopted.

"Plymouth Rock," the "wood ship Mayflower," Puritan maidens. Quaint costumes; "Trisilla" matinee.

CARRIAGE PARASOLS. This week in gloria suit at 70c. At F. AUERBACH & BRO.

Free Pills. Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken the system, but give tone to the stomach, and bowels greatly invigorated. Regular size 25 cents per box. Sold by Z. C. M. I. drug department.

All Free. Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised druggist and get a trial bottle free. Send your name and address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills free, as well as a copy of "Guide to Health and Household Instructer," free. All of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing. Z. C. M. I. drug department.

"The Girl I Left Behind Me." In that ever-popular American drama, "The Girl I Left Behind Me," which will be played at the Salt Lake theatre May 16 and 17, not only are the incidents presented with astonishing and dramatic effect, but the realism of everything is so convincing that the audience is carried along in the whirl and tumult of frontier life, feeling that it is part and parcel of everything that is going on, and experiences the same anxiety and desperate dread of the besieging Indians as the players in the drama seem to do. The broad sweep of art that makes the play so powerful in moving the emotions of the spectators have in them a suggestion of magnificent scenes of the drama are laid.

A FINE SHAKESPEAREAN DRAMA. Mr. Hannibal A. Williams Delights in a Large Audience. Mr. Hannibal A. Williams held a large and cultured audience spellbound by his rendition of "The Taming of the Shrew"

That Tired Feeling

Is a certain indication of impure and impoverished blood. If your blood could always be rich and pure, full of the red corpuscles upon which its vitality depends, you would never be weak, or Nervous! Bolls, pimples, scrofula, salt rheum, would never trouble you. But our mode of living, shut in all winter in poorly ventilated homes and shops, depletes the blood and there is loss of appetite, and weakness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard remedy for this condition. It purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood, overcomes that tired feeling, builds up the nerves and gives perfect health. Read this: "Our daughter, Blanche, when four years of age had a humor break out on her hands and face, which our physician pronounced eczema. If this ailment reached her face or hands they would swell up, look almost purple, and headed blisters would form and break, Discharging a watery fluid, and the burning and itching would drive her nearly wild. Unless we ceased her little hands she would tear patches of skin from her face and hands. We tried many doctors and many remedies and at last gave the case up as hopeless. But our daughter Cora tried Hood's Sarsaparilla, to cure a scrofulous lump near the left breast which caused her much pain and after taking 4 bottles it disappeared. Blanche, who is now eleven, had spent seven years of suffering, so I concluded to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took 5 bottles and her face is smooth and soft as a baby's, the color of a rose petal. Her hands are soft and white, where four months ago they were blue and red and calloused nearly like leather. I cannot express my gratitude by pen or mouth. It seems a miracle and our friends are amazed." MRS. ANNA L. CLARK, 401 E. 4th St., Duluth, Minn.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

N. B. Be sure to get Hood's and only Hood's.

At the First Congregational church last evening. Using none of the accessories called into play by the popular Mr. Williams, trusted entirely to voice modulations, facial expression and a few gestures to convey fully to his hearers the exquisite drollery and mock fury of Shakespeare's great comedy. With a moment's rest between the acts he gave the major portion of the five acts of the play, besides an introduction and interludes that were in themselves literary gems, holding the close attention of his audience for two and a half hours. Whereby impersonating loud and beautiful Petruchio, turgid Katherine, meek Bianca, sorely distressed Baptista, and the stammering haterdasher he carried his audience away on a way that always marks the master of his art.

Mr. Williams intends reading in cities between this and the Pacific coast, and it is to be hoped that on his return he will again favor our audience with some of his masterly renditions of a Shakespearean drama.

Ysaye Is Coming.

The Tribune writer who took it upon himself to deny the statement that arrangements had been made with Ysaye to give a grand concert at the tabernacle on May 30 at popular prices, and that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

The arrangements have practically been made, and the statement that Max Johnson, the violinist's manager, had not opened negotiations to that end, was either misinformed or willfully misstated the facts.

Bank of Salt Lake

General banking business transacted. Pays 5 per cent. interest on time and savings deposits. Safe deposit boxes for rent.

Established 1861. 150 Offices. The Oldest and Largest.

State Bank OF UTAH.

Capital, Fully Paid, $500,000. Surplus, $50,000.

Cor. Main and South Temple Streets, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

HEBER J. GRANT, President. WM. B. PRESTON, Vice-President. HEBER M. WELLS, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: Heber J. Grant, Isaac Barton, William B. Preston, Charles S. Burton, Joseph F. Smith, Philo T. Farnsworth, Abraham H. Cannon, Heber M. Wells, Spencer Clawson.

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS. Accounts Solicited. Large and Small. Special attention to Country Trade. Collections a specialty. Correspondence collected.

A. S. HILLS, President. Moses Thatcher, Vice-President. H. S. Young, Cashier.

U. S. Depository

DESERET NATIONAL BANK. Salt Lake City, Utah.

CAPITAL, $500,000. SURPLUS, $50,000.

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

B. H. Schettler.

Banking and Brokerage. 22 South East Temple St.

Real Estate, Stocks and Bonds Bought and Sold. Notary Work.

DIRECTORS: James T. Little, President. Moses Thatcher, Vice-President. Elias A. Smith, Cashier. Henry Dunwoody, George Romney, James Sharp, W. W. Ritor, John R. Barnes, John R. Winder, John C. Cutler, D. H. Peery, Frank W. Jennings, G. H. Edrington.

Five per cent. interest paid on savings deposits, compounded semi-annually. Accounts collected from 1st upward.

THE Deseret Savings Bank

Salt Lake City, Utah.

DIRECTORS: James T. Little, President. Moses Thatcher, Vice-President. Elias A. Smith, Cashier. Henry Dunwoody, George Romney, James Sharp, W. W. Ritor, John R. Barnes, John R. Winder, John C. Cutler, D. H. Peery, Frank W. Jennings, G. H. Edrington.

Five per cent. interest paid on savings deposits, compounded semi-annually. Accounts collected from 1st upward.

T. R. Jones AND COMPANY, BANKERS.

SALT LAKE CITY, - - UTAH.

WELLS, FARGO AND BANK. CO'S

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Established 1852.

Transacts a General Banking Business.

J. B. DOOLY, Cashier.

ESTABLISHED 1871.

McCormick & Co., BANKERS.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

General Banking Business Transacted.

Collections promptly made on all points in the West and Northwest. Careful attention given to consignments of Ore and Bullion. Exchange and Telegraphic Transfers on the Principal Cities of the United States and Europe.

PRINCIPAL CORRESPONDENTS: New York—Importers and Traders' National Bank, National Bank of North America, New York. Chicago—Commercial National Bank, San Francisco—First National Bank, Omaha—Omaha National Bank, St. Louis—National Bank of Commerce, Denver—Denver National Bank, Pueblo—First National Bank, Portland, Oregon—First National Bank, London—Messager's Bank (Limited), Lombard Street.

Capital, $200,000. Surplus, $20,000.

Commercial National Bank of Salt Lake City, corner of Second and Commercial Streets.

General Banking in All Its Branches.

DIRECTORS: G. M. Downey, President. Noble, V. Free, T. Marshall, M. V. P. O. J. Salsbery, John J. Daily, F. H. Auerbach, Myron C. Fox, J. W. Donnellan, Neilson Beeman, Cashier.

Bank of Salt Lake

General banking business transacted. Pays 5 per cent. interest on time and savings deposits. Safe deposit boxes for rent.

Established 1861. 150 Offices. The Oldest and Largest.

State Bank OF UTAH.

Capital, Fully Paid, $500,000. Surplus, $50,000.

Cor. Main and South Temple Streets, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

HEBER J. GRANT, President. WM. B. PRESTON, Vice-President. HEBER M. WELLS, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: Heber J. Grant, Isaac Barton, William B. Preston, Charles S. Burton, Joseph F. Smith, Philo T. Farnsworth, Abraham H. Cannon, Heber M. Wells, Spencer Clawson.

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS. Accounts Solicited. Large and Small. Special attention to Country Trade. Collections a specialty. Correspondence collected.

A. S. HILLS, President. Moses Thatcher, Vice-President. H. S. Young, Cashier.

U. S. Depository

DESERET NATIONAL BANK. Salt Lake City, Utah.

CAPITAL, $500,000. SURPLUS, $50,000.

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

B. H. Schettler.

Banking and Brokerage. 22 South East Temple St.

Real Estate, Stocks and Bonds Bought and Sold. Notary Work.

DIRECTORS: James T. Little, President. Moses Thatcher, Vice-President. Elias A. Smith, Cashier. Henry Dunwoody, George Romney, James Sharp, W. W. Ritor, John R. Barnes, John R. Winder, John C. Cutler, D. H. Peery, Frank W. Jennings, G. H. Edrington.

Five per cent. interest paid on savings deposits, compounded semi-annually. Accounts collected from 1st upward.

THE Deseret Savings Bank

Salt Lake City, Utah.

DIRECTORS: James T. Little, President. Moses Thatcher, Vice-President. Elias A. Smith, Cashier. Henry Dunwoody, George Romney, James Sharp, W. W. Ritor, John R. Barnes, John R. Winder, John C. Cutler, D. H. Peery, Frank W. Jennings, G. H. Edrington.

Five per cent. interest paid on savings deposits, compounded semi-annually. Accounts collected from 1st upward.

T. R. Jones AND COMPANY, BANKERS.

SALT LAKE CITY, - - UTAH.

WELLS, FARGO AND BANK. CO'S

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Established 1852.

Transacts a General Banking Business.

J. B. DOOLY, Cashier.

ESTABLISHED 1871.

McCormick & Co., BANKERS.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

General Banking Business Transacted.

Collections promptly made on all points in the West and Northwest. Careful attention given to consignments of Ore and Bullion. Exchange and Telegraphic Transfers on the Principal Cities of the United States and Europe.

PRINCIPAL CORRESPONDENTS: New York—Importers and Traders' National Bank, National Bank of North America, New York. Chicago—Commercial National Bank, San Francisco—First National Bank, Omaha—Omaha National Bank, St. Louis—National Bank of Commerce, Denver—Denver National Bank, Pueblo—First National Bank, Portland, Oregon—First National Bank, London—Messager's Bank (Limited), Lombard Street.

Capital, $200,000. Surplus, $20,000.

Commercial National Bank of Salt Lake City, corner of Second and Commercial Streets.

General Banking in All Its Branches.

DIRECTORS: G. M. Downey, President. Noble, V. Free, T. Marshall, M. V. P. O. J. Salsbery, John J. Daily, F. H. Auerbach, Myron C. Fox, J. W. Donnellan, Neilson Beeman, Cashier.

Bank of Salt Lake

General banking business transacted. Pays 5 per cent. interest on time and savings deposits. Safe deposit boxes for rent.

Established 1861. 150 Offices. The Oldest and Largest.

State Bank OF UTAH.

Capital, Fully Paid, $500,000. Surplus, $50,000.

Cor. Main and South Temple Streets, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

HEBER J. GRANT, President. WM. B. PRESTON, Vice-President. HEBER M. WELLS, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: Heber J. Grant, Isaac Barton, William B. Preston, Charles S. Burton, Joseph F. Smith, Philo T. Farnsworth, Abraham H. Cannon, Heber M. Wells, Spencer Clawson.

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS. Accounts Solicited. Large and Small. Special attention to Country Trade. Collections a specialty. Correspondence collected.

A