Fine Showing of Large Bodies of Ore on Black Mountain.

RUMORED MERCUR DEAL Reported Sale of This Bonanza Mine Denied at the Company's Office.

THE MINES AT ALTA

The Tramway Opened and Ore Shipments Ready.

Dividends Declared—Heroic Action of Roy McDonald—The Mt. Nebo Special Car—The North Fork Placers—The Mammoth Started Up—Off For the Line District—Return of Hon. George W. E. Dorsey—Supt. J. D. Kendall Will Fish—The San Jose Mine, in Saunpete—Big Four Mine on Brush Creek—Ore at Bullion Receipts—Silver and Lead—Bank Clearings—Mining Notes and Personals.

For many years the prospector and miner has traveled up and down City Creek canyon and over Black Mountain, seven or eight miles north of this city, in the vain endeavor to find in this locality the ledge from which came the float that is scattered all over the mountain side and down the canyon.

On Black Mountain there were many evidences of good mineralization to be found, and small stringers of ore have been discovered and considerable money and time expended in their development, but all to no purpose, and work in that locality was abandoned some time ago. Still, "where there's life there's hope," and as if in fulfillment of this old adage, the main ledge of that region was discovered a month ago, but not until after it had been uncovered by the action of the elements, presumably by a storm, which washed away the debris and dirt and left exposed one of the finest bodies of silver-lead ore ever found in this western country.

The Herald, from time to time, has called attention to the possibilities existing in the mountains east and north of this city, and from all indications its predictions in this respect are about to be verified in the discovery of the Free Bullion group of claims on Black Mountain, and also of the group adjoining, owned by E. W. Genter of this city.

There is an old saying that "distance lends enchantment to the view," and this has applied to Salt Lake as well as to people of other places; for there is hardly a person of repute in this city that has taken any stock in the reported mine, or, at least, "within our very gates," and as a result the prospector has met with but little encouragement in the development of his location. On the other hand, however, and a man of means, has become imbued with the idea that in the Hot Springs district there will yet be found another Ontario, and he will not rest until he has proved his theory to be correct or erroneous.

This gentleman is C. L. Dignowity of San Antonio, Texas, who recently moved his family to this city, and who has met with success in Old Mexico and in nearly every camp of promise in the United States and Canada.

Mr. Dignowity visited the new finds on Black Mountain a few days ago, and was so well pleased with what he saw there that he at once purchased Clarence Jones' interest in the three claims comprising the Free Bullion group, and also his entire interest in another claim adjoining.

This deposit, Mr. Dignowity says, is a wonder, and he is of the opinion that it is the richest in this region. It describes the ledge as being 150 feet in width, the average assay value of which is 64 per cent lead, 1.5 ounces in silver and $150 in gold to the ton, and being its trend on either side, the country is covered with float that can be gathered up in large quantities.

For some time past three shifts have been employed in cross-cutting the ledge in order to demonstrate its extent, and now work has begun in driving a seventy-five foot tunnel, which will cut the ore body at a vertical depth of 125 feet, and it is believed that at this depth the gold values will increase.

The group is also being surveyed for patent, and before falling weather comes, it is expected that this property will become a heavy shipper.

This ledge, according to Mr. Dignowity, must have been a blind lead until a snowslide or a cloudburst washed away the soil and debris which covered it, which accounts, to a large extent, for the fact that it was never before discovered.

E. W. Genter also has a valuable group of claims adjoining the Free Bullion ground, and he is satisfied that in it he has the making of a great producer.

Elsewhere in Hot Springs district some very promising discoveries have been made, and it is believed that Salt Lake will boast of her bonanzas almost within the shadow of Heron.

Near the Twin Peaks, just east of the city, there is a promising property, which shows good gold values. In Emigration canyon, also, there are several fine prospects from which encouraging assays in gold have been obtained; and in Dry canyon, between City creek and Emigration canyons, rock was obtained last week in the Snelling claim, owned by J. J. Snell et al., that gave assay returns of $11 in gold to the ton.

In these latter properties it is believed that all that is needed is depth to uncover bodies of ore as large and

THE MERCUR DEAL

Reported Sale of This Magnificent Dividend Paying Property. "Did you hear that the Mercur mine had been sold?" This and similar expressions were heard all over the city yesterday by a Herald representative; but beyond this no satisfactory evidence was secured showing that such a sale had been made.

One Salt Laker, however, received a telegram yesterday from New York, which stated that the mine had been sold on a basis of $750 a share, and that a large sum of money had been paid on the deal.

There is no office in this city the reported sale was flatly denied. Mr. Helms said there was nothing in it. Mr. Brown, in answer to interrogatories on the subject, said that he had nothing to say about it, and that there was any truth in the rumor that he certainly would know of it, while Mr. Aitris said there was nothing in it, "on the whole."

It is believed by many, however, that "there's a hen on it," but whether this is the case or not The Herald cannot authoritatively state.

There is feeling prevalent in mining circles that the Golden Gate is soon to have the mill concerning which so much has been said and written, and it is stated that the plant will be in operation within ninety days.

The foundation for this rumor is assigned to the fact that two of the company's most trusted representatives have just proposed themselves of late, and it is stated that within the past few days the Salt Lake & Mercur Railroad company has doubled its force and the construction of the spur from the Mercur depot to the Golden Gate mine, over which the machinery for the plant will be transported without unloading in transit.

Unless all signs fail Mercur will witness more active and prosperous times before snow falls again.

THE MINES OF ALTA

Considerable Activity in This Famous Old Silver Camp.

Together with other partially abandoned old mining camps in Utah, Alta, at the head of Little Cottonwood canyon, has been considerably worked of late on account of its rich gold and silver deposits, and many prospectors, capitalists and miners are finding their way to this famous mine.

The Mammoth mine and mill started up yesterday after a close-down for the holidays. The prospecting under the mill will make a great showing the coming year. It was rumored on the streets yesterday that the mine will pay a special dividend on the 20th inst. All knowledge of any such intention was disclaimed by the company's officers.

A special car with thirty to forty Montana tourists and mine seekers aboard, will leave for Mt. Nebo this morning. The car is under the supervision of Messrs. Smith and McDonald, of Butte, agents for the Mt. Nebo Land and Irrigation company. E. G. Rogmon and G. S. Poynter, the promoters of the enterprise, will accompany the party and do all in their power to make the visit a pleasant one.

J. H. Hedges came in last Saturday from the San Jose mine, in Esant canyon, White Pine county, Nevada, and today he will start on his way home, accompanied by John Heinrich and Will Brown. No mill-run trace has been made as yet on San Jose ore, but the men are engaged in cleaning out the mine preparatory to starting in on the ore. A test will be made, however, soon after the arrival of Messrs. Heinrich, Hedges and Brown.

Hon. George W. E. Dorsey has returned from his Nebraska trip, where he says he has secured a lease on the yield of goldmines will be large this year. Since his return to Salt Lake Mr. Dorsey has been busy with the placer claims near Salmon City, Idaho, in which, with a number of Salt Lakeers, he is engaged in prospecting. Dr. King's New Discovery completed her and she says it saved her life.

Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida street, has been cured of a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Z. C. M. I. Drug dept. Regular price, 25c and 50c.

Frank Harkness has returned to Salt Lake from his eastern trip. He is glad to be home again, and thinks that Utah is the most lovely spot in the world. W. J. D. Kendall, superintendent of the Centennial-Bureau prospect, for San Francisco yesterday, from which he will go to Oregon, where he will spend some time. He knows just where the trout are the largest and most plentiful. S. D. Colton, who owns a controlling interest in the Big Four mine at the head of Brush creek, is going to put on a force of twenty men next week to take out ore. Unless all signs fail Mercur will witness more active and prosperous times before snow falls again.

Representative James Andrus of Washington county, director of the Utah and California company, is in the city for a few days. The Rio Grande Western will run an excursion from the San Juan country, Colorado, to Saltair on August 8. Very low rates will be made and a big crowd is expected.

General Mansger Abram H. Cannon of the Utah and California, who returned from Nevada last week, after a tour of inspection, and is now in Saltair, is reported by the company in that state, has been confined to his home since his return with a polypus in one of his ears. He had an operation performed and is expected to be out in a few days.

HILL MAKES AN "AWFUL" THREAT

New Yorkers Will Probably Bolt the Convention. SEVERAL DEMANDS MADE SAYS DEMOCRACY STANDS FOR BIMETALLISM.

Bland a Man of the People in All That the Term Implies—Party Lines Eliminated in Colorado—Governor Boies' Chances as Seen by the National Delegate From Iowa.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Times-Herald today prints the following views of the most prominent delegates who are here attending the Democratic national convention:

"New York will walk out of the convention in case Michigan is thrown out by the free silver men. It would not be Democratic to be a silent witness to such an outrage. This convention has no right to override the decision of the state convention and pass upon the legality of the instructions given to me. I do not intend to do so. I will vote a Democratic principle."

"It would not do to discuss the temporary chairmanship at this time. It has not been offered me. I could, therefore, have had no opportunity to refuse to accept the honor. There was no conference between my friends and myself over the probable reception the silver men might give the presentation of a gold medal of the place. It is one of the matters that are giving me the least worry."

"Democracy has been always for bimetalism. I once wrote a letter—probably several of them—in which I advocated bimetalism by international agreement. This seems to be impossible at this time. The party, as I know it, does not intend to do so. There is but one alternative—gold. I favor this against the other. I think at this time that independent bimetalism is impossible."

"There is going to be a struggle in the convention. I think the first fight will arise over the right of certain gold delegates to seats. It is against all rule that the credentials committee should supersede the state convention. I shall speak on this point as soon as the issue is raised. There must be no arbitrary action by the apparent majority. We are going to fight to the end. We are all Democrats and want to save Democratic traditions."

"DAVID B. HILL."

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE. "I have served four years in congress with Mr. Bland, and there witnessed his earnest devotion to the cause of silver. I have seen him work in the winter and in the summer, in behalf of that cause, and I have seen him do with that creation of his peaceful revolution than anything else that has happened in the last twenty years. His name and record will make a platform. The people in this campaign want to know that the man they vote for as president is in good faith in his advocacy of silver. Mr. Bland is a California pioneer, also a Nevada pioneer. In these two states he wielded a pick and shovel and since his return to Missouri from the west he has been engaged in occupation of a farmer. So we have in him a man of the people, springing from the ranks and in sympathy with their aspirations. This is a party of the masses against Wall street, and it is fitting that a man chosen from the masses who has rendered such service should be thus chosen by the people."

"W. W. FOOLE."

"We are here under practical instructions for free silver at 16 to 1, outside of foreign interests and we want a candidate who will represent the masses. This contest favors the nomination of a Democrat."

"W. W. FOOLE."

"National Delegate from California." PARTY LINES ELIMINATED. "The silver nominee will carry Colorado by 90,000 majority. The fealty to state and national interests has eliminated the party lines in Colorado. There is only one party there now and that is a 'silver.' Bland would be an acceptable nominee."

"C. S. THOMAS."

"National Committeeman and Chairman Colorado Delegation." ANY GOOD MAN. "Bland or any silver Democrat can carry Colorado and the silver states. Silver forces should combine. United we stand, divided we fall."

"NATIONAL DELEGATE FROM COLORADO."

WHO CARES? "Mr. Whitney and his forces should stand by Nebraska and Michigan in the contests for seats. The Nebraska delegation does not want Bryan for temporary chairman."

"EUGENIUS MARTIN."

HAS FAITH IN BOIES. "Governor Boies is sure to be the nominee of the coming campaign because of his availability and strength in all sections of the country with all classes. He hails from a Republican state whose majority he has twice overcome and who can again overcome. He is strong with the German people and can poll their entire vote because of his great fight in Iowa for personal liberty. He is particularly strong with the farmers of the great west because of his celebrated speech in New York and his persistent recognition of their interests. He is strong with the laboring people, because he was the first governor in the United States to recognize a labor leader in his appointments and has shown great interest in the cause at all times and places. He is the candidate of the masses; is right on all the issues, silver, tariff, labor, agriculture, and can defeat McKinley and the gold standard."

"NATIONAL DELEGATE FROM IOWA."

"THE FINANCIAL PLANK. "The financial plank should declare: 'First—For the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1. 'Second—Eternal hostility to the sale of United States bonds in time of peace. 'Third—The destruction of the national banking system. 'Who will nominate Boies.'"

He Denies It.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Senator Hill was credited in some of the papers this morning as making a signed statement that the gold standard men would be advised by him to bolt the convention if the Michigan gold delegation was unseated. To a representative of the Associated Press, Hill said today: "The statement is absolutely false. The only thing I said was embodied in an interview I gave your association yesterday. I never said anything to give any
