

Globe points out, Great Britain has already...

A dispatch to the Press Association from Liverpool...

Effect on Trade. The Press Association this evening says...

The Glasgow merchants do not expect a rise in the price of wheat...

MIDSUMMER MADNESS. War Between America and Europe an impossibility.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Daily Telegraph (National) will publish an editorial tomorrow...

The financial article in the Times tomorrow will refer to the depression on the stock exchange...

Discredit the Idea. The comparative slightness of the declines discredit the idea of war.

The Daily News (Liberal) has two editorials tomorrow's paper, the first of which deals with the compliance of Congress with President Cleveland's demand...

Plan Well Laid. The Daily News says of this: "It was hardly to be expected that they would do otherwise."

Kept Their Heads. The Daily News continues: "The Evening Post and the Evening World, respectively, the most cultivated and the most widely circulated organs in New York, join in condemning President Cleveland's credit has been lowered."

Believes the President Has Been Wrong. A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News says: "The Boersen Courier betrays a mischievous joy and warns England that she is at last brought into serious trouble."

Through a Howling Mob. The earliest report of trouble came from the Ridge avenue depot at 10.30. A car was crowded with passengers...

A New Woman. Then, led by the wife of the new motorman, an assault was made on the car by a woman who was not at all a regular car loader with police.

Inclined to Violence. What threatened to be a serious affair occurred at the Market street this afternoon. An immense crowd was congregated there.

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

distance of war. It is now a question of the national honor on which the president's government cannot budge an inch.

Yesterday we treat it as an exhibition of personal strong-headedness. Today the situation is altered. The treaty of commerce may prevail, but the difficulty rests entirely now with America. We dare not recede without shame.

The Post (Conservative) says: "If the utterances of Secretary Olney and President Cleveland mean anything, they would justify the recall of Sir Julian Pauncefote. The language of Secretary Olney's document would expose us to a demand to retire not only from Canada and Jamaica, but from Australia, India and Cape Colony."

The Glasgow merchants do not expect a rise in the price of wheat...

MIDSUMMER MADNESS. War Between America and Europe an impossibility.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Daily Telegraph (National) will publish an editorial tomorrow...

The financial article in the Times tomorrow will refer to the depression on the stock exchange...

Discredit the Idea. The comparative slightness of the declines discredit the idea of war.

The Daily News (Liberal) has two editorials tomorrow's paper, the first of which deals with the compliance of Congress with President Cleveland's demand...

Plan Well Laid. The Daily News says of this: "It was hardly to be expected that they would do otherwise."

Kept Their Heads. The Daily News continues: "The Evening Post and the Evening World, respectively, the most cultivated and the most widely circulated organs in New York, join in condemning President Cleveland's credit has been lowered."

Believes the President Has Been Wrong. A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News says: "The Boersen Courier betrays a mischievous joy and warns England that she is at last brought into serious trouble."

Through a Howling Mob. The earliest report of trouble came from the Ridge avenue depot at 10.30. A car was crowded with passengers...

A New Woman. Then, led by the wife of the new motorman, an assault was made on the car by a woman who was not at all a regular car loader with police.

Inclined to Violence. What threatened to be a serious affair occurred at the Market street this afternoon. An immense crowd was congregated there.

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

NOT A WHEEL. NOW MOVING. Second Day of the Street Car Strike an Exciting One.

MOBS AVOIDED THE GUNS. THEY APPEAR TO HAVE GREAT RESPECT FOR STEEL.

Women and Boys Take Part in the Troubles—Twenty-Five Hundred Policemen Now on Duty, and More Deputy Marshals Will Be Sworn In—Motormen Receive Blow After Blow, and Are Peeted With Rocks and Refuse.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—Today's events were a continuation of last night's, for neither the strike leaders, the traction officials or the mayor and other heads of departments sought their homes as usual last night.

An Ominous Calm. The story goes that these men had been sent for by the traction people to take the place of the strikers, but that the latter induced the newcomers to return to Baltimore and paid their fares.

Spasmodic Attempts. Throughout the day spasmodic attempts to keep several of the lines in motion were made, but in every instance the crawling cars bore more or less of the same fate.

Through a Howling Mob. The earliest report of trouble came from the Ridge avenue depot at 10.30. A car was crowded with passengers...

A New Woman. Then, led by the wife of the new motorman, an assault was made on the car by a woman who was not at all a regular car loader with police.

Inclined to Violence. What threatened to be a serious affair occurred at the Market street this afternoon. An immense crowd was congregated there.

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

Remarks upon the American lay and legal opinion, the editorial pro and con, the evidence of the levity with which Mr. Cleveland has adopted his aggressive policy is found in the fact that he actually reduced the Monroe doctrine to a mere slogan.

Former Disputes. A second editorial in the Daily News deals with former disputes with America and comes to the conclusion that other presidents before Cleveland have played the part, "well knowing that war would be the result."

Force the Only Tribunal Which Can Pass Upon the Question. BOSTON, Dec. 18.—J. H. Beale, Jr., professor of international law at Harvard, says it is erroneous to believe the president's assertions in the Venezuelan question are justified by international law.

ees of the Philadelphia Traction company, one of the branches, were paid today, and there was no disorderly demonstration.

More Deputies. The most important development of the afternoon was the issuance by United States Marshal Cotsebury of this notice:

A Letter Tells of Threatened Wholesale Massacres. "WE MAY ALL BE KILLED" THEY ARE WILLING TO DIE, IF IT IS GOD'S WILL.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS. Venezuelan Question Bobs Up Ever There.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The greater portion of the time of the caucus of Republican senators today was devoted to discussion of the Venezuelan question.

Among those who made speeches were Senators Lodge, Tamm, Chandler, Platt and Frye. All the speakers spoke of the situation as grave.

Mr. Wallace, the American consul, will soon start for the United States, and he would gladly take some of us along if he only dared.

Mr. Duhan frequently takes parties on credit to the Holy Land and Egypt. He has become an American citizen and for this reason fears he may lose his life if he returns to his native country.

Mr. Ghan declared last night that he would take a party of American tourists to the Holy Land the first week in January, despite the fact that his life may be in danger.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

MORE MURDERS ANTICIPATED. A Letter Tells of Threatened Wholesale Massacres. "WE MAY ALL BE KILLED" THEY ARE WILLING TO DIE, IF IT IS GOD'S WILL.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS. Venezuelan Question Bobs Up Ever There.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The greater portion of the time of the caucus of Republican senators today was devoted to discussion of the Venezuelan question.

Among those who made speeches were Senators Lodge, Tamm, Chandler, Platt and Frye. All the speakers spoke of the situation as grave.

Mr. Wallace, the American consul, will soon start for the United States, and he would gladly take some of us along if he only dared.

Mr. Duhan frequently takes parties on credit to the Holy Land and Egypt. He has become an American citizen and for this reason fears he may lose his life if he returns to his native country.

Mr. Ghan declared last night that he would take a party of American tourists to the Holy Land the first week in January, despite the fact that his life may be in danger.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

Just a Thousand. CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—Replying to a telegraphic message from United States Minister Terrell, the missionaries at Marsovan telegraphed yesterday that the Holy Land is safe, guarded by troops.

A letter dated December 2 has been received here from an American missionary at Marsovan, giving harrowing details of the horrors of the previous three days.

The chairman and two other places were occupied by the Democrats, the Republicans, the Squires and Sewell. The committee will probably be Senator Morgan of Alabama.

SEVEN KILLED, SIX INJURED. Explosion of a Steam Pipe on the Steamship St. Paul.

THE MEN WERE PARBOILED. Explosion Blows Out the Bulkhead.

Accident Will Delay the Sailing of the St. Paul For at Least a Week and Probably Longer—